HOMEcoming

"This is the greatest Homecoming we've ever had." "Hi, there, Mary, I haven't seen you since 1933 when we shed those hot robes, tucked our new diploma under our arms, and you went off to teach school at Po-Dunk." "Tell me all about yourself."

"Don't tell me you have four grand children! "Say, what's happening around here?" "Remember the time the snow came up to the top of the window at Woman's Hall?" "What about the cow in the auditorium, Jim?"

"Did you say you were in insurance?"

"How about looking at this spot on my neck; the doctor at home doesn't seem to be able to do anything about it."

"Mother was the first Homecoming Queen."

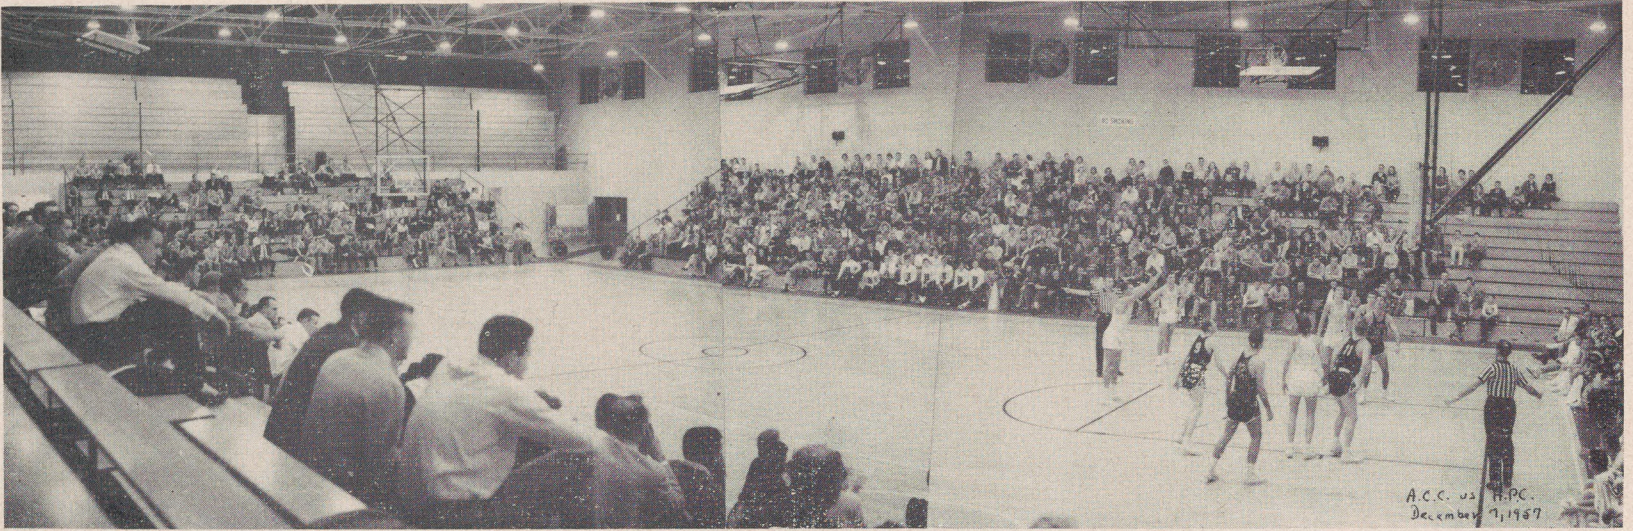

"See you next year at Homecoming."

These and many other comments like them were overheard at Homecoming last year. It has been a long time now and we are anxious to have you come home again. The present student body, the faculty, and the staff give you a very special, personal, invitation. As a matter of fact, we will all be disappointed if you do not come. Let us make this a time to remember by visiting with old and new-found friends.

We Will See You the Week-End of February 7-8.

DON'T DISAPPOINT US.

Entered as second-class matter April 14, 1938 at the post office at High Point, North Carolina under the act of August 24, 1912.

EXCAVATION FOR NEW GIRLS DORMITORY COMPLETED

The excavation, footing and plumbing work preparatory to the laying of the foundation for the new dormitory for women on the H.P.C. campus has been completed.

The new three-story building is being added to the physical plant to enable the College to enroll a greater number of the young women who make application. It will be constructed back of and parallel with Woman's Hall, forming a large H with Susanna Wesley Hall.

The new dormitory will furnish facilities for housing 92 additional girls, providing modern study rooms, living quarters and recreational facilities. Each of the 46 two-occupant rooms will be equipped with twin beds, dressers, individual desks, large closet area, lavatory and fluorescent lighting.

The construction is progressing at such a rate that this new dormitory will be completed and ready for use by the beginning of the Fall term opening Sept. 12.

FORSYTH COUNTY CHAPTER HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The Forsyth County Chapter of the H.P.C. Alumni Association held a dinner meeting at Centenary Methodist Church in Winston-Salem on January 17. Kelsey Schuyler, the chapter president, said that there were approximately seventy-five members present.

Dr. Dale Gramley, President of Salem College, was guest speaker for the event. Dr. Gramley emphasized the value of, and the need for higher education today and urged the group to support their College in every way possible.

Grady H. Whicker, Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association, Dean Harold E. Conrad, Coach Virgil Yow and Louise Adams brought greetings from H.P.C.

A highlight of the meeting was the announcement of the selection of the Forsyth County Alumnus of the year. This award was presented to Mrs. Elna C. Rose '50 for her loyal support of her college, church and community, and in recognition of her fine work with handicapped children and in Winston-Salem City Schools.

Rev. John R. Sills '53 was elected president of the chapter for the coming year.

SEEN AND HEARD AT HOMECOMING

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association held a luncheon meeting in the private dining room of Harrison Hall during Homecoming and one of the members was heard to remark, "Well, this certainly made a beautiful dining room but I never expected to do anything like this. Who would have thought, a few years ago, that we would sit down to a steak dinner in the girls' dressing room today?"

Bill Hester '39, a former H.P.C. basketball guard who was noted for his ability to "stay with his man," was heard to remark while watching the action during the H.P.C.-Catawba basketball game. "These boys move fast. Do you suppose Pepper Martin, Hugh Hampton and the rest of us could keep up a pace that fast if we were a few years younger?"

Marc Rogers '49 of CBS Television, Radio City, New York, was on the campus during the Homecoming week-end and was delighted to see the progress H.P.C. has made in the last few years.

Bill Bumgardner '50, now living in Florida, arranged to finish his business in Atlanta, Ga. in time to come to High Point to visit with classmates and friends during Homecoming.

The Class of 1941, as usual, returned to the campus for Homecoming in good numbers and had quite a reunion of their own. Al Earle came from New Jersey. Elmer Cashatt, "Harpo" Clifton, John W. Farlow, Adam L. Gibson, Burke and Lucy Neal Koontz, Jean Rankin Pleasants, "Whitey" Watts and several others were seen on the campus.

During the Homecoming dinner in Harrison Hall an alumnus was heard to remark, "Why, this has made a better cafeteria than it did a gymnasium more than twenty years ago."

After a basketball game, which did not let anyone relax until the final whistle had blown and H.P.C. had won by a narrow margin, the students and Alumni gathered in Harrison Hall where, as "One big happy family," they enjoyed dancing and fellowship together. It was wonderful to see the Alumni a part of the H.P.C. family again and it was even more wonderful to see the students striving in every way possible to make the Alumni really feel they had come back home.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT WITH HOMECOMING QUEEN

HOMECOMING 1958

Grady H. Whicker

Homecoming for 1958 is over, but the excitement of it will be remembered for a long time. The hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Cooke, dinner in newly-decorated Harrison Hall, the festive crowning of the Queen, a thriller of a ball game (which, incidentally, left everyone on the edge of his seat), and the Homecoming dance by soft candle light; these were things that made the campus ring with song and laughter. THESE WE WILL REMEMBER, but there were other things which were more meaningful.

One Alumnus who returned after many years absence said, "I didn't know coming home would be so much fun. Everything has certainly changed and yet there is the SPIRIT of H.P.C. that will never change. I'm so glad I came. You can be sure that from now on it will be an annual event in my life."

Every year we have said, "This is the biggest and best yet. And every year it has been true. This year Homecoming exceeded everything we had dreamed of because every class from 1927, the first, to 1957 was represented. Most of us went to bed early Sunday morning with a nostalgic feeling of having had an experience that we will not soon forget.

Plans already are being made for next year. Send us your suggestions as to how we can make it a greater success. We are expecting Homecoming in 1959 to be the EVENT of the year.

HELP WANTED

The nominating committee would like to have your suggestions as to who they should nominate for your Alumni Association officers for the coming year. Please send your suggestions to them in care of the Alumni Office.

Those inducted from the senior class were: Beverly Deal, Gastonia; Aubrey Flynt, Winston-Salem; Patsy Hobbs Freeze, Kannapolis; Pat Jordan, High Point; Fred Macon, Greensboro; Murphy Osborne, Elkin. "LIVING ENDOWMENT"

He who seeks to be rich will not be benevolent; he who wishes to be benevolent will not be rich.
—Chinese proverb

An endowment fund is an invested fund which gives a specific amount of interest each year to defray college expenses. Only a few people are able to donate such large sums, and the more astute ones plan for the disposition of their estates in this fashion in order to avoid high taxes.

The trend in education, encouraged by our government, is what is called "living endowment." Many more people have a chance to participate, and the amount of the gift can be used immediately. For example, a contribution of $50.00 in the new program would represent 4 per cent of $1,250.00. Friends of High Point College are free to contribute small sums regularly each year in our program of living endowment.

