

YOUR INVITATION

May I personally, and on behalf of the Executive Committee, extend to each of you a special invitation to attend Homecoming on February 9. The number of Alumni returning for Homecoming has been steadily increasing, and we expect attendance this year to exceed that of any previous Homecoming. This means that many more of your classmates than ever before will be present. I believe you will have a good time and will catch something of the growing enthusiasm among our Alumni.

Bob L. Parrish, President
Alumni Association

REPORTING FOR '62

"Reporting for '62" is a report of the College's 1961-62 academic year. The report shows a comparison between the 1952 and 1962 school years and the progress that has taken place during this ten-year period. The report, showing figures on students, faculty, academic program and finances' will be mailed to all Alumni, along with the publication entitled "The College of Tomorrow."

OUR GIVING ALUMNI

If a college has not succeeded in persuading its students to give after four years of experience on its campus, after having been subjected to the whole educational program of the institution, it has failed in its mission. If it trains men to "get" but fails to train them to "give," it really has no good reason for existence. It must be the hallmark of the alumni of our kind of institutions that they are "giving" people. This applies to everything about them — their vocational service, their family life, their church activity, and their community relations. But it should be evidenced also in their relation to the college that persuaded them — or at least helped to persuade them — to be that kind of people. It is in teaching people to give — of themselves, their efforts, their devotion, and their means — that colleges like ours really have their mission.

If that is true, then an annual fund becomes a sort of yardstick for measuring how well we have been doing the job which is our reason for existence. It isn't the only yardstick, surely. Most alumni are giving through their churches to many things, including Christian higher education. And many of them are giving in other ways, too. But an annual fund is a specific, concrete, measurable yardstick, sent to one's almanac, to keep its records up to date. It is like sending a sample of one's life back each year to those who are engaged in teaching another student generation to give, to let them know that he is keeping faith with them by being a "giving person." The amount isn't nearly as important as the fact that you are reporting in. If you do that regularly, you are likely to see to it that the sample is one which does you justice.

—Edgar M. Carlson, President
Gustavus Adolphus College, Minnesota

HOME ECONOMICS MAJOR DELETED FROM CURRICULUM

The major in Home Economics is being discontinued; however, those already in the field will be allowed to complete their courses and receive their degrees. A minor in Home Economics will continue to be a part of the curriculum and course work will be offered on the freshman and sophomore levels.

First among the reasons for deleting the major is the high unit cost of instruction in the Home Economics Department. Based on the number of students enrolled, the cost of operation of the department is almost double that of the average instructional unit.

Second, the Home Management House is entirely inadequate, and to remedy this situation would involve a major expenditure, which would only increase the already out of proportion expenses.

In addition, Home Economics, like many other vocational majors, is fast disappearing from private liberal arts colleges. State supported schools have taken over these majors and can support them adequately.

Recommendations before the State Vocation Department also had some effect on the deletion decision. If passed, the measures would require an additional faculty member in the department in order to maintain the requirements of the State Teachers Certification program.

Finally, by State Law, certification for vocational Home Economics Teachers is not possible unless the applicant has spent six semester hours of study at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU

Religious and civic organizations and clubs are always on the lookout for interesting speakers who can deliver a stimulating and informative address to their group. Because finding such people is not always easy, High Point College has recently organized a Speakers' Bureau to help organizations in this task.

More than half of the college faculty have made themselves available to speak in the city and the surrounding areas, and more volunteers for this service are being added to the list daily.

One may take his pick from the range of topics, for the fields are varied, and many of the college faculty are recognized experts in their particular area. For example, one may request—and get—a speaker to discuss the latest political issues or a visit to the Holy Land.

Other areas in which speakers are available include book reviews, music appreciation, the fine arts, foods and nutrition, speech and dramatics, modern literature, Spanish and French literature, financial aid to students, problems of Christian higher education, fashion, interior decorating, the care and rearing of children, business administration, creative writing, European and American history, athletics and physical education, college alumni affairs, college job placement, mathematics, the aerospace age, social problems, the area of human behavior, the field of education, religion, the Bible, religious education, and the biological sciences. In addition, many of the faculty have volunteered to speak, leaving the choice of topic up to the requesting agency. Therefore, no matter what the speaking request may be, High Point College can fill it.

The Speakers' Bureau has been established as a service to the public of High Point College and will be under the direction of Mrs. Marguerite Hormachea, College News Director. Requests for speakers should be made through her.

MISS HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Judith Ann Raykes, 18, a sophomore from Pulaski, Virginia, has been selected Miss High Point College for 1963. She is an elementary education major and was sponsored by the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Second place went to Carolyn McAllister of High Point, third place to Clara Jane Neal of Salisbury, fourth place to Mary Lou Troutman of Aberdeen, and fifth place to Patricia Ann Bowden of Jacksonville, Fla. Miss Congeniality was Joy Watkins of High Point.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Just returning from a field of study of educational reforms in Europe and Russia I approach the new year and our problems in higher education here in America with both optimism and concern.

The greatest personal impact was the necessity of new, vital and aggressive thinking in America. Our complacency must end or our society as we now know it is lost. Much of the burden of this responsibility falls on the educational institutions and our immediate concern is, of course, High Point College. Its many publics must share this concern and be active in creating the High Point College of tomorrow—and one of the most important is you, our Alumni.

The Model T Ford is gone from our highways and must be now removed from our classrooms or we run the danger of educating our youth for a world that has already ceased to exist. The earmarks of social change were evident in all countries we visited and I experienced a very real fear as I was shaken loose from the lethargy that plagues most Americans.

The future of democracy rests in the hands of our Church related colleges. We must somehow re-ignite the pioneer spirit that created our great country and now seems lost because of our national apathy. Schools all over Europe and Russia, from elementary to university level, are not only making their students aware of their heritage, but are instilling in them a respect for and understanding of their society. The national surveys of our high school students point out very clearly that a dangerously high percentage of today's youth see few advantages in a democratic form of government, no dangers in greater federal control, and believe in the government assuming active responsibility for many manufacturing services and distributions now served by private enterprise. In fact, many believe that the profit system is inherently evil. This, coupled with our lack of depth of understanding of and willingness to practice Christianity, suggests a dark picture indeed for purposes for which so many Americans have given their lives. Perhaps we do need a careful re-evaluation of our goals and purposes to find a true sense of direction.

Over the next few months I hope I can share with you some of the problems and their solutions found in each country. In the mean time, I hope all of us can somehow find the inspiration to give real thought as to what High Point College can do and how we can help.

ALUMNI NOTES

MRS. MARTHA MICKEY WALKER '43, a teacher at Gray High School in Winston-Salem, was honored recently when the Senior Class dedicated their 1963 yearbook to her.

LEWIS C. HILLMAN '49, an Army Major, was recently assigned to the Military Assistance Advisory Group in Vietnam.

1950's

PHILIP T. WALL '50 was recently promoted to Assistant Vice President of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Greensboro.

S. J. WEBSTER, JR. '56 recently returned from a tour of duty with the Judge Advocate Department of the U. S. Air Force in Korea and has joined the law firm of Folger and Ellington in Madison.

JOHN Y. POWELL '57 is now a graduate student of the University of North Carolina.

JACK G. DAN '59 was recently married to Betty Westmoreland. They will live in Winston-Salem.

1960's

STEWART ARNOLD '60 is an instructor in IBM operations at the Patterson Trade School in Montgomery, Alabama.

MR. & MRS. RICHARD T. HUBER '60 (EDITH HARPER '53) announce the birth of a daughter. Richard is with the National Fish Hatchery at Paint Bank, Va.

ALICE M. HOBSON '62 is now living in Charlotte where she is Educational Assistant at Dilworth Methodist Church.

EVENING SCHOOL

The enrollment in the Evening School has surpassed the fondest expectations. In the fall of 1960, 111 townspeople or non-regular students registered. In the fall of 1962, 274 townspeople or non-regular students were enrolled. That indicates an enrollment in 1962 of almost two and one-half times as many town and non-regular college students as registered in 1960.

In the fall of 1960, twelve courses were taught in the Evening School. This year, 25 courses are being taught. In the fall of 1960, twelve people were teaching in the Evening School. In the fall of 1962, nineteen people were teaching. These figures show significantly the rapid growth of the Evening School and confirm the opinion of its organizers that there is a definite need for such a program at High Point College.

Other courses are added to the Evening School program when a sufficient demand or interest is shown. During the past summer, a number of requests were made for a course in library science. That course is now being offered with a splendid enrollment for such a technical course.

Courses are offered in the following: art, biology, business, English, geography, history, library science, math, physical education, political science, psychology, sociology, Spanish, and speech.

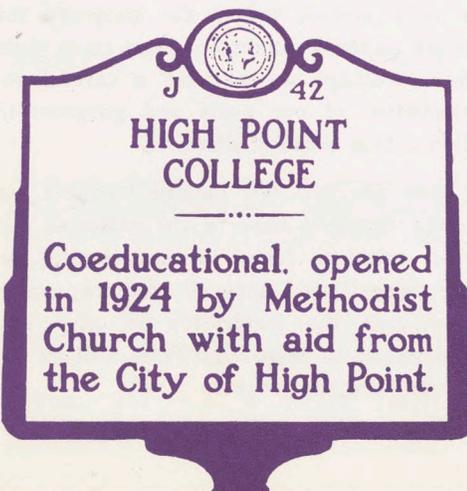

Dr. Clifford R. Hinshaw is Director of the Evening School.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY — SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT HIGH POINT, N. C.

Construction Of Men's Dorm Progresses

Construction work on the men's dorm has been slowed during January due to cold weather. However, the contractor is confident that it will be ready for occupancy by September 1st.

The new residence hall will house 110 students. Facilities will be available for fraternities in the lounge areas if they desire to rent them.

Development Committee Created

The Long-Range Planning Committee in its report to the Board of Trustees recommended a Committee of twenty-five to implement the long-range plans of the College. This Committee is designed to work with the director of development, the administration and trustees to determine immediate needs and to make recommendations to the Board of Trustees in the area of development.

The Committee will be made up of:

- Five members from the Trustees
- Five members from the alumni
- Five members from Administration and Faculty
- Ten members at large

The personnel of this committee has not been announced.

Attend Public Relations Meet

The annual meeting of the Mason-Dixon District Conference of the American College Public Relations Association was held at Chapel Hill February 14-16. W. Lawson Allen, Director Division of College Relations, and Duffy L. Paul, Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association attended. Mr. Allen presented a paper entitled "My Major Fund Raising Problems in a Church-Related College."

LONG RANGE PLANS ADOPTED

The New Bulletin

This Development issue of the High Point College Bulletin begins a new approach to communications with the College constituencies. Every other issue will be for the Alumni. The Development issue will be mailed to alumni, ministers, donors, prospective donors and other friends of the College.

Comments and suggestions will be gladly received by the College Relations Division.

Bequests Received

During the last few months the College has received two bequests from estates of individuals. The Tennie Highfill Fox and the Jessica T. Fogle wills brought the scholarship and loan funds more than $25,000.

Have you made a will? Have you revised your will? Have you included High Point College?

Enrolment Figures

Last September the enrolment was 1,036. At the beginning of the second semester the number was 960. The loss, which was near the average for other years, was due to graduation, withdrawals, and failure to meet academic requirements.

New students admitted numbered forty-four — eleven freshmen, sixteen transfers from other colleges, and seventeen former students who have had their college work interrupted. Only 44% of those making application were accepted. Tighter admission standards, according to Stan Broadway, Admission's Officer, accounts for the small number accepted.

Sacrifice

People talk of the sacrifice I have made in spending so much of my life in Africa.

Is that a sacrifice which brings its own blest reward in healthful activity, the consciousness of doing good, peace of mind, and a bright hope of a glorious hereafter? Can that be called sacrifice which is simply paid back as a small part of a debt owing to God which can never be repaid? It is emphatically no sacrifice. It is a privilege. — David Livingstone

The Long-Range Planning Committee made its report to the Board of Trustees on January 9. After careful consideration the Board adopted the plans without change.

The committee based its projection on at least twelve assumptions arrived at by careful study of the past and present and by projecting the results for the future.

The philosophy, objectives and purposes were assumed to remain the same.

The semester system will be retained.

Enrolment will be stabilized at 1,200 exclusive of summer school and night school.

Out-of-state students were expected to reach 1 to 3 ratio with instate students.

The ratio of students to faculty will be kept below the 20 to 1 mark.

Boarding students by all predictions would reach 65% of total student enrolment.

The over-all Church support will remain rather constant with that of student services.

Average faculty salaries should be increased by 100%, and fringe benefits should reach at least 6% of the total salary of each faculty member.

The unrestricted endowment should rise to six million dollars.

The capital needs to provide the space and equipment for a quality college should be set at $1,665,000 as a minimum.

Student fees are expected to advance during the next ten years by 28% beyond the present range.

To reach these goals means that we must find an average of $420,000 per year for each of the ten years: for endowment $2,800,000 and for building needs about $1,400,000 beyond what we can now foresee.

The building list includes:

Administration	$ 150,000
Infirmary	15,000
Religion and Chapel	300,000
Science	600,000
Women's Dormitory	375,000
Men's Dormitory	375,000
(under construction)
Miscellaneous buildings and equipment	180,000
<hr/>

Less funds in hand and government loans	1,995,000 600,000

Estimated total needed	$1,395,000

Board Of Fellows Completed

The Board of Fellows has been completed for the current year. A total of thirty members was enlisted and names have been sent to the catalogue and the year book. This program was initiated under the leadership of Dr. H. H. Peterson, former director of endowment and development.

Fellows are admitted by the payment of $1,000 to capital or endowment funds of the College.

The annual meeting of Fellows will be held in early spring. Certificates of membership will be awarded new members and identification cards will be issued to all members at this meeting.

The members are listed below with the number of years of participation as a member of The Board of Fellows indicated in parentheses:

Scholarship Help Essential

The number of students who earnestly desire an education but who need financial aid far exceeds the College's ability to provide this help.

One fine student came by the office to say that he could not continue in college because of lack of funds. His story could be duplicated again and again.

The College needs to find some additional sources which will provide the funds for those who are unable to continue college without financial aid.

The Scholar Program will help! Will you consider helping?

The Scholar Program Next Emphasis

The Scholar Program was initiated last year by a direct mailing to about five thousand individuals, small businesses, corporations, churches, and Sunday School classes. Although there was little effort to follow-up this mailing, the results were encouraging. More than $3,000 were received before the close of the fiscal year, May 31, and other funds have come to the Business Office since that time.

This Scholar Program is based on the need of scholarship aid by many students. To become a Scholar, a person gives $100 to $900 to the College designated for student aid.

The closing date for Scholars is May 31. The need is great and the service to be rendered to our young people is almost without limit.

Listed below are the Scholars for last year and others have already responded this year.

Artist's Sketch of Proposed Science Building

Science Building Needed

Since Sputnik I was hurled into space the student enrolment of High Point has increased 75%. During this same period the demand for science courses has increased more than 300%.

There are those who have questioned the need for a science building. Why do we need a new building when we have one only eight years old? The need can best be explained by the first paragraph plus the fact that we built in 1954 the building for which we could pay. The garment was cut according to the cloth.

The building as set forth in preliminary plans has adequate laboratory space, classrooms, research space, and office space for a student body of 1,200. How can this building become a reality? The answer is found only in the dedication of trustees, faculty and students to the educational ideal of quality.

For The Best Four Years . . .

To be at home in all lands and all ages; to count nature a familiar acquaintance and art an intimate friend; to carry the key to the world's library in your pocket, and feel its resources behind you in whatever task you undertake; to make friends among men of your age who are to be leaders in all walks of life; to lose oneself in generous enthusiasm and cooperate with others for common ends; to learn manners from students who are gentlemen and form character under professors who are Christians—these are the returns of a college for the best four years of one's life.

