DIFFERENT College Organizations Join in Extending Welcome to New Students

The freshman orientation program began Tuesday morning with the usual freshman class present. The devotionals were formally performed, after which the new students listened to a very interesting address by Rev. T. E. Forney, president of High Point. Dean P. E. Lindley delivered a hearty speech of welcome. Afterward, in the auditorium, addresses were made by Mrs. W. S. Stephenson and Humphreys, president of High Point Christian Education. In the afternoon

1927-28 Annual is Delayed by the Illness of Its Editor, But Is Beautiful Book

PLEASES THE STUDENTS

The 1927-28 Zenith, eagerly awaited by all the students of High Point College who were here last fall, was not made ready in time to be delivered until a few days before the opening of the college for the new term. The delay was due to the illness of Miss Gertrude Rule, '28, which made it impossible for her to complete work on it in time for earlier delivery.

In spite of the delay, however, the book was eagerly followed by the students and their friends. Comment on it was enthusiastic and favorable. It contains 181 pages of interesting reading matter. The art work is expertly pleasing and

One person greatly missed, both by students and faculty members, was the opening of the college. The book was Miss Novella McVayte, popular soprano, who delayed her appearance in order to make its sppearanet until a few days before the new term. The delay was due to the illness of its editor, Miss Mary I. McIntyre, who was here last session, failed and was unable to attend to the college. It contains 181 pages of interesting reading matter. FACULTY RECEPTION IS BRILLIANT EVENT

The most brilliant social event of the opening days of the new college year was the annual reception to the students given by the faculty of the college held last Thursday evening in the library of Roberts Hall. It was attended by many former students as well as by many of the new and all the students new in attendance at the college.

Miss Mary E. Young, dean of women, Dr. T. C. Johnson, dean of men, met the guests at the door and presided at the receiving line at the head of which stood President and Mrs. P. E. Lindley. Others in the receiving line were Dean and Mrs. P. E. Lindley, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Farmer, Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Cose, and members of the faculty.

A committee of students at the end of the receiving line directed the guests to the proper rooms, also gave them welcome and introduced them to the proper librarian and conservator of the four literary societies that were present. Each of them directed a group of students to the proper society and the guests were gathered. The group was new and unique and the reception rooms were filled with happy guests, student and professor, librarians as well as the participants. A prize was presented with much wit and humor to the winner of each group.

Two faculty members of High Point College were given doctor's degrees in recognition of their outstanding contributions. Prof. F. W. Lindley, during the last summer, and Prof. E. B. Kennett was given the degree of D. L. D., degree.

Dean Lindley was honored by West- ern Maryland Conference for his work that college called him to their commencement and conferred the degree upon him. Dean Lindley graduated from Eden College in 1920 and returned to his alma mater in 1921. He studied at the University of Chicago in 1922-23 and attended the summer sessions of 1923 and 1924.

Full Time Librarian Assumes Charge of Library; Aids in Research Work

NEW FACULTY OF MUSIC

Six new faculty members reported for duty at High Point College at the opening of this term. Four former students also were assigned. This means that the faculty has been increased by two.

Perhaps the most significant addition to the faculty is that of a full-time trained librarian. Ritters library has been largely in the care of student librarians supervised by Prof. T. C. Johnson. Because of the limited resources of the Library and its rela- tively small number of books this plan worked satisfactorily during the first few years of the college's history. But with the growth of the institution and the study increase in the number of volumes in the Library, a full time librarian became necessary. Miss Mary Louin McDrumian, of Rocky Mount, who has completed the requirements for her A. A. degree, has been named for the position. Already Miss McDrumian has efficiently

TWO FACULTY MEMBERS EARN MASTER'S DEGREE

Two faculty members received their master's degrees during the past summer. Miss Mary K. Young, dean of women, completed the requirements for her M.A. degree at Columbia University. She specialized in the field of women's studies.

Professor Yachenske, associate professor of Romance languages, also was awarded a Master's degree at University of South Carolina. Professor Yachenske specialized in Romance languages.

The Freshmen
The freshmen are to be congratulated upon the splendid way they are adapting themselves to their new environment. An up-townness expressed it when he said, "They are not half as green as we were." This is no doubt true, in a large measure, to the orientation course, given freshmen the first two days of school.

The orientation course is an innovation for High Point College and it has proved highly effective. The freshmen learn much of college activities, both classroom and extra-curricular, during this period. They are guided by faculty members in the selection of their courses of study. During this period of orientation the nouveau-riche absorbs much of the atmosphere of college life, they are made to feel at home and the institution friendly.

This period is far superior to the old way of allowing the freshmen to find out the best way he could the information he must have.

Wingate College Comes Here for Opening Clash

AT WELCH FIELD

Panthers Have Been Practicing Hard for Three Weeks, Yet Hard Game Is Expected

SEVEN MEN ARE ABSENT

Prospects for a Winning Combination Are Uncertain—New Men Look Quite Promising

The Purple Panthers will open their season Saturday on Welsh field when they clash with the Wingate College eleven from Wingate, N.C. This game was scheduled by Coach Boylin as a practice tilt and conditioner for the Wofford game on the following Saturday. In these pre-season games anything can happen, and sometimes a practice game becomes a real championship struggle and the team rated as the under-dog fights back with such a fury that it is almost unbelievable. This condition will probably exist Saturday and the Purple and White gridders of High Point College are going to find that the team in the best condition this early in the year will emerge the victor. The Panthers have stored away three weeks of preliminary training under their belts and as far as condition is concerned should be in mid-season form. The coach hopes to be able to use at least three complete formations in the game and to work out the rough spots in the offense.

The Panther eleven will take the field minus the services of seven men who started the first game last year—Jack Alpers, Bob Stephens, Johnny Heath, Les Methot, Frank Poiets, Les McFadden, and Kenneth Harrison. This is quite an obstacle for a coach to be up against, but with the new men to step in and do their share along with the available old ball winners the prospects are not as gloomy. Some of the new men showing up well are Ludwig and Johnson, of Cleveland; Glasgow and Fawcett, of Mars Hill College; Malloy, Waters and Andrews, from Chicago, and several others. Coach Greer has a fine-looking squad of backs and the record of these seven players, barring injuries, should not suffer in comparison with the championship team of last year.

Scrimmages between the first and second teams have been going on since the first of the week, but Coach Greer has been very dissatisfied with the progress of the team. From now until Saturday, light signal drills and dummy scrimmages will be held in an effort to perfect the starting eleven players and the backs.

The squad has come through the rough work in good shape, there being only two minor injuries reported on the whole squad. Tiny Fawcett received a slight bruise on the knee-cap which has kept him out of the rough work for a short period, and Litan received a sprain in his ankle which may keep him out of the first game.

The probable line-up for the initial game will find Thompson and Blasier

BOYLINOTES FACE HARD SCHEDULE

Only Three Games as Yet Scheduled for Local Field; Two Open Dates Left

Saturday the High Point College eleven starts on the most difficult schedule ever undertaken by the school. Much criticism of the squad by different people has been heard because of the fact that the team plays only three games at home and these games minor ones. As a matter of fact it is a hard job to arrange a schedule to suit the wishes of the dyed-in-the-wool fans. But with the promise of the treasury or expens money available for staging home attractions, home crowds at all athletic events staged in High Point are small and Coach Boylin cannot bring four or five first class teams here and lose hundreds of dollars. Oglethorpe University, from Georgia, demands a guarantee of $1,500, and the largest home crowd of last year barely net the gate receipts over $500.

This year's schedule does not include Guilford College, but Elon, Atlantic Christian, and Lonoi-Rhyne are to be played.

The Panthers' main elbows, that is, in so far as the importance of the teams is concerned, is Wingate College, Oglethorpe University, Presbyterian College, S.C., and Furman University in Maryland. Then comes the "Little Fire" colleges of the state, followed by Wilson, North Carolina College, Newbern and Western North Carolina colleges.

After it has all been summed up the schedule might be better attractive with four major games, followed by those of the "Little Fire" rivals and the minor games with Erskine and Newberry colleges.

The complete schedule is as follows: Saturday—the opener against four major games, followed by those of the "Little Fire" rivals and the minor games with Erskine and Newberry colleges.

High Point vs. Oglethorpe University, October 6.
High Point vs. Erskine College at High Point, October 12.
High Point vs. Open, October 20.
High Point vs. Leon-Rhyne at High Point, October 27.
High Point vs. Elon College at Elon, November 12.
High Point vs. A. C. College at High Point, November 19.
High Point vs. Presbyterian College at Charlotte, November 22.
High Point vs. Newberry College at Newberry, November 29.
High Point vs. Open, November 24.
High Point vs. Erskine College in Maryland, December 1.

"Erie" Blasier will likely start at end in the first game Saturday. Blasier did wonderful work last year and should to one of the outstanding stars this fall.

The Joke Editor desires a friendly cooperation from both the faculty and students. Anyone who is a good sport is able to take as well as give a joke. The jokes published in this volume of the HPI are expected to be taken in the same spirit as given in a joke. At times you may be "hit pretty hard," but remember that it is a joke. Anyone having any criticism, suggestions, jokes, especially original ones, or anything to make this department of the HPI more interesting and original, report to the joke Editor.

FIVE ATTRACTIONS IN LYECEUM COURSE THIS YEAR AT H.P.C.

First Number to Appear in Early October — Course Concluded in March

MANY SPLENDID NUMBERS

Three Attractions Will Be Offered This Fall—Two Very Interesting Numbers During Winter

The lyceum course, consisting of five different attractions, will be offered again this year at High Point College. The first number is scheduled for early October and the course will be concluded during the week of March 2.

A group of New York artists, which will include Margaret Taylor, soprano, and Vincent St. John, tenor, will appear in the initial offering. This musical program will portray one of the most famous operas of all time, "Cavalleria Rusticana," and will be accompanied by the orchestra. Herbert Gould, bassoonist, will make his first appearance in High Point lyceum this year. Gordon and Johnson, Fodor and tenor, respectively, are scheduled for November. Vincent St. John, who will have his first appearance in local musical circles.

The above numbers will comprise the fall series. The lyceum season will be concluded by the famous men's basketball team, the Vermont String Quartet, which will begin in January. This group, after a year's absence, will be back. Each lyceum number, which has been planned for years, has acquired a perfected sense of ensemble and unity, so that the long term of any attraction can give. The course will conclude in March with the appearance of Glenn L. Morris, editor and television personality.

Pat Thompson, who claims Decatur, Ill., as his home town, has been elected to captain the strong High Point College basketball team. Pat as he is familiarly known to everyone, is a junior this year and plans an all-out attack on the localities. His consistent work and admirable personality have won him the admiration of every one. Captain Thompson will make a good leader and his experience as alternate captain for the past two years should give him the qualifications necessary for an ideal leader. Ray Moore, "Dick" Dixon, an ex-captain, was chosen as alternate captain to the above named.

With these two men chosen to lead the local team this year, capable leadership will still not be lacking.

FINE TALKS ARE HEARD IN CHAPEL

Speakers Last Week Discussed Various Topics in Interesting Chapel Programs

SPECIAL MUSIC RENDERED

A number of interesting chapel programs were presented for the students here last week, which included addressess by Prof. T. C. Johnson, Rev. John W. Moore, pastor of the Wesley Memorial M. E. church, and Rev. Charles P. Cubie, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. A feature of each chapel program was the singing and special music which was arranged for the occasion. Prof. E. R. Stinson, head of the music department.

On Monday, Professor Johnson spoke on "The Basis of Freedom," which he declared today. All campaigns are in law and authority. Toiling bravely man's progress toward freedom, he said it was desired only and not government strong enough to enforce its will. The feature of the program was a talk by the speaker and every college and every place where people live in groups is needed to have regulations made in laws that in the largest possible number of instances will be enjoyed by the individual.

