Decision Night Completes Rush Week For Societies

Many Forms of Entertainment Have Been Given By Each of Two Societies

INTEREST HAS BEEN KEEN

Decision Night last night brought to a close the activities of Rush Week. Both the Artemesian and the Zephyr Societies gave entertainments for the new girls the week and last night brought the festivities to a close.

The most important aspect of the literary society calendar in that which all the new girls make a formal announcement of their choice of societies. Miss Ruth Klapp, New Member of the Artemesian Society, has announced her choice of the Organization of the two girls’ societies to set aside one night, a special entertainment for the public, for the purpose of helping each organization.

A feature interest has been manifest at the model games given by the Artemesian Society on Tuesday afternoon, November 13th. A very entertaining program was given by the girls, conducted by Edith Gehrke. Following the program the girls were given a chance for a carpool around a campfire.

The Zephyr Society also entertained Thursday afternoon, November 15th. An informal party took place in the society’s rooms, the guests were served with a delicious salad course. This course was being served, a very interesting commentary was given by Edith Gehrke. Following the program the girls were given a chance to parke around a campfire.

Benson to Print Book

The other and business manager of the Zephyr has selected five members of the society to compose a book. In the first place, it is believed that one or two others will be able to write the book, but these have not been selected yet. Bessie Best, Doris Korner, Gladys Collins, Lewis Sewart, and Ethel Roberts have been appointed as members of the Zephyr staff. These students are all considered as students of unusual ability and the editors feel that if they are instructed in the art of publishing, they will be able to produce an interesting book for the Zephyr staff. It is expected that they will be able to produce an interesting book for the Zephyr staff.

The Heerman Trio Appears in First Lyceum Number

Program of Varied Selections of Italian and French Classics

Appreciative Audience

The Heerman Trio opened the High Point College Concert series with a performance in the Science Hall on Friday afternoon, October 12th. A large and appreciative audience was on hand to listen to the playing of the Heerman Trio, which has been the talk of the town. The audience was quite appreciative of the music and asked for more. The Heerman Trio, which consists of Mrs. Heerman, Mr. Heerman, and Miss Heerman, is a well-known trio and is well fitted for the fine work they have done. The program was well planned and well executed.

The performers were especially commended for their artistry and for their skill in playing the music. One of the critics of the concert said, "The Trio was a success. The music was well played and the audience was well pleased." Another critic said, "The Heerman Trio is a fine ensemble and their playing is well worth hearing." The audience was so pleased with the performance that they asked for more.

Walter Heerman is a well-known Irish tenor, the Heerman trio, based on the well known art of Irish tenor singing, is well known for its beautiful renditions. The Heerman trio is well known for its beauty of tone and its artistic interpretations of the music.

The new girls were the guests of the Wakanora Literary society at its regular meeting last night in Robert's Hall. After the dessert course, which was prepared and served by the officers, the program opened with the reading of a paper presented by Mr. W. H. Reynolds. The reading was followed by a discussion of the paper, led by the president of the society, Miss Nellie Roberson.

The two new girls were introduced as follows by the president of the society:

Miss Betty Smith, who graduated last June. She is a member of the Phi Mu Sorority and has received a scholarship because of her scholastic standing. Miss Betty Smith is from Kernersville and is interested in physical culture.

Miss Mary Brown, who graduated last June. She is a member of the Phi Mu Sorority and has received a scholarship because of her scholastic standing. Miss Mary Brown is from Winston-Salem and is interested in physical culture.

The new girls in the college were guests of the American Literature Society at the first meeting of the society this year. The program consisted of a reading by Miss Luce of the music department, and a reading by Mr. Harrison, professor of English. The program ended with the reading of a paper presented by Mr. W. H. Reynolds.

KNOW THE ALMA MATER

Through the early tomes of 1934 we hope to keep in touch with the Alma Mater, knowing that there are stories and events that are to be told. We hope to get as much as possible from the friends of the college and use this information to support the college in various ways.

The new gymnasium is a reality, so as well as to help us help the college, let us help the college.

The new building is the result of two years of hard work and planning. It is a beautiful addition to the college, and we are proud to have a part in its construction.

The college choir is working hard to prepare for the upcoming concerts. We look forward to hearing them perform.

The college is holding a fund-raising campaign to raise $2500 to aid in the erection of a new gymnasium. We encourage everyone to contribute to this important project.

The college is planning to hold a reunion this fall. We hope to see many alumni in attendance.

With the Christian Clubs

The Thistle Literary Club had a regular meeting last Thursday evening, when Andrew Hagenfeld spoke on the topic of "Nature and Duty." Andrew Andrews placed a motion, which was adopted by a large majority. The meeting was adjourned after singing of the society song.

The Thistle Club held its first regular meeting Monday night. One of the new members was elected to the club. The club decided to ask George Blaylock to be the English department of the local high school. The club members asked each member of the club to bring in the next meeting a collection of short stories, either in easy or easy-to-read amusing experiences of the past summer.

The club was separated for the purpose of developing natural talent, and collecting stories and writing. All who are most interested in work of this kind will be welcomed into the club.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO C. E. SOCIETY
Dr. Ransom was the speaker at the first Friday night prayer meeting of the Christmas Endeavor Society. Dr. Humphrey's speech was a presentation of the development of the Bible for the purpose of the audience. "Our Part in the World." The president said that our world grows better, because we have in those days some shorts, more than pleasingly plump, in Parisien sophistication.

The acceptance of life with a happy outlook, regardless of conditions has caused many to make the best of their lot and work for the best. It is a common sense that people who have acquired the simplicity of true wisdom. There is no life that is not rich or powerful or famous they lose. It is not powerful or famous because they live in those days some shorts, more than pleasingly plump, in Parisien sophistication.

The University of North Carolina's Student Senate has elected a Student Representative to the Senate. The "true spirit of progress as an end in itself" was strongly emphasized by Terry Loring, who has been a member of our club from the very beginning.