Be A Giving Person

When someone mentions giving, our thoughts immediately turn to our pocket-books. To be sure, giving of our money is a part of being a giving person. But this is not all there is to this business of giving. To be a really genuine giving person, we must give of our interest, time, talents, and money. We should not give until it hurts; we should give of our total resources until it makes us feel good. To paraphrase, it is much more important to be a "giver" than a "getter."

Some say that they are too busy to give of their time and talents, but most of us manage to find the time if we are really interested.

I can think of nothing more important in which to invest our interest, time, talents, and money than Christian higher education. At the time when our colleges are bursting at the seams with students and with the prediction that by 1970 enrollment will be doubled, we must act now to save our Church-related colleges from financial disaster.

Support Christian higher education through the college of your choice now.

— Duffy Paul

Double Dessert

On March 21 there will be two noteworthy groups performing on the High Point College campus.

At 6-8 p.m. the top entertainment group of Peter, Paul and Mary will give a performance in the Alumni Memorial Gymnasium. The students deserve a lot of credit for moving this performance up to this hour in order not to interfere with the other group.

Verdi's Requiem will be performed by the Winston-Salem Symphony Orchestra under the direction of John Iuele and a Chorus composed of townspeople and college students at 8:30 o'clock.

The performance is under the joint sponsorship of the High Point Junior League and High Point College.

Education Is For Leadership

Any college — old or young, large or small — must have a living personality separate and distinct from all others. That is what makes it worthy of its name. This personality, this individuality, should be deeply rooted in its philosophy and objectives and revealed through its actions. High Point College accepts as its fundamental purpose the task of preparing leaders for our exciting tomorrow and dedicates itself to this end.

Giving While You Can Enjoy It

W. Lawson Allen

One phase of development has to do with helping individuals find ways to invest in higher education in such a way as to be advantageous to the individual.

Mr. Allen At the same time he may see what his investment is accomplishing.

There are several methods by which a person may share in the education of deserving youth.

1. Gifts from income provides a tax saving according to the income bracket up to 30% of taxable income.
2. Gifts from capital such as securities, real estate, or other properties with tax saving on appreciated capital.

3. Gifts by revocable trust with life income for himself with remainder going to the College.
4. Gifts by life income plans especially interesting to those individuals who have large incomes during peak earning years.
5. Gifts by charitable trust established by the donor with income going to the College for a period of at least two years.
6. Gifts by life insurance by assigning irrevocably a policy to the College.

Interest in any of the above may be explored by contacting the Development Office of the College.

Summer School Presents Unusual Programs

In addition to well-rounded academic offerings the Summer School at High Point College proposes at least three unusual programs.

Summer College Preparatory Program

For the second summer the College offers a College Preparatory Program for those who have not been able to gain acceptance to college because of low grade averages. According to Grady Whicker, the 1962 session was highly successful in that the eighteen young people who were accepted at High Point after successfully completing the summer program made acceptable grades for readmission to the second semester.

Aero-Space Workshop

This three-week course will be repeated June 12 through July 1 in connection with the summer school. The course is designed for public-school teachers and will fulfill requirements for certificate renewal.

Dr. L. M. Hays, Chairman of the Department of Sociology at High Point College will direct the program assisted by USAF reserve officers and Civil Air Patrol personnel.

History Caravan

This summer for the first time the College will provide a unique approach to the understanding of our heritage through an American History Caravan to the battlefields of the Civil War from Fredricksburg to Gettysburg. Dr. David Cole, Chairman of the Department of History, will direct the Caravan. Mr. Jesse L. Taylor, Director of the Division of Student Personnel, will manage the Caravan.

Those interested in any of these programs may contact Dean Conrad, Director of Summer School.

First Annual Report Presented

"Reporting for '62," the first annual report published by the College has been mailed to more than 6,000 individuals, corporations, and foundations.

Comparisons of 1952 and 1962 were set forth in the several areas of college operations. The following excerpts indicate the progress made in some of these areas:

Where Are We Going From Here?

The answer to the question "Where are we going?" depends first on where we now are. The preceding statement may seem unnecessary, for most of us think we know where we are. It is well, however, for us to look at the road we have traveled, our present surroundings, the conditions which exist, even our attitudes and those who are with us. It may well be that we ought not to start from here! Let us take inventory before we go too far.

We have a good, small plant. We have a good faculty. We have a well-balanced student body. We have some difficulties without which we would be much more comfortable but less likely to go anywhere.

We must think larger thoughts. We must dream greater dreams. We must strive for excellence conceived in minds and bodies unafraid of truth. We must build without thought of self but with the selfless ideal of serving God through service to this generation of students and to all those who will need our services through the unfolding years.

We are going somewhere. Where we go will be determined by our choices today in every realm.

Evening College Grows

The Evening College enrolment this semester came to 343 as compared to 292 for the same period last year, Dr. C. R. Hinshaw announced. From the community 268 enrolled as non-regular college students, an increase of 51% over last year's figure. These figures indicate the eagerness of adults to keep learning.

Dr. Patton The presenting of the report of the College "Reporting for '62" was our first attempt to share with those who have invested in the College. For some the investment was financial support and for others time, effort, and influence, special talents and resources as well as loyalty and enthusiasm, have been made available to us. Above all we have always felt your prayers and best wishes.

What is the condition of our College? In a word — good. Our faculty is strong, the student body is the best yet, the budget remains balanced, standards are improving, and the College is accepting new responsibilities and tackling problems heretofore undreamed. Progress has been sound and well-balanced — but not accomplished without mistakes. However, each forward step has provided a new vantage point for a clearer view ahead. Many steps must be taken before the full potential of our College as an educational and spiritual force and as a dynamic contributor to our community is realized.

Your interest and efforts have resulted in progress. It will be your continued support that allows High Point College to maintain and improve its programs as we build for the future.

Alumni Annual Giving

The Alumni of High Point College are showing tangible evidence of their interest in and concern for Christian higher education through their increased annual support of their Alma Mater. Annual support of the Alumni is vital to the life and growth of High Point College. The greatest asset of High Point College is its interested Alumni. Fifteen per cent (15%) of the Alumni have given $6,800.00 toward the 1962-63 goal of 25% giving $10,000.00. The fiscal year ends on May 31 and we must reach the goal by that date if we are to receive the matching gift of $5,000.00 from a friend of the college. Fifty-four contributors are necessary to raise the level of giving one per cent. Each Alumnus should make his stand for Christian higher education now.

Possibilities For Memorials Plentiful

The High Point College campus offers varied opportunities for memorials, ranging from naming a building already constructed to the naming of any building set forth in the long-range plans. Some of these possibilities are:

1. Men's Dormitory
2. Women's Dormitory
3. Chapel and Religion Building
4. Science Building
5. Health Center
6. Swimming Pool
7. Name Student Center
8. Name present Science Building

To extend one's usefulness and influence through the years of the future would indeed be extending the quality of life.

1963 HOMECOMING A SUCCESS

Undaunted by the prediction of snow, hundreds of alumni and other friends returned to the campus for a warm reception by students and faculty on a cold, clear Homecoming Day on February 9.

The morning was spent visiting the Alumni Office, "Signing In" at the Student Center, attending the Faculty-Student basketball game and having lunch with the students. The afternoon was filled with visits with student organizations, former professors, viewing the colorful displays, attendance at the President's reception and the student Pep Rally.

Over 300 persons attended the Alumni Dinner in Harrison Hall to hear a report on Alumni activities and a talk by President Patton. Recognition was given to Mike Reyes who traveled from Mexico to attend, to the class of 1962 and to the High Point Chapter for having the largest per cent of members present.

The Alumni basketball game preceding the regular game was a thriller. The following alumni participated: Kent Moseley, Hugh Hampton, Phil Crockett, J. C. Bledsoe, Bob Dunbar, Roy Dixon, Gray Cartwright, Bill Hicks, Tony Lisk, Bob Davidson, Mort Littman, and David Moore. Wilson Rogers acted as honorary coach.

Our Purple Panthers rolled over Appalachian for a 74 to 50 victory before an estimated audience of 3200, the largest number to that date to overflow the Alumni Gym.

Miss Judy Raykes was crowned Homecoming Queen by Bob Parrish, Alumni President, during half-time activities. First Place Display Award went to Alpha Gamma Delta and Second Place to Theta Chi.

Following the game, alumni joined the students for an informal dance in Harrison Hall.

The success of Homecoming was due to cooperation and participation of alumni, students and faculty.

ALUMNUS SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Dr. Charles D. White '39, pastor of First Methodist Church, Asheboro, was the speaker for the induction service of the ORDER OF THE LIGHTED LAMP in Assembly on February 20. Dr. White told students "voices are constantly calling to us today." The voices he spoke of are evaluation, imagination, realization and consecration. He said, "everyone is called to consecrate himself to do the best he knows how. God needs young hands, young hearts to fashion out the world that is to be."

CLASS REUNIONS

The following classes will hold reunions on Alumni Day, May 18, 1963:

- 1928 — 35th year
- 1933 — 30th year
- 1938 — 25th year
- 1943 — 20th year
- 1948 — 15th year
- 1953 — 10th year
- 1958 — 5th year
- 1960 — 3rd year
- 1962 — 1st year

You will be hearing from your Class Agent concerning plans for your class reunion. Plan now to attend.

ALUMNI DAY

The Alumni Executive Committee has set May 18, 1963, for the annual Alumni Day. The day's activities will include Class Reunions, Alumni-Senior Dinner, and the election of Alumni Officers for 1963-64. The program will be printed in the May issue of the Bulletin. Now is the time to mark your calendar and make plans to attend.

PURPLE PANTHERS TAKE SECOND PLACE

The Purple Panthers took second place in the Carolinas Conference regular basketball season and also in the Conference Tournament at Lexington. The Panthers finished the season with an overall 22 wins and 7 losses, with 13 wins and 4 losses in Conference games. In tournament play, the Panthers went into the finals after eliminating Atlantic Christian 90-57 and Appalachian 72-60. In the final game Lenoir-Rhyne, who had taken first place in the Conference, won the 1963 Championship by stopping the Panthers 63-47. Coach Tom Quinn and his Purple Panthers are to be congratulated for an outstanding season. The prospects for next year's team are good considering the fact that only one of the squad will be lost by graduation, co-captain Larry Nolan.

ALUMNI COMMITTEES TO MEET

The Nominating Committee will be meeting in April to nominate Alumni Association officers for 1963-64. W. E. Routh of Greensboro is Chairman; other members are: Ronald Chapman, Talton Johnson, Wayne Cagle, Robert Rankin, and Duffy Paul.

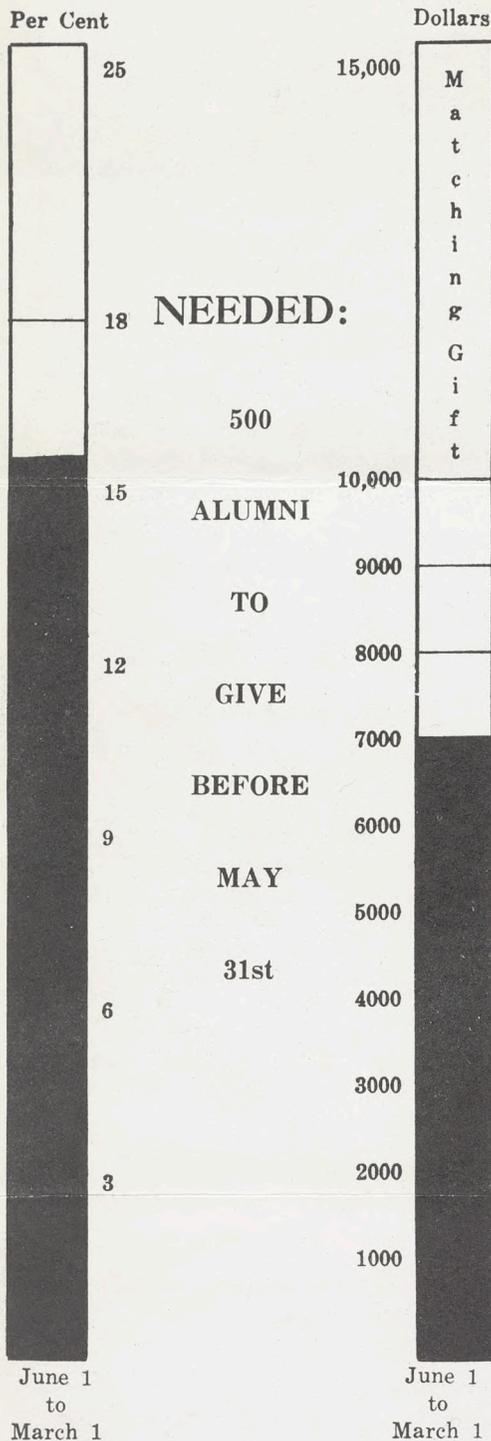

The Committee to select the Alumnus of the Year will also meet in April. Harold White of High Point is Chairman; other members are John Rierison, Foil Charles, Gerald Coghill and Duffy Paul.

Individual members of the Association and Chapters may suggest candidates by submitting their names, along with biographical sketches, to the Alumni Office not later than March 31.

ARTIST'S SKETCH, MEN'S DORMITORY
(A. G. ODELL, JR. and ASSOCIATES)

The Scholar Program — Is It Worth It?

It will take you approximately one minute to read this article. This one minute could be the most important minute in a student's life.

The High Point College Scholar Program was created to help students meet the financial stresses encountered in obtaining a college education, through scholarships, work grants, or loans.

If only one of those students becomes a doctor . . . space scientist . . . elementary teacher . . . minister . . . judge . . . do you think it would be worth your contribution to High Point College in support of the Scholar Program?

Barring the unforeseen the recipients will graduate. Whether or not, all of them will take their positions in the community just as you and I have.

One of these might fly a spaceship . . . find a cure for cancer . . . teach your child . . . become the pastor of your church . . . or preside over a court of law . . . none of this is beyond belief. However, others are waiting. They need your help and the help of all friends of High Point College.

Perhaps the goal for 1962-1963 (shown below) will be more meaningful now. The College needs help to help more students.

1 We must broaden our base of support for student aid. At least 100 individuals, Sunday school classes, or businesses ought to be enlisted to give at least $100. Let us strive for $10,000 for this purpose.

If you have responded thank you. If you haven't won't you?

Yes, even one scholar makes it worth it!

The High Point College Development Council authorized by the Board of Trustees at the February 13 meeting held the first meeting on April 2, 1963 at the College. Created to broaden and undergird the basic concern for immediate and long-range plans recently adopted by the Board of Trustees.

The Council is a planning council in that long-range plans must be continually studied and projected as immediate objectives are realized. The Council is also a council busy with implementing the plans, discovering sources of support, and enlisting those who will share their talents with High Point College in its quest for excellence.

Dean Conrad Heads Curriculum Study

Dr. Conrad already under way. He will assume these duties June 1, 1963 for one year.

The Board of Trustees, meeting on March 13, instructed President Patton to designate a faculty member to be responsible for the successful completion of the study. This curriculum study is an integral part of the long-range plans of High Point College.

Dr. Conrad will retain the title of Dean of the College but will be relieved of the administrative responsibilities of the office. An Acting Dean has been appointed to assume these responsibilities for the year.

Dean Conrad has been in the forefront of the study to this date and with his interest, knowledge, and ability the assignment will be successful.

Dr. Conrad will continue to teach in the Department of History and direct the development of long-range educational plans for the faculty.

DEVELOPMENT — WHAT IS IT?

The work of Development is divided into many parts and cannot be considered as just "raising money." It must be considered as the total development of every department and every aspect of High Point College. Development is a new-comer to the college scene. It includes the areas of public relations, news and publicity, alumni affairs, fund raising, to name some of the more important areas. However, the chief task stated simply is to interpret the college and its activities, services, and academic pursuits to its total constituencies, in such a way that the climate will be conducive to total support which will come to it as the result of such interpretation.