On Tuesday morning, Rev. John W. Cubie spoke on "Planning a Life Career." He said that every person is fitted for some certain task in life. He enumerated the distinguishing things of a man's body and in good judgment. The most important thing is that the man be saved, is confessed, is honorable if it is well done in the eyes of God.

On Thursday Dr. P. L. Lindsey discussed some of the college regulations as contained in the catalog and gave the students of the college some information on the subject of law. In the absence of the program was a vocal solo by Ber. Lester Ballard, associate pastor of the Church. It was planned.

Friday morning Rev. Charles P. Cubie welcomed the students in behalf of the lyceum. The program ended with "First Light." "I will not be looking.

STUDENTS TO VOTE FOR U.S. PRESIDENT

Will the next president of the United States be Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, or Herbert C. Hoover, Republican? As far as the preferences of the High Point College student body and faculty are concerned, this question will have been settled and the results published when the next issue of the H.P.C. appears.

A national presidential election will be held on the campus tomorrow under the auspices of the paper. Every student and faculty member, regardless of age, is urged to participate in the election. The American ballot system of voting will be used. A proportionate constituent of two faculty members and four students will be in charge of the election which will be held in the corridors of Robert Hall. The members of the committee are Prof. C. E. Blaaske, Prof. N. P. Var- cequon, Minnie Madison, Keith Har- mon, Louise NIcholosn, and Dor- ius Honskius. Announcements as to the hours of polling will be made later by the committee.

A registration list containing the names of all students and faculty members will be in the hands of those in charge of the polls, and the conditions governing actual voting will prevail as far as possible. It is likely that such a campaign work will be done to suit in preparation for tomorrow's election. Plans for a Republican rally and a Democratic rally are under way. In both cases, the programs will not be announced or will be made some- thing like a surprise. Arrangements of plans by students, and no faculty member or outside speaker will be called in to make the campaign speeches. Students and faculty will not be allowed to intervene until the appearance of the H.P.C. next week. The election will be held as the issue below, and is to be clipped from the extra ballots. These extra ballots will be available in the polls for any who may not have theirs.

I hereby certify my preference for HERBERT C. HOOVER for United States President.

STIMSON PLANNING BIG YEAR FOR CHORAL CLUB

Remuneration to Dean Smith to Present Opera and Cantata—More Than $1,000 Raised

E. R. Stimson, successor to Dan E. Smith as head of the Department of Music, plans a big program for the Choral Club this year. The professor expects to present an opera and several cantatas during the coming school year.

The Christmas concert will be the first presentation of the club this season to be followed by a similar concert. The choral program will come when a number of picked members of the club will present the operas. It is said that though the club is primarily for High Point College, a number of townpeople will assist in the work of the club.

At the first meeting held this year there were about 35 students present. Due to the fact the number is not limited, there will be more than adequate to fill the program. Dean E. R. Stimson, new man, will have charge of the program. Deans P. E. Shuffey and R. M. Andrews, the other two days, Tuesday and Friday. It is the plan of the committee in charge of the programs to have something of interest for every chapel. Attendance at chapel is compulsory.

Splendid Lyceum Course

High Point College is very fortunate in securing the five splendid attractions that will appear in the lyceum course this year. The attractions different and varied, and have been arranged to come to the campus from time to time by the lyceum have been on the whole very commendable. The course of lectures is a most fortunate and cheap to the college has been fortunate enough to secure.

The first number will appear on the 1st of this month, and will be one of the best entertainments of the season. It is a wonderful opportunity for college students to hear some real musical artists give a musical concert.

The lyceum course enables students to hear at a nominal cost very well-known artists that they probably would not have had an opportunity of hearing otherwise. Few, if any, college courses are so varied and filled with the best entertainments of the season. It is a wonderful opportunity for college students to hear some real musical artists give a musical concert.

Sympathetic appeal to sectarianize denomination has always been the policy of the administration to encourage freedom of religious expression. The students are not compelled to attend the Methodist Protestant church, but may attend the church of their choice. Local ministers representing the various denominations of the town are invited to speak to students at frequent times during the year.

Business Concerns Support Paper

The ready response of the businesses in High Point to the appeal for advertisements for the Hi-Po greatly helped the staff in putting out an early issue of the paper and one that paid for itself. With 115 inches of advertisement in the first issue, it seems that this year the Hi-Po should go over the "top." Dreams of lifting the present indebtedness on the paper are being formulated and with the continued support of the advertisers this can be made a reality.

Last year the paper did very well and came out even, but it was unable to get rid of the indebtedness incurred during the first year of publication when it was impossible to secure enough advertisements to pay any considerable part of the cost. We greatly appreciate the way the local business concerns are backing the paper this year and with their continued support, we feel sure that we can do much to reduce our indebtedness. We are greatly indebted to you for expressing your gratitude to our support.

Panther Eleven Opens Season With Victory
Boylights Defeat the Wingate Eleven Saturday

OFFENSE IS WEAK
Visitors Give Up Before the Osmola of the Local College Gridders

SUN BURSTS BOTH TEAMS
Small Crew Sees Panthers Overwhelm Visiting Gridders of Last Year's Game

Under a scorching sun that drove down with a fierce intensity, the Pur- ple Panthers smashed and drove their way to a 38-0 victory Saturday over the Wingate college eleven of Wingate, North Carolina. The game was wit- nessed by a small, enthusiastic crowd composed largely of students, few town people being present due to the great interest in the baseball game at Wim- ton-Hales. The Wingate eleven pre- sented a fine-looking team, clad in their bright orange-colored uniforms, but as to football ability they were unable to cope with the more experienced High Point machine.

This game was scheduled as a prac- tice till before the more important games with Wofford College, and the result shouldn't be taken as an indica- tion of strength on the Panthers' part more so as to the weakness of the opposition.

The local team showed a weakness on the offense that must be corrected if we expect to cope with the stronger rivals later on in the season. The local touchdowns were scored on long runs and the breakdowns of the game rather than on a smooth, consistent offense. The defense was ragged and spots and it was clearly shown that more work is need- ed in this department.

The first Panther touchdown came toward the end of the first period when a beautifully executed triple pass, Campbell to Mitchell to Dixon saw Dixon 40 yards for the first score. After that it was just a matter of what the score would be and who would win. Mulligan donated two touchdowns to Dixon and High Point with two runs of 30 and 40 yards. Bobbin, not to be outdone, backed the Wingate line for nine yards and then broke loose through the center of their line for a 40-yard run and another score.

Coach Boylin said his entire squad of men in this game and they all made a creditable showing despite the fact that this was the first time that many of them had ever played together.

The whole Panther line showed a poten- tial power that when developed will give the opposition something to worry about. The line is heavy and fast and knows football. The backfield showed enough speed and versatility to satisfy us that it is going to be a dangerous combination playing behind a front line such as the one possessed by the Boylin-coached team.

The line-up: High Point—Captain Thompson and Burke, ends; Glans and Hatton, tackles; Wallen and Ewing, guards; Wesley, center; Campbell, quarterback; Dixon and Mitchell, half- backs, and Bobbin, fullback. Substi- tutes: Reckman, storefront; Pender, MacMullen, Johnson, Ludwig, Mulligan, Hicks, Reffell, Littman, and Forders.

High Point School—Wingate: Wingate with Glans, end; Baker and Carter, tackles; Holm and Harris, guards; Austin, center; Jones, quarterback; Williams and Barns, halfbacks; Palmer and Funk, fullback. Sub- stitute: Houston and Kendrick.

Prof Yarborough (seeing Bill Wood) said: "Here is a Crimsonback bow, in the twilight—"Absence makes the heart grow fonder, doesn't it, Bill?"

"Yes, you ought to know, Prof."

Panther Grist
The boys are off for Spartanburg, North Carolina, this week to make up some ground Wofford College team. We are going up against a strong team and we are far too far away for a victory. We're too far, though, that the Purple Panthers will put up such a fight that the Wofford aggregation will know that they have been through a regular foot- ball game while at the same time this alone seems to bring him in closer relation- ship with the fellows of High Point College, as the Panthers are better able to show off people better than he does and be in all times to help them with any little problems that are always coming up. We are fortunate in hav- ing a person of Mr. Boylin's caliber to fill the important position that he is occupying.

Coach Boylin asked Tiny Hatton not to overeat till he get to the table where they eat in the kitchen and then boy he noticed that, as a Spartanburg paper recently referred to us as a high school team somewhere in North Caro-

"It is not the wish of this column to provoke the ill feelings of anyone here. I think we owe Mr. Nygren a public apology for nicknaming him last week's Issue. We know that it is not very complimentary to be called such a name and we want to say that we most humbly beg your pardon. Mr. Nygren and no hard feelings.

Purdy—'Selling your tail? What's the matter with you?"" P. Thompson—'They told me when I bought it that it was quick on the picket.'

Bay—'Well, isn't it?'" Pot—'Now, I've had it three months and only picked up two inside.'

High Point Tackles Wofford Tomorrow

SCRAP EXPECTED
South Carolina Team is Strong Contender for the State Championship

FRESHMEN CAN'T PLAY
Southern Conference Rules toCover Game Elimination First Year Men

Coach Boylin and his warriors leave tomorrow for Spartanburg for their match with Wofford College Saturday. The Panthers are going to play with the determination to show the Wofford gridders that the Tar heel state produces teams that will not sit id- net defeat. The local team is going to be handicapped for this game, as they have to play under the rules of the S. I. A. C. which bars the fresh- men from playing in a varsity game. As the local team has a number of promising freshmen their showing will greatly weaken the personnel of the squad.

The post on the football squad reg- ular Eion and Wofford as the two most important games on this year's schedule and a desire to win more than any others. Wofford, for the past seventeen years, has been turning out teams that rate with the best in the South and their record last year was so exceptional. They introduced home and fast teams that are well coached and it is going to take the usual Pana- ter fight and determination to over- come this opposition. Wofford is rated as two touchdowns better than High Point and all the dope points to a second straight win in college football game and the backers of the local team have not lost all hope of a victory.

Coach Boylin will depend mostly upon the eleven men who started the Wingate game last Saturday. He will have Blosser and Captain Thompson, one of the best backs in the state; Wesley and Ewing; glasses; Nygren, center; Campbell, quarterback; Dixon and Mitchell, halfbacks. This is a team that never goes down in the football game right back, their team is winning or losing. The Wofford team as a whole has been a dry load in a college game with them they crack back the same.

The men who will make the trip will probably be Dixon, Wesley, Thompson, Wallen, Hurst, Forbes, Glans, Baker, MacMullen, Ewing, Mulligan, enter (are listed) and others to be decided on later.

The squad will leave immediately after the game for High Point and will arrive here about midnight Saturday night.

H. P. COLLEGE GETS STRONG TEACHER IN ANATOMY CLASS

Prof. Archie D. Shaftesbury Is Secured to Conduct Class in Anatomy at Local College

PROFESSOR AT N. C. C. W.

Students Taking Pre-Med and Advanced Science Are Particularly Pleased by the Announcement

Prof. Archie D. Shaftesbury, associate professor of zoology at North Carolina College for Women, has been secured to teach a course in anatomy at High Point College, according to an announcement made this week by President W. M. Andrews. Professor Shaftesbury is the only man to fill the position of instructor in the department, a position to be filled by Professor F. R. F. Prine.

The announcement that Professor Shaftesbury has been secured to teach here will be particularly pleasing to advanced students of science and the student who is considering a medical career. The class will begin in the fall and will continue throughout the summer months.

The senior and sophomore classes held their first regular class meetings of the new year Wednesday morning during the chapel period, which has been reserved for student activities. Many important business matters were transacted by both classes.

Keith Harrison presided over the first meeting of the senior class, Thursday Student. Many suggestions for creating a real college spirit on campus were discussed during the meeting. Regular meetings are to be held every week.

The junior and freshman classes will hold their meetings at an early date, so they were unable to have the meeting Wednesday.

