PRESIDENT'S LETTER 2008

My Dear Student:

Congratulations on your academic achievements and best wishes to you as you embark on a future filled with both success and significance.

At High Point University we truly dedicate ourselves to ensuring that every student receives an extraordinary education in a fun environment with caring people. We mean it, and we deliver on that promise every day. We are not a perfect institution, but we strive for excellence in everything we do.

The truth is: You cannot teach values; you can only model them. We have exerted serious and meaningful effort to model for you important values like generosity, service, pride, joy, faith, fellowship, and confidence. We believe that who you spend time with is who you become. We recognize that what you choose is what you get. You do control much of your destiny and, with God's help, you can attain your goals.

For those who graduate this year, I offer my hearty admiration. You worked long and hard, and you deserve our respect and appreciation. Celebrate this moment and remember to give loving thanks to all those who helped you in your journey. Travel onwards with determination and faithful courage. The world is your place to work, serve, and succeed.

For others who will be in our midst here again in the Fall, please know that our faculty and staff genuinely care about you and want the best for you. You're fortunate because you'll enjoy all the brand new facilities on this campus – the results of a quarter-of-a-billion-dollar investment to guarantee that your academic experience here is outstanding at all levels.

When God breathed in your nostrils and gave you life, He created someone very special. Rejoice and be glad that you have purpose and meaning in your life. And always reach out to the stars.

Sincerely,

Nido R. Qubein
President

New at HPU

High Point University students marveled at their ever changing campus. Students enjoyed the latest, luxury-style living that HPU had to offer with the grand opening of the Village. "The Village people" and the rest of the campus enjoyed eating at the Grille, swimming in the second outdoor swimming pool on campus, and making delicious s'mores by the outdoor fireplace. All of campus had the opportunity to ride in style in the HPU trolley, take a casual stroll through the park, and cheer on the athletic teams in the renovated Millis Center.

Super Summer

In college, learning occurs in and out of the classroom. Computer workshops and student discussion groups supplement the in-class learning experience, while special activities like BBQs, beach volleyball events, movie nights, pool parties, weekend retreats, sporting events, and other activities are available as part of the extracurricular experience. Summer Experience is designed to help students grow academically, as well as personally and socially. The summer of 2008 was no exception. Left: Summer Experience students Laura Brookes, Liz Hedrich, Andrea Lloyd, Cat Zuppani, Ashley Hayes and Whitney Kaltenbach enjoy a day at Wet 'n Wild.

Welcome Home

High Point University welcomed more than 800 new students in August 2008. With the help of current students, faculty and staff, move-in was a success. The day consisted of moving, music, and a celebration of new friends! Upperclassmen Ashley Rich, Danielle Marshall, Jenna Wiederhold, and Allie Cleaves gladly provided ice cream on this hot move-in day.

ORIENTATION ACTIVITIES

Over the next several weeks, students celebrated the kick off to a new semester with Orientation Activities. Upperclassmen and freshmen got to mingle as they enjoyed events such as ice-breakers, bingo, game shows, tours of the city, casino night, and pool parties, and the extraordinary list goes on!

DERBY DAY

The 1st Saturday after the commencement of classes marked the HPU tradition known as Derby Day! Always a fun way for freshmen and upperclassmen to meet and mingle, Derby Day had it all... tons of activities on the Kester International Promenade ranging from a 34-foot slip 'n slide to a game of tug o' war, volleyball, food and more.

Fabulous Fun

Learning Leadership

The EXP 101 experience is meant to bring freshmen together to create a networking scheme among classmates. Through the program the students learn networking, team building, problem solving and communication skills. The program is aided by a video called "Fish," which illustrates four principles to be applied to school, life, social organizations, and work. The four principles within the video are play, choose your attitude, be there, and make their day. Students apply the principles they learn in the video to real life, by writing and acting out scenarios.

Freshmen attend the President's Seminar and take part in the interactive group sessions.

