Choose Extraordinary

A Letter from President Qubein

Dear High Point University Student:

In today's world, only the most extraordinary will become the effective leaders of tomorrow. Those whose education has engaged and enlightened them will rise to the challenge of guiding future generations. It is our hope and prayer that High Point University has been the catalyst that ignites the desire within you to become extraordinary in every way.

This past school year has been one of discovery and transformation for us all. Personally, I reached a one-year milestone as president of this remarkable university. More importantly, I became acquainted with some of the greatest students in the world ... YOU! It energizes me to know that our students come here to receive an extraordinary education in a fun environment and with caring people.

Together, over the past few months, we watched several buildings come tumbling down; then marveled as spectacular new state-of-the-art buildings began to take shape in their places. We initiated a $100 million transformation of campus and programs that will propel us to new levels of significance. In short, we developed a bold, new vision and began to make it a reality! We are humbled to know that God's hand is in this work and I am blessed to have been part of this wonderful journey with you.

As you continue your education at HPU – or graduate and begin a new chapter of your life – I encourage you to discover your purposeful path in life, engage in the opportunities around you and pursue a life focused on significance. You have the power to become extraordinary, focus that power wisely, and you will enjoy a life of blessing, joy and success.

Going out with a bang!

PantherPalooza

CAT, the newly formed Campus Activities Team, hosted their inaugural event on April 28, 2005. PantherPalooza was the year's most talked-about celebration, establishing itself as High Point's newest tradition, and made CAT the University's premiere event planner.

After students completed their last classes of the year, they moved onto the International Promenade to enjoy a rock climbing wall, inflatable games, the Butt-Sketch Artist (caricature), tie-dye t-shirt station, and of course great food and a live performance by rock band Virginia Coalition.