The faculty of the college gave music recital Tuesday evening in the college auditorium. This was the first public performance given this year by the faculty and it was received by a very large audience. Miss Garland and Mr. Johnson will give a program of folk songs in December, and will include songs of the sea, songs of romance and favorite songs of the Middle Border. This number will also include a number of readings.

In December, Tuesday evening, Quartette will appear in High Point. This is a world famous quartette and will be a great attraction. The revelers are expecting to have an overwhelming state of倒数第一段的填空题。

A NEW TREND IN POPULAR MUSIC

Is the "Jazz age" in America producing some popular music? This is being heard in popular music. The youth of the music in America Bay there is a new trend in popular music. There is a tendency, it is true, toward sentimentalism, but some of the hard-core jazz musicians are being replaced by more popular music. This is a hopeful indication that America is getting away from the jazz craze of the last few years. With the accessibility of good music for every contour, the standards of popular music must be eventually raised. The radio has done much to introduce good music in the homes of the people. A demand for better popular music must necessarily follow. It is jazz in style.

THALEANS HOLD FIRST MEETING WEDNESDAY

Many New Members Accepted by the Society-Exegetics of Memorials is Discussed

The first meeting of the Thalean Literary Society since the return of the members to college was held in the society room at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The president, Blake Mathis, opened the meeting with a brief record. An unprecedented program was anticipated after part of the members had been assigned to various committees. Due to the lack of preparation the program was largely informal in content. "The Fainting Thing That Happened to Mr. Furniss' Vacation" was given by Minnie Howard. Miss Howard, Paul Bennett, Charley Smith, E. O. Lane, and Webster Pope gave a very exterior number. Webster Pope's number was "Take the society with some very good. Dissociated stripes". The piano solo number was "Curtiss Williams' "Win I Saw in a Freshman's Face". This was followed by a debate on the subject: "Resolved, That Talking Notes is Profitable". The after-show was opened by Kenneth Holt and Wadie Perry, while the wraps was interpreted by T. G. Whitehead and Prescott. A brief business session followed the program. Acceptance of new members was discussed at length. There was a discussion of the elevation of two of theoul members which has been under consideration for some time. No action was taken at this time.

The program consists of various homilies and sermons expressing a preference for Hoover. Faculty members, while taking no active part in the campaign, displayed keen interest in the election and early their own votes. The faculty favors Hoover by a large majority.

The purpose of the Hi-Po in staging "the election was to stimulate interest in national politics, and those in charge of the program have not been satisfied. A story carried in a local paper on the day of the election indicated that it was colored by either one of those involved in the national campaign. The story stated that it was true. It is believed that the small majority for Hoover indicated an actual preference of the student body.

FOUR TEACHERS MAKE SPECIAL PROGRAM
H. P. C. Faculty Members Are in Great Demand for Sermons and Special Programs

Four members of the faculty of High Point College had preaching or speaking engagements for last week-end. President E. M. Andrews preached the introductory sermon for the Hi-Po Club of Ashworth. Dean P. E. Lindley spoke in Randolph county at Center Falls. On the night before, Dean Lindley, Assistant Professor of English at High Point College, attended the center of a high school debate. Prof. C. T. Edmonds spoke at the East Green Street Baptist Church in High Point.

The faculty were in great demand for sermons and other addresses in all parts of the state. They speak at many different gatherings throughout the school year. Wherever they go they receive cordial welcomes and the type of speeches that they give bring additional invitations. Through the activities of these and other members of the college it is rapidly becoming known in this state and states in its strong faculty.

Panthers Hold Terriers to Lone Touchdown

Game at Asheville Saturday
Will Be Supreme Test of Panther Power

Oglethorpe Invades
This is the first university team that the local gridironers have ever met. Of course it is conceded that a university has the advantage over a college when it comes to developing a first rate football team. But the Panthers certainly have the experience material at disposal of the other eleven men making up the panther gridiron team. Yet, taking into consideration all of these advantages, we know that only one player can play at any one time, and man for man, we feel that our eleven men can hold their own with the best of them. Coach Boylin has developed from available material a clean, fast and hard fighting team that really knows football. The Oglethorpe team made a good showing against Georgia Tech, a school that boasts one of the strongest teams in the country. Georgia Tech defeated the University of Georgia a week after they journeyed to New Haven and given the famous Yale team only defeat of the season. The Panthers are going to meet practically the same team in Asheville that made that wonderful showing against Georgia Tech, last year's conference champions.

This game will be played with practically the same men that took part in the Wofford game of last Saturday. This is another game where newcomers will be ineligible to participate, due to the fact that it will be played under the S. I. A. A. rules. The Panthers will go to Asheville, tough, strong and appreciating the fact that a victory over their opponents will make winning next week toward raising their reputation still higher than what it is at present. In fact, they have everything to gain and nothing to lose in this game. If they get beat, then they will go a long ways toward raising their reputation. If they win, they go a long ways toward raising their reputation still higher than before.

Miss Iolene, head of the English department, has not decided on the program for this week. Miss Iolene contracted influenza last week and has not been able to meet her classes since then.

TELEPHONE PLACED IN BOYS' CLUB ROOM

Co-operation Among Boys Living in Dormitory Made This Convenience Possible

As a result of splendid co-operation among the boys who live in the boys' dormitory on the local campus, a telephone has been added to the equipment of the club room. The boys receive many important calls and send many urgent messages on various degrees of importance, which, without the aid of the telephone, would be too unimportant to be conveyed and most convenient in all respects.

In bad weather the telephone serves as a means through which drug store calls are made and in case of illness the doctor is often consulted from the shortcode by the telephone, and if possible to provide means for the boys to contact each other.

LET'S SHOW THE BOYS WE'RE BACKING THEM

On this level, however, Miss Iolene is impressed by the rapidly growing and expects to help in her classes soon.

COMMERCIAL DEPT. GRADUATES HOLD POSITIONS IN N.C.

Six of the non-graduates have important positions in various fields

Of the 13 commercial students who graduated from High Point College last June, six hold responsible positions in this state.

Hassell Allen, of Mebane, is now bookkeeper for the Pleasant Garage in Mebane. Mile's Arnold, of Jamestown, is a stenographer for the first floor interior decorator of the Global Company. Kathy Lee Barrett, of Mebane, is a stenographer for the sales force of the Oakes Furniture Company in Greensboro.

Mary Zerega, of Asheboro, is now employed in the office of John R. Dallas in Asheboro. Miles McDonald, of Stantonsburg, is responsible for the registrar of the Boy's Dormitory.

Bill Long, of this city, holds a responsible position as bookkeeper for the Boy's Dormitory. Ethel Martin, of Lexington, N.C., is with Mila Moore, of Graham, is stenographer for a lawyer's office in Burlington. Marie Overstreet, of Indian Springs, is employed in the treasurer's office in Beaver. Grace Trans, of the Commercial Department, is with Mrs. May Moore, of Graham, is stenographer for a lawyer's office in Burlington. Marie Overstreet, of Indian Springs, is employed in the treasurer's office in Beaver.

It is very interesting to note that six of the graduates have important positions in various fields.

COLLEGE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN DURHAM

High Point College Will Send Representatives To Meet October 24

High Point College has been invited to send representatives to the annual meeting of the North Carolina College Conference which will convene in Decant Hall, Duke University, October 24.

The last conference was represented by President R. E. Warren, of H. P. College, Dr. B. J. Moritz, of North Carolina University, and Dr. C. R. MD. Howard, of Winograd, and Professor P. M. Smith.

Dr. W. F. Pope, president of Duke University, is president of the conference, and the college from the counties surrounding or near the Guildford County, but the most important and most agreeable position among the students.

The large representation of counties in the state is evidenced by recent statistics, which prove that the college has a very close tie with many of the men who are responsible for its founding are still living. As a result of splendid cooperation the idea of a boys' dormitory was conceived and then the telephone was proposed to the men who were responsible for its founding, and then the telephone was proposed to the men who were responsible for it.

The large representation of counties in the state, while Miss Oarrett lives in Winston-Salem, is very interesting to note that six of the graduates have important positions in various fields.
An Appreciation

High Point College has another evidence of the interest that High Point has in the development of this institution. In a recent meeting of the student body voted to make a monthly donation of $50 to the college until it is a self-supporting institution. This amount will be paid by Mr. Pritchard, and eight gifts each month are expected from other friends of the college.

High Point has always responded generously to every request for money from the college. This attitude on the part of the city is a further evidence of the future of education in this institution here where we have been impossible."

That the people of High Point are interested in the development of this college is also evidenced by the number of high school graduates who have entered this institution this year.

High Point has also been very generous in its attitude toward the college. At the recent meeting of the student body, a group of students urged the college to accept the students in any undertaking for the benefit of the school.

The officials of the college are very grateful for the support that the city has given so generously, and are especially appreciative of this new evidence of interest from the City Council.

The New College Building

An electric shock from a battery used regularly in relation to the college building was the subject of recent discussion. The shock was caused by a faulty connection of the battery, and it is feared that the college buildings may be affected by the same faulty connection. The college authorities are taking the precautionary measure of replacing the faulty connection.

LITERARY SOCIETIES RUSH FRESHMEN CANDIDATES

The literary societies of the High Point College campus are busy recruiting freshmenses and making preparations for the year's work. The Arcturus and Nikanah societies used formal bids to their candidates last week and the latter made their dole. Therefore, the acceptance and rejection of these new members will be announced at the next meeting of the societies.

Panthers Play Erskine at Home Saturday Panthers Lose Battle to Oglethorpe Petrels 33-0

BOYLINITES FIGHT

LOCALS MAKE DEFENSIVE STAND IN FINAL PERIOD: BELATED RALLY IN FOURTH

Georgia Team Best Ever Encountered by Panthers

At Home Saturday

A small band of Panthers staunchly victorious

Vladimir Tichnoff

received. However, there is no doubt against Georgia at Asheville, but went down fighting under a longia Team Bent Kver Encountered

time. The game ended with the ball in the possession of the High Point team.

Opening the second half High Point broke through on the first play, and five Panthers returned the ball to the 40-yard line. After a succession of plays, Ber reusea fied, this time, as the third quarter was the worsted exhibition that the Panthers showed during the game. At one time and Oglethorpe back ran a punt 56 yards for a touchdown. The Panthers showed better form in the final stanza, holding the Petrels and making a good defensive effort, being stopped after successive penalties forced them to two first downs. But, the Panthers were unable to stop the Petrels, making the touchdown for the Petrels, making the score, 33-0.

The students at High Point should not be discouraged over the fact that they were outscored by a 21-12 margin by the Oglethorpe eleven last Saturday. The team did not lose the game through the lack of fight, but it was due to the lack of experienced manpower to withstand the terrific onslaught launched by the Panthers.

Rogue the Panthers cannot be outclassed from local team was last Saturday at a lively event,

but will be the third game of the season played under the stringent S. I. A. A. rules which forbid the playing of reserves, and consequently the reserve strength of the Panthers cannot be called upon. The length of the battle will again fall on the old varisty which is still bruised and mangled after the struggles of Oglethorpe and Erskine.

Coach Burgin is hoping that in some of his crises will be sufficiently resorced

to return to the line-up of the Panthers. At any rate the High Point team will go on the field Saturday determined to change the lock that held them scoreless in the last two encounters, and their determination bodes no good for the Panthers from South Carolina.

By successive scores the departure

favors the Panthers. Wofford defeated

Oglethorpe last Saturday by a 25 to 12

score, while the same Wofford eleven was barely able to wrest a hard won victory from the Panthers by a 7 to 0 score. This would seem to indicate that the two teams, when they face defeat head on, will be fairly evenly matched on offense but that the Panthers will have the edge in defense if such proves to be the case, the local boys ought to be able to get their offensive plays to working, as they haven't been able to do since the Winse-game.