Professor Johnston told the students that those before them had learned more from experience than from books. Professor Hinshaw and John Morgan presented "Our own generation" and its students may have to find a place in the Christian Endeavor.

The second meeting of the Artemisia Literary Club was held last Thursday night in the auditorium. The new members were elected and工業 the following members were elected: Freda Brown, Sue Morgan and were followed by William Schatz, John Morgan, and Forrest Waggoner.

The Purple Panthers leave for Washington, D.C. Friday morning to play American University. The game against East Carolina the week before was postponed because of the absence of two key players, Walter and Dellinger, who have been away on business. The Panthers are expecting to have them back in two weeks, and they will be able to give the team a much-needed boost.

The coaching staff of the Panthers is beginning to show signs of strain. Coach Watkins has been putting in some long hours, and the players are beginning to feel the pressure. The team will be playing their third game in a row this weekend, and they are looking for some consistency in their play against American University.

The switch to the backfield is working out well. The team's offensive line is holding up its end, and the defense is starting to show some improvement. Coach Watkins is pleased with the team's progress so far, and he is looking forward to seeing how they perform against American University.

The Panthers are still looking for their first win of the season, and they are hoping that this weekend will be the start of something new. They have some talented players on the roster, and they are confident that they can make a run for the conference championship. The team is working hard to get their chemistry right, and they are hoping to come out on top.

The game against American University will be a tough one, but the Panthers are determined to give it their all. They know that they have the talent and the skill to compete with anyone, and they are looking forward to seeing how they perform in this weekend's game.

We wish the Panthers good luck as they take on American University. This will be a tough game, but the team is ready to face the challenge. We are excited to see how they perform, and we will be cheering them on all the way. Go Panthers!
The MAKING OF CHARACTER

In the laboratory of childhood and youth character is gradually formed. The minds of the young are plastic, easily molded by the hand of circumstance into eternal image or a notorious figure of shame. Youth is the raw material of mankind. The old man is the result of its manufacture. The product of youth. Hardboiled on street corners, and age can be found in those cells that are used to mold the child and shape the destiny of the man. We may think that the earlier the school we come to learn in, reality our school days have fully begun, though we go forth from one of the great schools of the country, we have but passed through a preparatory stage, and are about to enter as freshmen in that greater university from which we will be graduated with the successors to come up higher. We have but exchanged childish and patient instruction for one whose task is of a different kind, whose rule is just, who will show but little indulgence for the unhallowed looseness or broken rules of discipline. The world is now our school, experience our teacher, and life our eternal lesson. The education that we have received in school will be a bad and a small education, and we must acquire skill in the use of the knowledge we have. We cannot be translated into action as the body is converted into fruit. The blackboard that once bore a broad and well-behaved child has been made a bearing for himself or serve his instruction in some constructive way. The nearest or most discipline-minded of itself bring honor and happiness, cannot make a good and useful citizen, or entitle one to the respect of his fellow men. The greatest of our men whose names are honored and avowed are not the most moral, but because of their might they are greater in their character and as intelligible. They are not the fit to achieve a more reputation without the manual training of character in our. The less of mere reliance or self-advertisement is one of the deadliest forms of vanity that ever crossed the growing man. So by striving in all honorable ways to win and retain the good opinion of all good people we must remember that a man's reputation is in only what men think he is, whereas his character is what God thinks he is. No man is ever in the respect of all good people unless he that men who have a moral creation for superiority. We cannot always tell what public opinion is; we never can tell what a thing is going to be. The plan of war, as well, is to form correctly and so-sentimentally opinions of our own. No one has found the means to stand by men even through we stand alone. We are prone to make an ideal of others, and worship it as our idolizing God. We are the band of saying that "ignorance is the mother of vice." However all history teaches that mere learning is not the source of moral decay. We know that the wisdom of the world knows nothing of the greatest and should we have no faith in the brightest of intellectual greatness, and if we look to this we will find no more. The U. S. Revenue Tax used to be a very pretty a package of twenty. It is a united and revered by all mankind were great, revered by all mankind were great, reverent by all mankind were great. The mere love of reputation or self-pride is a disease of all the greatest. We have no reason to lose the respect of all good people or re-

MAKE MAT GRADE OF C

The students of High Point college will have their winter vacation at the new High Point Y. M. C. A., which has just opened. The college officials have also announced that the college will be closed on Sundays, instead of Saturday, as in the past.

The college has also announced that the students will be required to attend all classes, and will be expected to maintain a grade of C or better in all of their courses.

On January 1, the college will also begin a new program of instruction, in which the students will be required to take a course in public speaking, and will be expected to maintain a grade of C or better in all of their courses.

Cooperative Work Offered Students

Chem. Engineering Students Between Time Between Time

College Locates John

Due to the leadership of Dr. C. W. Jones and Prof. M. T. M. and the cooperation of the Chemistry and Engineering Departments, the college has located a new position for the students.

The new position is a research position in the Chemistry Department, and will be held by Dr. C. W. Jones.

Students entering the Department of Chemistry in the fall will be required to take a course in the new position. This course will be held in the fall, and the students will be required to take a course in the summer.

WILLIAM W. B. WHITE LEADER

Finch, William Howard. William Howard Finch, an older member of the freshmen class, has been elected as the new president of the student body. Finch was nominated by Dr. W. J. Davis, associate professor of English, and was seconded by Prof. T. B. White, professor of English.

The new president will serve a term of two years. He will be assisted by a cabinet of six, which will be elected by the student body.

The new president-elect said that he is looking forward to serving his term, and that he will work hard to make the college a better place for all students.

T. Q. Harrison To Address Students

Mr. Harrison, a member of the governing board of the college, has been invited to speak to the students on the subject of "The Importance of Higher Education." The speech will be held in the college auditorium at 2:00 p.m.

During his speech, Mr. Harrison will discuss the importance of higher education, and will offer some advice to the students on how they can make the most of their college experience.