High Point University Rockin' Crocs

HPU hosted the Crocs Next Step Campus Tour, featuring MC Lars, Yung Joc and Cartel on Friday, September 8th in Millis Athletic and Convocation Center. It was one of the best parties High Point has ever seen! Far left: These students are truly WOW'ed by the concert. Left: Phi Mu enjoyed the show!

Everyone was thrilled to have Cartel and Yung Joc perform for the fall concert. Millis Center was rockin' all night long! Bottom left and right: HPU chicks dig Cartel.

Tournament of Togas

As always, Greek Week 2008 proved to be a successful, fun and philanthropic event for the Greek Community at High Point University. All thirteen of the Greek organizations on campus participated in events including a sand volleyball tournament, pizza eating contest, toga bowling and Lip Sync. Additionally, through a charity date auction, Greeks raised over $3,000 for the Love, Hope, Strength Foundation, which encourages bone marrow donations for cancer patients. There was plenty of fun and lots of competition, with Kappa Delta and Theta Chi being announced as the winners at the annual Fall Formal.

Glamorous Gathering

More than 850 HPU Students attended the 2008 Fall Formal. Everyone looked fabulous as they danced the night away. What a perfect way to "fall" in love with HPU! Above: Megan Williams, Ashley Rich, Claudia Mota and Mia Muratore prove that dancing with the feet is one thing, but dancing with the heart is another. Right: Jesse Kiser and the guys looking suave at Fall Formal. Far right: Jasmine Silas, Briauna Lowery, Danielle Cunningham, Jessica Dos Santos, Ashley Harvey and Christina Robinson.

Panthers Rule!

Women's Soccer

VERT TRACK AND SOCCER STADIUM

In 2008, the High Point University women's soccer team recorded the fewest losses in program history while also recording a school record for tied games. The Panthers hosted the Big South Conference Championship this fall and advanced to the semifinals. HPU welcomed a school record crowd of 1,493 for the team's game versus Winthrop, which was part of the Alumni & Family Weekend activities in October.

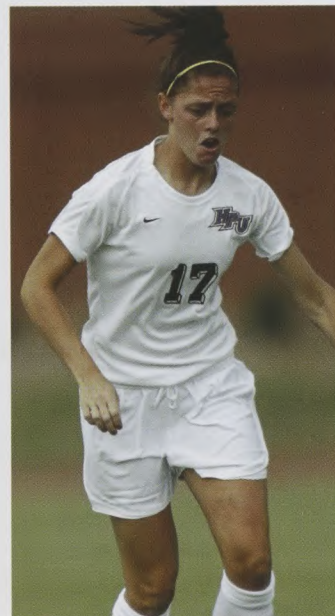

Left to right: Senior forward Renee Hitchcock (second-team), freshman midfielder Taylor Ray (all-freshman), junior Laura "Stevie" Eldridge (first-team) and sophomore forward Sara Rager (second-team) were all awarded postseason honors by the Big South Conference.

Talented HPU students acted in the theatrical musical production of "The Robber Bridegroom," a southern fairy tale set in 18th-century Mississippi. This production was held at the Hayworth Fine Arts Center in the Pauline Theatre on November 13-16, 2008.

FALL CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Autumn Antics

Fall of 2008 was a great time to be a student at High Point University. The Campus Activities Team sponsored events such as bingo, movie nights, laser tag, girls and guys nights out, bowling, ice skating and more. Above: Kory McCormick, Cally Lanning, Chelsea Johnson, Caitlin Bonner, Kevin Johnson, Jenn Hastings. Left: Kevin Kucharski and Ashley Press lace up their skates. Right: Come on, ride the HPU train!

Enlightened Performances

During the 2008-2009 school year, High Point University's cultural enrichment series provided culturally, as well as academically, stimulating opportunities for students, faculty and staff, and community of High Point. With speakers and performers such as Armstrong Williams and Thomas Friedman, students were sure to have more enlightened perspectives and stronger character. Above: Faustwork Mask Theater. Far left: "Almost Maine." Left: Cabaret.