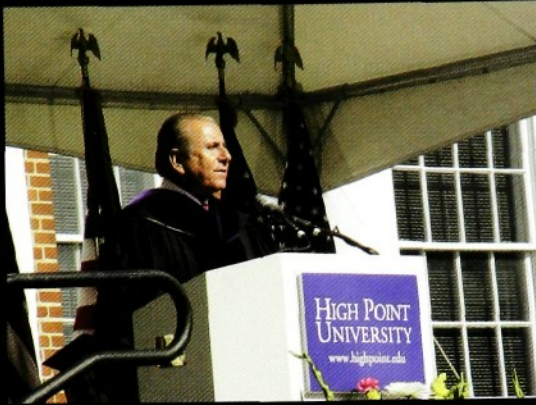

04.28.05

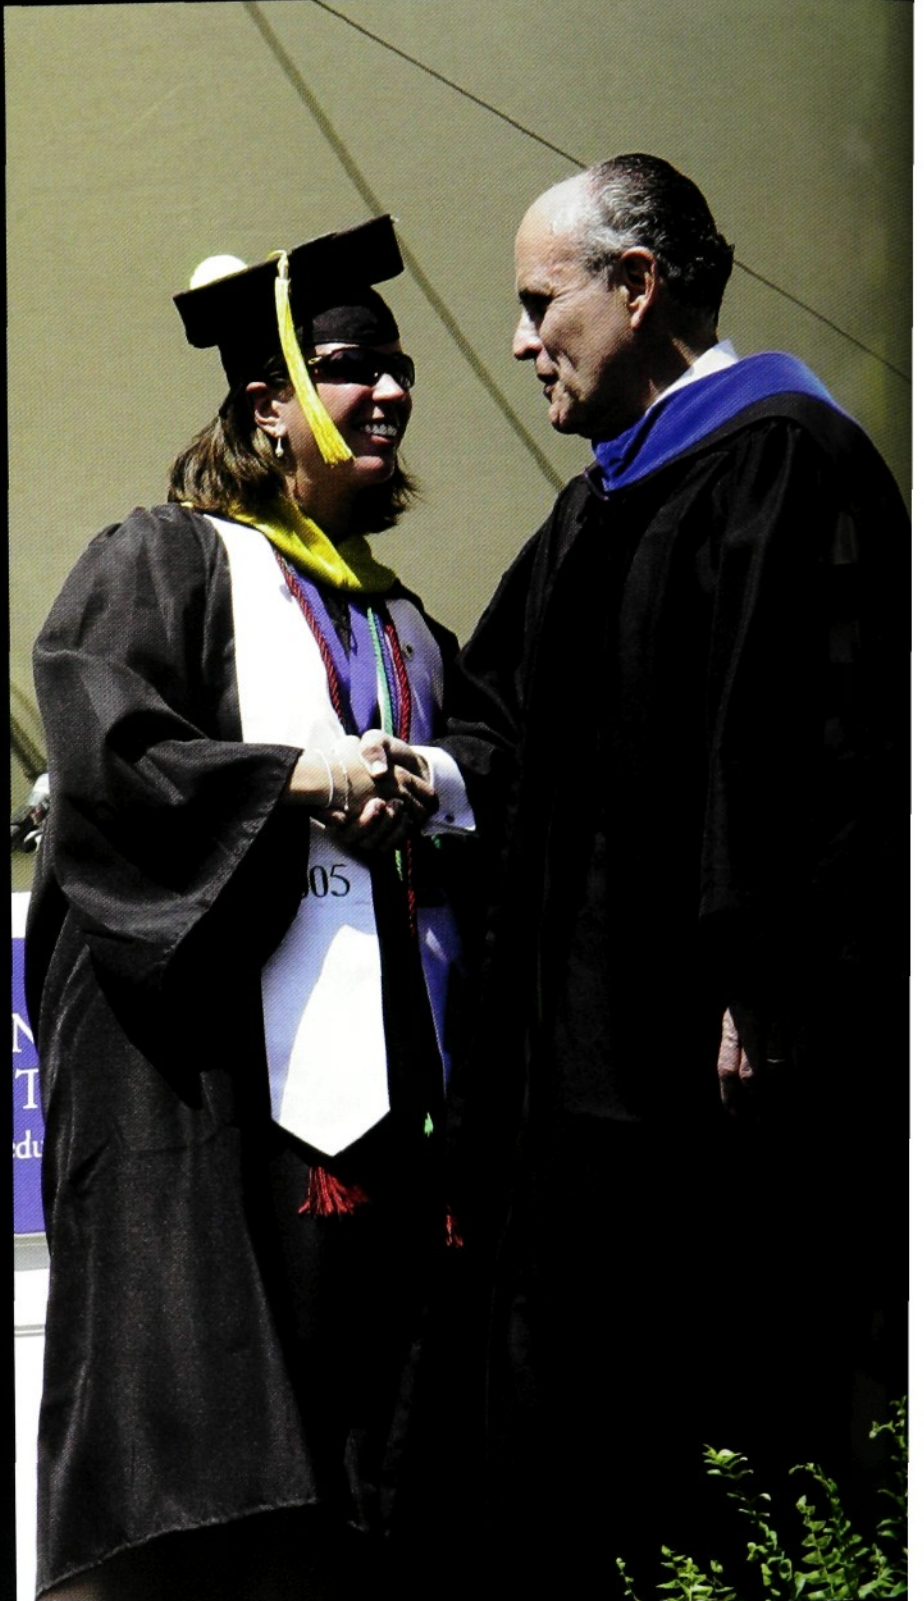

Have diploma, will travel...