Everyone wants to be connected with a living and progressive institution. High Point College is a living and progressive Liberal Arts College, working to improve its curriculum and to attract well-qualified men and women to its professorial staff. To this end we invite your gifts for living endowment.

The goal of the Department of Endowment and Development of High Point College is a living endowment of large and small gifts each year from alumni and friends. Thus giving will be a blessing both to the donors and to our College. Mutual trust of this kind will keep High Point College on a strong economic basis, and our benevolent friends will be able to see what their gifts do for the College from year to year.

—Herbert H. Peterson

MAY QUEEN CROWNED AT SPRING FORMAL

Pat Beam, senior from Cherryville, N. C., was crowned May Queen and reigned over the annual H.P.C. May Day celebration held May 12.

The May Day festivities featured a formal dance in Harrison Hall with music by the orchestra of Claude Thornhill, assisted by the "Crew Cuts." The motif for the decorations was taken from the colorful period of the antebellum South, with an old colonial plantation as the setting.

VOTE FOR THE ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR

The Executive Committee of the HPC Alumni Association decided, some time ago, to select an ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR. Realizing that there were among the Alumni of High Point College many whose achievements in their chosen professions were noteworthy, and whose services to their communities were outstanding, the committee felt that it would be fitting to honor an outstanding alumnus each year.

It is hoped that each alumnus receiving this bulletin will give this very serious thought and will send the Alumni Office the name and the qualifications of the person you consider best qualified to receive the honor this year. The final selection will be made by a committee after careful study of the qualifications of each person nominated, and the winner will be announced at the Alumni Dinner.

GRANT SELECTED "TAR HEEL OF THE WEEK"

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate J. Marse Grant '41 on being selected "Tar Heel of the Week" earlier this spring.

Grant was called the unofficial press agent for about 830,000 Tar Heel Baptists and their unofficial public relations man since his appointment as editor of "Charity and Children" in 1949. He says that he has a "firm conviction that religious denominations need to improve their public relations in every way possible" and he is doing much to support his convictions.

In addition to putting out 52,000 copies of "Charity and Children" each week Marse travels about 25,000 miles a year, fills a pulpit virtually every Sunday and makes two or three other addresses each week. He also contributes numerous free lance stories and pictures of interesting events in the State's newspapers.

While attending H.P.C. Marse worked an eight-hour shift in a mill, served as director of publicity for the College, was editor of the Hi-Po his senior year and was player-manager of the mill's basketball team. In spite of all of these "extracurricular" activities he finished college with Magna Cum Laude honors and was voted the best all-round man of his class by the faculty.

A year out of H.P.C., he married the former Marian Gibbs of Greensboro and they have three daughters. In 1960 the Grants plan to direct a tour to the Golden Anniversary meeting of the Baptist World Alliance in Rio de Janeiro.

Grant's schedule prevents him from being a great joiner. He is a member of the Thomasville Rotary Club, serves on the Governor's Advisory Committee on Education, a special inter-racial school committee and the City Planning Committee of Thomasville.

"DEATH OF A SALESMAN" CAST BY TOWER PLAYERS

"Death of a Salesman" was presented by the Tower Players on May 8th and 9th. The curtain went up at 8:00 P.M. and a cast of thirteen people presented the play.

The cast included Sonny Thornton, Aaron Moss, Mark Rose, Dr. Hudgins, H. E. Coble, Jr., Bill Damon, Fred Barber, Tony Adams, Frances Lewis, Anne Bennett, Edna White, Jackie Smith, and Judith Ward.

"Death of a Salesman," written by Arthur Miller, deals with slow deterioration of a man who is 'miscast' in life. The conflict evolves around Willie, the salesman, and his son Biff.

S.G.A. GIVEN CONTROL OVER STUDENT FUNDS

In a surprise move last week, College administration officials announced that the Student Government Association would be given full control over student funds. The new arrangement will probably go into effect with the fall term.

J. H. Allred, Dean of Students, made the announcement to S.G.A. representatives last week and said that the action was taken to give students more responsibility.

The fund, which consists of present student activity fees, excluding such items as intramural and athletic fees, will be given to the charge of the S.G.A. treasurer. No definite arrangement has been made concerning the portion of student activity fees earmarked for the Hi-Po and Zenith. However, because both student publications have some source of revenue, it is expected that a special system will have to be worked out concerning their finances. There is yet a possibility that student publications will be given full charge over their portion of the student activity fee.

According to Dean Allred the present student contingency fund, which has been used in past years to underwrite floundering Zenith and Hi-Po budgets, will be turned over to the S.G.A. Dean Allred pointed out, however that the student body would be on its own in financial matters from now on, and that the college would not underwrite any part of a student body deficit.

If enrollment at High Point College remains the same, the S.G.A. will be responsible for some $10,000 yearly. Under the present division of the student activity fee, the S.G.A. will receive $10.80 per student per year, which will be distributed as follows:

ALPHA PHI OMEGA INSTALLED AT H.P.C.

Delegates from both State and U.N.C. were on hand April 27, 1958 for the formal charter presentation and initiation of the Mu Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the National Service Fraternity, at High Point College.

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega is "to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop friendship and to promote service to humanity." There are four fields of activity embodied in the program of A.P.O. They are: Service to the Student Body and Faculty, Service to Youth and Community, Service to members of the fraternity, and Service to the nation as participating citizens.

Alpha Phi Omega crosses all lines of honorary, social and professional fraternities. There are two fundamental requirements for active membership in Alpha Phi Omega: first, that a student has previous experience in the Boy Scouts; and second, that he prove an earnest desire to render service to others. A.P.O. is the largest Greek Letter fraternity in the nation with over 300 chapters in colleges and universities all over the country.

J. H. Allred, Dean of Students, who has offered several service projects for consideration stated, "I believe this organization will benefit the entire campus."

Officers were installed by William S. Roth, National First Vice President. EDITOR'S NOTE:

Because of the power and scope of Dr. Dennis H. Cooke's final message to the 1958 graduates of High Point College and the many, many requests for a copy, we are publishing it in its entirety, hoping to pass along to you, the Alumni, its timely impact.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

It has been my custom for years to say a final word at this point in each graduation program to the graduates who are about to leave these halls of learning. Realizing that the graduates approach this moment with mixed emotions, it is not easy for me to decide what I shall say to you. Always I have tried to make these statements with the utmost sincerity and have tried to make each of them express my true feelings. This moment is no exception.

In trying to decide upon a statement for this occasion, many, many thoughts ran through my mind. Which one to lift up? Usually the process becomes one of elimination. But the statement for this moment was arrived at differently. Only a few days ago, in the quiet of my study at home while I was preparing some material for this graduation program, the decision as to what I shall say to you would not come. Then, as if by divine guidance, I sat down at my organ and began to leaf through some of the sheets of music. Suddenly my eyes came to rest on "The Lord's Prayer" which has always been one of my favorites. I played it through once, twice, and then again, and again. One of the strains continued to linger in my ears, "Give me this day our daily bread." I played this strain over and over again. Suddenly I had the answer. This was it. I sincerely believe that I was guided to speak to you briefly on "Give us this day our daily bread."

So many different meanings and interpretations can be placed upon the words "Our daily bread." Your college degree should have whetted your appetites to the extent that you want more daily bread than before you came to college; that you demand of yourself a better life and a life of service; and that you will be satisfied with no less. Your standards for yourself and for all of those about you are higher than before you came to college. If this has not been one of the products of your degree, it has failed. You have cheated yourself.

Now that you have the degree, will you take the attitude that "The world owes me a living, and that I am now out to collect it?" Will you embrace the socialistic theory of government and of life that a part of my neighbor's goods is by right mine, and that I am due to receive something for nothing? Do you feel "now that I am a college graduate the world will beat a path to my door; that the world will be coming to me instead of my trying to go to it and serve it?" Woe unto you if you embrace this philosophy. The world owes you nothing. On the contrary, you are now more indebted to it than ever before.

When you ask the good Lord for your daily bread let me urge that you think of your daily bread as the development and the most effective use of your talents so that you can give to others more service, better service, and fuller measure. With this interpretation of your daily bread, you are in debt more than you have ever been. God expects more from you now than He ever expected before you earned a college degree. Your parents and your friends expect more. The world expects more of you — a college graduate. It requires no stretch of your imagination to believe that a wealthy man will be held accountable for the way in which he uses, and the service to which he puts his wealth on this earth. But how many of you have thought about your accountability for your talents and the full use thereof? It is a sobering thought, isn't it?

St. Matthew tells us that some seed fell by the way-side, and the fowls came and devoured them up, some fell upon stony places, and some fell into good ground, and brought forth good fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, and some thirty fold. He says further that the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. Unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; every man according to his several abilities. My young friends, as evidenced by your degrees, you have more than the one talent and, therefore, you should achieve more than the thirty fold. Some of you have achieved the five talents, and you should produce an hundred fold. Yes, God has given you your daily bread in full measure. Now what will you do with it?

ENDOWMENT AND DEVELOPMENT COLUMN

Herbert H. Peterson

YOU AUTO READ THIS . . .

Alfred North Whitehead once said, "In the conditions of modern life, the rule is absolute; the race which does not value trained intelligence is doomed."

In recent months, the American people have begun to re-learn the truth of Whitehead's statement. For years the nation has taken trained intelligence for granted—or, worse, sometimes shown contempt for it, or denied the conditions under which trained intelligence might flourish. That millions are now recognizing the mistake—and recognizing it before it is too late—is fortunate.