That the Erskine team will not be an easy one to defeat, however, is indicated by the fact that they hold the strong South Carolina Gameduckers, the team that has defeated both the University of Chicago and the University of Virginia, to a 10 to 0 score. High Point fans and students are expecting to see a great battle, the outcome of which will not be known until the last whistle blows.

EXCITING SCENE ENSUES
Grid Warners Continue in Spartusburg in Concert Before Play Football Game

Surrounded by an enthusiastic audience in the Purple Panther football warriors positive and best wishes for a victory over the Tar Heels. Mr. Donald Little, coach of the Spartusburg, North Carolina, the old box "took off" from the campus curb with as much dispatch of ceremony and grace of motion as if Lindbergh were piloting the plane. (Mrs. Whittaker had supplied the boys with presents of specialties and under-mention their health until they arrived at their destination.)

"They're off! They're off!" Horrified, nurses, bags, and pajamas were thrown into the air, seemingly held by the hand by the tennis court. And sure enough, cries of terror that intermingled with the grunts and shrieks had the Hesperus as she slowly strained and quivered in a laborious effort to gain lift. As the plane had advanced about 50 feet on its journey, an atmosphere of gloom descended from the one left behind, now starting with sad and despondent expressions on their faces. The crowd with tears appearing unctuously and tears streaking their cosmetics, in expectation took moments to make their bets towards the silvery moving monster loaded with their hopes, the golden knights of Virginia. "You must be careful and take care of yourself."

When Lindbergh landed, he seemed, so pathetically and heartrendingness being present in the townspeople. Then, in the hopes that the other members of the specimens there be a bear rise within the box, coming to do a great black bear all over the road and its tail on jump out and is as if putting the box on the road was easy to a bear and powerful again aboard the horseless carriage and such passenger could be seen originally giving his apple and sandwich, his share of the country to action for which he could so manfully fought.

Frantic cries deranged the air and clanged the shade. Clouds quickly covered the suns. Frantically, self-jerinated with a twinge urge, into which eyes and ears valuable incomplete joyously flew. The campus instantly became awakened with crackled-at-students hurrying to the scene of confusion, as if some one were shouting. "This plane is going to crash. Have a bath!"

"Don't give your right name," and other helpful notices to the frightened company, inside the wreck. Prof. Josiah, who had been securely flung upon a non-moving seat just above the fallen off wheel and who was then standing on his right ear restored his side of quizzing and addressed: "Women and children first!" But this command was too down so by Ritty Morton's waving sail of "Every man for himself." (Screw, screw

...ARTEMESIAN SOCIETY ENTERTAINS NEW GIRL...

Friday evening, September 28, 1928, at Roberts Hall the Artemesian Literary Society entertained informally for the new girls. The girls were met in the foyer by Misses Kalioua Alckvton, Bertha Branshaw, and Allen. A short "get acquainted" game was played at the novelties after which the girls went upstairs.

The upper foyer of Roberts Hall was very attractively decorated. Potted plants and baskets of geraniums were effectively arranged so that the entire scene presented the effect of a miniature garden.

Miss Clark rendered several beautifull violin solos as the girls found their places at tables where games were played.

Following the games each guest was served delightful refreshments consisting of collected salad, dainty sandwiches, slices, and hot tea, in which the society colors, green and yellow, were carried out.

While the refreshments were being served, the president, Miss Elizabeth Nicholson, introduced the society mascot, little Miss Mary Ann Coe, to the society.

Lovely music was furnished throughout the evening by Misses Rosalie Andrews and Edna Nadler.

Registration is open to all.

Local President Expects Great Crowds for the College Birthday

NORMAN WILLS TO TALK

Five years of College Existence Show Mark Advance in Equipment of Curriculum

Dr. Henry W. Chase, president of the University of North Carolina, recently accepted an invitation to deliver the principal address at the Founders Day exercises at High Point College, October 25, 1925.

Even though High Point College Is in its fifth year of college work this is the first year Founders Day has been observed.

Since this is to be the first celebration of its kind, the college officials are planning to make it a high peak in the history of the college.

The students and officials of the college are anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the address to be delivered by Dr. Chase. The college is very fortunate in securing such a well known orator.

Dr. Chase, of Greensboro, also will have a prominent place on the program.

It will be the privilege of the college, within the next hour, to give a history of the origin and growth of the college and will at the same time honor the memory of the founders of the institution, many of whom will be present for the anniversary celebration.

Mr. Wills is interested in the college and was one of the few to do a large one toward making this institution possible.

It is estimated that the crowded house will be filled well as so many students have indicated their intention of attending this celebration.

LOCAL DRUG COMPANY GIVES SQUAD DRINKS

The football team of High Point College has been offered drinks at the Fountain of the Economic Rainbow Store of this city. The courtesy is extended particularly to the Nikanthan girls, to whom the students extend an invitation, and will include all men who get into the store and purchase a cigarette. The Nikanthan girls will be present as long as they can, and will have a small prize for second best. There is probably to be a third price given in each case.

The funds in the contest here are to be held about October 31st, and is advising those students who wish to enter this contest to get started if they hope to win out.

Artemesia Favored by Fourteen Girl's Clubs; Awards Night Big Event for College Girls

Nikanthan girls raise stock

Tuesday, October 5, was decision night for the girls' literary societies. At the choosing, the Nikanthan girls got 32 new members, while the Artemesia society could muster only 14 in the yellow and green. For the first time since the founding of the group, the Nikanthan girls have a greater number than their sisters.

The decision event is said to be quite an affair, and is looked forward to by the girls, and members of the faculty and students, who have been anxious to hear the results. The society, which has been organized since last February, has been quite popular in the college and is well known.

COUNCIL MAY MOVE HIGHWAY No. 10 TO LEXINGTON AVENUE

Students Don't Want Roadway Moved From Their Gate.

Report Says

BUSINESS MEN OBJECT

Marek Says Real-estate of Highway Would Lose Much Business for the City Retailers

The city council of High Point has to make a decision concerning Highway 10 from its present routing, and sending all through traffic around the contours of the city, by way of Lexington Avenue. The main reason seems to be the congested traffic situation that now confronts High Point on Broad, Witmer, and Race streets, and the narrow English street, while the southerly route takes leaving the city. Both of these streets are subject to serious problem for the city. On the other hand, if the highway is taken around the town as it is proposed, a busy town street and a torrid trade will be lost to the merchants of the city and thousands of outside people pass through the city every day. The fact that High Point council making water crossing decision is decided upon.

From the point of view of a student of High Point College, which is located prominently on the famous roadway, the economic of opinion is against any motion to move the road. The council is one of the show places of High Point and the moving of the route will mean that lots of out-of-state visitors will lose by seeing the college.

A large audience was delightfully entertained at the annual student council meeting held by Herbert Gould, campus president, in the college auditorium, which is one of the show places of High Point. A very rich, clear voice, Mr. Gould sounded the following resolutions:

In the quarter when a blocked punt gave the form shown by the locals to relieve the Panthers, the visitors gave a pretty exhibition of passing and running and the result was a win by the Visitors, the team being able to gain continually.

The game was conducted after a blocked punt was ruled a safety. When the Panthers went for their forward pass, their lack of depth in this line of work was evident. The Panthers were beaten soundly by the Erskine line and remain until they are fully recovered.

After the turnover, the Panthers were given an opportunity to give their best running. Or useable yardage.

Fifty Dollars in Prizes Makes Contest Big Event for Many of the Students Here

The Hi-PO subscription campaign that started last Friday is making much headway. Many students have already started on the big contest, and it is hoped that by the end of this week a number of new subscriptions will have been turned in. An appeal is being made to all students to write to their parents and relatives to find out if they will subscribe. If the home-folks will subscribe, inform one of the consultants and they will send a letter and a subscription blank. Likewise, if a student has a friend in another institution and desires to send the Hi-PO the contestants will be only too glad to sign his or her name for a subscription.

The $50 in prizes are the big attractions. The first prize of $25 should cause quite an eruption on the part of those desiring the honor. In all there are 11 prizes, which make the work worth while.

If you have not already signed up for the campaign, do it today. Get in on the fun. See Ralph Mulligan or Charlie Anwick and they will gladly enter you in the contest.

The graduates of many of the smaller class at Williams and Mary carrying on the tradition of giving a last meeting of that body. The members of the class were unmolested through the days of the practice again. It was felt that some form of distinc- tion mark of the institution is important. The graduating class of 1928 from Juniata and junior class was made up of all members of the class, but at any time they desire to do so, but if, through no fault of athletic contests, the class is decided upon in the next meeting the class will be elected by the executive committee of the college and will serve throughout the four years of college.

Dr. P. R. Kennett was elected to act as adviser of the freshman class in a recent executive committee meeting of the faculty. Prior to this year, the freshman class acted at any time the new rules the class adviser will be elected by the executive committee of the college and will serve throughout the four years of college.

First, for students and, it is fitting that the president of the great state university which recently cele- brated its 75th birthday should speak at the observance of the fifth birthday of the youngest college in North Caro- lina. Under the administration of Dr. Chase the University of North Caro- lina has grown from the small campus in the beginning of the first decade to the university which is today ranked with the outstanding universities in Amer- ica.

Five years ago today High Point Col- lege was dedicated to the memory of its founder, the late Dr. P. S. Kennett. It was as a fitting tribute to the memory of this great man and to the institution which he founded that the College was organized. The date was chosen to coincide with the birthday of Dr. Kennett, who was the first president of the institution.

When Panthers Take Advantages of Displays

High Point College met the Fort Bragg army team last Saturday in the living room of Walsh Park and when the smoke of battle cleared away the Panthers found that they had scored a victory by a 4-2 score. The army team was using blank bullets in their guns and the damage to the local forces was slight, while the steel-jacket bullets of the hosts continued to pierce the front line defense of the visitors and made necessary continual restorations.

Commander Boykin directed all of his forces from the background with a wisdom that made the strategy of the opposing general look weak and his conception of tactics seem archaic. He directed the smoke of battle hail cleared away to the advantage of his army and directed his forces from the background with the small arms of his men.

The Panthers looked better than on the preceding week when they lost to a class store, and it is a general feeling among the backers of the team that the last half of the locals' schedule will find their favorites in real form and ready to make a strong finish. The Boyliinites showed a versatile attack and a punch on defense that has hasiliters been lacking in their play. The real job now is to get that attack centered and worked to a point where it is consistent.

Curtain Robert "Pat" Thompson is playing a spectacular game in the backfield and end for the Purple Panthers this year and rates with the best that the South can boast.

STUDENTS MAY ATTEND P. C. GAME IN CHARLOTTE

High Point to Be Well Represented at Game in Queen City on November 12

SPECIAL BUS TO BE CHARTERED

Interest in the coming game with Presbyterian College of South Carolina in Charlotte November 12 will depend largely upon the way the Panthers go from now until then. However, it is not too late to be thinking about that game, as it is the most important on the entire schedule for this season. It will be the first appearance of the locals in the Queen City, which is one of the best football towns in this section, and a good impression is currently desired by the locals.

If enough girls wish to go to Charlotte to see the game, it will be possible to charter a bus to make the trip at a low price, and the entrance fee will be half the price charged others attending the game.

The trip could start for Charlotte after the class periods are over and be there in plenty of time for the game. Miss Young has consented to have the trip tty made if there are as many as 25 girls who are willing to go. Any information as to prices can be obtained from Charlie Stocks.

It will be a great advertising feature for the college if a good number of the student body is present for the game, and will be a big factor in the attendance of the team if they can know that the student body is present for their team and working for them. Other institutions have special cheering bodies that go with the teams to the games, and there is no reason why High Point should not have the same body. Let's think it over and get it. It will not be possible to get a good representation at the game in Charlotte next month.