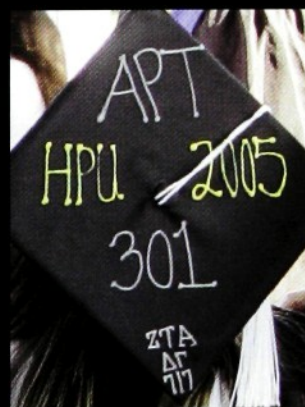

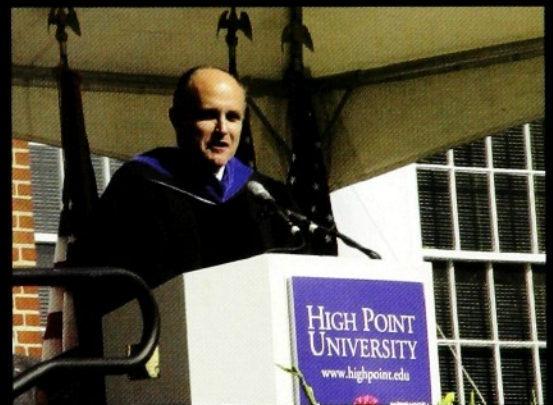

Commencement

Under a beautiful blue sky, the class of 2005 gathered one last time to say goodbye to High Point University and to share their accomplishments with friends and family.

To mark the occasion, former New York Mayor, Rudy Guliani supplied the crowd with a message of inspiration and challenged the graduates not to merely live in the world, but to make it a better one.

05.07.05

Lift with your legs, not with your back!

Move-In Day

As a warm August morning morphed into a hot summer day, the class of 2009 arrived for the first time with boxes and blankets, and lots of anxiety over moving into their new home. The stress however was short lived as the OC, Orientation Crew, made all feel welcome. A sea of teal shirts swarmed through campus assisting freshmen and their families with all the heavy lifting.

The OC, led by SGA Vice-President Hillary Cole, was comprised of a record number of over 100 students. To help keep everyone cool, an ice cream truck was on hand and stocked with frozen treats. Families were welcomed at the entrance with gift boxes stuffed with chocolate and inspiring HPU fortune cookies and were kept upbeat throughout the day with live music scattered across the campus.

08.20.05

In the beginning...

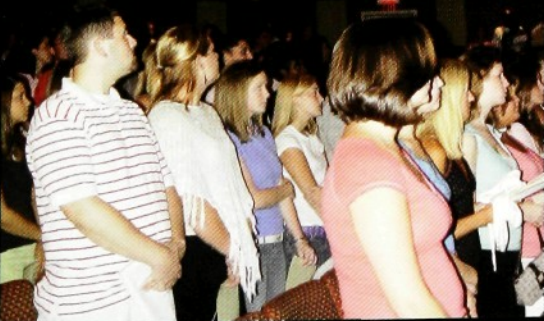

Orientation

Orientation Week 2005 was a lightning-fast, non-stop, fun-filled series of events and activities designed to capture the essence of what is "High Point!"

From the annual Luau to the first ever campus fireworks display, Orientation set the stage for an exciting and historic year.

08.21.05

Where's the Derby?

Derby Day 2005

Derby Day 2005 took on a whole new look complete with bungee ballet, water slides, pools, and segway races. Over 1000 High Point students, staff, and faculty spent the day in celebration of the coming year.

As C.A.T.'s kick-off event of the fall semester, C.A.T. President Carrie Shank and her team set a high standard for fun and gave HPU a first class party.

08.27.05

Where fun and family meet

Alumni & Parents Weekend

2005 marked the first time two of High Point University's long held traditions came together to create one dynamic weekend. In October loving parents and long departed caring Alumni joined forces to celebrate the student of today and the student of yesterday. Throughout the weekend, High Point family and friends enjoyed live music, theatre, sports, great food, and a dramatic fireworks show to close out a festive event.