Knowing how to solve the problem, however, and knowing how to provide the means for solution, is more difficult.

But again America is fortunate. There is, among us, a group who not only have been ahead of the general public in recognizing the problem but who also have the understanding and the power, now, to solve it. That group is the college alumni and alumnae.

Today, this partner and champion of American higher education has an opportunity for service unparalleled in our history. He recognizes, better than anyone, the essential truth in the statement to which millions, finally, now subscribe: that upon higher education depends, in large part, our society's physical and intellectual survival. He recognizes, better than anyone else, the truth in the statement that the race can attain even loftier goals ahead, by strengthening our system of higher education in all its parts. As an alumnus—first by understanding, and then by exercising his leadership—he holds within his own grasp the means of doing so.

Rarely has one group in our society — indeed, every member of the group — had the opportunity and the ability for such high service.

LETTER TO EDITOR OF THE BULLETIN

"In our hearts we hold the memory of the place we love the best," so begins the Panther Fight song. I do hold fond memories of my days at H. P. C. and I am looking forward to a renewed acquaintance through the Bulletin.

This spring I spent a week visiting several girls in North Carolina who were at H. P. C. at the same time that I was. When I returned home my vocal chords were exhausted and my brain overflowing with news of the past ten years.

A brief trip around the High Point College campus left me in a state of near shock. The little College I attended has burst forth in every direction with new buildings and there are not even any vacant parking spaces. (Wonder if she means for cars or couples—Editor)

The years have turned my hair gray and the order of society has engulfed me in women's clubs, circle meetings, bridge games and dish-washing, but I shall continue to hoard memories of a carefree youth who started the long process of growing up at a magic spot called High Point College.

Rev. John R. Sills, chapter president, hopes that all Alumni in the area will bring their families (and a well filled basket of eats) to the Park, August 24, for an afternoon of recreation, fellowship and food.

KEY LEADERS FOR W.N.C.
HIGHER EDUCATION DRIVE

Key leaders have been announced for a $3,000,000 campaign which Methodist churches of Western North Carolina will launch in November for capital funds for Methodist colleges and student activities on tax-supported campuses.

The Commission on Christian Higher Education, after receiving a go-ahead order from the WNC Conference session at Lake Junaluska, made the first in a series of appointments for a campaign which will include an every-member canvass in each of the 1,116 churches in the conference area.

Conference chairmen for the campaign include Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, resident bishop of the Charlotte area, clerical chairman; Edwin L. Jones of Charlotte, lay chairman; Mrs. Clarence C. Cranford of Asheboro, woman's division; J. C. Cowan, Jr., of Greensboro, advance gifts; Miss Beatrice Cobb of Morganton, public relations; and Richard G. Stockton of Winston-Salem, treasurer.

Dr. Wilson O. Weldon of Charlotte is chairman of the sponsoring Commission on Christian Higher Education, and Dr. Fletcher Nelson of Morganton, director.

Colleges participating in the campaign will be Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point College and Duke University Divinity School, along with Wesley Foundations conducting Methodist student activities at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone, and Western Carolina College at Cullowhee.

Plans call for a mobilization meeting of representatives of all churches to be held in Charlotte September 12, followed by meetings in each of the 11 districts of the conference during the period September 21-October 5.

BLICKENSDEFER GUEST CONDUCTOR

A recent issue of Bandstand, a newspaper published in Memphis, Tennessee and dedicated to the encouragement of all musical activities in the mid-South, told of the fine work Olin Blickensderfer '41 is doing as director of bands at Memphis State University.

"As a component part of the first Memphis State University Festival of Arts, the Memphis State University Symphonic Band presented a program of contemporary compositions.

Olin R. Blickensderfer, M. S. U. director of bands, skillfully conducted the young musicians thru the difficult concert, and gave the public a first-hand view of the fine work being accomplished by the Memphis State University Department of Music."

Blickensderfer was selected as the 1958 guest conductor of the eighty-five-piece All-County Symphonic Band from Shelby County, Tennessee.

NEW LOOK FOR DORMS

The College is now in a vigorous drive to make physical improvements in all of the dormitories on the campus before the opening of the fall term in September. Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of the college, has announced that, in addition to the construction of a new dormitory for women, various improvements are now being made in McCulloch and Harrison Halls for men and in Woman's Hall and Susanna Wesley Hall for women.

McCulloch Hall for men, commonly known as the Boys' Dorm, is having concrete flooring put in on the first and second floors. This is replacing the wooden flooring which has been removed in the last month. Asphalt tile will be laid as the floor covering on all three stories of the building. In addition to the flooring, new doors and locks will be placed in the rooms.

Harrison Hall, which houses the cafeteria and also has relatively new men's dormitory rooms in the basement, will have practically the same improvements as McCulloch Hall. Asphalt tile will be laid on the concrete floors, and ceramic tile will go into the showers.

Woman's Hall will also have some changes in the flooring. Rooms on the first and second floors will be sanded and refinished. As usual during the summer months, rooms will be repainted where needed, not only in Woman's Hall but in the Susanna Wesley Hall for women as well.

GRADUATES GO TO KOREA

Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Tabor and their son, Charles, have sailed from San Francisco for Korea. The Tabors will go to Yokohama and will then continue to Korea where they will be medical missionaries representing the Southern Baptist Convention.

DOCKERY PRINCIPAL OF OAK VIEW SCHOOL

It has been announced that L. Sam Dockery '52 has been selected to serve as principal of Oak View School, near High Point, for the next year.

A graduate of High Point College, Dockery earned his M.A. degree at the University of North Carolina in 1955. He was principal of Low Gap High School in Surry County from 1952 until 1953.

Since then he has served at Lawsonville High School, Stokes County; Pinnacle High School, Stokes County; and Summerfield School, Guilford County until 1957. During 1957 he traveled for a jewelry company.

He is married to the former Miss Carolyn Billings and they have two children, Sammy, 8, and Cary, 5.

CECIL GOES TO HOLY LAND

The Rev. J. Harley Cecil '48 has left by plane for a two-month trip which will take him to the Holy Land for a travel seminar. He expected to visit Rome, Egypt and possibly Lebanon before arriving in Jerusalem.

Around thirty Methodist ministers and their wives met in New York and boarded a plane for Rome. The Reverend Mr. Cecil is traveling with one of his former teachers, Dr. Boone M. Bowen of Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

In Jerusalem the ministers are attending a travel seminar.

Dr. Tabor graduated from H.P.C. in 1950 and his wife, the former Ellen Dennis, in 1949. Dr. Tabor is a graduate of Bowman Gray School of Medicine and Mrs. Tabor is a graduate nurse. The Tabors have been at Yale University for the past year studying the language of the Koreans.

SEVENTY-NINE GRADUATE AT THE END OF THE SUMMER SESSION

The Reverend Robert Stamey, pastor of Main Street Methodist Church in High Point addressed the seventy-nine members of the summer graduating class Saturday, August 23.

He told them that their philosophy of life would be of more significance than their attainment in life. He stressed the importance of accepting and living by worthy objectives and urged them not to "lose sight of original ideals in attaining the peaks." "There are no magical, mythical results of an education, he said, "but rather a development of minds and spirits to match the grandeur of our mountains." The greatest thing you can hope to accomplish is "to be able to live with a sense of security and praise among your fellow-men," he said, because success involves much more than just professional recognition.

The Rev. Harold F. Schram, pastor of Lindsay Memorial Methodist Church, pronounced the invocations and benediction. Music for the traditional processional and recessional was provided by Miss Ernestine Fields, professor of music at the college.

A vocal solo by Miss Helena Smith, a former graduate of the college, preceded the commencement address.

Graduating cum laude was Loretta Myers Martin, who received the degree of bachelor of science.

ALUMNI GYMNASIUM — FRONT VIEW

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Greetings:

It was with a great deal of interest and with sadness, that I noted the retirement of Miss E. Vera Idol from the Faculty of High Point College.

I sat in the classrooms of a great many different college professors during my college days, but two people remain most vividly in my mind. One was Dr. P. E. Lindley, whose memory will always be near me, and the other was Miss Idol.

I recall one warm fall day in 1938, while sitting in Miss Idol's class in Victorian Poetry. My sight and mind were on the front campus, when suddenly I heard a voice from the front of the classroom. "I shall be extremely interested, Mr. Bright, in learning the outcome of our first test, since you are apparently more interested in things outside than you are in Mr. Browning." And just as soon, she returned to her class material.

When the first test rolled around, I surprised myself, as well as Miss Idol, by hitting the exam for a fairly good grade. When the end of the semester came around, and Seniors were exempt from the final examinations, Miss Idol announced the select list. Then turning directly to me, she announced "It's a crying shame, Mr. Bright, that you are not included on this list. If you had done the type of work the first six weeks you have done the last six weeks, there would be no doubt about your name being included."

I think Miss Idol would be happy to know that her time was not entirely wasted. To this day, I retain a love of Browning that I am certain I will retain throughout life. And any appreciation I have of

The Brownings, is due to Miss Vera Idol. High Point College will miss her but her contributions to its students will live on.

Sincerely,
Harry G. Bright, '37

A HIGH POINT CHAPTER?

The groundwork is now being laid for the organization of a High Point Chapter of the Alumni Association. We, your Alumni officers, feel so keenly the need for a local Chapter that we consider its establishment as our number one project for the year.