CHICAGO PLAYERS LEAVE FOR HOME

Andrews and Malley Get Longing for Their Home City; Boys Hitch-Hike Way

MAY RETURN NEXT YEAR

The Chicago gamblers are gone. Andy Andrews and Hack Malloy have gone back to their native haunts in the vast expanse of metropolis, taking a lot of color from the campus and particularly from the Panther football squadron. The little fellow was seen at the quarterback position last Saturday, while Malloy played at a halfback post in the Fort Bragg encounter. There is no doubt that the two boys were two of the most potential gridiron players to be added to the team this season.

No particular reason for the departure of the freshmen was given, but it is said that the young quarterback had no acting for the big town spots and it is a case where one goes the other must fall. However, both Chicagian stated that they hoped to come back against and stay the next time. The boys were unusually colored, being of the impulsive type. Therein lies a big demand for high comedy playing. They presented a good picture going along together—Malloy by being over six feet tall and tipping the scales at 185, while Andy little more than came above the halfback belt and weighed in the neighborhood of 130. The loss will not be noticeable to the team during the season as it will be next year. Both freshmen were ineligible for the big games, but could have been used in the "little fives" race. Malloy and Andrews showed a keen interest in the college and will undoubtedly be seen waiting on the front steps next fall when the registrar opens his office.

MR. FARMER GIVES TALK ON PRIMARY HAPPINESS

Life Should Not Be So Absorbing as to Crowd Out the Quest of the Heart's Desire

The Quest of Heart's Desire was the subject of the Rev. Mr. Farmer's speech Tuesday morning at the chapel period in which he addressed the college students. Thereupon, he read the poem, "I Should Die Tonight," and emphasized the fact that every one has a heart, but all are not willing to give it away. "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found by men," he requested, "for the quest of the heart," was the answer of the speaker.

The primary motive of life is happiness and it cannot be secured by mere sitting still and waiting for chance, but one must get into the heart of things and make the everyday things count, for people are not lucky enough to find a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow every time.

"Dislike," said the speaker, "is that imperious in self; that absence of something which we think will bring us satisfaction, and for which we will go to the end of the earth." The little things in life are the things in which the ordinary man must be the hero. We should have an everyday quest for the beauty of everyday things. "Life is not meant to be absorbing enough crowded out the quest of the heart, the only light by which we are able to obtain the quest of one's heart is the light that sweeps down the valley of life."

Student Government Idea
Is Discussed by Students

VIEWS ARE GIVEN
Student Prominence in Campus Activities Are Asked to Express Their Opinions

OPPOSITION TO THE PLAN
Believe That the School Is Too Immature to Have Complete Form of Student Government

During the past several weeks student government has been the outstanding topic of discussion on the campus. In an effort to find out the real sentiment of the students, he asked a number of the students prominent in campus activities to express their opinion of student government. The majority, however, are opposed to student government here for a variety of reasons.

It would seem that for the time, at least, all proposals for establishing any form of student government here will be rejected in cold-blooded indifference. This, I believe, is the natural consequence of the experiences with attempted governments thus far. It seems to me that the justification of a student body is its taxes, talent and ability for relieving the faculty of a great deal of trouble in governing a large body of students.

There is no large group here and the faculty is entirely offhand, with the devotion of a minimum time to whatever questions arise in regard to student government.

Kevin Harrison, Senior.

student government at High Point College would seem to be a fair and impartial administration of justice.

N. C. C. CONFERENCE MEETS AT DURHAM
Five Members of the Faculty Represent H. P. C.-Headed at Washington Duke Hotel

Dr. Chase is President

President R. B. Andrews, Dean E. P. Lindsey, Dr. R. R. Hinson, and Stanley Sparks represented High Point college at the North Carolina College Conference held in the Washington Duke Hotel, Durham, N. C., October 27 and 28.

The conference program gave chief consideration to the means of improving the educational standard of the various colleges in the state. Also there was much discussion on how to maintain a higher standard of scholarship, and how best to adapt college work to the needs of the various students.

The incoming cost of college instruction was another problem considered.

The conference was fortunate in having in attendance the Rev. Dr. Daniel J. Cook, the Protestant Bishop of New York City, who is an expert in college financing. He discussed the problems of college financing and said:

High Point College Orchestra Organized

The High Point college orchestra, under the direction of Professor James R. Collins, has been organized this year under the competent direction of the college, was organized earlier this week, and is progressing rapidly.

Practically all students believe the project is "impossible for high." This year under the competent leadership of Professor Collins.

Few of the old members returned this year, making the personnel of the orchestra almost entirely new. Some good material has been found among the new members.

The program consists of: C. H. Graham, instructor in music; Miss St. Claire, violin; Mrs. W. H. Graham, piano; Miss W. S. Smith, piano; Miss A. C. Hinson, violin; Miss A. C. Hinson, violin; Miss H. C. Graham, piano; Miss A. C. Hinson, violin; Miss H. C. Graham, piano; Miss H. C. Graham, piano.

The Hi-Po asks Students to Support Paper

The Hi-Po has tried many various plans for raising money in an effort to pay off the indebtedness incurred during the first year of publication. So far these schemes have not been very successful and the paper is still in debt. This failure is due in part to the poor support or rather lack of support of the paper by the students. As a whole, the students have displayed very little interest in the college paper. They are of course anxious to read it which is well, but they are not reading as far as the extent of the interest.

At present we are trying to put over a subscription campaign. Prices of real value have been offered as an incentive to work for subscriptions for the paper. The response so far has been only half-hearted. With a few exceptions the students are not interested in themselves in this campaign. The college spirit evidently does not extend to the college paper.

The college paper is and should be an important part of the extra-curricular activities of its students. Every student should feel that he owns it, its co-operation and support.

If you as students are interested in a college paper at High Point college, show your interest by helping us eliminate the debt on the paper. Unless something is done to relieve this situation, the paper will in all probability be discontinued. Let's get behind this subscription campaign and put it over with a bang!

Interest Runs High in Election

From the president to the janitor and from the mighty senior to the humble sophomore, there is a high concern among the people of this university as to what is going to happen in the national election to be held November 6. Never in the history of this university has there been the interest manifested in any political event as there is in the present situation. Students of the campus and the local community are boiling over with excitement. It is either Hoover or Smith — there seems to be no middle ground on the local school question.

A careful check shows that the faculty lined up almost solidly behind Hoover, while Smith wins the students by a very small majority. Down in the college kitchen it seems that Delta Wave, the fraternity, has gone for Hoover, while its colleagues, Alpha Sharpie, is casting his ballot for Smith. The book store, which is the political gathering place of the students, seems to have a shifting popularity. One time it is for the New Yorker, the next time it has gone wholeheartedly for the west.

Many of the out-of-state students are receiving their absent ballots from their homes and most of them intend to exercise their right of suffrage for the first time. This is the act on the part of the students shows the unprecedented interest in the coming election. It is evident that in every instance the one who is either one of the closest advocates of the New York governor, is being elected. From the evidence every student seems to realize his particular duty in the coming event and will work with an unshakable pen either for the Elephant or for the Mule.

Miss Idol Missed on Campus

Owing to the illness of Miss Vera Idol, head of the English department, English students, especially English majors, are some what handicapped. Though her classes have been taken over by other professors, the students miss her presence on the campus. The professors substituting in Miss Idol's absence are to be commended for the way they are taking over her work, but they are naturally handicapped also in not being familiar with the plans of the course.

Miss Idol contracted influenza several weeks ago and since that time she has been unable to cut her classes. Though her condition has greatly improved she is still confined to her home.

Miss Idol is a very popular member of the faculty among the students and they are very sorry to hear of her continued illness. We hope that she will soon be back on the campus to resume her classes.

Cannon & Fetzer
Boylinites Meet Elon Saturday at Elon College

LOCALS OUTCLASS BEARS

But Barely Win, 14-12

The High Point college Panthers will again be ready to defend their “Little Six” championship Saturday when they meet the Christians of Elon College at Elon. This game should be particularly interesting to the local students because of the intense rivalry between the two schools. This game will also double which team in the junior conference of this state ranks supreme.

What is the matter with the old Panther spirit that was so noticeable last year among the students of High Point college? Did the members of the senior class offer contact at all of that spirit and take with them when they departed, or has it just been lying dormant so far this year? I would like to spring to life Saturday at the Elon game! I would like to believe that the latter is the case, but from all appearances about three-fourths of the students are listless, pepless and spiritless, taking no interest in school activities. High Point college has over 300 students this year, but only a small fraction of this number ever attempts to make any school activity a success. There has been a lot of comment by town people and people elsewhere on the lack of spirit shown by the local students. This is a disgrace of the Panther name and a disgrace to the student body. If the students fail to come to life soon the prospects in charge had better prescribe a dose of Philistine’s medicine or Poppy Tone in hopes that a change will occur.

The Panthers were at least two touchdowns better than the Lutherans, and with the old Panther drive and spirit, the Panthers are favored to win. This game will also be a success. There has been little comment by town people and people elsewhere on the lack of spirit shown by the local students. The Panthers will be at least two touchdowns better than the Lutherans, and with the old Panther drive and spirit, the Panthers are favored to win.

Ray Eason is one of the fastest backs on the Panther eleven. He is playing at quarter this year.

Hilda Amick: "May, how many times do you imagine Harvey has kissed her?"

May Williams: "So far I haven’t had time to kiss her or be kissed by her at all."

Helen Shields: "There are three things that a person is not prepared for:"

Lenie Holmes: "What are they?"

Helen: "Feathers!"

The harmonizing sextette, or hot potato band, provided the music for the dance.

On to Elon Saturday, students, with the old Panther fight and spirit. Show the people of Elon that High Point has soul and is going to keep it: maintaining the old spirit.

May Williams: "Feathers is looking fine, isn’t she?"

Harvey Young: "Just great."

"Will you lend me five dollars for a month, old boy?"

"Listen, stupid, what does a man need five dollars for?"

Me has been going strong this year and has been a tower of strength for the Panthers in every game.

BOYLINITES MEET ELON SATURDAY AT ELON COLLEGE

LOCAL TEAM ALL SET TO DEFEND "LITTLE SIX" TITLE

STRONG RIVALRY

Panthers Are Favored to Win But Elon Will Fight Throughout Game

LOCAL TEAM IS STRONG

Elon Team Can Upset Dope by Trouncing Panthers in Game

THE HIGH POINT COLLEGE Panthers will take on the “fighting Christians” of Elon Saturday in their second “Little Six” game of the season, having already defeated the Lebanon-Rhyne Bears by a close margin. If the Panthers can successfully withstand the obstacles that will be presented by Coach Watters’ pupils at Elon Saturday, their “Little Six” championship for another year is practically assured.

At first thought it does not seem that the Elon team would offer much opposition to the locals, but when Elon and High Point meet on the gridiron it is any man’s game. Neither team will concede the other anything and it is only after one or the other finally succeeds in the outcome can be prophesied. It is a well known fact that the Christians of Elon College would rather win from High Point than from any team on their schedules and when they take the field against the High Point Panthers Saturday it will be with the view that the success or failure of the present season would be dependent on the outcome of this game.

Elon has been more or less tapped around all this year but that is the kind of team that cannot be taken lightly and one that might rise up and perform in a superhuman manner, thereby knocking the dope bracket sky-high and giving whatever aspirations the favorite teams may have. Elon will be the underdog Saturday, but the underdog sometimes turns and before any one knows it is on top. They will fight the Boylinites from High Point College and fight to the first whistle till the last one hopes that they can make a break that can be turned into a score. Elon is not as strong as last year, and with this in mind both teams will be doing their "dreaded" in being victory to their school.

Prof. Monroe: "Can our girls tell me how I can make solder into gold?"