Increased Interest Enables Music Students To Give Course

A music concert was held in the college auditorium on Friday evening. The concert was attended by a large audience, and was well received.

The concert featured a variety of musical selections, including songs by Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart. The performers were all music students, and were accompanied by the college orchestra.

The concert was sponsored by the college music department, and was made possible by the increased interest in music among the students.

WEDDING BELLS RING FOR FORMER STUDENTS

Wishing Wells were among the attractions at the recent High Point College alumni reunion. William Glenn Davis, the rough and ready leader of the college's first baseball team, was there with his wife and family.

Davis was a member of the class of 1924, and was one of the first students to graduate from the college. He went on to become a successful businessman, and has been an active contributor to the college over the years.

Davis told the reunion attendees that he was pleased to see so many old friends, and that he was looking forward to his retirement in the near future.

The wedding bells rang among the alumni, with several more marriages being announced.

Mr. Davis was also presented with a silver wedding ring, which was given to him by the college.

The ceremony was attended by a large crowd, and was broadcast over the college's radio station.

Boys Societies Add Many New Members

At the start of the new semester, the boys' societies at High Point College added many new members. The societies have been growing in popularity, and have been attracting more and more students.

The societies include the Thalean, Akrothinian, and Sappho. Each society has its own unique tradition, and is known for its distinctive style.

The Thalean and Akrothinian societies are the oldest of the three, and have been in existence for over 50 years. The Sappho society is the newest, and was only established a few years ago.

The new members were welcomed into their respective societies, and were given a tour of the campus and some of the college's facilities.

HIGH POINT LEADS

With the inauguration of the Co-

College, High Point College took the course of the thirteen colleges among the colleges of the state. It is significant to note that High Point has been the small college in North also that only two other colleges of North

NC. State and the University of North Carolina.

For the last twenty years the North

The Phalanx Literary society held its regular meeting last Thursday evening and presented a program which was heard by all the audience present. Questions were put by Joe Creane after which Fannie Humphreys gave a very complete discussion of the works of John Banister. Frank Koch talked of subjects of the world's greatest literature after which a debate was held, Roger Watson and Tony Simmons defended the affirmative side of the query—"Be it resolved that the farmers shall be prohibited by state law to plant cotton in 1931." By a very broad argument with Zeb Dwyer and Harvey Badcliffe, the motion was very nearly lost and the negative won a close decision. Robert Williams closed the program with some very humorous wit.

Alfred Smith, Alex McDonald, Harry McCombs and Patty Lewis were tutors at the meeting.

The Nikanthan Literary society held its regular meeting last Thursday evening at seven o'clock. The demonstration was led by Thelma Moss. The program opened with the singing of the society song, Edith Creek's composition, "Harriett Potter." The floor was passed to the president, "Biscuit Pluff." "Biscuit Pluff" was sung by Laura Frazell and Virginia Brown. Miss Heath gave a very interesting view of the life of William Shakespeare, while Fannie Wooten read Shakespeare's poem, "The Tiger" and "Little Black Book" the rights of women's offices. Miss Heath finished with the singing of the college song.

The Modern Priscilla club held its regular meeting at its initiation service held at the Practice House Monday night, October 19. These new members are—

GLEANINGS

We see the following—

According to the Queen's Blows, our week begins very soon. Of course, the poor exhausted and respected staff has drawn up several regulations for the freshmen to abide by and one of them says that the naps shall not be taken with such formality, that is, in five breaks and many other rules that are definitely needed. But we happen to have a girl friend at Queen's who is a number of freshmen this fall, and she says you should by all means run up there for the freshmen to abide by and one is most needed.

N. C. C. W. is a great place. The not only teaching reading, "rhymes" her but that thought of the thing. Students, have you ever thought for honesty? There are, of course, on the campus on which would not think of such words, but here are some worn-out-nesses, the principles, and it is so for the naps that help you on your way to the second-class.

There is always some black sheep in the fold, and it is a pity that we have a black sheep in our school which is so unfortunately doing down on the school. Of the same, accident, rare event, but we are concerned with the principle of the thing. Students, have you ever thought of this?

Time cannot be bargained with, and it is to be preserved, so go at its pace forever. Tomorrow will soon be today, and today will soon be yesterday, from one to the present will be forever to appear again. Next year will be forty, sixty, seven, months, winter, spring, autumn, and summer, as well as ever. This past year involved and the present one, but when you look back on the future, you will find that today will never come again, and tomorrow is just as good. So, see that today will never return, and yesterday, you wish you had those again, and watch our growing youth wisely. The days which pass will never return and the dreams you have had will always be so.

We shall plan andgebung at the commencement with which we have already been, and let us be glad that we are not going to do anything of the sort. We shall be glad that we are not going to do anything of the sort.

The collegiate press association was a huge success at Duke last week. It was very interesting and the officials should be patted on the back for the success they achieved. They were good and knew what they were doing.

DO WE LACK INITIATIVE?

One of the comparatively few good features on the campus is, to some extent, falling away. The students are not doing much and the instructors are not too keen on the matter of initiative. Each student should take hold and do something for his own good and the good of the college.

From the first day that volunteers were asked for there has been no response whatever. With such an attitude, we must expect to do anything while in our own interest, those things which are lacking and which are badly needed.

NORTHAMPTON

The Northampton Literary society conducted its new musical at last week’s regular meeting. The lead of the program were Violet Weaver and Janice Reid. This program was made up of thirty new members for the Northampton.

ADMIRATIONAL

The Admirational Literary society held its regular program Thursday night, October 27, at seven o’clock. The program was centered around the history of the South, writers of fiction. A very detailed account of the life of Irving Ridpath was given by Elly Van Duzer. Annette Ashley presented a very interesting paper on "The Glamour of Adventure." Following this Miss Margot Haswell read a novel article on "Are the Crowds Coming to the Movies?" Mary Reid told of the life of Sibyl Ludington, and David Kovey followed this account with a very capable account of "Hell's Angels." The Ten Commandments. The program closed with the society meeting.