Why do we need a local Alumni Chapter? First, this would be the natural chapter to coordinate the responsibilities for all Alumni activities held at the College such as Homecoming and Alumni Day at graduation. A local chapter could assure the out of town Alumni who came back for these events, of consistently outstanding Alumni programs which we believe would cause our attendance to spiral. Soon those who never attend these functions would realize that here is an opportunity to see not just one or two, but many of their old classmates. The local chapter could also serve as host and assist in other events held at the College whenever needed.

An effective local Alumni Chapter would build the prestige of the College in the High Point area. As we all know, there are few colleges with as great a percentage of day students as High Point. A group of active alumni, strategically located in an area from which a majority of the students are drawn, who speak well of the College and who are not hesitant to suggest High Point College to prospective students, could be instrumental in increasing the enrollment. There are many ways in which a local chapter could be of assistance to the College, thus it behooves the local alumni to give of their time and talents in this endeavor.

Jesus once said, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country." This might also be said of a college. Have we who live so near High Point College merely taken it for granted, failing to appreciate the contribution it is making, particularly to our own community? When we look at such an active alumni chapter as exists in Washington, D. C., we realize that these people are more cognizant of their love and respect for High Point College because they have been separated from it by distance.

Yet I repeat, because of our location, a local chapter can serve the College in a capacity that no other chapter could fulfill. We would like to have your suggestions in regard to the organization of this vital unit. If you are called upon to help in its organization and operation, will you respond properly?

—Bob Parrish

COLLEGE'S BUDGET INCREASED

A budget of $923,800 for operation of High Point College during the 1958-59 school year was approved by the executive committee of the college upon recommendation of President Dennis H. Cooke at the August meeting.

That figure compares with expense of $844,778.92 for the current school year. The new budget is balanced, however, with additional income, including revenues from the new North Hall women's dormitory which will come into service with the fall term opening Sept. 15.

The building committee met with the executive committee to make final inspection of the new $250,000 dormitory which will house 92 girl students. The architect, C. C. Hartmann, and representatives of the contracting firms which built it looked over the building before formally accepting it. George Stewart, of R. K. Stewart & Son, represented the general contractor; George Robb, plumbing and heating contractor, represented Robb Plumbing & Heating Co.; and Bruce Bray represented Bray Electric Company, which did the electrical work.

The building committee also inspected extensive improvements being made on McCullough Hall, men's dormitory which is being thoroughly renovated, and Woman's Hall, where much plumbing is being replaced.

President Cooke reported advance registration indicates a possible record enrollment of around 1,000 for the new school term. The summer term has over 500 students enrolled.

To relieve your August tedium . . .

*High Point College opens its thirty-fifth year on September 11, 1958.

Mike worked on a tugboat on the Ohio River. One night he fell into the water and was drowned. A neighbor woman came over to visit the widow.

Neighbor: "Did Mike leave you well fixed?"

Widow: "Indeed he did. He left me $10,000.00"

Neighbor: "Tch! Tch! And him that could not read nor write!"

Widow, shaking her head seriously: "Nor swim."

*You learned many things at High Point College. Will you now help educate others? They are eager to learn and would like the same chance.

"What do you think of our college town?"

"It's certainly unique."

"What do you mean by unique?"

"The word comes from the Latin, 'unus' meaning one, and 'equus' meaning horse."

*You know that High Point College has grown out of its "one-horse" stage. Enlarged opportunities call for an enlarged College program — which requires larger gifts.

A golfer's testimonial to a hosiery manufacturer:

"Fifteen minutes after I had put on one of your socks I made a hole in one."

*We appreciate your interest in High Point College, and your gifts. They help us to build worthy lives.

"You admit marriage is a fine school?" said she.

"Not for a man," said he.

"Why not?" said she.

"He loses a bachelor's degree without getting a master's," said he.

*High Point College gave you a bachelor's degree that has helped you master your life's work.

"So you and your son are carrying on your business together!"

"Not exactly. I run the business. My son does the carrying on."

*High Point College belongs, not only to students and faculty, but also to you. It depends upon your cooperative efforts. Have you sent in your 1958 check yet?

A YEAR OF ENTERPRISE Jack Netcher, Head of Health and Physical Education Department

Last year was a year of achievement for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Athletics. The contributions of many High Point College alumni and followers paved the way for the construction of the beautiful and functional Alumni Gymnasium. Because of the contribution of this much needed building, the Department accomplished many things, namely it became recognized as one of the strongest departments on the campus; athletically, it enabled us to make our sports program a well-rounded intramural and intercollegiate endeavor; and community-wise it brought our program before the "eyes" of the citizens and civic organizations, impressing upon them what a strong program of Health, Physical Education and Athletics means for their growing children.

Basically what did the erection of such an edifice mean to the staff of the department, the students and the faculty?

To the staff of the Department of Health, Physical Education and Athletics it meant that we could have the opportunity to realistically practice what we believe along the lines of educating the mind, body and soul into the whole individual.

To our students it meant participation in three areas, namely: (1) our intercollegiate sports program; (2) the required physical education program in which approximately 60 per cent of the students took part. The increase in space afforded by the new gymnasium made it possible for us to have 19 physical education activities in our curriculum last year, thus affording the student opportunity to participate in the activities which would have the greatest carry-over value for him after College. (3) The intramural program was expanded tremendously due to the enlargement of the physical education plant. On Tuesday and Thursday evenings the boys participated, Wednesday was scheduled for girls, and Friday evenings was used for free playing time. Approximately 50 per cent of the students participated in intramural activities. (By the way, the extramural tournament last year was one of the best High Point College ever had — the visiting teams were greatly impressed with the new building and playing facilities.)

To the faculty it meant many things, first of all, Monday evening was allotted to the faculty for recreation and secondly, it gave the faculty an opportunity to relax and enjoy the basketball games in a comfortable atmosphere.

Many good things have happened since the construction of the Alumni Gymnasium. The citizens of the community enjoy coming to the basketball games, students have been "sold" on the campus when viewing this building, additional sports events have been put on in the gymnasium and the majors in the field of Health and Physical Education have shown a keener and a more professional interest in their work because of these better facilities.

We, of the Health and Physical Education Department, congratulate every alumni for his foresight and interest in helping construct this much needed building. High Point College is growing — you have been directly responsible for its growth.

WASHINGTON CHAPTER HOST TO EXECUTIVE SECRETARY AT SUMMER PICNIC

Stan Broadway and his wife, Elaine, were guests of the Washington, D. C. Area Chapter of the H.P.C. Alumni Association, August 2, at their annual picnic. Some lobbying may have been done, but the primary purpose of Broadway's visit was two-fold, to commend the chapter for the fine work they are doing and to become better acquainted with the alumni in this area.

Held at Kennington Recreation Center in Kennington, Maryland, the summer function of this very active chapter was a great success, with some seventy persons in attendance. Recreational facilities were available for both adults and children, and a bountiful picnic supper was enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Muriel Hilton Parks, chairman of the event and those who served with her on the committee, Mrs. Mary Margaret Bates Brown, Miss Helen Coltrane, George Craver, Calvin Knott, Mrs. Marianna Trice Stanley, Herbert Houghtaling, and Arthur Bookout planned a wonderfully successful picnic that was enjoyed by all present.

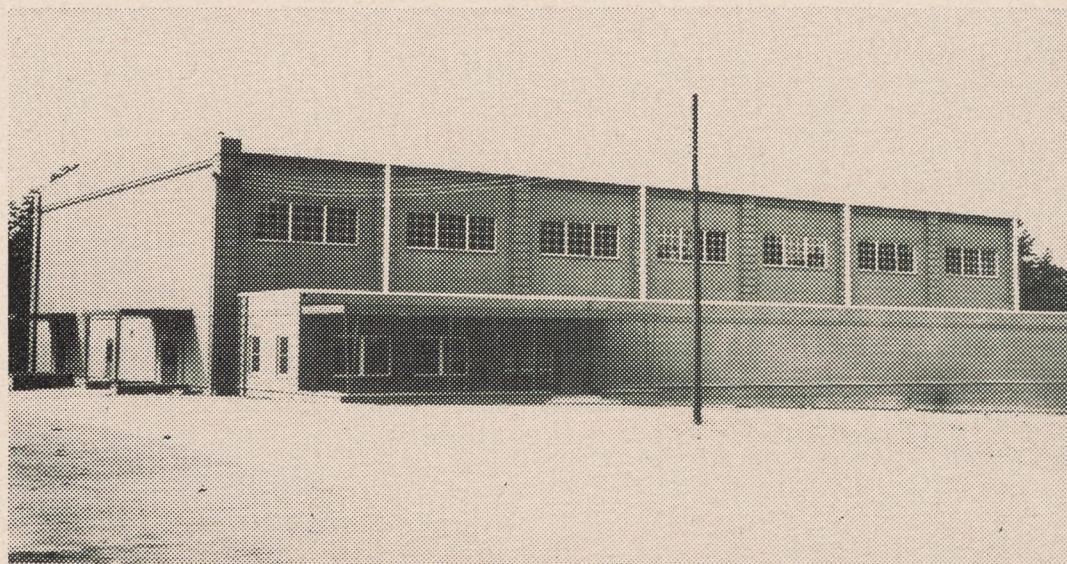

The chapter plans to hold a dinner meeting November 15, 7:00 P.M., at Hogate's Arlington House, Arlington, Virginia. Co-Chairmen for this event will be Mr. and Mrs. James M. Parsons, Jr.