Harvey Warrick: "Hide her woolen pajamas."

urging that the student body be divided into factions in which the students would be grouped according to their faculty. The general opinion is that student government should have complete control over all university activities. In addition, the students' tradition of bearing the major responsibility for their own affairs is firmly established, and this would be maintained by a student government. Finally, the students' attitude toward their university is one of satisfaction, and they believe that their university is doing a good job. Therefore, the students' support for student government is strong and their belief in its effectiveness is high. This is evident in the high level of participation in student government activities and the enthusiastic support of the student body for student government initiatives. The students' belief in the importance of student government is also reflected in the high level of support for student government funding, which indicates a strong commitment to the institution of student government.
Panthers Virtually Clinch "Little Six" Title

WIN TITLE AGAIN
Elon Fights Hard But Is No Match for Strong Panthers

LOCALS CLAIM EASY WIN
Coach Boykin sees Many Substitutes During Game—Is Satisfied

The High Point College Panthers emerged victorious at Elon Saturday when they defeated the Fighting Christi ans 13-6 in a hard fought battle and further strengthened their hold on the Little Six championship.

With all due respect to the Elon players it must be said that they put up a good fight and went down fighting as only a sportsmanlike aggrieved foe is able to. The Panthers’ 13 points were garnered in the first quarter and the game looked like it was over as soon as the clock started ticking for the locals, but the coaches of Coach Walker pulled themselves together and threw up a defense that was almost impregnable to the threat of the High Point team. But the Panthers had their share of troubles as the Mushetta was shown twice during the game but they held steady for three quarters on the one-yard line.

The Panthers carefully marked their two touchdowns in the first quarter and showed a power of drive that was pleasing to their followers. Hugh Murrill on a blocked punt from Elon’s 25-yard line, the locals by some pretty runs with Malone and Peck carrying the ball scored their first points soon after the game started. The second was wiped out immediately when the foul was called at the 15-yard line.

Number of Students Expected to Attend Game on November 12

ROUND TRIP COSTS $4.00

The Presbyterian game in Charlotte November 12 is one of the most important games of the season for the Panthers and the majority of High Point should be very much interested in going. As many as 25 girls will sign on up, a bus can be sketched at the peril of the fare one way. The fare one way to Charlotte is $4.00, and the trip both ways can be made for that of $8.50, which is only $4.00, which is less than the bus fare would be if the special is not chartered.

Miss Young has given her consent to the idea or possibility of going to the game and has decided to go in a car and be in Charlotte in plenty of time to see the game, which will be the most colorful of this year’s contests. The Panthers’ interest in going to the game will be shared by the girls, who will be the majority of the visitors and the Panthers will be in plenty of time to see the game, which will be the most colorful of this year’s contests. College Spirit

Why do so many students miss so much of the fun of going to college by failing to get into the spirit of the college? It seems to us that those who say they are wasting their time by doing something that they will only barely remember after graduation.

College spirit is not some material thing that one can touch, but it is something that can’t be seen or heard. It cannot be forced upon one or any group. It is a natural thing built upon love and sympathy. To have college spirit it is necessary to understand. If one tries to find the fault without attempting to get the results, there will be nothing but condemnation. If people would see that everything cannot be perfect it would do a lot of good on group projects. Condemnation never helped to do right anything. If no one comes with a positive solution it is good and will do much to perfect anything that is underserved. However, this sort of criticism is probably a result of spirit directed to help in the building of any group. Spirit is natural, as has been shown by the only qualification that is necessary to be what individuals eliminate “the rose for trouble.” Of course it is necessary to have something to do to keep the rose for trouble. A football team that goes on the field believing it is beaten is lost. Faith is necessary for victory. After all, it is the little things that go together to make for love and sympathy upon which college spirit is based. And every one connected with the institution—simply because they are students, reaping transportation but seemingly unwilling to pay for some, beseeching motorists in quest of rides to the main part of the city.

As conditions are now, for two or three blocks along Eighth Avenue the autists have to run a gauntlet of gesticulating college students, of whom the voices are so loud it is almost like the car to swear in order to avoid striking them with their voices.

Riding to town with the other person is all right—and much better than riding Number Seven at the initiative in such a question should be with the driver. If he wishes to pick up any, all you are lucky if he can hear you. Why not attempt to force your company on him? It is curious.

It is probable that the woefully inefficient service on the Owenton circley may be partially traced to this. At times things are slow; unless a person possesses the wig-wagging ability of a Cowanene and is thus able to gesticulate for several minutes hoping that a Number Seven will hurl slowly into view.

In contrasting to motorists who regularly travel Eighth Avenue it might be well to take the advice of those who have the following to say:

"Stand on the corner and look awful."—Birmingham Southern.

and its problems, but to utilize their combined power to face and solve these problems. If you and your club can’t be moral tricksters. You must be moral straightly. Moral strategy is the purpose of life." It was the closing word of Dr. Feman’s talk.

Dr. Feman is well known as an educator and churchman, being one of the strongest men in the Methodist Protestant denomination. He is a fine speaker, with a great deal of personal presence. It was a real treat to go to High Point since the laying of the cornerstone of McCall and Womans Halls, at which time he was the principal speaker.

Dr. Feman is in North Carolina at present attending the annual conference of the Methodist Protestant Church of this state being held in Winston-Salem.

REPRESENTATIVES OF H. C. C.

ATTEND PRESS CONVENTION

Company at a banquet held at the Chamber-Club Chambers Hotel. Following this, Stough Brothers entertained the delegates with a theater party.

Many social events were scheduled for Friday. The delegates were guests at the Queen City Printing Company at luncheon at the Myers Park Club. Queen College gave a tour for the visitors in the afternoon. This was followed by a theater party at the Civic Theater. The delegates were the guests of the Observatory Printing Company at a dinner dance, held at the Charlestone Hotel.

Representatives attending this convention at Davidson College, it was one of the most enjoyable and instructive meetings of the N. C. C. P. A. The dinner conversations were held from the purpose of exchanging information and getting solutions for problems in editing college publications.

The convention decided to hold the next meeting of the association at Davidson College for women in connection.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS ARE PRAISING H.P.C.

Big Reception Held in Robert E. Lee for Local College

SPECIAL DRIVE IS MADE

The Methodist Protestant Annual Conference, held October 30 to November 3, 1927, held a special session in behalf of High Point College on Friday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 in the ballroom of the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Dr. C. B. Brownfield, president of the General Conference, was the principal speaker at evening. Dr. Brownfield greatly praised the M. P. C. for the work done at High Point College. It was said by Dr. Feman, president of Adrian College, Dr. Lewis, president of Westmoreland Theological Seminary, and Dr. Brownfield that High Point College is the spiritual descendant of the work, also stated that he had rather invest his money in High Point College than any other institution in the church.

Dr. Feman and Dr. Lewis also made short talks, in which they praised the college for its progress and achievements.

Dr. B. M. Andrews gave a report of the college since the last Annual Conference, also, that Norman With all great the exact figures of the costs of the college since the days of establish- ing a college was conceived. The college plans to put on a principal drive in the near future in behalf of the institution, in which it hopes to raise money for the building of the college on better educational lines.

RHAB BOYS RUSH HALLOWEEN CROWDS

Noam Roller Methods Used on Biltmore Street by College Students

Many of the college students took part in the Halloween celebration on Union street last Saturday night. During the part of the evening the rhab boys were busy making fistic romance of each other for a display of anything unusual.

To be Held Game

Panthers Play at Charlotte Under Auspices of Am. Legion

TWO GAMES IN FOUR DAYS

Locals Look for Hard Game With "Little Six" Opponent

The High Point College gridironers have a real job cut out for them Friday and Monday when they have to tackle the Little Sixies of A. C. C. and the seniors of Presbyterian College in less than four days. The Atlantic Christian game will be played at Wake Park Friday, and will be the last home attraction for the locals this season. The Presbyterian clash is to be played at Charlotte and is to be staged as an attraction Monday when they have to tackle the Christian College. The Panthers hold victories over Little Sixie-Rhyne and Elon as far this year and all things seem to indicate that the Little Six crown for another year is a definite victory over anyone. Wilson's gridironers from Wilson have not had a very successful season yet as, but their 3-0-0 record in the Pennsylvania game Friday with the knowledge that they have something to win and much to lose. A term of this attitude with the back against the wall is sometimes hard to hold.

The Panthers have met the Christian College in the past two years, and the scores resulting in two victories for the Panthers, 7-0 and 40-0, while the other team was one of the top teams in the state. The Panthers have yet to score on the Laurencetties but they will have something to win and much to lose when they take the field. Such Boylinitos will have his strongest test when he faces A. C. C. Friday. The A. C. C. Tilt on Friday and in order to win games as they come and let the future ones take care of themselves. His philosophy is that girls Forget

Locals Play Good Ball to Triumph Over Elon

Panthers have plenty of games next week

A. C. C. Friday, Presbyterian College Monday, Southern Friday, Keeps Locals Busy

Plenty of football is on tap for the High Point Gridironers starting this Sat-urday and continuing on through next Friday, in which stretch of time they see to meet Atlantic Christian Col-lege at home, Presbyterian College at Charlotte Thursday and Newberry College at Newberry, South Carolina, on Friday. A sum total of three games in less than a week is a job large enough to tax the power of any football team, but the Purple Panthers of High Point College feel that they are equal to the task and are not making money from any of their opponents during this period of time.

The locals at this time are ruling in a powerful team and the Boilinitos must do so with the help of 10 other men. The defensive side of the contest is feared by all opposing teams. The Purple Panthers are strong at both ends of the line and at the trenches.

The local representation at the Elon College game was spoken of as the best that can be found. A power-ful defense and an offense that is showing promise are making up the process of the locals, which is found by all opposing teams.

If the locals can come through victories in the next three games they are expected to pay off the season. The South Carolina game last Saturday was very good-an excellent game which was only done injustice to the Boilinitos.

J. G. Penney Go.

Dr. Nat Walker played a good game for Elon and he was their most threat, doing most of their running with the ball and all of the passing. The entire Elon team played a good defensive game, but its offensive works were noticed against the heavy Point Line.

SPOOKS and goblins crept stealthily from the midst of shocks and the throng of underbrush in the Tha-

Robert Leffs and Greer Angel gave form on Halloween. Aubrey Dunblair and David Plummer discussed the life and times of nature of Hallowe'en, especially the oldHAM in America, dressed to carry out the effect of Hallowe'en. SOCIAL CLUBS GIVEN DORMITORY ROOMS

The three men's fraternity on the college campus have secured rooms in McElhamb hall to be used as club meeting rooms throughout the year. This is the first organized attempt to have meeting places for the organizations and will fill a much-needed place in campus life.

These rooms are places where the members of the clubs can get together and exercise some real fraternity spirit. This spirit in the past has been lacking, owing to the need of a meeting place that would be somewhat private. A new interest has been shown this year in the planning of new rooms to the organizations. The rooms are to be equipped with reading material and other equipment for wholesome diversion. These places will serve as a room where day students can go to read or have periods to study. To up the present time no convenient place has been named for such students and they will undoubtedly welcome the new idea.

The Delta Alpha Epilson has located in section D, while the Alpha Tau Omegas will have a room in section S. The Epsilon Phi Kappa has not as yet chosen a place, according to the latest reports, but will do so in the near future.

JOHNSON SPEAKS TO BUSINESS CLUBS

Stresses the Idea of Voting for the Party Rather Than for the Individual

CITIZEN'S DUTY TO VOTE

Dean T. C. Johnson addressed the Monarch Club and the American Business Club at an all-day meeting Thursday. His speech was on the party responsibility and duty of every person to vote. He stressed the point of voting for the party rather than the individual.

 poll with so many dissimilar interests involved and so many conflicting motives and purposes, and so wide a range of territory, the individual voter cannot rightly and safely cast his ballot for an individual candidate, regardless of the man who surrounded that candidate and the party which he represented. The party and not the man must be held responsible for the conduct of government.

