President's Letter

Dear HPU Student:

Congratulations to our seniors as they graduate and all other students for completing another successful year. At High Point University, we really strive to ensure that you receive an extraordinary education in an inspiring environment with caring people.

You are a part of a dynamic institution where outstanding academics are balanced with a high-energy student life program. We care about you. We exist to provide you with a solid education that equips you to thrive in an ever demanding, highly competitive global marketplace. We value your input and we treasure our dialog with you.

Our distinguished faculty members give their all to guide you and assist you in your journey of discovery. Our staff members are committed to be helpful to you at every turn. We are not perfect, but we are invested in the vision and mission of our academy, and we are totally focused on helping you to do more, be more, have more, and give more.

We thank God for the twinkle in your eye and the sparkle in your soul. We rejoice in your success and we celebrate your achievements. And, as we encourage you to move onwards with faith, we salute the integrity of your character and the authenticity of your spirit.

Choose to be extraordinary!
Sincerely,

Nido R. Qubein
President

SUMMER EXPERIENCE

Two hundred of this year's freshmen got a chance to "test drive" college life at Summer Experience. A program designed exclusively for incoming freshmen, students live on campus, take classes, attend events and experience a taste of High Point University before they move here with everyone else in the Fall. Left inset: Top Kaitlyn Kizer and friend belt out a Disney show tune at Karaoke Night. Bottom Tori Nordhoff, Sam Marotella, Carey Gordon, Kasey Walker, John Gargulio, Dominic Tarantelli and Zac Zielinski spend the day at Wet n' Wild Emerald Point. Main: Jenna Parr and friend experience the value of joy during their first free treat from the ice cream truck. Clockwise from top right: Carlisa Warner, Samantha Robbins, Laura May, Ally-Catherine Trenary and Jordan Kuebler roller skate at the 4th of July Extravaganza. Freshmen show off their HPU Baseball Caps, a gift from President Qubein when they visited his home for a special dinner. Laura Fleming, Kendyl Trevena, Jordan Kuebler, Garland Talbott and Laura May prepare to watch "Bounty Hunter" on the Promenade. Wilson Powell (center) enjoys an evening at Party at the Plank in downtown High Point with nine of his classmates. Andrew Brooks and friend show off lucky cards at BINGO in the Café.

ORIENTATION MOVE-IN

Welcome Home! Our High Point University family continues to expand as more than 1,200 freshmen moved to campus on August 19. Steel drums and guitars played across campus while the Orientation Crew helped everyone with a smile. A volunteer army outfitted in tie-dye, the orientation crew, comprised of upperclassmen, faculty and staff worked for almost 20 hours making sure everyone was settled in.

Left: The line of cars outside of Finch on move-in day. Blair Williams and Mike Muratore roll a dolly with a smile! Clockwise from top right: Live Musicians entertained the crowds all over campus and kept everyone's energy pumping. Levi Wright and other members of the Orientation Crew wait on the curb with empty hand trucks. Drew Geissenger makes a plan of action with a new parent. President Qubein greets each car pulling on to campus, ensuring Mom and Dad that he will take care of their pride and joy. Orientation Crew members take careful measures to make sure everyone's belongings make it safely to their rooms. Dylan Robinson carries a heavy load with a smile!

ORIENTATION ACTIVITIES

Orientation week is undoubtedly one of the most memorable and fun-filled weeks of the year here at HPU. Mixed with University traditions and team building activities, the events this week create a unique bond for the incoming students that will last all four years. Left Main: The signing of the University Honor Code is a very serious and meaningful experience. The class of 2014's signed pledge will be displayed in Slane Center for the duration of the academic year. Inset: Vegas Hypnotist Marc Maverick wow's the crowd as he puts students into a trance. Clockwise from top right: Playfair is the world's largest icebreaker, a mandatory event for all freshmen, held in Millis Gym. Students got closer to their classmates than they ever thought possible. The Lei'd Back Luau at Slane Pool is where students meet and mingle with one another on their first night as a college student. They also received a "welcome home" present of a HPU T-shirt, drawstring bag, sunglasses and croakies. Coty-Jon Jump and the Debate Team recruit members at the Activities Fair. Fireworks over Steele Center after the Men's Soccer game.