A Development Program to be effective must include every trustee, administrative officer, member of the faculty, every staff member, every student, and every parent. Lines of communication must be established and kept open between them. Trustees have served well, administrators have given themselves unstintedly. Many faculty members have served in dedicated abandon with salaries far too meager. Many individuals have opened their purse strings that High Point College might come to this hour. Students have come, studied, graduated, and gone out to serve in far flung places to enrich the life of our world.

The College has two organized efforts to promote annual giving. The first—the Fellow Program is a trustee responsibility. The funds acquired are used for endowment and capital funds. A Gift of $1,000 or more qualifies one for this select group—the Board of Fellows. Seven new members have been added to the Fellows this year. A Fellow, therefore, is a person who shares with the College in building into the lives of students the qualities of character that endure.

Another program of annual giving is the Scholar Program. This is an effort to increase the student aid fund of the College to help worthy students who need financial help to obtain an education. Gifts of any size are welcomed but $100 is suggested as a minimum. A little more than $3,000 was added to the fund by last Spring's solicitation by mail. Our sights are set on $10,000 this year. To date, more than $1,500 has come for 1963.

The continuous effort to secure funds for capital improvements and endowment is perennial in nature. Gifts from individuals, corporations, and foundations are, and will be solicited. A mailing will go out every two months to a select group (500 individuals) over the next year and a half. From those who may be interested in continuing Christian higher education High Point College will seek funds to improve the quality of education and expand its services. Thoughtful and intense interest in High Point College are urgently needed. The task is colossal, but thrilling, as we face the challenge of the future!

Alumni Annual Giving

The Alumni Annual Giving program for 1962-63 is drawing to a close. The fiscal year ends on May 31. As of March 31 our loyal Alumni have given $8,500.00. This represents contributions by 900 Alumni which is 17% of our total Alumni group. To date the class of 1937 is the leader in Annual Giving, dollar and percentage wise. We must reach our goal of 25% giving a total of $10,000.00 by May 31 if the College is to receive the matching gift of $5,000.00 from a friend. Support Christian higher education through High Point College now.

High Point College Board Of Trustees Meets

The Board of Trustees at their spring meeting approved a bond indenture for the $200,000 loan on the new men's dormitory, approved the creation of a Development Council, and approved a new faculty retirement program under TIAA. It also voted to commend the faculty for the work beginning in studying the college's entire educational curriculum, with a view toward developing a more comprehensive educational program for High Point College students.

Fellows Honored At Dinner

The annual dinner honoring the Board of 30 Fellows of High Point College was held at the Sheraton Hotel in High Point, Tuesday evening, April 2, at seven o'clock. Guests included Dr. H. H. Peterson, the founder of the Board of Fellows, Dr. and Mrs. Wendell M. Patton, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Williams.

The invocation was given by Dr. Peterson. Following dinner, President Patton brought an address stressing the need for strong independent church-related colleges.

Certificates were awarded to seven new members. Those receiving certificates were: Mr. N. C. English, Thomasville, N. C.; Mr. David R. Hayworth, High Point; Mrs. Eleanor Powell Latimer, High Point; Mrs. J. Edward Millis, High Point; Mr. Tom R. Pitts, High Point; Mr. John C. Slane, Slane Hosiery Mills, High Point; and Mr. L. L. Weltner, Western Electric Foundation, Winston-Salem.

Other awards were small pocket cards for each Fellow to identify them at all College functions. The cards were specially designed for the Fellows and names were hand-let-tered in Old English.

Dr. Cole Named Acting Dean

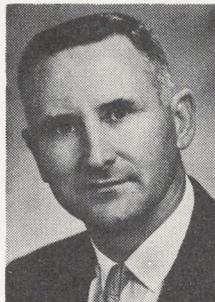

Dr. David P. Cole, Head of the History Department, has been named Acting Dean for the 1963 - 64 school year. Dr. Cole will assume the administrative duties of the office on June 1, 1963.

Dr. Cole is a native of Albany, Georgia and received the A.B. from Erskine College, the M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina. He formerly taught at the University of South Carolina, Lander College and Pfeiffer College from which he came to High Point in the summer of 1962.

Dr. Cole is married to the former Mary Clark Denny. The Coles have four children, David, Carol, Mary Clark and Jim. They reside at 818 Montlieu Avenue.

This summer Dr. Cole will direct High Point College's first History Caravan to the battlefields of Virginia and Gettysburg in Maryland.

Mr. Allen
These colleges have been nurtured by the ideals of freedom of enterprise. They can survive only as long as these freedoms are secure.

Both the federal and state government encourage by their tax laws financial support by individuals and corporations. The United States Supreme Court states, "Anyone may arrange his affairs that his taxes will be as low as possible . . ." By bequests, by gifts, by trusts the College may be supported and the donor will perform an act which will carry forward the spirit of endeavor in a free society.

The Director of Development has noted with encouragement that a number of individuals have made wills favoring High Point College. If you have done so, please inform us so that we may have the information (not details). There are many others, who are in positions to share in the future of High Point College. We do not deal in the legal and tax aspects of wills and trusts, but will be pleased to advise and refer any person to legal help.

Only you . . . Can sign your will, to make your wishes live!

Dr. Patton

Those of us intimately involved in the process of education on a day-to-day basis many times see only the problems and failures and criticisms which somehow always come to our attention. This is so much so that it becomes difficult to see progress that is being made. I am sure that every Trustee and Administrator at times has wondered if it is worth the effort. And then we think of you—people who are devoting time and money in the support of Christian education—not only in promoting Christian higher education, but in promoting High Point College. Your confidence is heart-warming and gives us hope and courage to meet our responsibilities.

High Point College has a new mission. In the past it, as has many other colleges, prepared itself to maintain records of our cultural heritage and to try to impart this heritage to those who would come to us. This we must do—and do well—a powerful force, a troubled world—a foundation of idealism has made America great. But today this isn't enough. We are busily engaged in reappraising our methods, our processes, our goals—not only to increase effectiveness, but to brace ourself squarely in the main stream of life, finding more and more ways in which our resources and assets can be used in our community.

As I say this I would also suggest that our church-related higher education is in jeopardy—probably more than any of us are willing to admit.

One hundred and fifty years ago all higher education was church-supported and church-sponsored. Today 47% of North Carolina graduates come from private institutions. This percentage is dropping each year. With the continued expansion of tax-supported institutions and proposals for building many, many more, the role of private education will become less significant—particularly in view of the fact we are struggling to maintain the high quality that we have.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain private money and increasingly easy to obtain federal money.

We at High Point College are not pessimistic because we know that our task ahead, even though difficult, can and will be accomplished. We are going to be so necessary and so important and make ourselves so vital to this community that we are not only the greatest asset, but the finest investment that anyone can make.

The High Point College Development Council was formed, after being approved by the Board of Trustees at their spring meeting, composed of outstanding, influential citizens, who know of the necessity of our educational venture and who are willing to help develop our College from a long-range standpoint.

From the bottom of our hearts we extend gratitude and appreciation to you who are doing so much for our College. We welcome you as partners in this greatest of all ventures with a sense of humility, challenge, and enthusiasm. With people like you we know that the job will be well done.

HONORARY DEGREES TO BE AWARDED

Dr. Lovelace

Mr. Tuttle

Mr. Waynick

Three honorary degrees will be awarded at commencement on May 26, 1963. Recipients are Dr. Austin C. Lovelace, The Reverend Robert G. Tuttle and Mr. Capus M. Waynick.

Dr. Lovelace received his A.B. Degree from High Point College in 1939, Master of Sacred Music and Doctor of Sacred Music from School of Sacred Music, Union Theological Seminary, New York. He is Minister of Music, Christ Church Methodist, New York City. Dr. Lovelace has served as Minister of Music in Lincoln, Nebraska, Greensboro, and Evanston, Illinois; as an instructor at the University of Nebraska; head of the Organ Department at Queens College, Charlotte; and associate professor in church music at Garrett Theological Seminary in Illinois. He is a lecturer, recitalist, composer and author. Dr. Lovelace will be awarded the Doctor of Music Degree.

The Reverend Robert G. Tuttle is superintendent of the Asheville District of the Methodist Church. He was educated at Duke University where he received his A.B. and B.D. degrees. He has been a Methodist Minister in the Western North Carolina Conference since 1933 and has served churches throughout the Conference. He was Minister of First Methodist Church, High Point, for five years. Mr.

Tuttle has been an exchange minister to England and Canada. As an author he is a regular contributor to religious publications. He is a trustee of Brevard College. Mr. Tuttle will be awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree.

Mr. Capus M. Waynick is executive vice president of The Richardson Foundation of New York City. The Foundation is interested in citizenship education and has a special interest in the problems of North Carolina and other southeastern states. Projects have included research through the Institute of Government at Chapel Hill and research leading to improvement of the curricula in public schools. Mr. Waynick is former U.S. Ambassador to Colombia and Nicaragua and former Adjutant General of North Carolina. He has served in both branches of the North Carolina General Assembly and as Chairman of the State Highway Commission. He was called by President Truman to organize the staff and launch the Point IV Program, the adventure in international aid at the technical level. This agency was continued through the Eisenhower Administration as International Co-Operative Administration and will be the core of the proposed agency for Internal Development. Mr. Waynick will be awarded the Doctor of Laws degree.

DR. MAX ROGERS SPEAKS TO SENIORS

Dr. Max P. Rogers '38 was Senior Investiture Speaker in Assembly on May 1, 1963, when the graduating class of 1963 received their caps and gowns. Dr. Rogers received his A.B. degree from High Point College and his M.D. degree from Duke University. He was an intern and assistant resident of surgery at Duke. During World War II he served overseas with the Navy Medical Corps. Since 1947 he has been practicing surgery in High Point. He has been active in the Family Service Bureau, Kiwanis Club and Y.M.C.A. He is past president and presently advisor to the High Point Chapter of the American Cancer Society and a member of the State Board of Directors of the Society. He is also a member of the local, county and state medical societies, fellow of the Southeastern Surgical Congress, fellow of the American College of Surgeons, member Board of Directors of the State Cancer Hospital at Lumberton, member of Mayor's Committee for the Handicapped, and Chairman of the Committee of Exhibits of the State Medical Society.

ALUMNUS LEADS RELIGION IN LIFE PROGRAM

The Reverend Mel Harbin '45, pastor of Memorial Methodist in Thomasville, was the leader for the Religious Life Week at High Point College in March. "Waiting" was the program theme. The program began with Assembly, included devotions in Lindley Chapel and group discussions. The annual observance of Religion in Life Week was sponsored by the Student Christian Association, Pattie Colliver, President.

OPEN LETTER TO ALUMNI

Dear friends:

The past two years have been significant ones in the Alumni Program at High Point College. The progress that has been made can be attributed primarily to two factors: an Executive Secretary who can give his full time to Alumni activities, and a growing responsiveness by our Alumni.

Alumni contributions have risen from 2% to 18% (we expect this to rise to 25% before our year ends), and there has been a corresponding increase in the amount contributed.

Seven Alumni Chapters have been organized or re-organized during this period. We now have a total of 14 active Chapters, which are growing in strength and in ability to serve High Point College.

Our Alumni records are in the process of being brought up to date. This has been a time-consuming but necessary task. Our Homecoming and Alumni Day programs have grown in attendance and effectiveness. We have established a class agent system, and the work of the class agents has been in a large way responsible for our successful programs.

There has been particular emphasis on developing an understanding of and an interest in Alumni activities among the students. We feel it is time to begin to get the student interested in the contribution he can make to his college when he becomes a member of the Alumni Association. We have established an Emergency Loan Fund for the students, and this has created much goodwill.

I believe the accomplishments of the past two years form a solid foundation on which can be built an exceptional Alumni organization. There is no reason we cannot become one of the outstanding Alumni groups in the nation and thereby be vital in the future of High Point College. May I express my sincere appreciation for the co-operation you have given to me and to our college.

Sincerely,
—Bob L. Parrish

DR. PATTON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FOUNDATION

The trustees of the North Carolina Foundation of Church Related Colleges in their annual meeting elected Dr. Wendell M. Patton, president of the Foundation.

This foundation created ten years ago has channeled more than two and one-half million dollars into the current operations budget of the twenty-four member colleges. The purpose of the foundation is to acquaint industry with the need of church-related higher education in North Carolina.

Dr. Patton has expressed a willingness to bring to the foundation some of the principles employed by industry and corporations in successful operation. He succeeds Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president of Guilford College. Senator Archie K. Davis is chairman of the board of the foundation. Other officers are Dr. Leslie Campbell, Campbell College, vice-president; and Dr. C. Grier Davis, Montreat-Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Patton

Stan Broadway Assumes New Position

Mr. Broadway assumed his duties as executive secretary of College Foundation, Inc. with headquarters in Raleigh, North Carolina on June 1. The foundation administers the North Carolina Bankers Student Loan Fund.

Stan graduated from High Point as a member of the class of 1957. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. After teaching one year he came to the College as alumni secretary and admissions counsellor in 1958. He became director of admissions in 1959.

He married Elaine Mills '58 of Albemarle who has taught in the High Point City Schools. They will reside in Raleigh at 3112 Ward Road.

Stan's work as director of admissions has been outstanding, and while the College suffers a great loss in his going, we wish for him success in his new position.

He that would live in peace and at ease, must not speak all he knows, nor judge all he sees.

Franklin's Poor Richard's Almanack

Dr. Holt McPherson

Holt McPherson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, gave the literary address at Catawba College exercises held on the campus June 4, 1963.

The college conferred the L.L.D. degree on Mr. McPherson.

Miss Adams

Louise Adams Honored By Senior Class

The class of 1963 departed from the usual pattern for class gifts and set up an alumni scholarship fund honoring Miss Louise Adams, math teacher and alumni records custodian. The income from the fund is to be used to provide a scholarship for an incoming freshman.

The fund known as The Louise Adams Alumni Scholarship Fund will be administered by the Director of Financial Aid upon recommendation from the scholarship committee of the Alumni Association.

The alumni office will receive all additional funds designated for increasing its value.

The class of 1963 has begun a good work, a project to which other classes may wish to give consideration. The establishment of this fund opens the door for alumni to honor one who has given unstintingly of her time, influence, and energy to High Point College, and to students as well as alumni of the College. Too, the fund gives impetus to action to meet a most pressing need of High Point—adequate student financial aid.

Duffy Paul Becomes Director Of Admissions

Mr. Paul is business manager of Edenton Street Methodist Church, and office manager for Lowes, Inc., Raleigh, before coming to High Point.

He is a member of the Beta Phi Gamma fraternity. He was formerly member of the official board of Edenton Street Methodist Church, and is presently serving on the board of First Methodist Church, High Point.

Duffy is married to the former Kathryn Ward of Pittsboro and they have one son, Gary. They reside at 712 North Drive in High Point.

Duffy's excellent leadership is reflected in the active alumni chapters, the increase in annual giving, and in the general interest among alumni of High Point College. He will give himself with complete abandon to his new work as director of admissions. He will coordinate alumni affairs until his successor assumes his duties.

What Are We Doing?

Development is a growing field. Only a dozen years ago the term as now used was relatively unknown. Education was slow to accept the term as replacing "public relations." As now conceived development includes public relations, alumni relations, news and publicity, fund-raising, and recently the procuring of the kind of students which a college is prepared to serve.

The fund-raising element of development is divided into a number of parts. Annual giving programs such as the Fellow Proram, Scholar Proram, the Alumni Loyalty Fund, and several others to be added including Parent's and corporate support. Contacting foundations, corporations, and individuals come in for attention in fund raising. There is always the building of donor lists, mailing lists, and solicitation of prospects.

Development goes beyond the fund-raising conception usually applied, to the curriculum, the physical plant, the endowment, faculty salaries, student affairs, and to all those who compose the constituency of High Point College.

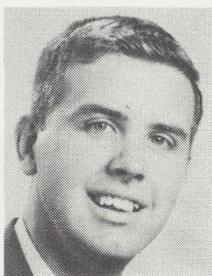

Goldston Presents Scholarship Grant

An alumnus of High Point College, William D. Goldston, 1947, Leaksville, North Carolina, has given a scholarship grant to the College to be known as the Goldston Family Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Goldston is an alumna.