SORORITY RECEIVES AWARD

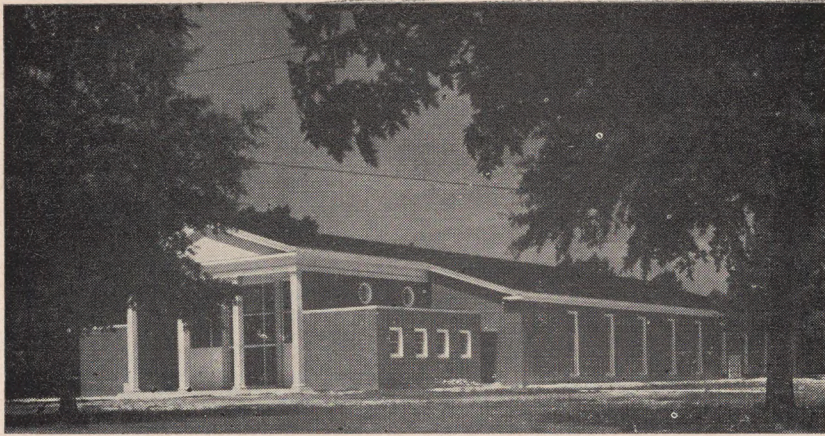

A scholastic honor has been awarded the Zeta Tau Alpha Woman's Sorority of High Point College. Helen Clay of Winston-Salem, president of the local chapter, accepted the award in the form of a plaque at the twenty-sixth bi-annual international convention of the Sorority which was held in Colorado Springs, Colorado this summer.

The plaques are awarded to the Zeta sororities which have maintained the highest scholastic standing of all other women's sororities for two consecutive semesters on their local campuses. The standing is determined by the number of members who have made the dean's list.

The local Zeta chapter which has been affiliated with the national organization for only one year was one of the three chapters in the nation to receive this outstanding award.

COMMENTS FROM ALUMNI PRESIDENT

Porter A. Hauser

The summer meeting of the Alumni Executive Committee was held July 22, 1958. We feel a lot was accomplished. The scheduled meetings of the Committee for the year was agreed on as outlined below.

Summer Executive Committee Meeting — July 22, 1958

Fall Executive Committee Meeting — September 23, 1958

Homecoming Day — Feb., 1959

Spring Executive Committee Meeting — April, 1959

Many items were discussed during the July meeting. We feel you will be interested in some of them.

We ask your continued support of the college, the alumni association and its program.

Work has already started on the formation of new alumni chapters and assisting the established ones. We hope to really push this phase of our program.

We want to encourage the senior class to elect permanent class officers and to join the Alumni association in body and spirit.

With your help we hope to make this year's Alumni Homecoming Day the largest ever.

The Alumni have a tremendous tangible asset on the campus. We can be proud of the new gymnasium. We haven't completed the job, however. Please give it your support.

I have received many comments and suggestions. We would like to hear from all of you. It is your association. It will be what you want it to be. Will you write us?

ENROLLMENT HITS NEW HIGH

When official registration closed this fall Mr. N. P. Yarborough, registrar, announced that more than a thousand students were enrolled for the term.

Included in this year's record number are over 350 freshmen. The class of 1962 has the distinction of being the largest freshman class ever to enroll at High Point College. Returning upperclassmen and transfer students pushed the registration totals over one thousand.

This year for the first time a majority of the students are living on the campus as nearly 550 students are listed as "dorm students." This situation was made possible by the opening of North Hall to house approximately ninety girls.

METHODISTS APPROVE AID FOR COLLEGES

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church recently pledged a sum amounting to nearly three million dollars to aid colleges and universities in Western North Carolina. The forthcoming fund campaign is a part of the larger quadrennial Methodist emphasis on higher education and is projected over a three-year period.

At the kick-off banquet held September 12 in Charlotte, North Carolina, the individual college apportionments were announced by the campaign committee and Bishop Nolan B. Harmon.

Higher Education Campaign Apportionments:

$ 850,000.00	High Point College
850,000.00	Greensboro College
850,000.00	Brevard College
200,000.00	Wesley Foundations on western state college campuses
200,000.00	Duke Divinity School
50,000.00	Campaign expenses

DORMITORIES GET SUMMER FACE-LIFTING

Returning students noticed distinct changes as the college opened its doors for the fall term. Most noticeable were the recent additions to the physical equipment of the college in the form of a completely equipped women's dorm, North Hall. The new living facility provides modern accommodations for approximately ninety-five co-eds.

McCulloch Hall, erected in 1924, underwent a renovation. Unsatisfactory wooden floors were replaced with modern concrete and tile materials. Numerous other improvements in the dormitory include new doors, fresh paint, and new furniture for the center section lounge.

Woman's Hall also received extensive improvements.

$3,000,000.00 total grants

Church officials stated that each college administration will decide how best the funds may be utilized in the interests of higher education.

FELLOWSHIP TEAMS READY

Nearly one hundred students have signed up for service in the Fellowship Teams of High Point College. This project, now in its sixth year, serves as a link between the college and individual churches, and offers valuable experience to the students, many of whom are preparing for full-time church vocations.

A team is composed of five students all trained in special phases of youth work. Some teams are invited for week-end visits, some for Sunday afternoons and evenings. In addition, they go to subdistricts and other gatherings. Teams meet with youth councils, ministers, adult advisors, and youth fellowships. They guide youth toward better worship, recreation, and especially program-planning.

Training is given the team members early in the year. This year's training began with a Retreat at First Methodist Church, High Point, October 4 and continues through several sessions and a dedication communion service. Each team is well equipped with literature and other aids.

Co-chairmen are Miss Willie Lieu Hodges and Tommy Loftis. On the Steering Committee are Sherwood Nance, Emma Lou Noel, Barbara Shuford. Advisers are Dr. W. R. Locke, Miss Clarice Bowman, and Dr. Walter Hudgins.

Each year a large number of churches are served in North Carolina and neighboring states. In addition to the Methodist teams, this year there will be Baptist teams; and members of other denominations often serve. Upon request the teams visit other churches.

Ministers request the service of a team, specifying dates and arrangements are made for entertainment and transportation. Application blanks may be obtained by contacting the Department of Religion at the College.

WASHINGTON, D. C. AREA CHAPTER FALL MEETING

Michael Fleming, president of the Washington, D. C. Area chapter of the H. P. C. Alumni Association has announced that the chapter will hold its annual fall meeting November 15, 1958 at 7:00 P.M. This will be a dinner meeting and will be held at Hogate's Arlington House, Arlington, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Parsons, Jr. are co-chairmen of the committee planning the event.

PAY AS YOU GO . . .

Student Government Association treasurer Harold Wright writes a receipt for Student Activities fee during registration. Under a new set-up the students have become responsible for their own finances for the first time. Student organizations such as the Student Government Association, Zenith, Hi-Po and others will now administer funds through the S.G.A. treasurer rather than the Business Office of the College.

DO YOU REMEMBER H. P. C. THEN?

THIRTY YEARS AGO — IT WAS 1928-1929

The football team, coached by "Salty" Jack Boylin, won five games and lost five games. The wins were over Atlantic Christian College, Elon College, Lenoir-Rhyne College, Newberry College and Fort Bragg.

The basketball team, with Jack Boylin as coach and Glenn Perry as manager, won the "Little Six" conference championship. (The Little Six conference later became the North State conference.) Ralph Mulligan was captain of this team and his teammates included Tim Mitchell, Pat Thompson, Riley Litman, Allan Hastings, Harry Johnson, Virgil Yow and Herb Strickler.

Keith Harrison was president of the Senior class.

Tony Antonakos and Olin Matthews edited the Zenith.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO — IT WAS 1933-1934

direction of Margaret Sloane, gave three radio programs. The programs were over WPTF, Raleigh, N. C.; WRVA, Richmond, Va., and WSJV, Washington, D. C.

The Hi-Po was edited by Larry Yount and Kermit Cloniger was business manager.

The class presidents were as follows: Senior, Robert Williams; Junior, Larry Yount; Sophomore, Edwin Sharpe; and Freshman, John Hussey.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — IT WAS 1938-1939

Ask any member of the 1938-1939 basketball team, Coach Yow or Bill Lewis and you will hear about the Kansas City trip. (Some of them may remember about the team winning the North State Conference championship before this trip.) "Red" Towery was captain of this team. Hugh Hampton, the center, high scorer in the conference and a member of the all-conference team. Other members of this team of Panthers were Bill Hester, Morton Sammett, Cell Malfregeot, Jack Moran, Jerry Counihan, Bill Keene, Hilliard Nance, C. A. Watts and Graham Armstrong.

The football team, coached by Virgil Yow and Clayton Glasgow, with Charlie Harvell as trainer, did not have what would be called a great season but they did beat William and Mary 7-0.

Olin Blickensderfer conducted the band with Russell Hughes as the drum major and Emma and Lilly Whitaker as "twin twirlers."

Dwight Morgan was president of the Student Government.

George Elkins was president of the choir.

Dan Sharpe was president of the Senior class.

Virginia Dixon was May Queen.

LeeRoy Spencer was president of the Ministerial Association.

PAUL OWEN PRESIDENT OF CLU'S

Paul S. Owen '37 was installed as president of the Central Carolina Chapter for Chartered Life Underwriters recently.

The installation was held at a dinner meeting of the chapter at the Jefferson Standard Country Club, sponsored by the trust departments of the banks of Greensboro.

Serving with Owen, a special representative of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, will be Glenn H. Campbell as vice president and Anthony H. Payne as secretary-treasurer. Both latter officers are from Greensboro.