DERBY DAY

The first Saturday after the commencement of classes marks HPU's annual Derby Day! A competition between classes this year, Derby Day featured feats of skill and strength in challenges such as sack races, tug-of-war, water games and inflatables. The freshmen took home the trophy this year for highest participation. Left Main: Emily Corlett crosses the finish line in the sack race. Inset top: One Peer Mentor team dressed in all black to intimidate the competition. Bottom: It is much harder to toss a softball into a milk jug than it looks. Clockwise from top right: Cat Ruvolo goes in for the win in the inflatable relay race. Dominic Tarantelli and his team roll deep in tug-of-war. Lindsay Puckett enjoys her ride in a mattress chariot. Leni Fragikis and Daniel Zeman try their hand at the ring toss. One of the most popular events of the day, the Human Hamster Races drew a large crowd of spectators.

COBRA STARSHIP FALL CONCERT

COBRA STARSHIP

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2010
ROBERTS HALL LAWN
7PM (GATES OPEN AT 6:30PM)

One of the most anticipated events of the year is the fall concert. This year, HPU welcomed Cobra Starship on September 24. Roberts Hall Lawn was overflowing with students, singing and dancing to every song. Senior, Harris Walker was even invited on stage to sing with the band!

Left Main: Ryland Blackinton of Cobra Starship put on an awesome show! Inset: The official Cobra Starship Concert Poster could be seen all over campus.

Clockwise from Top Right: American Idol contestant, Chelsea Sorrell of The Chris Lane Band opened up for Cobra Starship. Students on the lawn sing with the band. Rachel Strahan and Caroline Long were among thirty lucky HPU students who won a chance to meet the band backstage. Student favorite, Chris Lane of the local Chris Lane Band gets the party started with a mashup of country and rap songs. Students didn't want the night to end, but knew there would be more excitement to come in the spring.

FALL FAMILY WEEKEND

The High Point University Family grew even larger this October when parents from all over the United States visited campus for Fall Family Weekend. Many Moms and Dads wished they were still in college when they got to live the life with days packed full of events and activities. Left Main: Family photos in the "Dream Big" chairs were a popular activity. Those will make a great Christmas card! Left inset: Dan Moldovan and Anna Parsons Charles perform in the HPU Theatre Production, Love/Sick. Clockwise from top left: Families go on a walking tour of the Mariana H. Qubein Gardens. The Toccatones perform in front of an excited crowd. President Qubein spoke to families about all of the exciting plans for expansion. Three generations of HPU fans mingle outside of the University Center. More than 200 people ran in the Family Weekend 5K around campus. Families cheered the Volleyball team to victory in a 3-0 win over UNC Asheville. The Chapel Choir shared their talents with guests during two chapel worship services on Sunday.

ALUMNI WEEKEND

High Point University Alumni got to re-live their glory days for a weekend on their new and improved alma mater's campus. Left Main: Alumni Board President Barry Kitley '93 honored Daniel Miller '99 by presenting him the Young Alumni Achievement Award at the Fall Alumni Awards Banquet. Daniel credits his achievements to his alma mater and decided to donate his Emmy Award to HPU. The award is now displayed in the Qubein School of Communication.

Clockwise from top left: Mr. Tjark Bateman '90 and Mr. Paul O'Toole '92 volunteer their time to help support a successful Alumni Weekend. Mr. Max Meeks '49 was presented the Lifetime Achievement Award at the Alumni Awards Banquet. Mr. Meeks worked for WMFR radio for 53 years before retiring in December of 2009. He was dedicated to his family, listeners and his alma mater. The Class of 1955 gathered in the Slane Terrace Room for a few hours of fellowship and storytelling. The HPU Lecture Series was highlighted by Dr. Matthew Schneider's, HPU English Professor, intellectual presentation of "The Beatles and English Poetic Tradition." Donny Lambeth '72 enjoys dinner with his daughter Kristin Lambeth '10. Alumni and guests enjoyed an evening full of reunions and dancing at Martinis and Motown.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega is a co-ed community service fraternity that provides opportunities for community service, leadership, and friendship to students across the nation.