For the year 1963-'64 the scholarship will be in honor of Harold W. Whitcomb, president of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., Spray, North Carolina.

The Scholarship will be given to a male student who meets the qualifications in terms of need, academic standing, and extra-curricular contributions. The first award will be made for the fall semester of 1963.

Dale Brown Accepts Alumni Secretary Post

Mr. Brown

Dale William Brown, presently teaching history in Fairview Village High School and living in Norristown, Pa., has accepted the position as Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association.

Dale graduated from High Point with the class of 1961. He married the former Betty Gray Dorman, an alumna from Pembroke, North Carolina. He has done graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania.

While a student, Dale was Freshman Class President and Student Government Association Treasurer. He was named to the Order of the Lighted Lamp, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and was a Top-Ten Senior.

He brings to the new position a love for High Point College and a dedication to the Christian college ideals.

Dale will assume his duties the middle of August. In the interim the work of the Alumni Association will be carried on by the Division of College Relations working with Mr. Paul as coordinator with the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association.

There is no other door to knowledge than the door nature opens; there is no truth except the truths we discover in nature.

Parrish Receives Alumnus Of Year Award

Mr. Parrish

Bob L. Parrish '53 retiring president of the High Point College Alumni Association, was presented the alumnus of the year award on Alumni Day.

The award, first given in 1957, is based on service to the College and its Alumni Association, service to chosen profession, and to the Church. Selection is made by the alumnus of the year committee from nominations by individuals, chapters, and other alumni groups. Harold White was chairman of the committee.

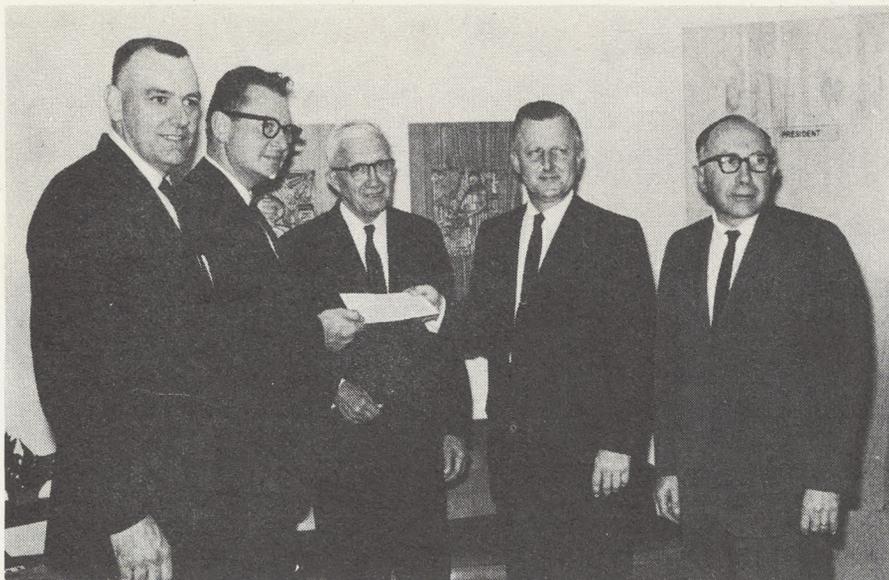

Bob's wife is the former Jo Bundy, High Point College, '53. They have two children and live at 320 Birchwood, High Point.

His record of service to the College and the Alumni Association has been one of solid achievement. He served three years as vice-president and two years as president of the association. His two years saw the annual giving percentage rise from 2% to 25%. He consistently is found among the leading agents of Pilot Life. As lay leader in the Methodist Church, he exemplifies rare ability and sterling service. He takes his place in community life — Jaycees, Toastmasters Club, Mayor's committee for Employment of Handicapped, and Board of House of Prayer for Alcoholics.

Men's Dormitory Named For J. Edward Millis

The Men's dormitory under construction on the west side of West College Drive has been named the J. E. Millis Building honoring the late J. E. Millis for his contribution to Christian higher education. The Board of Trustees in naming the building expressed to the family the deep esteem in which Mr. Millis was held and the sense of community spirit which he possessed.

The J. E. Millis Dormitory will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall semester. This fully air-conditioned building will provide space for 110 male students, four fraternities, and living quarters for the counsellor.

HIGH POINT RECEIVES GRANT

The Federation of Societies for Paint Technology, Piedmont Section, presented a check for $2,500 to Dr. Wendell M. Patton for scholarships for the Industrial Coating Center. Making the presentation was William B. Shepard, president of the Piedmont Center of the Federation, David Bouldin, Jr., chairman of the Education Committee, and Al Schwartz, section council representative.

Dr. E. O. Cummings, the retiring head of the Chemistry Department and now the director of the Industrial Coatings Center, explained that during the junior year the course in coatings and polymer chemistry may be elected. Cooperative research and laboratory work is carried on by the students working in local industries.

Several paint and coatings industries have given funds toward the establishment of the center. Among those contributing are: The Lilly Company, Marietta Paint and Color Company, Reliance Varnish Company of North Carolina, Grand Rapids Varnish Company, Southern Varnish Company, Roanoke, Virginia; Reliance Varnish Company, Louisville, Ky.; Coast Paint and Lacquer Company, Houston, Texas.

Henderson Elected Alumni President

William R. Henderson of Bennett Advertising Agency, High Point, was elected president of the High Point College Alumni Association. He is a graduate of Mr. Henderson High Point College, class of 1943. He was president of the student body and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities while a student.

Henderson is married to the former Dorothy Saunders of Reidsville and they reside at 1009 North Rotary Drive in High Point. His career since graduation has been marked by unusual success as a state official, buyer for Sears, member of the Jaycees from which he was named North Carolina Young Man of the Year in 1955.

Henderson's recent direction of the International Trade Fair in Charlotte marked his second brilliant achievement in this field, having engineered the 1961 Trade Fair also.

He brings to the Alumni Association a wealth of ability, achievement and wisdom that bespeaks a successful term as president of the association composed of 6,000 former students.

Other officers named were Blaine Madison '29, State Commissioner of Correction and Training, Vice-president; Recording secretary, Mrs. Sue C. Brown '48, teacher of Greensboro; and Mrs. Jane B. Rierson '57, teacher of Asheboro.

full-time work as chairman of curriculum planning for High Point College. Long-range plans for curriculum development will parallel the long-range plans recently adopted by the trustees.

DR. STUART C. DESKINS, Professor of History, has been awarded a summer sabbatical for 1963. He plans to accompany the High Point College American History Caravan.

DR. CHRISTOPHER L. WILSON has been appointed Chairman of the Department of Chemistry, succeeding Dr. E. O. Cummings, who is retiring as head of the department due to college retirement policies.

THE FUTURE IS IN OUR HANDS

At High Point College we are building for the future. That future is determined by what we do in the present. The students we now have, the students who are seeking admission, the parents, the faculty, the administration, the trustees, the community—all of us have the future in our hands.

So often, we attempt to evade responsibility. Students blame the administration, the teachers, or the background of home or high school for the conditions which exist. Students or their teachers become educated only as they respond and react to these conditions. To fret, to criticize or berate before giving our best effort to secure from the opportunity every good thing is to beat the air in frustration.

Our success or failure tomorrow will be determined in our todays.

WE NEED SOME EQUIPMENT!

Certain equipment is required to accomplish the best results. Our mailing facilities are inadequate. We need:

1. An Addressograph (metal plates) in order to mail the Bulletin and other bulk mail. Could some corporation with an Addressograph which has been replaced by electronic equipment donate or sell the machine to High Point College?
2. A Multigraph offset press for

There are many unpleasant experiences in each today, but success or failure will not be in proportion to the pleasure, disappointments, or hardships, but as a direct result of attitudes and reactions to whatever comes our way today.

The only future there will be is wrapped up in the potential of our young people. The only part we can have in that future is what we do to them and for them. The economic level of tomorrow will be determined by the extent of their education—a matter of quality. We shall plan and build unwisely unless we and they both plan and build in the context of the extent and quality of the education we offer.

"Our boasted freedoms are but empty words without the inner achievement of integrity. What is freedom of speech for one who has nothing to say; or what is freedom of worship to one who has no God." All of us together are responsible for the future of High Point College. As we assume the responsibility we guarantee its greatness.

printing folders, programs, letters, etc. Some firm with such a machine and not using it would be doing a real service to the College to make it available.

3. A folding machine.
4. A tying machine.

Our budget can't afford these, but some person, some corporation or business, some bank, may be able to help us.

The Development Council Is A Reality

The Executive Committee of the Development Council is composed of officers of the Council: Charles Hayworth and Elliott Wood, Co-chairmen; Arthur Williams, Secretary; Chairman of each standing committee: Charles D. White, Alumni; J. H. Millis, Annual Giving; Fred Alexander, Deferred Giving; At large: W. R. Henderson, Mrs. Annie Mae Powell, Harvey J. Smith, and W. P. Matthews.

At the May 2 meeting three others were proposed for membership on the Council, subject to their acceptance, to be assigned to the Annual Giving Committee, Allen Austin, Tom A. Finch, Jr. and Bill Horney. Others will be presented by the nominating committee at later meetings.

It is the definite conviction of the entire group that now is the time to begin planning to carry the attack to the entire area which is designated to each committee. The place to begin is right where we are. The following suggestions are offered:

1. In order to have an organization that is effective each committee must meet and plan the attack after becoming familiar with the area of concern.
2. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee must be held to transact any business and hear reports from each committee.
3. Individuals who have suggestions of any sort which may be helpful to the development program should communicate with the director of development, one of the co-chairmen, or the chairman of his committee.
4. Attend all meetings possible.

ALUMNI SURPASS GIVING GOALS

Last year a friend of High Point College who has a vital interest in the Alumni Program and who still prefers to remain anonymous gave $5,000 to the College's Board of Trustees to be held in trust pending the successful completion of the Alumni Annual Giving Program.

This goal was met and surpassed on May 31, 1963 and the Board of Trustees authorized Dr. Patton to turn over to the Alumni Association the $5,000 stock certificate. The goal reached by the Alumni Association this year compared to two years ago is almost phenomenal. Two years ago 2% of the High Point College Alumni contributed $570. Last year 18% contributed $5,770. For the year just ending, 1962-63, 25.5% of our former students of 1381 individuals contributed $13,990. to the support of Christian Higher Education through High Point College.

The challenge given to the Alumni Association by the friend of the college was that we must reach 25% participation giving a total of $10,000.

The one person who helped most in reaching the goal was Bob Parrish, the outgoing Alumni President. Although the bulk of solicitation was done by mail, telephone and personal contact under Bob Parrish's leadership sparked the final surge that put us over the goal.

Personal contact was carried on by Lee Sherrill, High Point; W. E. Routh, Greensboro; Mary Ann Hedgecock, Winston-Salem; and Harry Finch, Thomasville.

The class of 1962 was the second class to make a class gift to the Association making them a one hundred percent giving class. Dr. Patton secured the matching gift for a challenge to the Alumni Association. Alumni Annual Giving is a real yardstick on which to measure the effectiveness of the Alumni Program, and Annual Giving is vital to the life and growth of High Point College.

In pointing out the importance of Alumni participation and support it should be understood that foundations and corporations usually make grants to colleges who have a high percentage of Alumni participation. This percentage runs between forty and fifty percent. There is no reason why High Point College Alumni cannot reach fifty percent participation during the next five years.

The class of 1963 gave a donation to the Louise Adams Alumni Scholarship Fund, thus starting the 1963-64 Annual Giving Program. This is the third consecutive class having one hundred percent participation in the Alumni Annual Giving Program.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS ADMISSIONS POLICIES

Apparently there has been some misunderstanding regarding the policies of High Point College relative to the admission of qualified students. In order to clarify this to all concerned I will state that High Point College has neither a policy of segregation nor integration. We are a private educational institution, operating according to the philosophy and objectives stated in our catalogue and welcome applications from all qualified applicants without regard to race, creed, or religion.

As a matter of fact, we have had several Negro students—all of whom did outstanding work. No doubt we will have many more in the future.

The admissions policies of the College are determined by the Board of Trustees and the faculty. These policies in no way restrict applicants on the basis of race, creed, or religion. At the same time I would carefully emphasize that the College reserves the right to select the student body and we do this, not only on the basis of the quality of the applicants, but also in selecting students who have a need which this particular type of institution can fulfill and whom we believe will be a credit to it.

Our philosophy of education and objectives are carefully stated in our published catalogue and we do not intend to adopt any policy inconsistent with our stated purpose or the welfare of the College. We do not believe that the emotional question of segregation versus integration has any bearing on the educational task we are trying to perform.

Acceptances for the incoming freshman class of September were mailed out in February, 1963. We did not then, nor do we have now, any applications from Negro students. It is late to be applying for admission to any college and the opportunity of anyone applying now for acceptance in the fall would be extremely limited. However, we welcome applications from any qualified student who needs what this College has to offer and is willing to abide by its rules and regulations.

June 19, 1963

Wendell M. Patton

The goal as set by the Alumni Executive Committee for the new year 1963-64 is thirty percent participation and $20,000. We now have approximately 6,000 Alumni which means that 1800 former students of High Point College must step forward to support their college and Christian Higher Education in the new year.

There is no reason why High Point College cannot have the best Alumni Association in the country. With the continued efforts of interested Alumni, High Point College can grow into the institution which is its destiny.

A sincere "thank you" goes to all those who participated in any way in the Alumni Program for the past year.

THE WORD ALUMNI

The word alumni and its derivatives are often mispronounced by college graduates everywhere. To help those who stumble in the pronunciation of these words, John Corey, director of alumni affairs at Appalachian State Teachers College, gives the following hints.

Alumni is the plural word used in referring to male graduates of an institution. The middle syllable of the word is the cause of most of the trouble. The lum in alumni rhymes with thumb. Alumni can also refer to both men and women.

Alumnus is used in referring to a male graduate or former student of a school or college. The middle syllable of the word is pronounced the same as in alumni.

Alumna is the term used when speaking of one female graduate of a college. The middle syllable here is also enunciated the same as in alumni. The last syllable of the word is sounded as in but.

Alumnae is used to refer to more than one female graduate. The last syllable of the word rhymes with see.

Alumnus, which is used in speaking of a male, can also be employed when referring to either the male or female graduate of a co-educational institution, but not specifically referring to either sex. An example of this is that many alumni publications are entitled the Alumnus.

LEADERS IN ANNUAL GIVING

High Point College's first graduating class, the class of 1927, led the way percentage wise in Alumni Giving for 1962-63 with 50% participation. Following close behind was the class of 1937 with 49% participation. The class of 1962, in making a class gift, participated 100%.

Dollar wise, the class of 1928 was the leader with $1,351.50, followed by the class of 1959 with $1,307. The class of 1936 came in third with $770.50

Class percentages ranged from 17% to 50% with the average being 29%.

YEAR END REPORT
1962-63

The total Alumni Program of High Point College has met with moderate success this past year. The major reason is the renewed interest and continuing interest of the greatest number of Alumni who have ever participated in the program. However, the Alumni Program has not been built this year, nor is it the result of one person's work. The program which we enjoy today has been built over the years by many persons. The past two years have seen the greatest growth span, but this was due to the groundwork which had been laid during the past thirty-seven years.

Under the able leadership of Bob Parrish, as Alumni President, and a hard working executive committee, plus the other volunteers, the results of much planning have blossomed into a full grown program of Alumni Affairs.