FEBRUARY 14, 1959 will be more than just another Valentine's Day for High Point College Alumni because that is the date of the 1959 HOMECOMING at H. P. C. !

GRADUATE TO HEAD HEALTH EDUCATION PROGRAM IN AFGHANISTAN

Emma Carr Bivins '35 left recently for Afghanistan where she will become director of health education for the World Health Organization.

Miss Bivins, a health educator, says, "We will have to put our health message from mud hut to mud hut, from bazaar to bazaar." The country has never had a health director and no form of communication such as radio, newspaper or television has been available for health education.

Miss Bivins has been a journalist with the Wilmington Star-News and Washington, D. C. Daily News. She edited a now extinct health magazine and holds A.B. in English from High Point College and M.A. in Public Health from the University of North Carolina. Recently she has been associated with the American Cancer Society and the Governor's Committee on Cancer Control.

Miss Bivins got her new job through a friend, Helen Martkainen, who is now international director of health education for WHO. Miss Bivins will stop first in Geneva, Switzerland, headquarters of WHO, where she will see Miss Martkainen. Her next stop will be New Delhi and the next her destination, Afghanistan capital, Kabul.

One of the first assignments Miss Bivins will face will be to learn the native tongue, Persian.

TWO GRADUATES ARE APPOINTED TO POSITIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGES

J. Allen Thacker '39 has accepted a position in the Education Department of Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer, North Carolina. He served in the Air Force for a number of years and has been principal of the Altamahaw-Ossipee School in Alamance County for several years. He has a Master's degree from the University of North Carolina and will soon be a candidate for a Ph.D. degree from the same institution.

Virginia A. Walker '56 has been appointed Assistant Professor of English at Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, North Carolina. Miss Walker received her M.A. degree in English this summer from Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala., where she has held a Teaching Fellowship in English for the past two years.

THINGS YOU CAN BE PROUD OF AT HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Here are some of the things we are proud of at High Point College. We believe you will be proud of them also:

1. We are proud of the Alumni Gymnasium. You can see the Panthers at work in an excellent basketball game there.

2. We are proud of the new "dug-outs" on the baseball diamond. The concrete tiles were donated by friends of the College, and our Physical Education people, with their friends, built the dug-outs this summer. Even the green paint was a gift, and a student did the painting.

3. We are proud of the 224 young men and women who were graduated in the last academic year. In High Point College's thirty-fourth year 106 received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and 118 received the degree of Bachelor of Science.

4. We are proud of the enrollment for the classes which open on September 19. More than 1000 young people began the thirty-fifth school year.

5. We are proud of the new women's dormitory which will house 92. The new dormitory was ready for the opening of the academic year.

6. We are proud of the newly renovated McCulloch Hall. There are concrete, asphalt-covered floors, modernized bath and lavatory arrangements, and extensive electric wiring and outlets.

7. Friends of the College from the City of High Point have presented a portrait of the mother of John Wesley to be hung in Susanna Wesley Hall. The representation was painted by Frank O. Salisbury of London, an eminent portrait painter. It is thought that Susanna Wesley Hall is the only memorial to the mother of John Wesley in the United States. The gift of the portrait brings, not only to High Point College, but also to the City of High Point, a painting by a world-renowned artist, Frank O. Salisbury. High Point College is honored to receive such an eminent gift from civic-minded High Point friends.

8. We are proud of our buildings and grounds, and of the largest enrollment in High Point College's history. Parents are happy to see their children grow up. A babe in a crib is a lovely thing only if it grows and develops. It must learn to walk, to take care of its needs, and then to go to school to learn. A visit by you to the High Point College campus can help convince you that the College has grown up. We are proud of it; and you will be proud, too!

9. We are proud of our President, Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, and Mrs. Cooke. Under Dr. Cooke's leadership the College has made great strides in its development as a Liberal Arts College, and in

DANFORTH FOUNDATION INVITES APPLICATIONS

The Danforth Foundation, an educational foundation located in St. Louis, Missouri, invites applications for the eighth class (1959) of Danforth Graduate Fellows from college senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching, and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1959, for their first year of graduate study. The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of Natural and Biological Sciences, Social Science, Humanities and all fields of specialization to be found in the undergraduate college.

President Dennis H. Cooke has named Dr. H. E. Conrad as the Liaison Officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or not to exceed three candidates for these 1959 fellowships. These appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragement" throughout the years of graduate study, carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need. The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1400 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students; for married Fellows, $1900 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students with an additional stipend of $350 for each child. Students with or without financial need are invited to apply. A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointments, such as Rhodes, Fulbright, Woodrow Wilson, Marshall, etc., concurrently with his Danforth Fellowship, and applicants for these appointments are cordially invited to apply at the same time for a Danforth Fellowship. If a man received the Danforth Appointment, together with a Rhodes Scholarship, Fulbright Scholarship, or Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, he becomes a Danforth Fellow without stipend, until these other relationships are completed.

All Danforth Fellows will participate in the annual Danforth Foundation Conference on Teaching, to be held at Camp Miniwanca in Michigan next September, 1959.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the Foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including serious inquiry within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by January 31, 1959. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with our Liaison Officer.

NEW WOMEN'S DORM

North Hall, third of H. P. C.'s women's dormitories, occupied for the first time this fall, has made it possible for the College to add approximately ninety co-eds to the total number of resident students.

FORSYTH COUNTY CHAPTER FAMILY PICNIC

Two things seem to be sure—when the Forsyth County Alumni schedule a picnic it rains, but they have a wonderful time anyway.

The Forsyth County Alumni, under the direction of their president, Rev. John Sills, scheduled a family picnic for 3:00 P.M. Sunday, August 4 at Hanes Hosiery Athletic Park, and the weatherman, not to be left out, scheduled a thunderstorm for the same place just a little later. Whether because of their resourcefulness or because of past experiences remains a question. However, these High Point College Alumni were prepared for just such a situation. Hugh Hampton had the Gymnasium open and the group moved inside saying, "Let it rain."

Perhaps the group was smaller because of the rain but it failed to dampen the spirits of the thirty to forty who were there. One alumnus, with four small children, was heard to remark, "This is an ideal place for a picnic. Here if I watch just one door I know where all of my children are." Some of the kids, young and older, enjoyed playing various kinds of ball while others were content to enjoy the good fellowship. There was no doubt that everyone present enjoyed the delicious picnic supper which was served from the counters of the concession stand. Everybody left with the idea—we must do this again next summer even if it does rain.

The annual dinner meeting of the Forsyth County Chapter of the High Point College Alumni Association will be held early in 1959 at a time and place to be announced later.

TEACHER UNCOVERS UNPUBLISHED WORK

A nineteenth century play by Dionisio Solis has been edited by Dr. Hal L. Ballew, Spanish professor, and published in the first edition of the college's publication series.

Title of the play is "Blanca de Borbon."

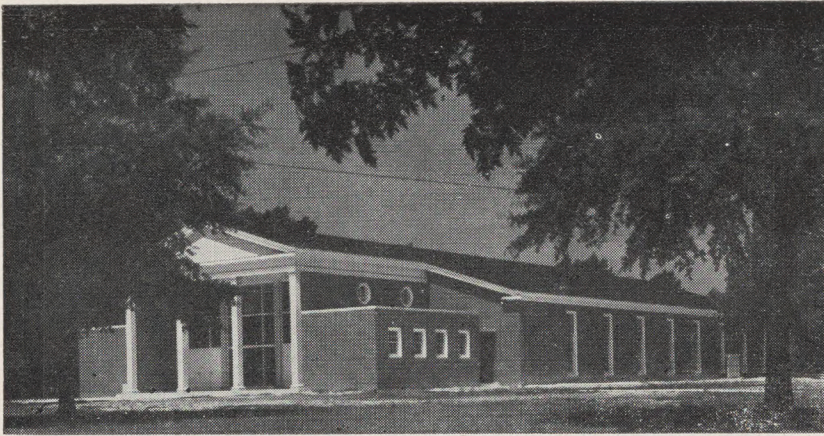

"The value of offering the text of the tragedy is to make a printed version available to scholars for the first time," stated Dr. Ballew. It is not a translation.

Rights for the work were secured when Dr. Ballew was in Spain in 1950. He had a film made of the manuscript so that he could edit it upon returning to the United States.

Dr. Ballew became interested in the project while writing his doctoral dissertation at the University of North Carolina. The topic, "The Life and Works of Dionisio Solis," was immediate preparation for the study of the individual play.

Additions to the original manuscript include footnotes, a preface, an introduction and a bibliography. The edition is dedicated to Dr. Sterling A. Stoudemire and Dr. Sturgis E. Leavitt, both of the Spanish faculty at Chapel Hill. It was published by the Orange Print Shop of that city.

Dr. Ballew and his wife, Mae, a director at the local YWCA, live at 800 Lindsay St. with their two sons, Richard and Charles. He is a native of Morganton and worked for the United States Department of State before joining the college faculty. His entire family is especially interested in music.

COVERED DISH SUPPER TO BE HELD BY ALUMNI IN HIGH POINT

In case you were not home when an alumnus called to tell you about the "Covered Dish" supper and meeting of the H. P. C. Alumni in the High Point area, here are the facts —

A "covered dish" supper will be held in the College Cafeteria — Friday, October 17 at 6:00 o'clock. Each alumnus is urged to come and bring a covered dish. Following the supper there will be a business meeting and it is hoped that the details of organizing a Chapter of the Alumni Association in High Point will be worked out.