The new members of the Admirational Literary society gave a very interesting program in the college auditorium, Wednesday evening at seven o’clock. From, Stiles, Fans, and Proctor were the speakers to entertain the guests. The program consisted of a history of Hallowe’en.

In setting the stage for the new members, President Davidson, told them of the principles which are to be given in the future of as a metaphor, the Admirational Literary society, on Friday evening, October 28.

At the end of the program the following students were initiated: Betsy Gant, Lucien Jones, James, Hight and Crenshaw.

PANTHER SPORTS

PANTHER GRIST

Twin City Gets Game

The Panthers will play Catawba in Winston, S. C., October 31, as their high point in conference play this season.

This change has been made due to the small attendance at the home games. The extremity feel that the Panthers are ready to face this condition and that it is time for the whole team to get into a new field of activity. The Panthers will play on October 31.

The first game of the conference will attract a large crowd, but the game will be played in an empty stadium, and it is sure that the attendance will be very small.

The field is centrally located and the weather is expected to be good.

The game will be hotly contested and will probably be of the best of the year. As we will be playing in a new stadium, we will be awaiting the charge of the blood of "punch" in scrimmage Wed-

and if offensive and defensive drill procedures are followed, the players will be taken to the next level of play.

As with the other games in the series, a pair of teams present a good drawing and turnout, and the extremity will be faced with the final whistle.

Soccer Team Will Play on Foreign Soil

Most Catawba Indians Ponder Second Time This Year.

First Game a Deadlock

The soccer team will play Catawba's "only" relying a team a return match at "only".

The Indians held the lead in the game for over two weeks. The leading scores were again available to push it through.

The midfield was evenly balanced, with Catawba's midfield dominating the field. The teams were evenly matched in this area.

In the second game, the Indians were up against a strong team, which faced Catawba in the last examining the competition, and realized that they could not take it to a higher level.

Some of the best players were missing from the match, and the Indians lost in the end.

Coach Moran dropped a game to Elon this season, and the game against Catawba is expected to be a close match.

The score is going to be close and as much as the Panthers will try to rip, to rend, to tear.

The Panthers have been working hard and are looking forward to the match.

Volunteers Do Work

While the football team

are preparing for the up coming game, the team are preparing for another game. The team will be facing their biggest challenge

so far this season.

As there will be no other game scheduled this weekend, the team will continue to work hard and prepare for the next game.

The love of friends so far away will always be remembered.

The girl who thinks no man is good enough for Guilford on the offensive,

and Laundry

won.

To quench the Panther lust.

The last time the Panthers met, it was a close game. The Quakers came out on top with a score of 25-0.

The Panthers will need to work hard and prepare for the next game. The Panthers have had a tough season so far, but they are not giving up.

The team is looking forward to the next game and will give their

all. The Panthers have earned the right to play in the next game, and they will make sure to give it their all.

The team is excited and looking forward to the next game. The Panthers have a tough schedule coming up, but they are not giving up. The team is looking forward to the next game and will give their all.

High Point Working: Is Making Progress

While it has predominated in the selection of the editor and his staff, the editor also plans several new and interesting features which will greatly add to the beauty and effect of the annual. For the first time right through the entire year and every day the yearbook will be taken Special photographs of the entire yearbook which will be photographed while they are engaged on colored lights. This will serve as a very effective and beautiful frontispiece. All additional advertising which will be frequent and uniformly dignified and effective, as all advertising persons will be taken in formal dress. The boys will wear suits, the girls, holiday gowns.

As one of the features of the yearbook is withheld for the present by request of the office, it is thought, however, that it would be wise to wait until it has been perfected before turning over a more impressive interpretation.

BOOKS AT A GLANCE

"The Red Badge of Courage" by Stephen Crane is a sequel to "All Quiet On The Western Front" and has recently been published. As is characteristic of all stories of "All Quiet On The Western Front," expect great moments in the coming year. It begins with the Armistice and describes the everyday activities of soldiers through the first year of peace. The war is over, and they return to a starved and bewildering Brat with the new generation. The old becomes road for them? The reader will follow a moving end. No better picture of the routine is not alluring. What is in store for them? The reader will follow the routine is not alluring. What is in store for them? The reader will follow the routine is not alluring. What is in store for them? The reader will follow a moving end. No better picture of the routine is not alluring. What is in store for them? The reader will follow the routine is not alluring.

The story moves her girlfriend, her marriage with Stetson Currie, a typical student of Western North Carolina, and describes the world of war that has followed. It describes the world of war that has followed. It describes the world of war that has followed. It describes the world of war that has followed.

Death Of Ray Perdue Is Shock To Body Student

Bos HAS Teaching and Coaching at Statesville High School Since His Graduation In 1938—While In College He Was A Star Athlete

A feeling of sadness came over the campus this week in the effect of the death of Ray Perdue. The former student of the Statesville High School, former student of the University of North Carolina, and former student of the University of Chicago, died suddenly and unexpectedly on Wednesday afternoon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Perdue of Statesville, and a member of the senior class of the Statesville High School. He was a very popular student, and his death has brought great sorrow to all who knew him.

The funeral service was held at the Statesville High School on Friday afternoon, with Rev. W. H. Taylor, D. D., officiating. The body was then taken to the Stateville High School, where it will remain until Monday, when it will be taken to the Statesville Cemetery for burial.

PROBLEMS: THEMES OF ORCHESTRA PROGRAM

Three Problems Confronting Student Directors

By Math Prof.

ARE INSPIRING LECTURES

McInnis, who is conducting the chapel programs for the students, has been studying the problems of the day. On Monday morning he delivered a lecture on "Problems." He said that the future of the world depends on how we solve these problems. He also spoke on the importance of education and the role of the church in teaching the world to solve these problems.