For the second year in succession, the goal in Annual Giving has been surpassed. In 1960-61 two per cent gave $570.00; in 1961-62 eighteen per cent gave $5,770.00; and in 1962 twenty-five and one-half per cent gave $13,990.00. The goal for 1963-64 is thirty per cent and $20,000.00, and this challenge will be met. We now have approximately 6,000 Alumni; therefore, 1800 must step forward to support their Alma Mater in 1963-64. There is really no reason why High Point College Alumni participation cannot reach at least fifty per cent during the next five years. The Class Agent approach was most helpful this year, but personal solicitation during the last two weeks pushed the percentage over the top. In addition to the Class Agent Program, an Area Agent Program should be inaugurated for 1963-64 for the purpose of personal and telephone solicitation. The real yardstick of any Alumni program is the percentage of annual contributors. Annual Giving is vital to the life and growth of High Point College.

Seven active Alumni Chapters have been organized or reorganized this year. We now have fifteen Chapters; Alamance County, Asheboro, Carbarus County, Mecklenburg County, Durham - Orange County, Forsyth County, Greensboro, High Point, Lexington, North Carolina Methodist Conference, Raleigh, Richmond, Rockingham County, Thomasville, Washington, D. C., and Western North Carolina Methodist Conference. New Chapters are planned for the following areas: Asheville, Fayetteville, and Sanford. These active Chapters are the organized connecting link between the College and the Alumni.

The process of correcting and up-dating Alumni records is a tremendous task. Ten thousand information cards have been mailed to six thousand Alumni, and three thousand have been returned, giving much needed information and hundreds of address changes. Louise Adams, who is serving part time in the records section and mail room, has done much to improve the system; however, a full time person is needed in the records section. Over one hundred thousand pieces of mail passed through the mail room this year. Helen Brown, who is serving as Alumni Office secretary, has greatly improved the quality of our secretarial work.

Alumni-student relations have never been better. The Emergency Loan Fund has been a great help in this area, as has the ad space in the Hi-Po and Zenith. The students were most helpful in planning and carrying out the successful Homecoming on February 9. On Senior Investiture Day, May 1, Dr. Max Rogers '38 spoke during assembly and brought a message of interest to all who attended. The meeting of former Alumni Presidents on the same date was a fruitful one. This should be continued and I believe will grow in attendance; it can be used as an ideas session. Alumni Day on May 18 saw one of the finest graduating classes received into the Association; there are 160 members of the Class of 1963. The Class Gift to the College was in the form of a scholarship to be known as the LOUISE ADAMS ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP and is to be awarded by Alumni Scholarship Committee. The Class of 1963 started the fund with a contribution of $800.00.

The format of the Alumni Bulletin has been revised to eliminate wasted space and is being published on alternate months with the Development Bulletin. Lawson Allen, Director of College Relations, has done much to improve the telling of the High Point College story. He is a great asset to the total College program. The Alumni Program has had the best news coverage in its history. Mr. Marguerite Hormachea, News Bureau Director, has been most cooperative in our publicity program.

The Long-Range Steering Committee, W. R. Henderson, Chairman, completed its work in April with the mailing of the questionnaire to Alumni. Although less than 200 completed questionnaires have been returned, they have given valuable insight concerning the thoughts of the Alumni. An analysis of the questionnaire will be published at a later date.

Dale W. Brown '61 will assume the duties and responsibilities as Alumni Executive Secretary on August 26. Until he arrives, I will continue to co-ordinate Alumni Activities and upon his arrival will work closely with him to assure the continued progress of the program.

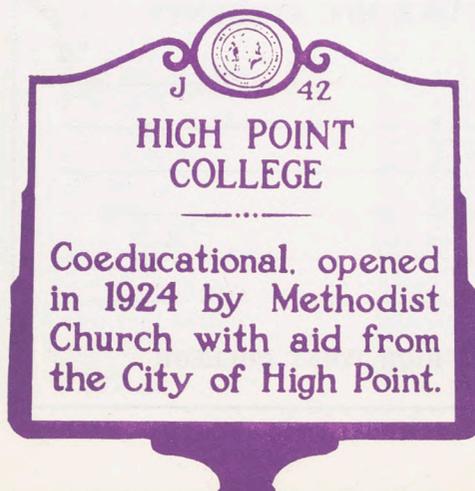

Again, thank you for your suggestions, encouragement, assistance, hard work and moral support this year.

As Bob Parrish has said, "There is no reason why High Point College cannot have the best Alumni Association in this Country." Our Association must continue to be interested in the total educational program of the College or it has no reason for being.

FIVE SPECIALIZED PROGRAMS MAINTAINED AT HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Designed To Meet Special Needs

In addition to maintaining a well-rounded liberal arts program, High Point College has felt the urgency of making available special programs to fill special needs. Five such special programs are outstanding at the College today.

The newest of the five is the American History Caravan, conducted experimentally for the first time this summer. The Caravan met with enthusiasm in all quarters, and was considered to be such a stride forward in new education techniques that it was written up in the July 22 issue of NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE.

Caravan Follows McClellan

The Caravan this summer, after three weeks intensive classroom study, followed General McClellan's Peninsula Campaign, concluding the tour at Gettysburg.

Director of the session was Dr. David Cole, acting dean of the College; and Jesse L. Taylor, director of student personnel, was camping supervisor. Students participating reported the Caravan to be extremely stimulating intellectually, and Dr. Cole indicated that the Caravan students did better work and learned more history than students generally do.

Dr. L. B. Pope, Director of Preparatory Session, confers with the Activity Committee.

Dr. David Cole, Dr. Stuart Deskins, and Dr. Chester Bradley, Curator of the Ft. Monroe Casemate Museum, discuss a historical point in camp.

Preparatory Class Strong

In its second year of operation, the College Preparatory Course this summer has 30 students registered. Dr. L. B. Pope, visiting professor from St. Andrews College who is coordinating the session, declares that the classroom attitude of the students is the best he has ever seen and that they are making tremendous strides forward in adjustment and basic techniques preparing them for college work.

In developing reading skills, Dr. Sam Underwood, chairman of the English Department, who is supervising the freshman English course for the Preparatory Session, says that students are reading at 900 words per minute and maintaining a high rate of comprehension at the same time. In addition to the special training, Dr. Underwood is also giving the students standard freshman English work. Dr. Paul Gratiot, History Department, is teaching the Preparatory Session of history.

Aerospace Program Trebles

The Aerospace Education Workshop, also in its second year, was lengthened in time this summer, with a corresponding increase in the credit hours given for the course. Directed by Dr. L. M. Hays, chairman of the Sociology Department, the Workshop this year included a tour of the Cherry Point Marine Corps Base.

Dr. Hays reports that three times as many students enrolled this year as did last summer.

Evening School Expands

High Point College's Evening School continues to grow phenomenally. Since its establishment in 1960, the number of courses offered has doubled, and enrollment has increased two-fold.

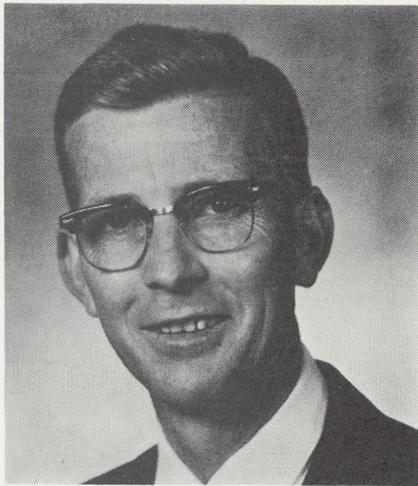

Last year, according to Dr. Clifford Hinshaw, Director of the Evening School, 557 students enrolled, with 26 courses being offered, taught by 19 teachers. When the Evening School opened in the fall of 1960, only 12 courses were offered to 151 students.

Leadership Labs Continue

The fifth of High Point College's special programs is the Executive Leadership Training Laboratory.

Designed to study the newest leadership principles and to develop skills in their use, six of these laboratories have been conducted by the College for business and industrial management.

This year High Point College hopes to make this leadership training available to Methodist clergy and lay leaders, especially since there is an increasing need to develop religious leaders who are able to deal, more skillfully than ever before, with the complex problems of modern life.

Grady Whicker

Grady Whicker Resigns To Be Assistant To Prexy Of Old Dominion College

Grady Whicker, who for 11 years served High Point College in many capacities, has resigned from his position as Director of Guidance and Counseling and will assume his duties as Assistant to the President of Old Dominion College, Norfolk, Virginia, in September.

Grady was graduated from High Point College in 1948, attended Duke Divinity School, and the University of North Carolina, where he was awarded an M.A. degree, and this summer has been on sabbatical leave from the College to do work toward his Ph.D. degree.

An ordained Methodist minister, Grady has served at the Edenton Street Church, Raleigh; Jenkins Memorial Methodist Church, Raleigh; and Scotts Hill Charge in the Wilmington district. He worked for two years in the Post Office in Jacksonville, N. C., and taught school in Onslow County and at Hampstead, N. C. before coming to High Point College.

While at High Point College, Grady served as Alumni Secretary, Admissions Officer, Advisor to Foreign Students, Publicity Director, and Director of Guidance and Counseling, as well as teaching duties.

Grady and his wife, Pansy, and their four daughters will reside at 5572 Bayberry Drive in Norfolk.

High Point College will feel the loss of this fine man keenly, for his work has been outstanding and his place in the community will not be easily filled. The College wishes him the best of success in his new position.

Long-Range Brochure To Be Printed

After the long range plans were accepted by the Board of Trustees the recommendations for implementing these plans was delegated to the Development Council. The first step in the delineation of the plans is the creation of a brochure to clearly depict the plans. Based on past accomplishments, the present fact of increased leadership, and the dreams of greater excellence and service, the brochure will attempt to give a blue-print for the next ten years. The blue-print will be changed, and rightly so, but this is a beginning point.

The layout, art-work, color, graphs, and charts will be used to give an image of what the College expects to become by 1972. The brochure will be used to communicate the College's leadership possibilities and to give a basis for seeking support from individuals and groups.

Combined with this brochure of long-range plans will be individual projects to meet intermediate goals. The buildings, the increase in faculty salary, student fees, and endowment will be given consideration separately as the College seeks voluntary leadership and financial support for the future. If a copy of the brochure is desired, write to the College and it will be sent when it comes from the press.

Thomas Car Works Gift Boosts Scholar Program

The Scholar Program was boosted to new heights by a $1,000 gift from the P. A. Thomas Car Works of High Point. This is the largest gift ever received by the Scholar Program in its three years. More than 500 invitations to join the Scholar Program were mailed to the Asheboro area in late July.

Others who have invested in youth through the Scholar Program are:

Dr. Wendell M. Patton
J. E. Stafford,

Stafford Manufacturing Company

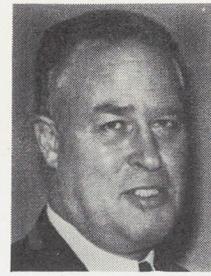

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Payne

Dr. L. B. Pope

He holds LL.B. and LL.M. degrees from the Brooklyn Law School and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Colorado.

During the two years the Hislops were in High Point they made themselves felt as contributors to the community, and they shall be missed both at the College and in the City of High Point.

Says Dr. Patton, "We are delighted that Dr. Hislop has gotten this opportunity to advance himself in the educational field. He has done a splendid job here, and his absence shall be felt greatly."

'To See With My Own Eyes'

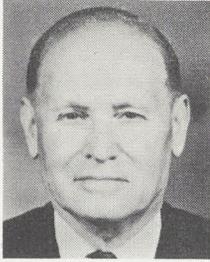

William Black, a philanthropist who recently gave $5 million to the William Black Medical Research Building at Columbia University, has this piece of advice for those who have managed to stay ahead of the mortgage and tax collectors:

"Give away the bulk of your wealth to worthwhile causes while you're still around.

"Too many persons wait until after death to share their resources with their fellow men who need their help Laudatory plaques that I will not have an opportunity to read don't interest me, nor do the prospects of a board of directors making decisions for me after I've gone. I want to play a participating role. I want to see with my own eyes the results of my good intentions. It is my hope others will get the same idea."

NINE NEW FACULTY AND STAFF APPOINTED FOR FALL SEMESTER

Eight new teaching faculty and a college nurse have been appointed by the Board of Trustees for next fall.

Dr. Crobaugh appointed professor and head of the Business Administration Department, received his A. B. and A. M. degrees from Stanford University and his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. He did graduate study at Chicago, Boston, and Harvard Universities.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO HIGHER EDUCATION

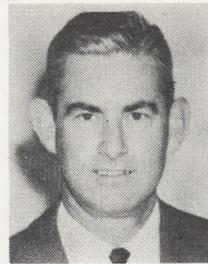

Mr. Allen High Point College has a development program. It provides a means whereby alumni and friends of the College may make tangible and lasting their love and concern for the advancement and development of the College. Free enterprise and democracy are fostered in church-related colleges like ours, and this emphasis must be assured for the future.

Many modest bequests, gifts, or trusts, can equal large ones, and by this means a person may personally share in the progress of High Point College. Opportunities for contributions include buildings, scholarships, loan funds, professorships for outstanding teachers, special equipment, and special programs to name a few. Donors may specify the object of their gifts.

If you would like more specific information as to opportunities for gifts, bequests, or trusts, write to the Director of Development, High Point College, High Point, North Carolina.

The Executive Committee Of Council Meets

The Executive Committee of the Development Council met on July 10, 1963 in the private dining room at the college cafeteria. Present were co-chairmen Elliott S. Wood and

Mr. Wood Charles E. Hayworth, James H. Millis, Mrs. Annie Mae Powell, Harvey J. Smith, Dr. William P. Matthews, Holt McPherson, Arthur B. Williams, and W. Lawson Allen.

RESULTS FROM "WE NEED SOME EQUIPMENT"

In the June issue of the Bulletin, the statement was made that certain equipment was needed to expedite mailing at the College. The results were encouraging in that two folding machines were offered and were accepted by the College.

Mr. William S. Griffith of the Griffith Office Equipment Company, Inc. called and indicated that he and other officers of the firm, Mrs. Edna S. Griffith and Mr. Robert C. Griffith, would give the College a folding machine. It was delivered to the College Relations Office and is being used daily.

Mr. Chester Gwyer of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company called and asked if we could use a folding machine. The duplicating room in the business office did have need for the machine. It is ready to be used in this office and will save many minutes during each day's operations.

The other articles mentioned are still being sought: addressograph, addressograph frames and plates, Graphotype, Multigraph 1250 for printing, Paper Cutter, and tying machine to mention a few items. The Division of College Relations would like to hear from anyone who has any of this equipment.

Something To Live For

Leland Stanford lost his only child. Though he was United States senator from California, he said to himself, "I have nothing to live for. I have no children." He put a million dollars into a private home, but it was not a home to him.

One night he had a dream. In this dream his son appeared to him and said: "Father, never say again that you have nothing to live for—live for humanity, live for other people's children."

There soon arose at Palo Alto the

Mr. Hayworth Information sheets summarizing the over-all goal established by the Long-Range Planning Committee were presented. The responsibility of the Development Council to recommend priorities and immediate plans and goals was discussed along with goals year by year for endowment growth. The foundation approach received attention, but no formal action was taken by the Committee.

The group joined the Executive Committee of the Trustees for lunch and were invited to observe the business session.

Leland Stanford Junior University at a cost of $20,000,000. He and Mrs. Stanford became the devoted servants of the poor, the orphan, and the suffering, and left all their property to go on doing good to the rising generations.

MODERN J. ED MILLIS DORM OPENS

The new J. Ed Millis Dormitory, to house 110 men students, was ready for occupancy when students arrived for registration at the beginning of the academic year.

Erected at a cost of about $355,000, the building is completely air-conditioned and houses club rooms for four national fraternities and an apartment for the House Mother.

Of conservative colonial design, the new dormitory is located across West College Drive from Memorial Auditorium and adjacent to the president's home.

Much of the furniture in student rooms is built in, and the fraternity club rooms each boast a built-in efficiency kitchenette of stove, sink, and refrigerator, plus ample storage space. Each fraternity is responsible for furnishing its own club room.

