

Charles E. Hayworth Sr. Memorial Chapel Art Collection

Contents

Portrait of Charles Hayworth, Sr. by A. Frederick	2
Portrait of Charles Hayworth, Jr. by A. Frederick.....	3

Portrait of Charles Hayworth, Sr. by A. Frederick

Title: Portrait of Charles Hayworth, Sr.

Artist: A. Frederick

The Charles E. Hayworth Sr. Memorial Chapel at High Point University was named for the man in this picture and the funds to build the chapel were donated by his son, Charles E. Hayworth, Jr. in his memory. Mr. Hayworth, Sr. lived from 1882 to 1928.

The painting was completed by local artist, A. Frederick.

Portrait of Charles Hayworth, Jr. by A. Frederick

Title: Portrait of Charles E. Hayworth, Jr.

Artist: A. Frederick

Charles E. Hayworth, Jr. was an alum of High Point University and the generous contributor who made the Charles E. Hayworth Sr. Memorial Chapel possible. Mr. Hayworth, Jr. wished to dedicate the chapel to his father, who he lost at a young age. The chapel was completed on November 7, 1972 and along with funding for its construction, Charles, Jr. and his wife, Pauline, donated funds to maintain the facility and provide for all of its equipment needs. In 1990, Charles and Pauline Hayworth established another fund to help provide for the program and activity needs of the chapel. Charles, Jr. passed away on January 4, 1994. It was at his memorial service that the above painting was first displayed.

The painting was completed by local artist, A. Frederick