CHORUS OF BOYS' CLUBROOM

Pointe Dancers to Open Season Early in December

Expect To Take Trip

The College Choir made their first appearance of the year, when they sang at the First Methodist Church. The college choir will give a series of concerts throughout the year. On Friday night, November 10, they will give a concert at the First Methodist Church. The next performance will be on November 17, at the First Presbyterian Church. The choir will continue their concerts throughout the year.

The high point of the choir's year will be their trip to New York City. They will give a concert in Carnegie Hall on December 15, and will also give a concert in the Metropolitan Opera House on December 18.

The choir will also give concerts in various other cities throughout the year. They will give a concert in Chicago on January 5, and in St. Louis on January 12. They will also give concerts in other cities throughout the year.

The choir will be conducted by Mr. W. T. Taylor, the director of the choir. He has been associated with the choir for many years, and has been instrumental in bringing it to its present level.

Classmates welcome Ray Perdue to homecoming festivities.

The First Methodist Church of Statesville was the scene of a large and enthusiastic homecoming assembly on Saturday afternoon, when the classmates of Ray Perdue gathered to honor him. The assembly was attended by a large number of the classmates, and was accompanied by a band and a choir.

The program consisted of a number of songs and readings, and was concluded with the presentation of a gold watch and a silver spoon to Ray Perdue, as a token of the love and admiration of his classmates.

The assembly was a fitting tribute to the memory of Ray Perdue, and served to remind all present of the value of education and the importance of a good Christian education.

Anzelate Prevost Is Hostess At Dinner

Several of the faculty have been the guests of the seniors of the Practical Business Club, who spent their work week at their formal dinners and other guests have been invited to the company dinners. These dinners are given for the purpose of meeting the little girls in the details of business.

On November 9, Mary E. Young, of the Physical Education Department, was the guest of honor at the Thursday evening at seven o'clock, with a moderate Practical Business Club for two other dinners during the past week had been informed and held. At that formal dinner, which was given in the honor of the ladies of the, the ladies served in a nature.

Wednesday night, Miss Laura Thompson, as speaker of the college, and now a teacher of home economics, in Jamestown High School, and Mr. Bill Wood, as member of the committee and now a teacher of music and coach in Greensboro city schools, were the guest of Anzelate Prevost in her informal dinner. Monday evening of the same week, Miss Edna Davis, Mary Beth Ward, Allen Hardison, Virginia Vav, Carol Smith, June Cox, and others from outside were justified and held.

We Want You On Our Books

—because we believe we can give you better Printing—Better Prices—and Better Service than anyone else.

Few words—much said—read 'em again.

Then give us a chance to prove it next time you need anything in our line.

When we first commenced this business it was with the firm determination to do only reliable work —quick, pleasant —and treat our customers fairly—but best.

Well, we haven't broken yet. On the contrary, the steady increase in our business proves that our work, our prices and our service must be right in every way.

It's the 'come again' customer we want, and we never fail to hold him once we get him on our books.

Three mighty good reasons!

"MILDER"—smoke as many as you like! That's what every Chesterfield smoker knows .... and it's not hard to prove, either. Just try this blend of milder, riper tobacco.

"TASTE BETTER"—you'll like as many as you please. We're more smokers are learning every day. Never-sweetened, but just sweet enough for constant enjoyment. The mild, rich flavor of the Turkish and Domestic tobaccos.

"THEY SATISFY"—in every way! The tobaccos are as rich, as pure as everything about Chesterfield is the best that money can buy or that science knows about!

GOOD...they've got to be good!

TRIALS

At the meeting of the Thalass Literary Society on Wednesday night, the debaters conducted a war of words. They were not afraid to let their tongues go, and in the end, the great war was resolved.

Monday night saw the beginning of the arguments, and as the debate raged on, the issues became more and more complex. The evening was marked by the presence of many students, and the atmosphere was electric.

The debate continued on Tuesday, and the students were divided in their opinions. Some felt that the arguments were well-made, while others felt that they were unsound.

The final round took place on Wednesday, and the students were left to ponder the implications of the debates that had taken place.

Wednesday night, November 15, was the thousandth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended the war. It was a time of reflection, as we considered the lessons of the past and the challenges of the present.

The day was marked by the presence of many students, and the atmosphere was electric. The meetings were held in the main hall, and the students were divided into two teams.

The debates were intense, and the students were left to ponder the implications of the arguments that had taken place.

The meeting was successful, and the students were left with the knowledge that the past can teach us important lessons about the future.

FRESHNESS and flavor is a cigarette trace right back to natural moisture.

If you overheat or process tobacco so harshly as to dry out all natural moisture you drive out freshness and flavor too.

Came never parches or toasts the fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos it uses—they are naturally smooth, cool, mellow, with natural moisture retained.

The team of High Point college appears to be in as good a way toward its competitive championship as in any year, thanks to the excellent work of the school.

The victory over the Indian hills this week put the Indians in front in the next race for the title and over one of possible rivals, some games enabling the Indians to maintain their championship.

This season has been one of the best in the history of the Indians, and the championship, the Indians have the best team in the history of State College.

Next year's edition of the "Little Giant" team will make a team of the field. This team will make championships easier and competitive. The Indians do not expect the team to make moves from the team of this year any longer, with their highly trained players.

On the first week of the season, Robert Williams, Clayton Glasgow, and Hugh McRae decided to blanks the same in the last two years of "shouting" and the Indians, in Great Basin, in the Mounts; the Indians then, and moved on to Bo. In the towns of Bue, and the Indians in the hands of Indian, the students put their thanks in the hands of their friends.

Dr. J. Q. Straughn Speaks In Chapel

Dr. J. Q. Straughn, B. D., treasurer of General Conference and professor of the English Department, spoke to the student body during chapel period Monday morning, November 3. After reading a Biblical selection written by Dr. Paul, the speaker said, "Paul, in his letter to the Galatians, says, 'It is not difficult to have a cart, but to have a soul; and it is not difficult to have a body, but to have a spirit.'"

The average of the freshmen taking English classes is higher than all other classes, as they are more interested in English than in other classes. The students have many activities to claim part of their time. What they want, better work is being done by the freshmen in the English department than ever before.

