Portrait of Mr. Roberts

Title: Portrait of Mr. John C. Roberts

John C. Roberts, pictured above was one of the very first donors who made High Point College possible. In 1901, Roberts, who was a trustee of the Yadkin Collegiate Institute, promised $10,000 for a Methodist Protestant college in North Carolina. This promise of funds invigorated the drive to build what would become High Point College in 1924.