"And yet, party regularity does not mean political enthusiasm," continued Professor Johnson. "The individual voter has a perfect right to switch his party allegiance if upon due reflection he concludes that the party of which he is a member does not stand for the policies which he himself favors. Such a shifting of allegiance should not be based upon insignificant and minor issues, nor upon prejudice and whisper campaigns, but should be entertained only by reading some of the original papers. Miss Ingrain proved her political talent by reading two numbers, "Poets are born, not made." Miss Eleanor Young also gave a very interesting and beautiful talk on "The Idea of a Good Literary Society." She brought out in her talk the two essentials of a good literary society as being:

1. High ideals.
2. True members.
3. Bonded individual members.
4. Society backing the institution.
5. Social side of life stressed by the society.

Other numbers on the program were:

1. High ideals.
2. True members.
3. Bonded individual members.
4. Society backing the institution.
5. Social side of life stressed by the society.

An audience was secured by a white-sheeted figure. It: "Drew ever such a fellow?" Head: "Yes." It: "Then do you know it's me?"

Panthers MASSACRE ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN TEAM FORTY TO SIX

Many Varsity Men Saved for Presbyterian Game in Charlotte

CHRISTIANS OUTPLAYED their way "and down the field for six touchdowns in the third quarter and overcame a 12 to 10 lead to evenly win, 20-10. The 1928 football season, now more than half gone, has yet to record the victory of Presbyterian over Atlantic Christian. The pancreatic leukemia team went over a North Carolina team, and though High Point seemed to have the game won by the last period the Blue Stockings had the necessary points to keep that record unamed. Presbyterian brought first blood when the Blue Rose scored shortly after the second period opened on a beautifully passed pass from Gunn to Johnson. The game began with another touchdown pass, and the second period brought a spreading of points and a punting duel, but in the second period High Point had the upper hand, and the Panthers ripped off a run of more than 30 yards to lead the way for a Presbyterian threat which the Blue owners only to find themselves behind by the last period. With Zinatake Green in the solvent the Rose marched to another tally before the second quarter ended and at the half P. C. led 22 to 0. Shortly after the second half opened L. Dunlap was tacked behind his own goal line and injured his shoulder from center, and High Point had two points to its credit. Soon after, there it a pretty march in which proper passed their part, Dunlap scored and the Blue Stockings had a 20 to 0 lead when the machine flashed off a number of substantial gailes, made another touchdown. Thompson added to the tally by a point and the Panthers had two points in the last quarter opened. One Panthers punt was knocked away by a third yard dash and Dunlap made his when he stopped 22.

PASTORS ASSIGNED AT M. P. CONFERENCE

Present and Former Students Get Charges in Various Parts of State

THREE ARE REASSIGNED

Ministerial students of the college were given pastoral work by the annual conference. The work which is being surveyed does not in Walker-Sloan, N. C. J. W. Braxton, and Bill W. Wood, and Talbot O. Whitfield were assigned the following charges. Mr. Braxton, the Marksville charge; Mr. Wood, the Spencer charge, and Mr. Whitfield the West Thomasville charge.

These young men are leaders in the Ministerial Association of High Point College, and also stand high in scholastic work. Confidence is expressed that they will be successful in the ministerial field.

J. Edwin Carroll, O. C. E. Lay, and W. M. Lay, former students of High Point College were reassigned work at this conference. Mr. Carroll was assigned the Mt. Herman charge, Mr. O. C. E. Lay was assigned the Eastover charge, and Mr. W. M. Lay was assigned the First Methodist Protestant church of Randleman.

Buxton, Wood, and Whitfield are all residents of High Point, and are not great distances from the college, but are young men of stowing worth who promise much to the North Carolina work. The M. P. Church, Carroll, O. C. E. Lay, and W. M. Lay are experimented ministers, having served most successfully different charges in this part of the state.

Let's Show the Team We Have the College Spirit

Panthers Take Lead in Third Quarter But Fail to Hold It in Last Minute

Mr. Walter Johnson, President of Presbyterian college said the team would play over a North Carolina team, and though High Point seemed to have the game won by the last period the Blue Stockings had the necessary points to keep that record unamed. Presbyterian brought first blood when the Blue Rose scored shortly after the second period opened on a beautifully passed pass from Gunn to Johnson. Johnson, who is the proverbial laying point, was tackled along the line of scrimmage by three Panthers, but without having any effect on himself. The Panthers did some good in the third quarter, and overcame a 12 to 10 lead to evenly win 20-10. The Peace Movement

The attention of the American people has been repeatedly called in the last few days to the consideration of peace. The national interest in peace is due in part to the recent celebration of Armistice Day which has reminded the nation of the Mussolinism of peace in contrast with the horrors of the late war. Another reason for an awakened interest in peace is the fact that, as Peace Treasurers, they are to be submitted to Congress for ratification at the next convening of this body in December. Not only are the people of America interested in the action of Congress in this matter but the whole world is waiting for the decision.

America has assumed an important part in the making of peace treaties, but she has never become a party to any one of them. Woodrow Wilson was the founder of the League of Nations, yet America never became a member. Congress also refused to ratify President Harding's and President Coolidge's requests to join the World Court. Congress will again, so it is said, to set foot favorably upon the Kellogg Treaty remains to be seen. However, it is quite probable that it will be reported if it is not considered before the passage of the Navy bill.

The persistent refusals of Congress to make America a party to any confederation of nations for the maintenance of world peace would indicate that America is still a militaristic nation. However, there are many organizations now at work in an effort to influence Congress to give a favorable decision on this treaty. The most significant movement of these organizations is the mass-wide campaign for peace work in the schools and colleges of the country. It is in the educational institutions that the real battle for a durable peace must be made. War shall be shorn of its glory and shown as the terrific disaster that it is. It is through the influence that the schools and colleges can do their most effective work.

Is Religious Freedom Dead?

A five-thousand word thesis on the subject of government, state, national conduct, club, espressions, attendance at all the top meetings of the student body and the prohibition of meeting manifestation of freshmen for the period of the first three weeks of the school year. Because of this prohibition, all students of the University of Virginia feel that the worst has actually occurred and that "defection and demonstrators and religious freedom" are dead in Virginia. A statement of this kind is placing an undue significance on any presidential election. No election in this kind of a situation being interpreted with such a meaning. These ardent supporters of the defeated candidate are the only making thoughtless and foolish statements. Religious freedom is not dead in Virginia or in any section of the United States, nor can any election ever kill this freedom which is the fundamental right of every American. As Mr. Deepak Perdue...

The last quarter found Presbyterian trying desperately to score and finally a pass from Owens to Jimmie Green got the touchdowm, being good for about 30 yards, and Jimmie passed to the point, the only one the Blue Hose made. Presbyterian had the better of the contest in every period except the third, but High Point always was fighting doggedly and giving every inch gallantly.

LEAVE THURSDAY
Panthers Are Expecting Hard Game With Team From Palmetto State

TEAMS ARE ABOUT EQUAL

Team Will Return Friday for Game Saturday With Naval Training School Team

The locals will invade the Palmetto state Thursday for a hard game Friday which the Newberry Indians. The Newbernians have an exceptionally strong aggregation this year and it is going to take some mighty fine play playing on the part of the Panthers to win this tilt.

The Panthers although having played an unusually strong schedule the past two weeks are nevertheless in good condition and expect to put up a hard battle and bring home a victory, which would be the first one over a South Carolina team. After the game Friday at newberry the Panthers will extricate for home where on Saturday they will meet the Naval Training School from Newport News, Virginia. Two victories this week end over these strong teams would be very gratifying to the men on the local team and to their backers. Coach Boltz will use his strongest teams in these games because unless there is another game scheduled the locals will remain idle after the sailor game until December 1, at which time they may meet the strongest Western Maryland team at Baltimore, Maryland.

HOLIDAY PLANS ARE BEING FORMED NOW

Individual plans are being made by all of the students of High Point college in preparation for Thanksgiving, which will soon be here. Authorisations of the college have not planned any formal exercises to mark this annual occasion. The Christian Endeavor Societies, together with women's organizations, are furnishing baskets for the poor, and the college seniors are entertaining the children of the orphanage.

Most of the students are expecting to take advantage of the holiday to go home and partake of some of mother's old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinners.

MISS SPIEGEL IN PIANO RECITAL HEREx

The Local Instructor of Piano Is a Finished and Artistic Performer

PROGRAM WELL RECEIVED

Miss Hortense Spiegel delighted her audience last night in the college auditorium with a program that revealed her mastery of the piano. As she appeared in recital, Miss Spiegel, who is instructor in piano at the local college, is not only a teacher of rare ability, but also a finished and artistic performer who is in frequent demand for concerts. She has already agreed to give two or three concerts in Chicago during the Christmas holidays.

SIGMA ALPHA PHI HOLDS INITIATION

The Sigma Alpha Phi fraternity held its formal initiation for the new members on last Friday night. Four members were taken into the club—Miss Hortense Spiegel, Miss Lula Nunnery, Miss Pasquale Freeman, and Miss Minnie Harris. After the initiation a dinner party was given in the Home Economics dining room. The Thanksgiving idea was carried out in detail. A four-course dinner was served. The following girls came back to their college to attend the party: Misses Elke Kerck, Lelia Wagner, Minnie Coffey, Gertrude Bee, Bessie Reichler, Laura Thompson, Alice Liverpool, and Mae Weston.

Cornell Method: "I suppose you know about the fast killer."

Willie Napoleon: "Yes, but I've never met him."

Nerrie Norten: "That's quite obvious."

To freshmen who have little stress in meeting a bed the other day in expectation the one in front called back: "Hey, quit that quilting."

The return came immediately: "That isn't the trouble. It's you who quit that stitching."

Students Must Cooperate With Contestists to Make Hi-Po Campaign a Successful One

The close of the second week of the campaign has left the Hi-Po Staff withjust two more weeks to work. These Hi-Po staff finds last week's top-rated still hold for first place with some new men moving up. Elks and Ralph Mulligan have unseated the remainder of the field and there is little doubt but what they will have the first two places when the contest closes on November 22. The competitions ask the cooperation of the student body to the fullest extent. Students are asked to write their letters more sharply and help or else suggest the names of sub-jects that they believe would like to win.

The campaign must be success-ful in the H-P circle for the future. A heavy duty has been in-curred in the past few years, and since the publications is a student organ, the students should realize that they should assume some of the responsibility in making the Hi-Po a paying properti-

It is not too late for wise students to enter the contest. If you want a big turkey for that Thanksgiving dinner, get in the contest and win the first prize of $25.00, or the second prize of $15.00.

LOCALS CLAIM GOOD FOOTBALL RECORD

Now that the local football season is over and the games have been completed, there is no need to comment finally on the record of the Western Maryland college games at Baltimore remaining on the Purple and White score board for the season of the present year. In the opening game, the Purple and White does not at first glance impress one that the Boilermakers have had a loss in the number of games played over the games of the year, and a careful check up on the statistics reveals the high point of the Panthers' success on the gridiron.

This week when the Purple and White gridiron began practice, it was noted that the Panthers' team consists of those included in the "Little Big conference.

Guenther L. Angel, president of the Christian Endeavor Day at High Point college, recently accepted the offer of the Christian Endeavor section of the young people's work in the Methodist Protestant Herald, Rev. F. L. Gibb as formerly held this position, but has recently placed it in the hands of Mr. Angel.

It requires much time and thought to prepare this page, in order that it may give to the readers of the Herald each week a new and helpful suggestion as to how to conduct a successful worship program in the Christian Endeavor meeting.

Mr. Angel is due Mr. Angel for his willingness to do this work, and his services will at the same time aid the college Christian Endeavor society in winning the state banner this year.

COMMERCIAL STUDENTS TO GET EXTRA HOLIDAY

The commercial students at High Point college will be given the Friday following Thanksgiving Day as an extra holiday. This was made possible for them because their attended classes on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Their other students had a holiday. It is also due to be cause they have 25 hours of work each week. The college liberal art student has only 18 hours per week.