A group of interested alumni from High Point have been trying to contact all H. P. C. alumni in the area for the past two weeks, but they have realized that contacting 1,200 to 1,400 people is not easy. They hope you will come to the supper regardless of how or when you heard about it, provided you bring that covered dish!

Each day is the only one of its kind.

Tom Charming '54 was elected president of the chapter and the other officers elected were vice-president, David L. Wagoner '55; secretary, Mrs. Bobbie Turner Clayton '57; treasurer, Miss Unity Nash '33; and historian, Mrs. Helen Hayes Lewis '28.

The officers have announced that another meeting of the group will be held soon and they expect many more alumni from the area to attend this meeting. The time and place of the meeting will be announced later.

A booklet by Dr. Joseph L. Bernd, professor of Political Science and History, has been published by the Georgia Journal Incorporated. The booklet, titled "The Role of Campaign Funds in Georgia Primary Elections 1936-1958," is a comprehensive study of money in politics and focuses on the monetary sources sponsoring political candidates in the author's native state, Georgia. The study was made possible through a research fellowship which Dr. Bernd received from the Social Science Research Council.

Dr. Robert R. Bryden, professor of Biology, has been notified that he will receive a grant, from the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, to continue his biological research on hydras. Dr. Bryden will conduct his experiments in various lakes near High Point. At one time Dr. Bryden was a biologist for the U. S. H.P.C. INAUGURATES CROSS-COUNTRY TRACK TEAM WITH MEET AT PFEIFFER

High Point College's newly formed cross-country track team won its initial meet against Pfeiffer College on October 23, by sweeping four of the first five places. Although the Panthers were running only four men in the meet, they still managed to completely overwhelm Pfeiffer. Mick Dean led High Point by taking first place in the meet. Following Dean were Dick Vert in second place, Don Simmons in third place, and Willard Formyduval in fifth place. The first showing was a fitting inaugural to a new sport at High Point.

GRADUATE GOES OVERSEAS TO DO MISSION WORK

Miss Bobbie Barrett, '57, Kings Mountain, N. C., is one of 46 young men and women who will be leaving the United States this fall to begin three years of overseas mission service for the Methodist Church.

Miss Barrett, daughter of Mrs. L. W. Barrett, will go to Japan to do educational work.

The three-year missionaries, or "3's" as they are called, will go to 18 countries of Africa, Asia, Europe and North and South America. They represent 22 states, Hawaii and Canada. They will do varied types of work, including agricultural demonstration, evangelism, youth and student counseling, and teaching from the kindergarten through university levels.

For six weeks this summer, the "3's" studied and worked together in a special training course at Scarritt College for Christian Workers, Nashville, Tenn., designed to prepare them for missionary service. They attended classes in linguistics, anthropology, the Bible, basic Christian beliefs, arts and crafts, Christianity and communism, and the missionary heritage and vocation.

On the mission field, the young women will serve under the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Board of Missions and the men under the board's Division of World Missions.

Born in Waca, N. C., Miss Barrett attended high school in Kings Mountain and studied four years at High Point College, High Point, N. C. She was graduated in 1957 with a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education.

While in college, Miss Barrett was elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," was vice-president of the Pan-Hellenic Council and was a member of Lambda Alpha Phi sorority and Alpha Delta Theta, women's religious organization. She was an elementary school teacher one year and is a member of the El Bethel Methodist Church near Kings Mountain.

HOMEcoming—FEB. 14, 1959

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association has selected February 14 as the date for the 1959 Homecoming at High Point College. Their plans call for this to be the biggest and best Homecoming H. P. C. Alumni have ever had. Of course, they are expecting you to help them carry out these plans. They are counting on you to do just one thing — COME BACK TO YOUR ALMA MATER FEBRUARY 14, 1959 — and in turn they are promising you that you will have an unforgettable day.

During the day there will be reunions of classmates, fraternity brothers, sorority sisters, members of the choir, members of the Ministerial Association, cheerleaders, members of varsity teams and many other groups. President and Mrs. Cooke will hold open house in their home. There will be a

PURPLE PANTHERS PREPARE FOR SEASON

Preparations for the 1958-59 basketball season have begun on the High Point College campus. The Purple Panthers opened practices with thirty-five men turning out for the initial practice. Coach Virgil Yow, beginning his fifth year as the Panthers' head coach, greeted Danny Sewell, Maury Beauchot, Steve Afendis, and Ken Williams as the only four returning lettermen. Last year's edition of the Panthers was hard hit by graduation.

The nucleus of the 1958-59 team will probably be comprised of Sewell, Beauchot, Afendis, and Williams. Sewell, who was the leading scorer in the North State Conference last year and who was also selected as a member of the All-State team, was injured near the close of the season last year but has gotten his knee back into shape and seems to be in for another big season. If the Panthers are to stay in the first division this year, Coach Yow is going to have to lean heavily on Sewell, the six-foot-five-inch Junior from Kokomo, Indiana. Another bright spot for the Purple Panthers is the return of Beauchot and Afendis, two All-Tournament selections of last year's "cinderella" North State Tournament team which took second place in the tournament. There are a lot of ifs in High Point's prospects for the coming hardwood season, and Ken Williams is one of the biggest. "Ken Williams can make or break this year's team," stated Coach Yow in a personal interview. If Williams uses his height to the greatest advantage, and plays the type of ball he is capable of playing, High Point may be hard to handle.

Another big "if" that will have a great deal to do with how the Panthers shape up this year, is how well either incoming freshmen or last year's reserves fill the reliable shoes of Bill Huegele, Bobby Pharr, Bobby Dunbar, and other now departed seniors. Among the new men who have shown much promise are Jo Guzinski, 6'2", of Scranton, Pennsylvania; Zane Daniel, 5'8" of Rutledge, Tennessee; Chalmous Sechrest, 6'2", of Fair Grove, North Carolina; and Wolfe Unger, 6'4", of Spring Valley, North Carolina. Up from last year's junior varsity team is Jack Short, Tommy Skidmore, and William Formyduval. Short, the sharp-shooting speedster from Williams, Ind., should be a great asset to the team this year, and is a likely candidate for one of the starting guard positions.

All of the above mentioned freshmen were stars in their respective high schools and should be a big lift to the team. Joining the squad at mid-semester will be Wayne Cheek, the 6'6" transfer student from the University of Richmond, who should give the Panthers some much needed backboard strength. Other men who may break into the starting lineup before the season ends are Jerry Webster, Ken Samuels, Ralph Roach, and George Srour. With only four veterans back, it looks as if Coach Yow will have a terrific job of rebuilding if he is to get his team into contention for the coveted North State Conference championship.

FEBRUARY 14, 1959 will be more than just another Valentine's Day for High Point College Alumni because that is the date of the 1959 HOMECOMING at H. P. C. !

ENDOWMENT AND DEVELOPMENT COLUMN

THIS IS IT!

Four times a day perhaps you may have heard "This is High Point, home of High Point College" from the three local radio stations. WMFR, WHPE, and WNOS are making this announcement over the air as a courtesy to the College. High Point IS the home of High Point College.

Here we have living endowment in action. Four times a day, twenty-eight times a week, the notice goes from each of the three High Point radio stations. It is announced a total of 84 times per week and in a year that is 4,368 spot announcements, "This is High Point, home of High Point College."

These spot announcements cost, perhaps, three dollars each. In other words, the three radio stations WMFR, WHPE, and WNOS give the College the equivalent of $13,104.00 worth of radio service in a year. Had they given High Point College Endowment Fund $260,000.00 which could have been invested at five per cent, the income from the fund would be $13,000.00 per annum. In effect, WMFR, WHPE, and WNOS will have given High Point College $260,000.00 in living endowment in one year.

What is living endowment? This is it!

ALUMNUS AWARDED AIR FORCE COMMENDATION MEDAL

Colonel Harry H. Culler '30, commander of Brooks Air Force Base, Texas, was recently awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal.

The medal was given to Colonel Culler for meritorious service performed on Brooks AFB as base commander from Aug. 23, 1954 to March 1958.

The citation that accompanied the presentation said in part:

"COL. HARRY H. CULLER, 2525A, distinguished himself by performing outstanding meritorious service during the period from Aug. 23, 1954, to March 25, 1958, while serving as the Commander of the 2577th Air Reserve Flying Center, Brooks AFB, Texas.

During this period, Colonel Culler faced with physical facilities which were outworn and, for the most part, unsuited for the mission of his unit initiated and directed a program to improve all the facilities on the base.

"He further exercised close and effective control over administrative and operational activities, which, coupled with the physical improvements, resulted in a marked improvement in the overall effectiveness of the base.

Through his attention to detail, outstanding supervision and effort he has succeeded in placing Brooks Air Force Base in the forefront of the Continental Air Command base in the accomplishment of its mission.

By judicious management, he gained maximum operational readiness flying training for the reserve combat crews notwithstanding a shortage of aircraft. As a result of these accomplishments, his leadership and devotion to duty, Colonel Culler has reflected great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force."

H. P. C. ON THE AIR

High Point College has two radio programs each week. A radio broadcast titled "High Point College News" is presented over Radio Station WMFR each Monday night at 10 P. M. This program presents news of the campus activities to the radio public, and is under the direction of Dean Harold E. Conrad.

Each Wednesday at 4 P. M. the radio production class, under the direction of Miss Jane DeSpain, presents a program over Radio Station WHPE.