The senior home economics majors are in good condition and are proving themselves. The people who order these perfect scores are Mary Sith, Mary Fones, and Adrienne McAllister.

The students encouraged the students who are racing to fight and work for an education. The hard work of going through college is putting out on your own, and they will never forget the sacrifices they have made as well as the better fitted for the tasks of life that he said.

In closing, the speaker urged the students to work hard, to keep up, and they will succeed.

"Keep your heart up and you'll do," she said.

The company, due to the fact that the students have made and must have, will put the order for the H. W. Peters Company of Greensboro. These girls will entertain the same the H. W. Peters Company of Greensboro.

Miss Young ordered rings and are waiting for them to be made at Cassidy, bureau of Greensboro.

I don't know a blessed thing about how cigarettes are made. But, of course, I would want the tobacco to be pure. And then I've heard that the blending is just right. I want Glad to be just right.

Then the paper. I don't like paper when it's burning. I want Glad to be pure.

Another thing. I want to smoke whenever I feel like it—without worrying about smoking too many. So I want my cigarettes MILD.

But the main thing, of course, is TASTE. I don't care for over-sweetened cigarettes. I much prefer those that are just sweet enough.

ACCIDENTIAN

At the meeting of the Accidentian literary society on Wednesday night, the devotional exercises were conducted by John Taylor, Elza Dentz, in a very short speech, showed Walter Long's contribution to the English language. Paul Voelckener paid this tribute to the original Republicans. Maurice Taylor, in a humorous manner, pointed out the financial depression to the depressions of Old Rome. Dwight Dixmore, in a speech, said that the world has left the days of "faster" and has began living in a new age. Dr. Days.

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That’s important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

CAMEL smokers needn’t worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them fresh.

And while on the subject—do you realize that Camels are the freshest you can smoke? I’ve had about everything hit my shirt is trying to get past this season and I want to save that to wear to the game.

The winning team this afternoon should have no great margin of victory. The Bears have a slight edge on paper, but the game today is not going to be played on paper—as let your conscience be your guide.

Basket ball season will bring in new faces, but new faces will be old faces for the Panther in his home lair.

Today marks the end of another year for the Panther in his home lair. Directly from fall until today the football teams will sag down the notice for the year.

Coach Bill, Coach Watkins and the entire Panther squad deserve a tip for the spirit shown throughout the season. There are things other than victory to be considered in estimating the success of a season and, although we were on the short end of the score more often than we would like it to be, the team showed enough light and spirit to justify marking the year in the “Buck.” Remember—there must be a loser.

Depression Brings
On New Question

An entirely new theme for newspaper paper discussion and review has come to the fore in connection with the shortage of skilled college students, and it has experienced a wide range of disguises that is coming to be amazing. The matter started when a query was addressed to boys and girls, inviting their views on the question whether students should pay half the cost of their own entertainments or whether the university should bear all the cost. Some college girls say that they think it is quite right and just for young women and their costs to be divided by at least two, and not to incur the extra expense on the boy.
By making the youth stand the whole cost, they think that they would be hurt and burdened whereas a 50-50 split would afford them many more opportunities for pleasant outings. A few girls are of the opinion that the students should pay all of the expenses of an outing and entertainment and that the young men who think differently are mere sentimentals.

Mrs. Noelle, did you not mention this query, in your recent address?

Answer: This question was not included in the address, but the main topic was the necessity of saving beauty to our highways.

Dear Mme. Noelle, you have expressed my view also.

Answer: You are right in your views also, but for the sake of everyone.

Dear Mme. Noelle, please come and join us in our next meeting.

Answer: I have not yet been invited to your meetings, but I would be honored to come.

Dear Mme. Noelle, please do not invite me to your meetings,
I want to know if I am wanted.

Answer: If you are not wanted,
I will not come.

The Purple Panthers of High Point College played their most essential game of the season on Saturday when they defeated the Mountain Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne College. The Panthers were led by their outstanding players on the defense, Hughes and Rhyne. After being outplayed in the first half, the Bears came back in the second half and pushed over a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game. However, the Panthers defended well and held onto the lead to win the game 12-6.

The Panthers will end the season with a high note against the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears. The Purple Panthers have not enjoyed a victory against the Bears in several years, and they are determined to win this game.

The Panthers' defense was key in the victory. Hughes and Rhyne played exceptionally well, and they were able to stop the Bears' offense. The Panthers' offense was also effective, with Bob Cory leading the way with his brilliant running.

The Panthers' prospects are looking good this year, and they are looking forward to playing well in the coming season. They are determined to prove that they are a strong team and can compete with any team in the Conference.

In summary, the Panthers' victory over the Bears was a significant achievement. The team played well in the first half and then came back in the second half to secure the win. The Panthers' defense was key in the victory, and they will be looking to build on this success in the coming season.

The Panthers Select An All Opponent Team

The Panthers have selected over two hundred players from the Conference. These players will be recognized for their outstanding performance.

The Panthers will play against some of the top teams in the Conference, including the Bearcats and the Panthers.

The Panthers are determined to compete with these teams and prove that they are a strong team. They will be looking to build on their success in the coming season and continue to improve.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS ARE LED BY MRS. MORRIS
The chapel program this week was under the direction of Mrs. Morris, head of the home economics depart- ment. On Monday morning, Reverend R. L. Fanner, pastor of the First Meth- odist Protestant church of this city, was the speaker. He said to his audience the value of education and the importance of the quality of education required in order to achieve true greatness.

On Wednesday morning the speak- er was Miss Clara Croft of this city. She discussed three main elements in the theme: "Thanksgiving," "Sacrifice," and "Grace." These three elements should come from the heart without any expectation of gain. The speaker said, "Our thanks go to the one who gave to the one who received from the one who received from the one who was willing to sacrifice for the one who would not accept it.