★ ALUMNI ANNUAL GIVING GOAL SET ★

Encouraged by the support of the Alumni during the past two years to the Annual Giving Campaign, the Alumni Executive Committee at its annual spring meeting set a realistic but challenging goal of $20,000 and 30% of Alumni contributing for 1963-64. With approximately 6,000 former students on file, statistics indicate that 1800 alumni will have to step forward in support of Alma Mater if this goal is to be attained.

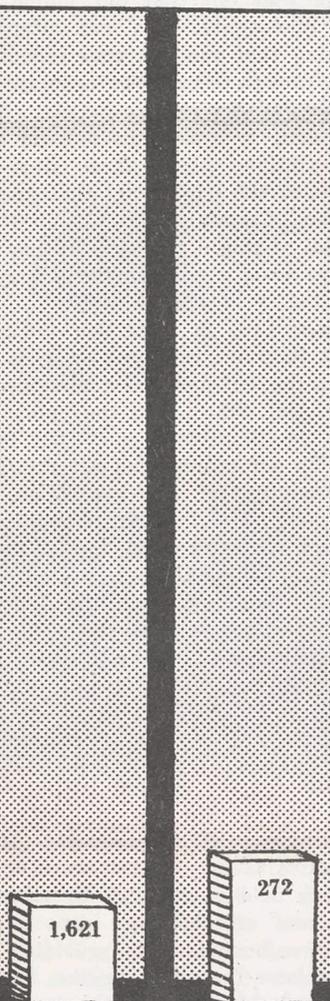

This year, in addition to the class agents who gave us so much wonderful help with our campaign last year, we are initiating an Area Agent Program. Designed for the purpose of personal and telephone solicitation, it will consist of alumni who reside in areas of high alumni representation and can make personal contacts among their fellow students.

When one realizes the amount of work accomplished in the area of Annual Giving during the past two years, we begin to recognize the extreme importance of an interested Alumni group. High Point College can be proud of its Honor Roll of contributors, prouder still in the knowledge that its Alumni have recognized the part they must play if Alma Mater is to grow in the spirit of Christian Higher Education.

Last year for the second time in a row the objective in Annual Giving was surpassed as twenty-five and one-half per cent contributed $13,990. Although an appropriate matching gift has not been secured thus far this year, a challenge is still evident as we try for the third year in succession to top our established goal.

Alumni Angles

Mr. Brown It is with a sense of pride that I return to High Point College in this capacity to work with the more than 6,000 Alumni of this institution. Changes and improvements are apparent in almost all phases of our college's program and we can be excited over the long-range goals we have established for ourselves.

In reading over the results of the questionnaire sent to you last spring, I was especially interested in the number of people who felt that our public relations were inadequate. This was interpreted as meaning that you felt your school was not doing enough to promote its image throughout this section of the country. Much has been done to erase this opinion and work will continue along these lines as new phases of the High Point College story are written. Certainly your support in the Annual Giving Campaign during the past two years is a genuine indication that you have the necessary interest.

Please keep in mind that no amount of effort in public relations by us is going to widen the channels of communication between this school and the public quite so much as its product can. That product is you! We are represented in forty-five states by graduates of this institution, meaning that we have limitless opportunities to promote the work which High Point College is accomplishing. I am confident that during the next few years the Alumni Body of this school is going to become one of the most active of any state or privately supported institution.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE NEWS

Plans for the Annual Giving Campaign were high on the list of topics discussed by members of the Alumni Association Executive Committee last week at a dinner meeting held on campus. Excellent attendance and enlightening ideas highlighted the three-hour session, providing an ideal atmosphere for outlining the Association's aims and objectives for the coming year.

Elected as ex-officio members of the Executive Committee were W. Lawson Allen, Director of College Relations, and Miss Louise Adams. In addition preliminary steps were taken by William R. Henderson, President, to establish a committee to analyze the results of the questionnaire.

SUMMER GRADUATION

Dr. Harold P. Hamilton ('47, cum laude), president of Kentucky Wesleyan College, delivered a stimulating address to 55 graduates at High Point College's 1963 summer commencement exercises, challenging them to become leaders of the future.

As stumbling blocks in attaining leadership, he listed the prevalence of personal tragedy, the resurgence of false religious beliefs, the luke-warm attitude of many young people today, and the overpowering complexity of contemporary problems.

Dr. Hamilton warned graduates that leaders of the future must be willing to pay the high cost of effective Christian leadership in study, intensity, loneliness, and self-denial.

Dr. Hamilton received his B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School and his Ph.D. degree in Theology from Duke University.

Dr. Harold P. Hamilton

Following the address, Acting Dean of the College David W. Cole presented graduating seniors to Dr. Wendell M. Patton, president of the college, who conferred degrees. Assisting were Jesse L. Taylor, Director of Student Personnel; Nathaniel Yarborough, Registrar; and Dr. Harold E. Conrad, Director of the Summer School.

The Rev. Robert M. Hardee, pastor of Oak View Methodist Church, High Point, gave the Invocation and Benediction. Music for the processional and recessional was provided by Miss Ernestine Fields, professor of music at the College.

A vocal solo, "O That I Knew Where I Might Find Him," was presented by Mrs. Mary Lou Rainey Moran.

Graduating with honors was Melvia Gaynell Bryant, High Point, who received the Bachelor of Science degree, cum laude.

ALUMNI SPEAK OUT ON QUESTIONNAIRE

Alumni of High Point College will recall that in April they received a questionnaire from the Alumni Association requesting opinions on College strengths and weaknesses. Heading the study was William R. Henderson, president of the Association and chairman of its Long-Range Planning Committee.

The study was conducted for the purpose of determining how the Association can more effectively serve our college and members of the Association. The results were most enlightening and have been turned over to Dr. Patton for action.

Rated as the greatest assets of the College were its size, its location, its faculty-student relations, its administration, its faculty and staff, its Christian and friendly atmosphere, its curriculum, its Evening School and its Church relationship.

Eighty-three per cent of the alumni taking part in the survey indicated they would encourage their children to attend High Point College, a figure significantly above average.

As their chief criticisms of the College, participants listed as being inadequate such areas as alumni support, faculty and staff, the curriculum, financial support, physical facilities, endowment, the library, placement service, and public relations.

Rating the College as above average, participants in the survey indicated, in this order, that the Alumni Association should work toward assisting the College in improvement of faculty salaries, in establishment of scholarships on the basis of scholarship only, in alumni contributions, in public relations, in student recruitment, and in the Scholar Program.

Summer and Fall Chapter Meetings

Cabarrus County Chapter held a family picnic on May 9 in Kannapolis. Following are the elected officers for 1963-64: Mrs. William Ashley, President; Mrs. Clifton Evans, Vice-President; Mrs. Parker Hartsell, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Edwin Boone, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Gwendolyn Tyson, Treasurer.

Alamance County Chapter held a family picnic at Burlington City Park on June 22. Officers were elected for the coming year and include the following: Talton Johnson, President; Ben Bulla, Vice-President; Mrs. Frances Marlette, Secretary & Treasurer.

An organizational meeting was held by the Rockingham County Alumni on June 28 in the Tri-City Area. Elected President was Eugene M. Wilson. Other officers included Elon Cook, Vice-President; and Mrs. Kitty French, Secretary-Treasurer.

Washington, D. C. Area Chapter held its family picnic on August 24 at the Jake Steele residence in Potomac, Maryland. Miss Louise Adams represented the College at this very successful get-together attended by more than one hundred alumni and friends.

Forsyth County Chapter, Mary Ann Hedgecock, President, held an entertaining pot-luck supper and square dance on September 14 at Goodwill Industries in Winston-Salem.

Richmond Area Chapter, Chet Smith, President, held its annual summer meeting in the form of a charcoal steak cook-out at Camp Weyanoke on September 21.

Mecklenburg County Chapter will hold a dinner meeting on October 25.

High Point Chapter will hold its annual dinner-meeting on October 26 for the purpose of electing officers.

'PROGRESS' CONTINUES AS WATCHWORD AT HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Every college has a personality, certain characteristics which make it different from all others, and at High Point College the most outstanding individual characteristic is "Progress."

Community Service

Perhaps one of the most outstanding displays of progress at the College has been made in its program of community service. One of the first steps was the establishment of an Evening School, through which members of the community employed in full-time jobs could work on a college degree, could take courses which they needed in their work, or could take courses for their own personal enjoyment. The Evening School has more than doubled its enrollment and its offerings to the community since its beginning.

In the field of cultural activities, High Point College has joined with many community and civic organizations in the presentation of numerous outstanding programs. In addition to joint sponsorship of the Community Concerts program, the College last year helped in bringing to High Point such performances as "Amahl and the Night Visitors," the Eleanor Lansing Dulles lecture, and the Verdi "Requiem" in concert. Many members of High Point College's faculty work closely with such organizations as the Golden Triangle Opera Company, the Arts Council, the Junior League, United Community Services, Civil Defense, and many other civic groups.

REMEMBER!

that what you possess
in the world
at the day of your death will be found
to belong to someone else;
but what you are,
the time you give,
the service you render,
the material things
you share,
will be yours
forever.

Charles E. Hayworth (Center), president of Alma Desk Company, joins Mrs. W. T. Powell (right), vice-president of Alma Desk Company, at Development Council meeting.

In addition, the College opens its doors to the public to its Fine Film Series, through which many of the earlier classic films are brought back; to student musical recitals and art shows; to many of the fine arts contests, at which High Point College is host; and to the beautiful Carrick Memorial Daffodil Gardens.

High Point College has also served its community through the Industrial Coatings Center, a joint industry-college sponsored project whereby students receive training as industrial coatings chemists and are able to join local industry as trained technicians upon their graduation.

Also, High Point College was host last year to a Physicians-Ministers Workshop, where the relationship of the doctor and the clergyman and how they might work together in the area of physical and emotional illnesses was discussed.

Administration Reorganized

But High Point College has not rested with simply improving its services to its community. It has also taken a long, hard look at itself and has taken some definite steps toward improving its own administrative functions. Progress in this area began with the formation of a Long-Range Planning Committee for the College, whereby a methodical plan of growth, both academically and physically, was charted. To assist in this planned growth, the College undertook a complete reorganization of its own administrative staff, dividing its activities into four classifications, each with a director appointed as its head. Each director acts in an advisory capacity to Dr. Wendell M. Patton, president of the college.

To carry out the Long-Range Planning Committee's recommendations, a Development Council composed of leading citizens was appointed to study and recommend ways and means of accomplishing the desired goals. This Council was in turn divided into various areas of concentration, with each sub-committee responsible for certain phases of the program.

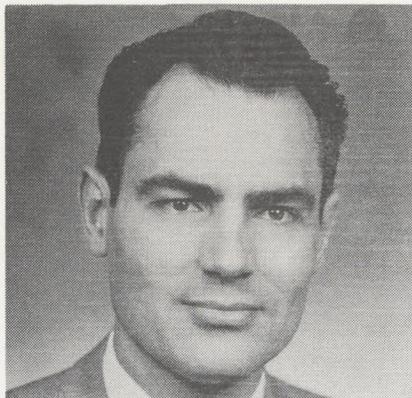

Other projects undertaken include the establishment of a Board of Fellows and a Scholars Program.

As an accomplished part of the Long-Range Planning Program, a new dormitory to house 110 male students was opened this fall semester, and other physical facilities are planned to get underway in the future.

Faculty Benefits

In their plans for progress, High Point College has not overlooked the teaching faculty. The salary schedule

Arthur B. Williams

Arthur Williams Resigns To Become Vice-President Of Latimer Corporation

Arthur B. Williams, who has 12 years of service at High Point College, has resigned effective November 1 to become vice-president of Latimer Corporation, a High Point business dealing in the design and sale of furniture.

Arthur was graduated from High Point College in 1948. As a part of Naval Aviators Training, he also attended the University of South Carolina and the University of Georgia.

In addition to being a U. S. Naval aviator, Arthur has worked as a salesman for Remington Rand, Inc., was a manager trainee for Montgomery Ward Company, and worked in the home office of Pilot Life Insurance Company before coming to High Point College in 1951.

"Of course I will continue my interest in the welfare of High Point College and its development," Arthur said. He and his wife Louise will continue to make their home in High Point.

"It is impossible to estimate the loss we feel at the College," Dr. Wendell M. Patton, college president, said. "I doubt if there is any one on the campus who has made a greater contribution to the college than Arthur Williams has."

Arthur served as Bursar of the College until the administrative reorganization made last year, at which time he was made an officer of the College and served as Business Manager. He was responsible for maintenance, purchasing, and operation of the Book Store and cafeteria. He was a member of the long-range planning committee which recently prepared a 10-year projected growth plan for the College.

High Point College will miss Arthur Williams, but wishes him the greatest success in this fine opportunity for advancement.

Paint Societies Grant Enables Five Students To Receive Scholarships

A grant from the national Federation of Societies for Paint Technology has made possible this year the awarding of five scholarships to students enrolled in the polymer chemistry program at High Point College, the only college in the South offering specialized training in the industrial coatings fields.

Recipients of the scholarships are James Bohanon, High Point; James Marks, Archdale; Barry York, High Point; James E. Brucki, High Point; and Arthur S. Warren, Stafford Springs, Connecticut.

The scholarships enable these students to receive training which will enable them to go directly into the coatings industries as trained laboratory chemists upon completion of the program and graduation.

Director of the Industrial Coatings Center and the polymer program is Dr. E. O. Cummings, department of Chemistry.

Evening College Enrolls 500 Students For Fall Semester

Stepping into its fourth year of operation, the High Point College Evening School has registered some 500 students for its fall semester this year, Dr. Clifford Hinshaw, director, reports.

Of this figure, 394 are city and area people and 106 are students currently enrolled on the day campus.

Dr. Hinshaw indicated that the teaching staff numbers 24, with a total of 34 courses being offered.

"We have four sections of freshman English," he stated, "two sections of psychology, and two sections of college algebra."

Last year's enrollment came to 348 students, with 265 being city and area students and 73 students enrolled in the day school. There were 26 courses offered, with a teaching staff of 19 faculty members.

As an indication of the rapid growth of the Evening School, when night classes were offered for the first time in the fall of 1960, only 12 courses were available to the 151 students who registered. Of these, 111 were city and area students, the remaining 40 being students regularly enrolled in the day school.

Five Students Awarded Church Scholarships

Five students have been awarded National Methodist Scholarships to High Point College by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church for this year.

Receiving the scholarships are Pamela Sue Fletcher, Kannapolis; Dorothy Don Hevener, Waynesboro, Va.; Myra Laura Morris, Raleigh; Betty Sue Rogers, Graham; and Emily Sherrill, Marietta, Ga.

National Methodist Scholarship Awards cover tuition and fees up to $500 and are granted on the basis of superior academic standing, leadership, active churchmanship, character, personality, and need.

About 500 such awards are given annually by the Methodist Board of Education and its nationwide scholarship program. More than 8,000 National Methodist Scholarships have been granted since the program was started in 1945.

Funds for the support of National Methodist Scholarships are received from local Methodist Churches on the basis of a church-wide offering on Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June.

Frosh Parents' Day Set For Nov. 9

Nearly 300 freshman students at High Point College will participate in the College's first Parents' Day on November 9, College officials have announced.

The program is designed to give parents an opportunity to see what their sons and daughters are doing, to meet the students' professors, and to acquaint themselves with the campus and its buildings.

Invitations will be sent to parents in 115 hometowns, with some 17 states and the District of Columbia being represented in the freshman class.

Special activities for the parents will be scheduled from 8:30 a. m., including a luncheon in the college cafeteria where parents and families will be guests of the College, until the early afternoon.

The Physical Education Department will have activities planned for young children which the parents may bring with them.

TRUSTEES INCREASE TUITION AT ANNUAL MEETING

The Board of Trustees of High Point College at their annual meeting Wednesday, October 9th at the College adopted a tuition increase for the academic year 1964-65.

"We do this with a great deal of regret," stated Dr. Patton, "but we know of no other way to guarantee a quality education to our students."