CHEERLEADERS FOR 1958-1959

In assembly, Oct. 29, 15 girls and seven boys entered into cheerleading competition. Of these the following were elected by the student body to the vacancies in the squad: Vivian Lloyd, Wini Stuart, Yvone Vaughn, Bill Spake, and Harold Terry. Karen Carpenter and Henry Groome were elected as alternates. These will join the regular squad which is already composed of Shirley Yokley, head cheerleader; Shelby Williams, and Betty Gray Dorma.

A new policy of selection was used this year. The possible places for new cheerleaders were filled in proportion to the number of boys and the number of girls going out for practices.

Christmas Greetings

Since my greetings to you last Christmas many things have happened at High Point College which, I am sure, you will be interested in knowing.

The College has the largest enrollment of the best students (approximately 1,000) in its entire history. It has the largest and best faculty and staff; approximately 58 per cent of the members of the teaching faculty have the appropriate earned doctor's degree, compared with 40 per cent in all four-year colleges and universities in the United States, and 35 per cent in the South and Southeast. Another new building has been completed and occupied — the new North Hall, housing almost 100 women students. The interior of McCulloch Hall for men has been completely renovated, along with improvements in the other residence halls. The capacity of the Boiler House has been doubled, and a 400 horse-power boiler has been installed.

As grateful as we are for these material blessings, they are secondary to those of a spiritual nature which have been abundant at High Point College since last Christmas. The past year has witnessed an unusually fine morale and esprit-de-corps among the faculty, staff, students, board members, and friends of the College. The faculty, staff, and students are working diligently to meet the high standards that all of us have set for ourselves.

To each and every student and his family, to each graduate, to every former student, to every member of the faculty and staff, to every employee of the College, to every Board member, to the hundreds of ministers of our Methodist Churches in North Carolina, and to every friend of High Point College, "Thank you" for helping to make these material and spiritual blessings possible and wishing for each of you a Happy Christmas and a New Year full of Christ, I am

Yours very sincerely,
Dennis H. Cooke, President

GREETINGS FROM
CHAIRMAN OF
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

May I, as chairman of the Board of Trustees and personally, add the season's greetings to all who comprise what I like to think of as the High Point College family. It is a wonderfully dedicated lot of students, and their families, alumni, faculty and staff, administration and trustees, admirers and well-wishers of an institution that would like the spirit of Christmas to be regnant in the hearts of all mankind everywhere all the time.

In the unending grind for food, clothing, shelter, education and the thousand and one other material things that make up our daily needs and desires we, like most others, often lose sight of the nobler aspects of life for which man really was created — aspects of love, and goodness, and worship, and faith, and home, and charity — and all things which such virtues encompass.

Christmas is a beautiful time to think seriously of Him to whom the world pays homage at this season — it is a time to think of His love, His humility, His sacrifice, His gift of redemption to all mankind.

Thinking of these things will bring us a little closer together, make us a little more considerate

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Many times during the Christmas season you will repeat the phrase, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Too often these words are uttered through mere ceremony and not in the real spirit which they were meant to convey. This is a joyous season, one that tells of a new life given to man those many years ago by the Savior of the world. Remember the true spirit of Christmas in your words of greeting this year.

With this thought in mind I wish to extend my warmest season's greetings to the students, alumni, and friends of the College. May we pray that peace will come in our time.

of each other's needs, fill our hearts with greater love and kindness, and so — make this Christmas not only a blessed one but help make every day in that spirit.

Here's hoping your Christmas may be bright, your New Year filled with health, happiness and prosperity.

Holt McPherson,
Chairman,
Board of Trustees

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

What does your Christmas tree say to you and your loved ones this yule-tide? Let us look at it together for a few minutes, and try to find out. It says, "Be upright and straight," and "Be well-rounded." Whoever wants a Christmas tree that is crooked and lop-sided? We want a tree that is straight and tall, one that has a well-rounded form. It says to us, "Be ever-green." A Christian is devoted to Jesus Christ in winter and in summer, just as your tree remains ever-green. Finally, it says to us, "Make others happy." That is a big task for any Christmas tree, and for any alumnus and student of High Point College. It reminds us of the joy that came to the world when the Saviour was born.

And so, a very Merry Christmas to you, and a healthful 1959 for you and your loved ones.

You will make 1959 our best year ever if you will come to visit us, and renew old acquaintances. We shall, on our part, try to be upright, straight and well-rounded. We shall attempt to be "ever-green," and to make others happy. Like the Christmas tree, it is our big job.

GREETINGS FROM THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

To the Alumni, the present student body, the faculty and friends of High Point College everywhere, may I extend my sincerest wishes for a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

As the Holiday season approaches may we pause and give thanks to Him to whom the world pays homage at this time of the year.

While each of us may not find complete fulfillment of all our desires in our stocking on Christmas morning, may we humbly and reverently give thanks for the abundant life, wonderful friends and the many privileges we enjoy.

As the New Year confronts us may we look ever forward and approach each task with renewed energy and faith in our fellow man.

BASKETBALL TEAM WINS FIRST THREE GAMES

At the end of the first week of their 1958-1959 season the "Purple Panthers" record was 3-0, with a 2-0 conference record.

The Panthers' opening game of this season, against Atlantic Christian College, December 3, was a huge success for the team. They won a thriller, played in Wilson, over the favored Atlantic Christian Bulldogs by the score of 62-56. Three veterans led the way for High Point. Danny Sewell, junior forward, who was the outstanding player in the North State Conference last year, led the way with 18 points. Captain Steve Afendis, senior forward, had 14 points and Ken Williams, senior center, had 13 points.

The Panthers won their second victory at Guilford College, December 4, defeating the Quakers 74-64. The very encouraging feature of this game was the play of the reserves and the freshmen of the team. The starting team played only 7 1-2 minutes of the first half and yet the half-time score was 38-28. Scoring balance was a feature of the Panther victory. The five top scorers for H.P.C. were Jackie Short, sophomore guard, with 12 points; Ken Williams, senior center, with 11 points; Danny Sewell, junior forward, and Wolfy Unger, freshman forward, with 11 points each and Joe Guzinski, freshman guard, with 9 points.

The Panthers made it three in a row as they defeated a non-conference foe, Pfeiffer College, December 6, in their first home game. Danny Sewell had his best night of the season as he tossed in 34 points and led the Panthers in rebounding. Jackie Short scored 18 points, Ken Williams scored 10 points, while Steve Afendis and Chalmous Sechrist each contributed 8 points. The team continued to get yeoman service from the freshmen who saw quite a bit of action during the game.

WASHINGTON, D. C. AREA CHAPTER CELEBRATES THIRD ANNIVERSARY

On December 10 the Washington, D. C. area Chapter of the H. P. C. Alumni Association celebrated its third anniversary. On that date, in 1955, seven alumni under the leadership of Dr. Grover L. Angel, met in Hyattsville, Maryland to organize the chapter. The group now has more than 100 active, associate and honorary members and holds two dinner meetings as well as a "family picnic" each year. In addition to these regular functions the Chapter usually sponsors one or more special events each year.

The next event for the Chapter will be the appearance of Coach Virgil Yow and the "Purple Panthers" at Andrews Air Force Base and Quantico Marine Base on December 18 and 19 respectively. The Chapter is sponsoring these two games and will hold a reception for the Alumni, Coach and team following each game. Russell A. Lombardy is chairman of the committee arranging these events, and working with him, from the Washington area, will be Francis L. Bowen, George Demmy, Calvin Knott, Major C. W. "Pepper" Martin, Duncan R. Redditt, and Louis Soscia.

This chapter has been very active since its organization. They have sponsored programs by the H. P. C. choir on three different occasions. This year they established a Scholarship Loan Fund to give a worthy High Point College student from the area financial assistance. Through local papers, churches, and schools they have given the College considerable publicity and they give the parents of the H. P. C. students from the area an additional contact with the College by inviting them to all of the Chapter functions.

The present Chapter officers are: President, Michael B. Fleming; Vice President, Jake Steele; Secretary, Jane Roach Wrenn; Treasurer, George N. Craver; Historian, Helen E. Coltrane; Chaplain, W. Kenneth Lyons; and Past President, Grover L. Angel. The members of the Executive Committee are A. R. Bookout, Jr., Louise Ellison Harpe, W. Frank Harris, H. B. Haughtaling and Russell A. Lombardy.

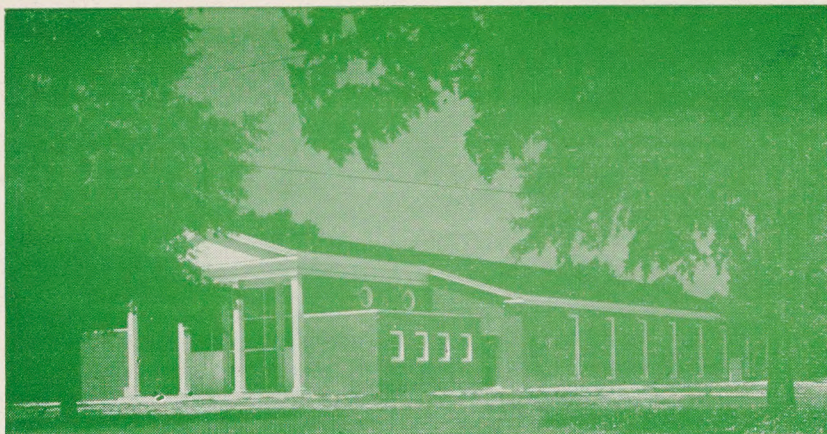

Colon Farlow '56 has completed his military service and is now working for Western Electric Corporation in Winston-Salem, N. C.