IMAGINE

Imagine the Adventure

At High Point University, our emphasis on global perspectives is designed to provide students with opportunities to enhance their international awareness and to develop their cross-cultural communication skills. Study abroad is strongly encouraged as a part of this emphasis on global studies. During the 2008-2009 school year, students took the opportunity to see the world through attending some of the most prestigious universities it has to offer! Pictured are some snap shots from Oxford and Prague.

CHRISTMAS

'Tis the Season...

At Christmas time, the High Point University campus can make you feel a little bit more like home. With the lights, the nutcrackers, and the giant tree in the Slane Center, students feel the Christmas spirit all around them. Above: The Board of Stewards demonstrates that a season of giving is a season worth living.

SPRING CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Spring Campus Activities

Fantasy Football

We may not know who won the game, but the party was a blast! More than 800 students attended the HPU Super Bowl Party 2009. Domino's served over 2,500 slices and there were mounds of nachos from Moe's. Some brave souls attempted the insanity wing contest from East Coast Wings, and luckily they had Ben & Jerry's to cool them down! A great game, a linebacker tackle inflatable and caricature keepsakes helped to make this one heck of a shin-dig. Right: Steelers cheerleaders. Far right: Glamorous Gams.

Men's Basketball

The High Point University men's basketball team saw a rebuilding year as 13 members of its 16-man roster were listed as either freshmen or sophomores. The Panthers were the second youngest team in the country and one of four that had nine freshmen listed on the roster this past season.

HIGH POINT UNIVER

Nick Barbour earned a spot on the Big South All-Freshman team after leading the Panthers in scoring, averaging 14.4 points per game. He improved his average in League play with 15.6. HPU swept conference rival Winthrop this season for the first time in the program's Division I history.

Women's Basketball

High Point University's women's basketball team boasted a young roster with no seniors on the 11-member squad and just three juniors. The Panthers finished second in the Big South standings after defeating perennial power Liberty in the final game of the season.

Sophomore Jurica Hargraves earned a spot on the Big South All-Conference First Team after leading the team in scoring all season, averaging 13.2 points per game. Classmate Mackenzie Maier was named to the Second Team All-Conference and grabbed a spot on the All-Tournament team. Maier tallied 84 blocks this season (2.7 bpg), setting a new HPU single season record; she also set a school single game record (7, two times) and a Big South Tournament record with seven against UNC Asheville. Shamia Brown was named the Big South Freshman of the Year. She was second on the team in scoring with 11.2 points per game and led the team in rebounding with 5.9 per game.

TRACK & FIELD

The High Point University men's and women's track teams had success this season, qualifying the most athletes for the NCAA East Regional meet in the past several years. Between the two programs 19 school records were either broken or tied this past season. The Panthers also hosted the school's first on-campus track meet in over 15 years on May 2 with the HPU Vertklasse Meeting.

Baseball

The High Point University baseball team

reached new heights this season under first-year head coach Craig Cozart. HPU defeated then-#4-ranked North Carolina during a mid-week game. The Panthers followed that up with two wins over Big South champion Coastal Carolina, ranked #14 in the nation at the time. Closing out the season, High Point won its first two games of the Big South Conference Baseball Championship, advancing farther in the tournament than any team in the past.

"I don't want to be anywhere other than HPU"

Gavin Degraw

Gavin doesn't want to be anywhere other than HPU! The High Point community celebrated the end of another school year with an exceptional performance by Gavin Degraw. The event marking the second annual spring concert will surely help the tradition live on for the future classes at HPU!

High Point University students had the chance to dance the night away to Gavin, but first they got to celebrate the end of classes with PantherPalooza '09. Students bounced on inflatables, filled up on burritos and ice cream, got caricatures drawn, had henna tattoos painted on themselves, and even rode in a hot air balloon!