The Board of Trustees reaffirmed their policy of keeping all costs and charges as low as possible consistent with maintaining a quality education. Tuition will be raised from $475 to $525, an increase of $50 a year over this year's cost. Room and board charges will be increased from $560 to $585 per year. The total cost of tuition, general fee, student activity fee, room and board, and health service, which this year comes to $1,195, will be $1,285 next year, an increase of over-all costs of $90 per year.

The increased tuition fee at High Point College will still be below the average charge for private 4-year colleges in the state of North Carolina.

"We have studied this very carefully," stated Dr. Patton. "Being extremely conscious of the burden imposed upon students and parents, we are keeping our operating budget as low as we possibly can and are eliminating non-essentials to education. There is no way that we can develop the quality and intensity of the educational program without this increase."

The increase will be used primarily for faculty salaries and fringe benefits, and for anticipated increased costs of operation.

The Operating Budget for this year, projected as $1,404,000 compared to last year's $1,395,000, was approved.

"Our endowment was increased last year $209,345, the income from which again will be used for operating expenses," said Dr. Patton. "Our operating budget last year was balanced. We are anticipating a balanced budget again this year, although it will be difficult because we did not increase our tuition this year."

In other action, the Board of Trustees re-elected Holt McPherson, High Point, to serve as chairman; Horace S. Haworth, High Point, as vice-chairman; Elliott S. Wood, High Point, as treasurer; and Dr. Patton, as secretary.

Six trustees were re-elected for a new 4-year term, the Class of 1967: Stanford R. Brookshire, Charlotte; Mrs. D. S. Coltrane, Raleigh; Bishop Paul N. Garber, Richmond, Va.; Dr. C. L. Gray, High Point; Dr. J. Clay Madison, Greensboro; and Dr. W. Stanley Potter, Sanford. Resigning from active membership because of ill health was L. F. Ross, Asheboro, who was elected as a trustee emeritus.

The Executive Committee was re-elected to serve for another term. Members are Holt McPherson, High Point, chairman; Horace S. Haworth, High Point, vice-chairman; Dr. Patton, High Point, secretary; J. Harriss Covington, High Point; Charles E. Hayworth, High Point; A. J. Koonce, High Point; Charles W. McCrary, Asheboro; Dr. J. Clay Madison, Charlotte; and Elliott S. Wood, High Point.

The resignation of Business Manager Arthur B. Williams was accepted with deep regret. Dr. Patton expressed appreciation for his services, and a resolution was passed by the Board expressing their gratitude for the contributions he has made to the College.

The Board authorized Dr. Patton to develop for their approval a group insurance plan for faculty and staff members, which will be done over the next few months.

Charles Hayworth, chairman of the Endowment Committee, reported on the 1963 Fellows Program with a great deal of enthusiasm. He made specific assignments to individual members of the Board to get this work underway.

FACULTY NOTES

DEAN DAVID W. COLE attended a meeting of Academic Deans of the Piedmont University Center in Winston-Salem Oct 8.

DR. CHRISTOPHER WILSON held a seminar at A & T College on "Organic Electrode Processes" Oct. 9. Senior and graduate students were involved. He spoke to the Winston-Salem Elks Club on Plastics in Industry October 17, and will hold a seminar at Wake Forest Oct. 29, which will involve a discussion of research with staff and graduate students and a talk on "Radicals at Electrodes."

DR. SAM J. UNDERWOOD spoke at two sessions of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in New York Oct. 11-12.

James R. Calloway

Calloway Joins Staff As Admissions Counselor

The Rev. James R. Calloway, Lexington, N. C., will join the staff at High Point College October 20.

Rev. Calloway will be associated with the Admissions Office and the Office of College Relations and will assume the duties of Admissions Counselor.

Receiving his B.A. degree from High Point College in 1959, Rev. Calloway was awarded his B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School in 1962.

He is currently Associate Minister at the First Methodist Church, Lexington.

While at High Point College Rev. Calloway was a member of Phi Theta Kappa and Sigma Phi Alpha fraternities, was active in Student Government Association affairs, was a member of the Methodist Student Fellowship, and was active on Methodist Fellowship Teams. He was a member of the Tower Players, the Band, the Choir, the French Club, and was on the staffs of the Hi-Po, college newspaper, and the Zenith, college yearbook.

Rev. Calloway is an ordained minister of the Western North Carolina Conference of Methodist Churches.

DR. WILLIAM P. MATTHEWS and JAMES NELSON are participating as instructors in the Industrial Management Club's educational short course session.

DR. STUART DESKINS was recently honored by the class of 1938 at Sumner High School where he was principal for 19 years, when they presented his portrait to the school to be hung in a prominent place.

DR. HAROLD E. CONRAD visited Methodist College at Fayetteville and Pineland Junior College recently representing the North Carolina Conference of Colleges for evaluation purposes.

'PROGRESS'

has been raised, the College has added a paid hospitalization insurance program for faculty, a program for awarding summer sabbatical leaves with pay is in its second year of operation, as is also a program for leaves of absence with financial grants to faculty who desire to work on advanced degrees. The College also publishes the High Point Studies each year, a volume through which faculty members may report the research they have done in their specialized fields.

● Academic Achievement

But perhaps the most important progress has been made in the academic field. This past year, High Point College engaged in an inspection by the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities, culminating a 3-year self-study. As a result, the College this year is engaging in an intensive curriculum study with a view toward revamping the curriculum in order to give High Point College students a more efficiently planned educational program, a program whereby they will be even better prepared to assume their duties and responsibilities as citizens in a fast-changing, technological society.

But the College, although it has made phenomenal strides in the past few years, does not intend to remain static. Its watchword will continue to be, as it must if it is to be of service in our new, fast-paced society, "PROGRESS."

THE FELLOW PROGRAM FOR 1964

The Fellow Program was established to give many individuals, corporations, and foundations an opportunity to share in the progress of High Point College. To share himself, and thereby to share his means and influence, is to foster all the phases of independent higher education.

If you belong to a group listed in the first sentence above; if you are vitally interested in higher education; if you are concerned with the development of young lives; if you are willing to share your means and your influence; if you appreciate the contribution of High Point College to the world; if you will stand in the honored tradition of the past with great and noble men—then you should become a member of the Board of Fellows of High Point College.

It is time for all of us to renew our dedication and support to High Point College and assure its continued achievement in Christian higher education. Here is your opportunity to invest in your future!

TO SHARE IS TO ASSURE THE FUTURE

Mr. Allen

In this issue of the BULLETIN is found a presentation of High Point College as a progressive, growing college with a working present built on past achievements. This past had its struggles. The College would not die. Today we face the future with hope and with confidence.

The Alumni are responding—we covet a greater response. The faculty members are strong and well-trained—they must continue to develop. The students show a trend toward excellence, and this striving must be the motive power for the realization of goals. The trustees and administration lead the way, and they must continue to be the vanguard of the quest for knowledge as well as the source of facilities to make learning possible.

There must be an increased awareness of the necessity to support High Point College. Not only an awareness of the need but the willingness to share with the College in the realization of that which is necessary to make it the outstanding liberal arts college of the area.

How can you share in this accomplishment? If you are an alumnus, you can heed the call to financial support by contributing to the Loyalty Fund drive now in progress. The goal is 30% of alumni contributing $20,000.

You may share, and are urged to do so, by making a will that includes High Point College. You can make the College the beneficiary of life insurance. You can give appreciated property. You can set up a trust fund which will give you income for life with the corpus going to the College. You can make a gift to erect a building as a memorial to a loved one. You can invest in America's future by investing in higher education.

Will you allow us to help you in making a decision in planning your estate? Will you allow us to talk to you about the plans for the future High Point College?

CHICAGO SCHOLAR EXPLORES "MASKS OF DISBELIEF"

Dr. Martin E. Marty, associate editor of The Christian Century and associate professor of Church History at the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, developed the theme "Today's Drama: Belief and Disbelief" as speaker for the 1963 Charles F. Finch Lecture Series on October 29-30.

Through two seminar and two open sessions, he spoke on the topics "When Disbelief Wears No Mask", "When Disbelief Wears Two Faces", "When Disbelief Wears A Christian Mask", and "When Belief Wears No Mask."

The first seminar was held in the evening for students, and Dr. Marty discussed the fact that disbelief is a new kind of reality facing Christians today, especially disbelief which is bold enough not to have to wear a mask. He told students of the types of disbelief which exist in our modern culture.

At assembly he spoke to the whole student body on the two faces of disbelief, those with a "closed" approach to life as opposed to those with an "open" approach to life.

The most radical form of disbelief he termed Nihilism, citing the Black Muslims as a group with a "closed" approach. Nihilists with an "open" approach to life he called "Rebels Without a Cause."

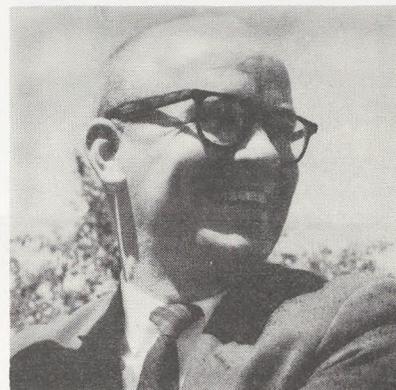

His third session, a seminar for ministers, was devoted to religion in our modern culture, which is undergoing a radical change under the symbolism of non-change and becoming a new lay religion.

He said that this new lay religion is openly and unashamedly syncretistic, characterized by wide-spread relativism, by tolerance, by a moralistic tone, and by an emphasis on the material side of life.

He said it was the task of the leading communities to act constantly as a critic to the development of a dogmatic, "closed-culture" religion.

In his final session, Dr. Marty explained how "closed" systems make it difficult to convert, communicate and conspire, and how "open" systems in our culture are the most fruitful and productive.

This was the fourth of the Charles F. Finch Lecture Series, which are made possible by a grant to the College by the Charles F. Finch Foundation of Thomasville.

McKEITHEN IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA

In a state known for its political fervor and color, a former High Point College student is making a bid to capture the gubernatorial seat in the December 7 Louisiana elections. John McKeithen, a native of Grayson, Louisiana, did degree work at this institution between 1936-38, returning to Louisiana to complete his Bachelor of Arts degree and take an "LL.B." in law at Louisiana State University.

Elected to the State Legislature first in 1948, McKeithen was to become Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee and Floor Leader before his 29th birthday, a feat accomplished by no other man in the State's history.

Earlier he had served in the U. S. Army's 77th. Infantry Division Pacific Theater, was honorably discharged and rose to become senior member of the law firm, McKeithen, Mouser & McKinley.

Mr. McKeithen

Mr. W. Lawson Allen

Allen Assumes Post Of Business Manager

W. Lawson Allen, Director of Development, assumed the additional duties of Business Manager at the College on November 1, filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Arthur B. Williams.

Under the present plan, Allen will supervise the Business Office, as well as retaining his duties as Director of Development. His duties will be concerned with all activities not relating to college academics.

Allen was vice-president and Acting Business Manager of Gardner-

Grace Methodist Church Establishes Scholarship For Ministerial Student

The Grace Methodist Church, Greensboro, has established a scholarship at High Point College for a ministerial student, Duffy L. Paul, Financial Aid Officer, announced today.

The scholarship, which will be administered by the Financial Aid Officer and confirmed by the Grace Methodist Church Official Board, was designated to go to a student preparing for full-time service in the ministry of the Methodist Church. All other things being equal, preference will be given applicants from the Western North Carolina Conference.

The award will be made for one year only, with subsequent awards to be applied for each succeeding school year.

Recipient of the award this year is Ruffin R. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reid R. Cole, 801 Grace Street, High Point.

Webb College, and Director of Student Services and Auxiliary Enterprises at St. Andrew's Presbyterian College. He has some seven years experience in auditing and business management.

Alumni Angles

Mr. Brown oped that several factors could be applied to an alumnus whether he or she held membership in a local chapter or not.

Whether you belong to an alumni chapter or not there is a wonderful opportunity for you to perform many vital services for this campus.

No institution of higher learning, either public or private, can ever hope to finance its program and operations exclusive of alumni support; High Point College is no exception to this rule.

Non-participants on our Alumni rolls should be made aware of two things if these statements represent reasoning on their part for not contributing. First, this college is not financed to a degree whereby alumni gifts are not felt valuable, and secondly, every gift no matter how small helps our participation percentage climb toward the level we hope will one day draw Foundation support to this campus.

FRESHMAN PARENTS

Over 200 people were guests of the College at the first Freshman Parents' Visitation Day November 9th.

The day's activities began at 8:30, with registration of visitors in the foyer of Memorial Auditorium. After a brief welcoming session where instructions were given, parents first were given guided tours of the campus, including the Student Center, the Science Building, Roberts Hall, and the dormitories. Coffee and doughnuts were served in the main lobby of Woman's Hall, and the fraternity lounges in the new J. Ed Millis dormitory served cokes, punch, and other refreshments. All residence halls were open for inspection.

Faculty members were in their offices when not in class in order to talk to parents who had questions, and parents were encouraged to attend class with their sons or daughters.

At noon, the parents and families were guests of the College for lunch in the college cafeteria.

"We did not dismiss classes for the occasion," stated Dr. David W. Cole, Acting Dean of the College, "because we wanted parents to get a picture of an 'ordinary' day at the college as nearly as possible."

W. Lawson Allen, Director of College Relations, indicated that the Visitation Day had been held because the College had become concerned about freshman dropouts and failures.

The Student Government Association handled registration and conducted the campus tours, and the Physical Education Majors Club had a planned activities program for children which the parents brought with them. In addition, an art display, representative of the Greensboro Artists League and sponsored by the Students Art League of High Point College, was shown in the foyer of the auditorium.

director of student personnel; Dr. Cole; Mr. W. Lawson Allen, and Dr. Wendell M. Patton, High Point College president.

"The success of the day far exceeded our expectations," Mr. Allen stated. "The parents indicated to us that they had benefited from coming to the campus, and stated that they thought the program should be continued."

Plans call for the Visitation Day next year to include upperclassmen as well as freshmen.

ALUMNI NOTES

October proved to be a productive month alumni chapter-wise as four of the college's alumni groups held informative socials and meetings. It was encouraging to see several recent graduates of the college in attendance at the invitation of chapter officers working and supporting the cause of Alumni Relations through their local groups.

The Park Road S & W Cafeteria in Charlotte was the location for the Mecklenburg County Chapter dinner-meeting held on October 25. President Alton Broadway presided as the group approved their constitution and filled vacancies on the Executive Committee. Elected as corresponding secretary and treasurer were Barbara E. Auman '58 and David Myers '58 respectively. Chosen to sit on the Executive Committee until 1964 were Tom Weaver '51 and Frances Ingle '63; until 1965, Frank Culbreth '49 and Alice Hobson '62.

Mr. W. Lawson Allen, Director of College Relations and Business Manager concluded the program with a discussion of the college's long-range plans.

The following evening, out-going High Point Chapter President Lee Sherrill and his officers played host to the largest turnout in the local group's history. The scene was the campus cafeteria as over one hundred alumni and friends of the college turned out to witness the election of new Chapter officers and hear Association President Bill Henderson deliver a stirring address entitled "The Past, Present, and Future of High Point College."

Officers for 1964 include Lyles Kearns '50, president; Charles Payne '51, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Clayton '56, secretary; Hague Bowman '62, treasurer; and C. T. Fulk '61, historian.

The Thomasville and Cabarrus County chapters closed out October with meetings on October 29. Good attendance greeted Cabarrus president Mrs. William Ashley as she conducted a planning meeting at the Trinity Methodist Church in Kannapolis. January 30 has been set for a chapter banquet and Mr. Henderson is tentative speaker for the occasion.

At the same time in Thomasville's Memorial Methodist Church new officers were being installed for the approaching new year. H. C. Hudgins '54 was elected president; Kermit Clongier '36 vice-president; and Mrs. Willis Needham '55, secretary-treasurer.