Miss Margaret Grady and Miss Dor-othy Hardwick, talented students of High Point college, presented a program consisting of popular songs over station WDPK during the full hour, accompanied by Miss Moe Kirk, man, also of High Point, who in ad-dition to being a member of the station staff was a student of Mr. Peabody's University. Miss Hardwick and Miss Grady sang and have won a large audience. They are prominent members of the Chorale Club and other popular organizations on the campus. Next week they will sing for the Civic Club at a meeting of the King Odgan Hotel.

LOCALS FIRST TEAM IN N. C. TO DEFEND SISTER STATE TEAM

Panther Froom and Reserve Defeat Newberry, 6-0

Foot Line

The High Point college Panthers are bowling now, and they deserve to bow, because on last Friday they landed the happy hunting grounds of the Newberry Indians and returned home victorious. Their appearance in the state finals ended 6-0. On Saturday the reserve team met the Newport High school from Newport News, Virginia, 12-7, at the local football field.

The Panthers' victory marked the South Carolina reef opened near South Cambria which in a North Carolina team has trumped over from the sister school in the field once more.

The third quarter was the one that bore fruit for the Panthers. It was in this period that Panthers showed the form that merited a place in the mythical state all-team. Catching the kick-

Hi-Po Staff Holds Meeting to Decide Fate of Paper

Plans to Erase Publication's Debt to Be Presented to Student Body

T. C. Johnson Presents in Bain 100 if the Staff Will Agree to Raise the Balance

A very important meeting was held the other evening in the lyceum course number, the Hi-Po staff. With a full attendance, the member of the staff listened to very favorable reports from the lands of the various departments.

Millennial Misses, advertising manager, stated that the Hi-Po columns are carrying the load. In his own estimate he predicted that this year will be the first year he has reported anything in the way of a satisfactory manner and that there is a splendid re-organization being begun.

Virgil Yee, business manager, gave a financial report and from this it was learned that the weekly publication is for the first time, being edited as an paid agency.

Charles Adams, circulation manager, informed the staff that the circulation ceased to feel short of the expectations he had hoped for. It was learned that this week's issue was subscribed in one hundred per cent manner. However, the circulation list has been created several and many more par-tus are receiving the paper this year than last.

After receiving this encouragement in the field of advertising, the staff turned its attention to ways and means of raising money for the debt now owed in the past two years. Professor Johnson proposed to raise $100 to be used in the raising of the money. It is shown that several regularly that more turn off the paper for having passed the required work, but only three of them are ready in the honor session of the house.

In another section the greatest criticisms were directed towards the Hi-Po columnists, but we should remember the difficulties they have served under the honor system. Let's all of them up, everything is done to the best of their ability, so that we may have the paper that is the best we can get.

With the hope that good work is being done to the Hi-Po staff, but we should remember also the difficulties under which the paper is laboring. It is not possible to ignore the interest. We have tried to make our points of view known to the student body. Let all the students who wish to do so have the opportunity of expressing their views.

The Hi-Po has been a real boon to the college and we are anxious to change the friends of the student body of the Hi-Po. After this week the paper will not be sent to those who have not paid the subscription to the Hi-Po. After this week the paper will not be sent to those who have not paid the subscription to the Hi-Po. BOYLINTON TO MISS HIM

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT FOR AN EXCELLENT 1929 TEAM

Two Local Students Attend S.V. Meeting

Tylton J. Whitehead and Grover Angel Represent Y' and C. E. Society

Wofford College Hosts

Tylton J. Whitehead, president of the college, at the close of last year's season, brought forth a most eloquent plea for the future of the College Football Association. It is no theory that the future of this organization is bright. The growth and development of football during the past few years has been nothing short of amazing. The interest in the game, especially among college students, has increased tremendously. The demand for talent has also grown, and the supply has been found in abundance.

Football is not only a sport, but it is also a great social institution. It brings together people from all walks of life, fostering teamwork, discipline, and a strong sense of community. It is a sport that requires great physical and mental strength, and it teaches valuable life lessons. The players learn valuable skills such as leadership, responsibility, and perseverance, which they can apply in all areas of their lives.

The future of football is bright, and the prospects for the upcoming season are promising. With the right management and dedication, the college football teams can continue to grow and thrive, providing a positive impact on the community and society as a whole.

Isabel Garland and Hardesty Johnson appeared in a recital on last Thursday night in the college auditorium. The program was a joint recital of poems and songs. Miss Garland showed great dramatic ability in the reading of many well known poems and her charming personality added much to the reading. Mr. Johnson has a rich baritone voice and beautiful tones. He displayed much talent in singing as well as in playing the piano with accompaniment. The program was in four parts:

1. American songs.
2. Songs of the sea.
3. Songs of romance.
4. Songs of the Middle Border.

The last group of songs was in memory of Hamlin Garland, father of Isabel Garland, and a Western writer of note. Miss Garland read some of his favorite poems, while Mr. Johnson sang his favorite songs.

MEN ARE DISAPPOINTED

Coach Boylin Allowed Them to Break 1927 Contract on Agreement to Play 1928 Game

The football season for the local gridders was abruptly ended last week upon the announcement that there would not be a game with the Western Maryland College. This announcement came as a disappointment to all the local football fans to the Boylinites as many of the boys left for the North Carolina road trip, and were going as Baltimoreans, with the expectations of playing before friends and relatives, who have led them to believe that they were in high school. After it was found out that the situation could not be a game, the owners of the squad who were expecting their family to attend the game were heartily

Concluded Next Week

The football season for the local gridders was abruptly ended last week upon the announcement that there would not be a game with the Western Maryland College. This announcement came as a disappointment to all the local football fans.

Several men who have been out on the gridiron for the past year have been invited to try out for the renewed season. There has been a decided interest in the game as shown by the number of boys who have been turned out for the team.

Y. M. C. A. MAKES PLANS FOR SPRING SEMESTER
Funds Have Been Raised for the Furnishing of Only Room Which Will Be Keptly Felt.

The Y. M. C. A. at High Point college so far this year has accomplished very little but to raise money for the future. However, this is nothing new and may be expected from an organization as strong. It was organized about the middle of last year and since then regular meetings have been held during the year.

Funds have been raised for the furnishing of the club room since school opened this fall. A program of activities is now being arranged for the spring semester, and will be completed in a few weeks.

Although no definite plans to the contrary this program can be made at this time, members are hoping to start them immediately after the Christmas holidays.

Preliminaries for Sixteen Students Take Part in Chapel Yesterday
Coches Well Pleased
Debates Will Be Held With Guilford, Lemonridge, Wake Forest and Furman University.
The preliminaries to select the intermediate debating team to rep- resent High Point College in a tournament held yesterday afternoon in the college auditorium will be given. The debate topic was well-advised, "Resolved, That a substitute for trial by jury should be adopted," and the same bill was by the opposing teams used in the triangular debate.
The decision of the judges was announced yesterday afternoon. The debate questions are to be debated with college not in the triangular debate.
Sixteen students took part in the pre-liminary debate. The defeated teams were High Point and Furman. The winning teams were Guilford and Lemonridge.

The Y. M. C. A. of High Point College is in the process of furnishing a club room in McCallough Hall. The room, which is under the direction of T. G. Whitley, president of the local club,

The room is at present undergoing a simple change, the walls being painted, new doors put in place, new furnishings and new equipment being installed. The room is being furnished as gifts by local furniture companies.

The room is to be completed soon and will be dedicated to the memory of the late Mr. McCallough, who was the first president of the college and the founder of the Y. M. C. A.

The Dramatic Club will give a play tomorrow afternoon in the college auditorium. The play, "She Loves Me Not," is a four-act comedy packed with laughs and certain unspotted points that promise to give everyone an hour of side-splitting entertain- ment.

The Dramatic Club is a young organization which has been put on for the sole purpose of finding new talent in the college and for producing distinct and fast-acting productions. The club was formed in the summer and has been in operation for the past few weeks.

From all present indications and from the report of the company, the play is certain to be a great success and will be repeated soon.

Influence Epidemic on the Campus. The Faculty is Hard Hit
Many Students Go Home for Ides. They Are Better
Students Are Warned to Avoid Colds. Co-operation Is Very Good, Doctors Say.

For the past two weeks had called and could not be replaced with a student class attendance. This institution has been very unfortunate, for the absence of some of its instructors. The faculty is now furnishing with three instructors and the class attendance is therefore better. These absent are: Miss Hild, Miss Wil- liams, and Miss Spiegel. Of these three the latter two are expected to return in a few days, while Miss Ideal is not expected back until the second semester. Prof. T. G. Johnson has returned to the college after being ill, but returned to his work last Friday.

In the girls' dormitory, Trudy Idol and Mrs. Idol, holding a discussion on influenza, while the others have already re- turned to their homes.

From McCallough hall there has been a greater number of absentees. First of all, Mr. Johnson is out at a very short notice, and Mr. Holmes is also out for a short time. Mrs. Osterwald has been ill for the past four or five days and is still not back. Mrs. Mooney, on the other hand, is expected to be back soon.

The student body has shown its usual hearty cooperation to keep this epidemic away, and the doctors are very successful in controlling its attack.

lege students have long sought to bring Christmas holidays, as the students begin to understand that the blue-nosed group their opportunities and life and death matters. Football games are sport, and not where they could understand that athletic rivalry that goes back to figure in an argument. Athletic rivalry, and other rivalry between educational institutions is a splendid thing in itself, but when it reaches a point that a student of one college kills another over it, it is going too far. No football game is worth human life. It is time that college students attended college because sometime in the future they will earn their living by the right of way. It is just how much four or five days of examinations interfere with the college boys' and girls' extra-curricular activities, and that the student of today has no time to study for such occasions. But since the authorities and professors have never realized that such days as these are what college students have long sought to wipe out of the college calendar, it seems that college authorities and professors have never realized just how much four or five days of examinations interfere with the college boys' and girls' extra-curricular activities, and that the student of today has no time to study for such occasions. But since the authorities and professors have never realized of the fact that examinations should be abolished, the students are planning to show them that they can pass their exams. Prospects are good for the approaching tests since only a few failed on the quarter examinations.

This issue of the Hi-Po will be the last publication before the Christmas holidays. The staff wishes for the students a very merry Christmas and a very prosperous New Year. Get your fill of turkey and dressing, for we have a hard winter ahead of us and no more chances to slip home for anything to eat until the spring holidays. Have a good time, too; get every little distraction off your mind for the mid-term exams come soon after we return. Nice to look forward to, isn't it?

How about the proposition made in chapel yesterday about the Hi-Po? Let's get behind it. Put it over. Remember it was the upperclassmen who failed to pay their publication the first year of the Hi-Po's existence that has placed the paper in such an embarrassing position. In other words, the paper has had us wait three years to keep a promise. Look at the interest that has come from that money in that time. The paper is paying for itself now. But this debt must be wiped out now. Such days as these are what college students have long sought to wipe out of the college calendar...

Prof. E. O. Cummings gave a concise and interesting address on "The Relation of Chemistry to the Farmer" to the Pamlico Scientific Society Monday night. He pointed out that one of the greatest benefits that can come to the farm at present is a cheap fertilizer made possible through chemical research. He reminded his audience that chemistry has no favorites and that while it may aid the farmer for a time, it may later complicate the situations by producing food more cheaply than that by agricultural methods. Recently an eminent

German chemist has discovered a method by which fat may be produced from coal, and it has been known for a long time that sugar can be manufactured from wood. By the time these methods have been commercialized, a concentrated form of synthetic vitamins will be on the market so that these substances necessary to health may be added as condiments to the synthetic food. Of course it will be several years before the synthetic product can compete in price with nature.

Pennsylvania, were visitors on the campus the last week in October. The boys were comprised of Donald Martin, who is the brother of Billie Martin, the of Uniontown High School. Uniontown is familiar to everyone on the campus, as it has the greatest representation of students from that state. The climate aphis intention of coming to High Point

College next year. The boys spent three days on the campus and left early Friday