I arrived in High Point in the early morning to find that the sun was up, the birds had been awake for quite a while. I could see from across the campus, "Beaver's" on East Avenue, and "The Booster" on cloverdale street.

Two Thursday Cradle songs were sung in the chapel service. The first was "Alleluia," and the second was "The Lord's Prayer." Both were sung with great enthusiasm and were enjoyed by the students. The band rendered a song during the service, which was "Love's Sweetest Gifts," by Reverend R. L. Fanner, which was a wonderful rendition.

NUTTALIS ARE PERFORMED FOR FORMER STUDENT
For the second year this year the Nuttalls were performed for Miss Elizabeth Jones. Miss Jones was married to Mr. McPherson, of Greenville, South Carolina. The ceremony was very simple but impressive. It was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. W. C. Jones, on North Main street, at five o'clock.

On coming back to college

Came back to college! What does that mean to you? A college student means to mean it means merely attending school, and yet to get back her own money. Thus with the change, things are better than they used to be. As we have been away from the old school thirty years, we find that things are better than they used to be. All of these emotions came to me, only two weeks ago, and the news of the old school made me feel like I was going to cry. I was thinking that the old school was a place where I was comfortable. As I stood and looked around, I thought that the old school was a place where I was comfortable. As I stood and looked around, I thought that the old school was a place where I was comfortable.
PERDUE MEMORIAL

Ray Perkins, 2 former students of High Point college, were honored at a memorial meeting recently when a memorial fund was established in honor of Mr. Perkins who died in an automobile collision in October, 1919. The fund was started at $1,250 in the name of the deceased and is to be divided equally between two students, provided they are in the junior and senior years of the school and show the greatest promise of leadership. The fund is to be used to provide help to students in the junior and senior years of the college who are in need of such assistance.

Other students are urged to make contributions to the fund in memory of Mr. Perkins and in appreciation of the many good deeds he did for the college and the community. Contributions may be sent to the bank of the college in care of the treasurer.

Merricks and Metzicki," one of the dramatics clubs of the college, presented a play in the student union last night. The cast included several students from the local high school. The play is in rehearsal and will be presented at a later date.

THALASSA

The Thalassa Literary society met recently. Several of its officers were conducted by Wilfred White and about forty students attended the meeting. Many of the members of the organization were acquainted with the new officers and made the occasion a success.

The initiation of Adrien Thompson was completed the meeting.

ROSE EC

Elizabeth Rose, known at the Practice House this week, gave a recital on Sunday, November 28, which she invited Professor X. P. and F. M. and L. L. F. Rose of Johnson, S. C., to participate and the following night, which Mrs. Margaret Sloan and Coach Bob Bowers were invited to enjoy the formal dinner. This week the English House was the housekeeper and host, Jo Anne Smith, assistant, and Joyce Austin as hostess.

NATIONALISM

The uncommunicative problem was discussed by the Thalassa Literary society Thursday evening. The group was interested in the fact that the Tea party people should adopt a plan of compulsory nationalism. An article that appeared in the newspaper was read by all present and this was followed by a discussion as to the best method to take to make this movement an over- all thing. Some of the clubs were exposed to be in a poor shape and so it was decided to discuss the problem of a better plan of procedure. It was decided that all the problems should be decided by the faculty and then the students were to be informed. After this the meeting adjourned.

Madame Ogden is facing the camera and looking at the sky. One of the many to be the best of her class is the girl who is looking at the sky. Every other side which add up to a story is the most beautiful picture in college being called into service for the cause. The girl who is looking at the sky is the one on the side who gave away all the rest of the story. It is quite a true one.

Christmas gifts will be sold at one dollar. The group will take advantage of the oppor- tunity to sell the gifts which are unique and appropriate remembrances of the Christmas season. It looks favorably upon the many presents, and will be sold at a very low price. We are looking forward to the sale.

LUDWIG OUT WITH INJURY

In charge of all the new men. The position for the veterans in the fight are being held in order to give the new men a chance to prepare for a winning team are fair and just. In spite of any hardships, early in the season there is no reason expected for anyone to leave and quit for positions.

The basketball season started Friday, with Assistant Coach Watson being in charge of all the new men. The新生 was expected to start work early. The assistant coach will stay in contact with the former players. This practice is held in order to give the new men familiar with the fundamentals of the game.

Coach Beall will be free tomorrow afternoon, Tuesday, to assist the new men. The新生 are asked to be at the school at four o'clock, and practice will start in earnest with the help of the assistant coaches. This practice is held in order to give the new men instructions.

You must be successful in your studies to be successful in your life.

Ludwig, who graduated last year, will be playing in the High Point gym and will be heard from them later.

Grisham, a high scorer last season is expected as the Aviators have a ball team at the center position. Pusey came across after he had already pushed right up to the front in state circles, (raver.

The Panthers seem to have their stars in the right places even though the majority of the team is playing for a first time in the All-Conference. The position high with the sport department of the High Point Richfield High School, is a job that the head coach of that school hopes he will be successful in, the star in that game is which is not known.

The "red terror" was possessed of the devil. If that be true, it is certainly time for this injury in the football game against Catawba. One of the teams was the outstanding player for the team. He treated us as kindly and as comfortably as possible.

"De Colonel says, 'you can't stop me. I don't give a toot whether you stop me or not. I'm de Colonel.' I don't give a snap of what you are doing."

The real sensation of the game was soothing his lonely soul. For some mysterious reason I felt secure and comfortable, and was assisted in my work.
You needn't tell me — I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!

Have you noticed the new trend in cigarettes? — freshness is the popular thing.

That's because a fresh cigarette, as demonstrated by Camel, is something motorists have discovered as better than anything they ever tried before.

Camels are fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack because they're made fresh to start — sealed beneath layers of silver paper, away from the dry atmosphere of artificial heat. The Camel Humidor Pack delivers freshness and keeps you from feeling blue.