The MuXi Chapter at High Point University has grown into a tight-knit organization of over eighty members, who strive to provide meaningful service to the High Point campus, local community, and to both national and global organizations. The members of the chapter, collectively completed over 3000 hours of service this past year; participating in reoccurring projects that benefited the YWCA, Teen Talk, CCI, Habitat for Humanity, Westover Church Nursery, Piedmont Christian Home, March for Dimes and more.

Further to our rolling commitments to the community, the chapter also participated in a number of annual events. These included teaming up with the TOMs organization to organize a campus-wide One Day Without Shoes event; and the chapter's first international alternative break trip, in which members of the organization traveled to Costa Rica to build food shelters for impoverished children.

In addition to APO's service involvement, the chapter also participated in a number of fun fellowship events and leadership workshops. The brothers of Mu Xi work together to uphold the three cardinal principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service.

High Point University students participate in a wide variety of internship opportunities across the US and abroad. Internships are unique partnerships between the university and an off-campus professional. Each internship allows the student to integrate classroom theoretical knowledge with a "hands-on" work experience. Internships result in a maturing of skills, discipline and confidence as the student moves towards their professional goals.

High Point University was more "green" this year than ever! With events ranging from a year-long recycling competition, an earth day fair and an arbor day presentation by Mrs. Qubein, students rallied around the efforts to save our environment. Left Top: Chelsea Smith and her friends pet the baby goats at High Point University's first annual Earth Week fair. Left Bottom: Mrs. Mariana Qubein greets students and guests at the Arbor Day Celebration. Clockwise from top left: Sheng Kai Su and some of his residents learn about various types of wildlife in our area at the earth week event. Amy Mercier plays the piano and sings to the crowd in Hayworth Park. HPU recycled 4,200 regular-sized trash cans and 2,270 large ones during the competition between HPU, Elon and Duke. Coordinator of Recreation Services, Will Rickman signs up students to go to the US National Whitewater Center in Charlotte. HPU was designated as a Tree Campus USA, a program recognizes college and university campuses that effectively manage trees and engage students. High Point locals, University VIF's students and staff all gathered in the Hayworth Park Amphitheatre to celebrate Arbor Day and learn how they can help keep campus clean and green.

Honors Day

Every year High Point University's best and brightest are celebrated at Honors Day. Recognized for their achievements both in and out of the classroom, our students who receive awards are actively involved in Greek and service organizations, athletic activities, special-interest groups, honor societies and more.

Neon Clothes and Glow Sticks poured into Millis Gym on April 27 as our students turned out for one of the largest parties High Point University has ever seen. HPU welcomed spring concert Girl Talk to campus and over 2,000 students danced and sang the night away beneath confetti and balloons. Left Main: Girl Talk crew members shot "Scott 1000" toilet paper with leaf blowers all over the crowd. Left Inset: Adam Keelan and Tyler McCoy got the change to meet Greg Gillis of Girl Talk backstage after the show. Clockwise from top left: The night culminated in a surprise balloon release during the last song, leaving students cheering for more. HPU's own Graham Howard and his band Lions and Liars opened the night. Students reach for the confetti falling from the ceiling. Sarah Martin and Kayla Zeiders posed with the man himself at the meet and greet. Students were given an assortment of glow necklaces and bracelets on their way into the concert. 40 lucky students were chosen to dance on stage for the duration of the show, certainly a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Commencement

It all leads up to this day. On May 7, 2011, High Point University graduated more than 800 students. Roberts Hall Lawn was overflowing with family and friends as they watched their loved ones take the stage and cross over into the life of a college graduate. HPU welcomed professional cyclist Lance Armstrong as the commencement speaker and he delivered a speech that none will soon forget. Left Main: Lauren Williams flashes a smile as she makes her entrance. Left Inset: Junior Marshalls keep everyone in line. Clockwise from top right: Professional Bagpipers set the tone for a regal ceremony of pomp and circumstance.