A TIME FOR DECISION — A TIME FOR ACTION

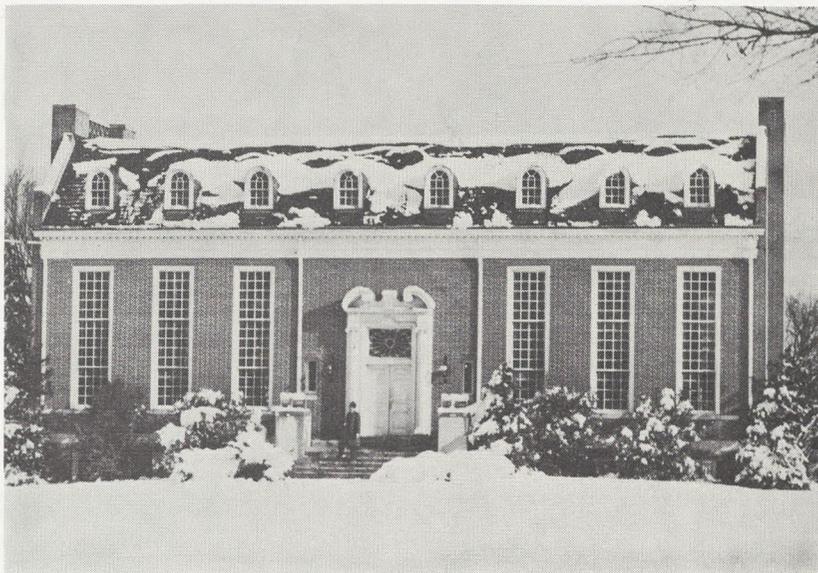

Fellows Help HPC; HPC Helps Fellows

The College has needs which the members of the Fellow Program meet. Fellows are invited to advise the College administration and trustees in matters of import to the community. The Fellows, by their material contribution, help the College to provide for capital needs and endowment. Nearly $100,000 have been added to the endowment of the College during the last three years from the Fellow funds.

The Fellow Program meets the needs of those vitally interested in education by providing a means by which that interest is expressed. Money is important, but of greatest importance is the interest and influence shared by the men and women who make up the Board of Fellows.

The College needs the Fellows—and we dare to declare that many who are not Fellows need the inner satisfaction of an experience in which sharing is at the center.

WHY ARE YOU NOT A FELLOW?

Wren Memorial Library, where students read, reflect, and learn, and where Christian character is molded through the study of great men, great deeds, and great nations.

IS IT I, LORD?

As a nation we have been literally stabbed awake by the terrible happenings of the past month. We as individuals have looked at ourselves and what we have been forced to see is not a very pretty image.

We are taking stock of our motives, our attitudes, and measuring our actions and deeds. Certainly we desperately need to ask the question, "Is it I?", and seek an honest answer.

Have we not been thinking too much about creature comforts and status symbols in these days? We are in position now to begin an inventory of our lives that will make a real difference in the way we think and act.

Our actions, if they are different, will be the result of the exercising of the power of choice in the issues of everyday living. What we do with our lives in large measure depends upon how deep are the soul-searchings of this tragic period.

The results of today's asking will be greater support for the home, for the church, for the schools, and for the colleges. Especially must we seek to render assistance to those institutions which so greatly influence the molding of character of our youth.

No longer can we sit back and depend on someone else to bear the burden of responsibility, for the time has come for each of us to act.

"Is it I, Lord?" The answer must be in the words of the spiritual, "It's me, yes, it's me, O Lord . . ."

This is the day for decision!

Miss Eubanks

Miss Eubanks, Dr. Hays Plan Holiday Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Eubanks of Jacksonville, Florida, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Beryl Eubanks, to Dr. Leopold M. Hays, High Point, N. C.

A small wedding is planned for Sunday, December 22nd, in the Chapel of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, High Point. Officiating will be the Rev. David Jarvis, Associate Minister.

Miss Eubanks is an associate professor in the Department of Religion, where she has taught since 1962. She has also been director of religious education at the College. A cum laude graduate of Florida Southern University, she has also attended the Boston University School of Theology, where she received her M.R.Ed. degree, the University of Miami, and the University of Hawaii.

She has been Director of Christian Education at the First Methodist Church, Coral Gables, Florida; the White Temple Methodist Church, Maimi, Florida; and the Murray Hill Methodist Church, Jacksonville, Florida.

Dr. Hays, chairman of the Department of Sociology, has been at High Point College since 1955. He received his A.B. degree from Duke University, and his STB and Ph.D. degrees from Boston University School of Theology. He has done additional study at the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Hays is a retired U. S. Army colonel.

A Methodist minister, Dr. Hays has also been active as Director of Aerospace Education, North Carolina Wing, Civil Air Patrol, and in the North Carolina Education Association.

Wes Gaynor Assumes New Duties

Wesley W. Gaynor, High Point College bursar, will assume some of the duties performed in the past by Arthur B. Williams, former business manager at the College.

Under the direction of W. Lawson Allen, new business manager, Wes will handle the supervision of buildings and grounds, maintenance, the stadium, and purchasing of office and instructional supplies. He will retain the title of Bursar.

A native of Davis, West Virginia, Wes was employed by the International Paper Company and the Eddy Paper Company of St. Louis prior to coming to High Point, where he attended the College and was graduated with a B. S. degree in 1954. Employed by Belk-Beck Company after graduation, he came to High Point College as alumni secretary in 1955. He left the College in 1957 to become business manager of the Thomasville City Schools, but returned to High Point College as assistant bursar after one year. He was named bursar in 1961.

Wes is a member of the Masonic Lodge, and is active in the American Legion and the 40 and 8. He is a former member of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Church, and is a member of the Mayor's Committee to Hire the Handicapped. He served four years in the Air Force during World War II.

The son of Mrs. Malone Gaynor, Davis, West Virginia, Wes is married to the former Frances Jones of High Point, and they have two daughters: Pat, a senior at High Point Central High, and Carol, a student at Northeast Junior High School.

Brotherhood

HAVE FAITH in yourself this morning;
Start out to reach a goal;
Be attentive in your actions;
Be understood in your soul.

Reach out for new horizons;
You can conquer fear with good.
You are not alone in life
If you're living brotherhood.

—Jerry D. Mitchell.

ALUMNI URGED TO SUPPORT CAMPAIGN

No college or university in the country, whether public or private, can support itself without assistance from its alumni body. High Point College's Annual Giving Campaign is one expression of this need; and thanks to the cooperation of its former students, we have reached our goals for the past two years.

Now we face the challenge of this year's campaign with increased incentives and find our totals as of December 1 running somewhat behind the figures for this date last year. Five hundred and fifteen alumni (as compared with 678 a year ago) have contributed a total amount of $4,106.57 (as compared with $4,998.39 a year ago).

If you are one of those people who has good intentions but somehow always seems to put it off, we would greatly appreciate your financial support today, whether the gift be large or small.

Homecoming Set For February 8

Saturday, February 8, is the day to mark on the calendar and reserve for your annual pilgrimage to Alma Mater. Or, perhaps it's been several years since you last witnessed the physical beauty and friendliness of your campus. Make a date now to join your classmates and friends for a day of reminiscing and enjoyment as your college and Alumni Association roll out the red carpet. We feel an excellent program of intellectual and social events has been arranged as a tribute to the swelling number of alumni returning each year to the immediate college family. Plan to join us.

FACULTY NOTES

Mrs. Ring

MRS. KATHRYN RING, Department of Home Economics, attended a conference of College Home Economics Teachers at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro on November 16. The conference members discussed the concept of teaching home economics at the college level.

DR. DAVID W. COLE, DR. STUART DESKINS, and JESSE L. TAYLOR visited Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Atlanta, Georgia, recently. The purpose of the trip was to meet with local historical authorities in order to plan the itinerary of next summer's American History Caravan, which will cover the campaigns of the Chattanooga-Chicamauga area and will proceed along the route of Sherman's march to Atlanta.

Six members of the faculty and administration attended sectional meetings of the North Carolina College conference held in Durham November 6-8.

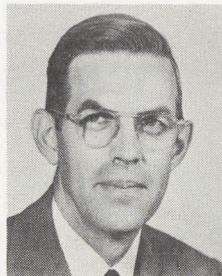

DR. WENDELL M. PATTON attended the general session and the meeting of the Council of Church

Related Colleges. Attending the meeting for college deans, as well as the general session, were DR. DAVID W. COLE and DR. HAROLD E. CONRAD.

DR. DENNIS COOKE reported for the Research Committee on a study being made during the year on the year-round college calendar at the general session.

DUFFY L. PAUL attended a meeting for college admissions officers, and NATHANIEL P. YARBOROUGH attended the session for college registrars.

MISS LOUISE ADAMS and DALE BROWN attended the fall dinner meeting of the Washington, D. C. Chapter of the Alumni Association November 23.

DR. WILLIAM R. LOCKE spoke to members of the High Point Woman's Club recently. His talk, based on his travels to Europe and the Middle East while on Sabbatical Leave from the College, was on "The Ancient Cities." He included such cities as Cairo, Athens, and Rome.

Mr. Nelson

Nelson Teaches Course For Western Electric

James L. Nelson, Department of Business Administration, has been teaching a course in "Communicating Ideas" at the Western Electric Training Center for Graduate Engineers at Winston-Salem.

In the course, student graduates from such schools as South Dakota School of Mines, Montana State University, North Carolina State, Texas Western, Pennsylvania State, Alabama Polytech, the University of Miami, the University of Kentucky, Guilford College, and Appalachian received training in writing technical reports, giving oral reports, and conference communications.

Western Electric maintains three training centers, one in Chicago, one in New York, and one in Winston-Salem. The trainees at the Winston-Salem school were primarily electrical and industrial engineering graduates, with some graduates in science and mathematics included in the program.

Nelson's class met for 12 afternoons over a six weeks period. Beginning Oct. 24, the sessions were concluded Dec. 5.

Nelson has his B.S. degree from High Point College, and his M.S. from the University of North Carolina. He also attended the University of the Philippines and the University of Maine. He has been a member of the High Point College faculty since 1958.

ELEVEN STUDENTS NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

Eleven High Point College students have been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Recipients of the awards were presented in assembly recently.

Receiving awards were Linda Carol Craven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold L. Craven, Rt. 2, High Point; William Douglas Fallin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fallin, 7145½ Allentown Rd., Washington, D. C.; Linda Ferran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ferran, Eustis, Fla.; Carolyn Elizabeth Frye, daughter of Mr. Lloyd E. Frye, Rt. 4, Leesburg, Va.; Gail Geyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geyer, 23 Headley Terr., Irvington, N. J.; Robert D. Kornegay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Kornegay, Jr., 1410 Seminole Dr., Greensboro; Donald A. Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Little, Rt. 1, Iron Station; Charles E. Nesbitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nesbitt, 44 Watauga St., Asheville; Carlos E. Prado-Gonzales, son of Rev. and Mrs. Carlos Prado-Sardinas, Santurce, Puerto Rico; Betty Treece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Treece, Rt. 4, Concord; and Carrie Lee Whitehurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Whitehurst, Rt. 5, Greenville.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, a nation-wide organization, each year allots a limited number of memberships to each participating college or university. Selection is based on leadership, scholastic achievement, and participation, and is done through a student-faculty committee.

Trustees Purchase
New Property
For College Use

The College Trustees have recently purchased a residence at 900 Sixth Street from Mrs. Willa F. Stout. This property will be used for a faculty residence.

Property at Five Points has been acquired from Mr. and Mrs. Delos Hedgecock. A request for rezoning this entire block for neighborhood business has been passed by the Zoning Commission. A small shopping center is planned on the part of the property which we now own, to be expanded to the newly acquired property as tenants are secured.

The four acres across Montlieu Street from the College have been purchased from Guilford County. It will be used later for faculty housing.

A PERSONAL WORD

Have you made a will, Has it been revised lately? Have you considered High Point College as a beneficiary, providing a lasting memorial to your name?

Make it. Revise it.

Remember High Point College

TO WORSHIP OR NOT TO WORSHIP

Worship is as natural as breathing. But there are aids to worship just as there are aids to proper breathing. This need for worship must be met by providing surroundings conducive to worship.

High Point College needs a chapel—a beautiful place of worship. There is no reason for belaboring that point, for High Point College has no adequate place for worship. The faculty senses this need. The students have been intensely interested for years. Alumni and other friends sense this lack on the campus. Some of the churches in the area are interested.

What more wonderful memorial could be erected to a loved one than a chapel? What is more needed in a church - related college than a place to worship? We worship, but where or what?

Mr. Allen

Will you help us provide a chapel for worship?

THERE IS NO GREATER GIFT . . .

A great number of alumni and other friends of High Point College have shared in another year of progress. The year 1963 is fast waning and during this season our thoughts turn toward the finer and more noble aspects of life.

Have you, my friend, shared your abilities, your influence, your thoughts? Has there been a turning toward the real verities of life? Is there not an urge to use what you have for the benefit of those less fortunate?

Have you shared with the College? Have you had some part in making a better man or woman by helping some boy or girl? There may be no better way than to share yourself with a College, Church, or some other institution which deals with human values—education, religious training, worship, or rehabilitation.

Will you share with us who are so gladly serving at High Point College?

ANNUAL REPORT

NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-THREE

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

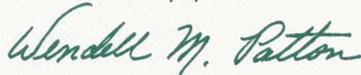

At the close of our 39th year in the City of High Point and our 107th year of existence, it is my pleasure to present a summary of the 1962-63 operations.

Last year in making our first public reporting we limited our report to factual information only — avoiding glowing, subjective descriptions of progress. Perhaps we failed to be descriptive enough because many people have asked questions about various projects and requested more information. This year we will attempt to briefly describe our accomplishments, at the same time holding to basic facts. Please let us have your suggestions so that this annual reporting will be of greatest value to you.

There is a deep awareness on our campus of indebtedness to all who have served so faithfully. We are beginning to accept as reality the fact that High Point College is one of the strongest and finest in our state. We, as all other private colleges, face what seem to be insurmountable problems in preserving private Christian higher education, but we are in an excellent position to make our voice heard. As all of you know, the forces of today are directed against Christian higher education, but this trend serves only to bind us together with vitality and enthusiasm as we improve our educational program and our ability to operate in the spirit of Christian brotherhood in holding to the principles for which our College and Church stand.

I hope that you find our progress satisfactory and that you continue to support High Point College with your interest, prayers, and constructive criticism.

Sincerely yours,

THIS YEAR

The Fellows Program continued to be an encouraging factor in the development of the College — thirty Fellows joined with us.

A Science Building has been placed in the forefront of the needs of the College. Preliminary sketches have been drawn and requests for funds from foundations have been made.

J. Ed Millis Hall, a dormitory for men, was completed.

The Experimental College Preparatory Program was a success in that more than forty students were admitted to colleges who otherwise would not have been admitted. The program will go forward next year.

The Aerospace Workshop was promoted again, and applications for this summer program are running ahead of last year.

The Self-Study required by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, probably the greatest task of the year, was completed and the Inspection Team visited the campus. All standards for accreditation were met.

The Language Laboratory was installed and is in use. A grant from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church made this facility possible.

NEXT YEAR

The Curriculum Study headed by Dr. Harold Conrad is making headway looking toward an entirely new educational program. A report is due next year.

Additional Property to enlarge the campus is anticipated. By acquiring more than four acres across Montlieu Avenue, provision will be made for expansion of housing. We also look forward to having additional property at Five Points.

A Self-Study of our Teacher Education Program for the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction is scheduled for 1963-64.

Four Tennis Courts will be provided. These will give adequate facilities in this area of Physical Education.

Faculty Salaries will be increased as student fees are increased. Also, plans are underway to improve the insurance program and retirement plan for faculty and staff.

Piedmont University Center will assist in the exploration and accomplishment of research programs.

A Restudy of the administrative organizational plan for the College will be made during the year to find the most suitable plan for a liberal arts college the size of High Point College.