CAMELS are never parched or toasted. The tobaccos in Camel are never parched or toasted — the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees that. The tobacco in Camel is much more romantic to carry than a bundle of wet, sour, stale oddments, as the fellows have it.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camel is the fresh cigarette. It's the one to smoke when you want to enjoy the music of your own thoughts, when you are alone and in the company of a good book.

Camels are truly fresh. They're fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack for just one day, then change back — if you can.

Music Programs Given on Programs in Chapel

Music Instruments Present in Interacting Talks Along This Line

The chapel programs this week were in charge of Prof. E. B. Stinnett, head of the music department. Monday morning, November 30, Miss Mildred Luce spoke to the student body on classical music — the main types of music.

"College education means more than book learning," stated Miss Luce. "We should all have an appreciation of music. Even though we cannot all be musicians, we can appreciate music."

Americans is the most highly musical country in the world, having two grand symphony orchestras. An orchestra has from seventy-five to one hundred and twenty-five pieces in it. In many cases of a clergy the speaker showed the seating arrangement of the different sections of the orchestra. Miss Luce said it is necessary for the conductor to make all these instruments blend like one.

Miss Luce then described the different instruments and gave the listeners an opportunity to hear each played by using a Victrola. The first is the instrument, desired both in 1900 and 2000 C. D. The orchestra is made up. The bassoon gave the low tones; the French horn, the middle tones. The violins is the most perfect instrument in the orchestra; the base violin, the tuba.

"Chinese Music" was the subject of Miss Margaret Simon's talk on Wednesday, December 2.

"Historical music is a subject about which we know very little and it was arranged and out of habit of Miss Shaw. Music is a very pared part of Chinese Life. The symbols are found in the Orient and many European ones contain their characteristics.

The Oriental scale remained in use for a long time. The Chinese in instruments differ widely from those of America. Their drum plays an important part because the child is made to use it as much as possible. The orchestra, composed of eight to ten musicians, plays a necessary part in Chinese Theatricals. The violin is the chief instrument for it is also accompanying the singers.

Bands are used to a large extent for commercial purposes — advertising on the streets. At the climax part of the program, Miss Mildred Luce played several Chinese nursery rhymes on the violin and Miss Shaw sang some of the favorite songs.

TO WORK TWELVE WEEKS

Next week seven High point college students will enter the Commercial Engineering class—Bert Asbury, J. Nicholson Neville, B. H. James, Sam Mourane who, after studying the direction of Dr. Cummings and Prof. Frank Robbins, a member of the junior class, was elected to the position.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Plays To Be Given

This is the first year that the co-

45 plays have been given in the college year, all of them having been produced under the auspices of the Dramatic class. This year, however, more students are expected to be interested in the work and will probably see more of the productions than in previous years.

Mid-Year Examinations Happen

The committee is working with the Sunday School Institute of Rockingham County and there will be a visitation to the local schools in the near future.

CAMPUS CARS ARE READY

Changes Made In Hi-Po Business Department

Morriss Plans Post

At a meeting of the Hi-Po staff last Tuesday morning, Secretary Morgan, private secretary to Dr. Cummings, presented his formal resignation, which was accepted with regret. An original plan presented by Dr. Cummings was that the position of the secretary be made full time, effective immediately. This plan immediately after the resignation of the original secretary, was changed to that of part time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Voice of the People

To the Editor:

How correct Sergeant York's opinion was when he said, 'I got to go to war, and that we can't do nothing to prevent it, whether we like it or not'! Our whole world is in a state of suspension, as he said, and the future is uncertain. It's a race between the two sides, and we can only hope for the best.

Sincerely yours,

To the Editor:

This incident, I suppose, will be the talk of the town. It happened in the downtown area, where a group of people was gathering to see the new movie. Suddenly, a explosion occurred, and people were injured. The police were called, and the situation was quickly contained.

Sincerely yours,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

The news of the fire in the downtown area was shocking. It happened in the middle of the night, and the cause is still unknown. The damage has been extensive, and many businesses have been destroyed.

Sincerely yours,

The local basketball team will begin the season this year wearing new equipment. Shoes and jerseys already have been bought and new shoes will be purchased in the near future. In the past the most ambitious have been a purple color, but because people do not hold to the color, the new ones are navy blue trimmed in white. The new jerseys are purple trimmed in white and the letters are white with "Panthers" written across the front in purple letters.

Soccer Team Has A Successful Season

The soccer team ended a very successful season with its third place finish, with all of the boys healthy and fit at the beginning of the season. The team, which was a very successful team, was led by Hasting and Cory. These men all had experience and were determined to win.

GRIST

This week we pay tribute to the men who have fought for four years for the Purple and White. Robert Ludwing, Johnson, Donny, Phillips, Haust, and Michael are the men who will be missing next season. "The men are purple trimmed in white and the purple letters." They were purple trimmed in white and the colors were white with "Panthers" written across the front in purple letters.

"And what are you?" I purred to a freshman, who darted in front of me. "I am what I am," he quizzed, "because the quick-wittedness of philosophy has come to my mind," I added. "Now, my dear Madame Nozealle, why do you think the boys don't like to bring milk bottles to the dormitory?" It seems that the gentlemen would like to have the milk bottles at the same time. They need more than soaking your false teeth in water every night?—A Female.

Dear Madame Nozealle—when will the results of the boys' dorm revealed 78 bottles of milk bottles and $5.00 for shaded glasses. It seems that the gentlemen would jump to the girl's dorm at 9:30? The reason is that the boys don't like to bring milk bottles to the dormitory.

Answer: Astronomers have been reaching the fact that the high cost of glass is the secret to the swing to them for just one day — then be the subject of short story writing. The only thing that enters into life?—Curious Girl.

Answer: The high cost of glass seems to be trying to find the reason for many. The only conclusion that has been reached at this time is the fact that the men seem to the men in it is a question to see to see too many shades.

Dear Madame Nozealle—do you know why the boys don't like to bring milk bottles to the dormitory? I always pay their own bills. I assume that the problems would jump at the chance to visit the nursery—Hamy Girls.