10.01.05

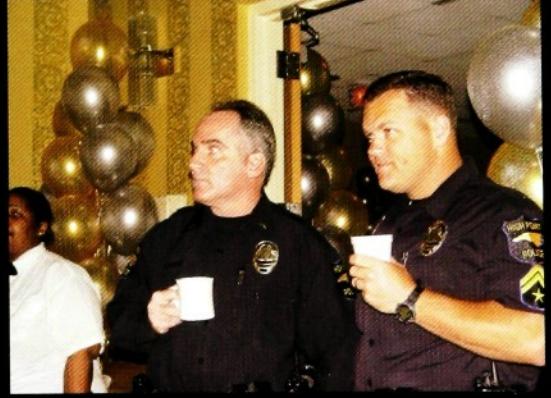

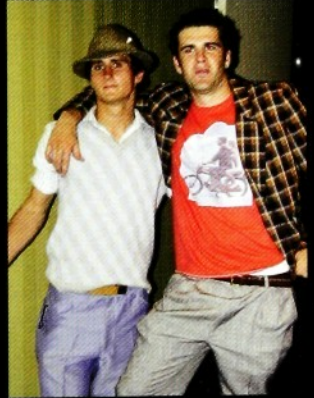

A Night of Queens and Kings

Homecoming

HPU's 81st annual Homecoming Dance, and the University's oldest tradition heated up the Radisson Ballroom on a brisk October night. Students and alumni cheered the court and welcomed the new Queen and King, Kaci Martin and Josh Faucette. Also on the court were Hillary Cole, Carrie Shank, Nicole Harper, Kristen Frieberger, Dan Wolff, Patrick Walsh, Zac Cuffe, and Clark Robertson.

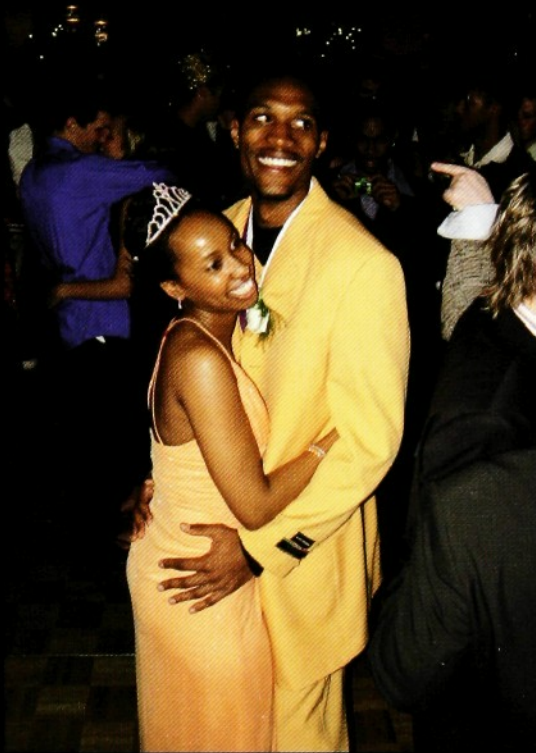

10.07.05

Jazzing it Up!

SnowBall

Braving the winter chill, over 500 High Point students unearthed their best duds and danced the night away at the 5th annual SnowBall.

The colorful, jazzy décor of the Raddisson Ballroom, designed by Rans Triplett and junior Zana Vance served as a festive backdrop for the crowning of this year's Snow Queen, Pam Holley, and Winter King, Gene Galloway. The additional members of the Winter Court were: Hillary Cole, Nicole Houghtling, Sarah Haak, Nicole Harper, Zac Cuffe, Josh Faucette, David Hiatt, and "Steady" Teddy Gamache.

On Campus Life

Making a home in a new town with a stranger for a roommate may seem like an insurmountable task for most, but at HPU, students work hard to create strong friendships and lasting bonds.

everyday

There is so much to do!

FUN!

The High Point campus may seem a bit hectic at times, but students can always take a break and unwind with a game of ping pong or volleyball. If ping pong is too fast paced, then perhaps the hammocks that have sprung up across the campus are more your speed. Students can always look forward to an afternoon of relaxation or conversation under one of the many new purple umbrellas that dot the campus horizon.

Have a snack!

Do you Facebook? Well so does our President. In fact, Dr. Qubein spends much of his day communicating with students. But there is no better place to catch up with "The Prez" than out on the Promenade by one of the HPU kiosks. Throughout the week, Dr. Qubein delights us with treats ranging from hot chocolate to popcorn! Is it rude to ask for seconds?

Wednesday Night Reflections

Chapel Services

On any Wednesday night, students, faculty and staff share in the ecumenical services in the High point Chapel. Organized by the Board of Stewards, and facilitated by Dr. Hal Warlick, the weekly services present messages from influential thinkers and music from local artists and national talents.

High Point Supper Club

From Elvis "live" to Dickensian Drama, the Supper Club series offers students a taste culture and cuisine from around the world.

Elvis not your style? Then try the bluegrass band and tailgate picnic, or the Chinese New Year with Peking Duck, or the French Bistro with classical violin.

The Supper Club Series was yet another example of what makes High Point an extraordinary place!

When I hear Alpha Gam, I think of a great group of girls that have all come together at HPU to share a great college experience. In 10, 20, 30 years from now, my most valuable memory of being Greek is the close friendship I have made with those in my sorority now. The reason I chose the sorority that I am in is because of the bond I saw between the girls so I knew that it was a great organization to be a part of for the rest of my life. - Hillary Cole

When I hear Kappa Delta, I feel proud to represent such a great group of girls. My most valuable memories of KD will be the lifelong friends that I have made, and how they have taught me so much about myself and leadership. Our motto is "let us strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest," and I truly feel that KD has pushed me to strive for each of those things and how an amazing group of 50 girlfriends can be! - Kristen Mali

When I think of Zeta Tau Alpha, I think of the incredible sisterhood, leadership, service, and the unforgettable memories each sister of this chapter has and will keep with them for many years after their sorority experience. Every sister in Zeta brings something unique and special to it and has helped mold this sorority into the accomplished organization it is today. The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are young women who have added this sorority to their life and have given up a lot to ensure its prosperity and valuable reputation. Each sister is sure to tell anyone that Zeta is their home away from home.

Greek Week

Greek Week 2005 was a week to remember as the team of Kappa Delta/ Pi Kappa Alpha won the Crop Walk, Toga Bowling, Tug of War, & Kickball. The team of Alpha Gamma Delta/ Lambda Chi Alpha won best Banner, and the Phi Mu & Theta Chi team won the Volleyball match. The week concluded with the favorite event of Lip Sync. The Phi Mu/ Theta Chi team rocked the gym and won the Lip Sync Contest. The win gave them the title of Greek Week Champions.

COLOPHON

This 82nd volume of High Point University's Zenith was printed by Taylor Publishing Company at their plant located in Dallas, Texas. The Taylor representatives were Susan Saxon and Milani Arguelles. Using one Dell desktop and one Toshiba laptop, the editors and staff members produced the 160 page book. Sadly, you have already stopped reading. If you are still reading, you may be a yearbook geek! Hold on to the cover, and enjoy the ride. Photographs were taken digitally on a camera that was broken from overuse and submitted on disk. Pages were laid out using Adobe InDesign 2.0, and graphic enhancements were done using Adobe Photoshop. The cover is black, with Roberts Hall, heck just close the book and you can see what the cover looks like. The book was printed on 100 pound gloss enamel paper (darn, that's some heavy paper!). Fonts used were Geometr231Lt BT for headlines and copy...what copy? Portrait photos were taken by LifeTouch over a series of four days. Photographs were taken by Megan Pastor because she is a dedicated photographer and loves the camera. Select athletic photographs were provided by the Office of Sports Information, Outdoor Activities Club photographs were submitted by Dr. Kelly Norton, and theatre photographs were provided by the Theatre Department. A special thank you goes out to the one and only Black Betty for always being there and always working. Thank you Phil Flores and Outback Steakhouse of High Point, NC. Thank you sweet tea, thank you students that work in The Point for your enthusiasm and ability to create wraps. Thank you Andrea Clodfelter for visiting when the going got tough and for bringing dessert and thank you Burke Clodfelter for the inspirational quote "nothing helps!" We live by that motto in this office now. Thank you to Susan Saxon for the motivational phrase of "boring is good." Thanks to Nicole Beaudwin and her staff for starting the book. Finally, a special thank you to Megan Pastor and her editorial board for assisting in the production of this Carolina-like yearbook. It is award winning! For all of you that have made it this far, thank you for being a dedicated reader.
