SCHOOL SPIRIT

For a while the students on the campus have been commenting among themselves as to how much real college spirit there is at High Point, and during the past week-end there was a little that we doubt have been absolutely nil; others have been discussing the activities of some of the public schools, orphanages, and colleges.

The morale of the team largely depends on the squad or their coach. Many games as we would like to see aren't coining to the front as it was. We have been lax and didn't do it in our endeavor to place what we would consider a reasonable amount of intelligence and valuable material on the program. Do we wish to be known as persons who are winning or losing? Do we wish to be known as persons who are winning or losing? If the student body put itself into its true place among educational institutions, it is not necessary to tell the students the values of debating. Whether you are a debater or a listener, you must think as an individual, for what it is of ancient origin. John Davis stated that the team had worked hard and Sunday on the campus as the guests of Leona Wood.

Very Busy Month—Gain

The A Cappella choir of High Point college under the direction of Prof. E. R. Stimson, has been giving a very busy program during the past month. The choir made four trips over the state during this time, giving programs in Winston-Salem, High Point, Raleigh, and Richmond. At each of the places they were well received and gave programs which resulted in the sale of many of the literature of the college. The Choir presented one program at each of these places.

A program was also given at Winston Market street church in Greensboro for the local Women's club and one for the Southern States Wednesday league. Both of these programs were well received from the audiences.

The organization also gave a program at the Methodist Protestant church in Winston-Salem, on Sunday afternoon, and on last Friday afternoon they presented a concert at Statesville. This week the organization has been rather busy and will be ready to continue its work by next week. However, no programs have been scheduled for this week.

On all of the trips which they have made this year, the choir has given programs which have been very favorably received by the people. The program was arranged by Mrs. Stimson with the exception of the concert made for the state conventon of the Anti-Saloon league. Both of these programs were given at the home under the direction of Prof. E. B. Stimson.

A bus has been bought by the choir for use on concert trips. This bus is a mobile home and may be used for anything that is needed. A program was also given at West Highpoint Regional—February 3.

A local manufacturer recently forwarded a generous gift of $1000.00 for the choir to use in the purchase of books, clothing, and music.

CURVES

Did you ever stop to think about the two kinds of curves? Well, there are two kinds of curves—the curves and the straight lines. We all know that curves are beautiful. We are taught from an early age that curves are the limiting curves of the universe. They are essential to the beauty and harmony of all that we see. On the other hand, straight lines are not as beautiful. They are dull and uninteresting. However, they are essential to the beauty and harmony of all that we see. They are the building blocks of the universe. Without straight lines, the universe would be a chaotic mess. So, remember, curves are beautiful, but straight lines are essential.

Grappers Leave Monday For Meets In Tennessee

"Greentrees and Granners" Have Two Meets Scheduled

TRIP TO TAKE FOUR DAYS
Will Meet Maryville College On Tuesday In Knoxville

TEAM HAS GOOD RECORD
On Monday morning the wrestling team set out for the trip considered by many the most important trip of the year for the mountains of Tennessee where they will meet Maryville College and Knoxville T. M. C. A. So far this year, the Grappers have taken only two meets closer home, but have looked forward to this trip.

On Monday the team will journey to Maryville, Coach Watkins' Alma Mater, and after a light work-out and a good night's sleep they will be all set for the big meet. Each of the grapplers eagerly go to his hotel in order to watch the Maryville-Tennessee A. M. meet Monday night will be spent at Maryville.

Wednesday the team will go over to Knoxville where they will meet Knoxville T. M. C. A. The matches are fixed as strong as they can be and the Grappers will give the Panthers an honest fight. Many of the athletes of Maryville will leave for home, and we expect to see a tremendous turnout for the remaining matches of the season.

REMAINING PRACTICE
Due to the large number of students who wish to do practice teaching this semester, it became necessary for this week to have some weeks of observation work and six for four periods respectively. This work was an important part of the training program for the second semester, and is a most important equalizer on the campus laboratory under the guidance of the principal.

The men taking the trip are Captain Ludwig, Furr, Johnson, Williams, Williams, White. Mrs. Smith will act as secretary and warden in the 16-man youth group.

I was afraid Grandfather would be shocked...

HIS rather a hoary old darling, and I didn't know how he'd like the idea of my smoking.

"The first time I lit a Chesterfield in front of him, he sniffed like an old war-horse, and I knew my secret was for trouble. But all he said was, "That's good tobacco, Chickabiddy.""

"You know Grandfather raised tobacco when he was a younger day, and I know what's what. I don't, of course—but I do know that Chesterfields are milky. I can always be able to smoke whatever you smoke, with no fear you'll smoke too many.

"And it doesn't take a tobacco expert to prove that Chesterfield isn't the same thing the world used to frug.[sic]... that's proof enough. Never too sweet. No matter when I smoke it, I never smoke... they always taste exactly right. They must be absolutely pure... even to the paper which doesn't contain any nicotine, but contains instead a certain amount of tar."

I wasn't surprised at his eagerness. I had long anticipated his approval. I knew the day would come when he would look me in the eye and say, "Son, I'm glad you're smoking Chesterfields."

But I had never expected him to say, "Good tobacco, Chickabiddy."

"You think," continued the Ford, "that because you're bigger and can carry more weight than I, that you have a harder time, why—"

GIVES INTERESTING TALK

Dr. C. H. Humphreys, president of the college, gave an interesting talk to the students during the morning service on February 22. The subject of his talk was "George Washington: Why He Was Chosen." In the prime number of two hundred years ago, Washington was elected to the presidency of the United States, the year of the birth of Lincoln, of the second amendment, and of the death of Charles Dickens.

Dr. Humphreys stated that Washington was chosen for the presidency because he was a self-educated man. He had no formal education and had taught school. When he went to law, he took the upper course of studies. When he was called to the Bar, he followed the classics.

Washington's handwriting was described by the speaker as "tall, single, slanted," and he was a self-educated man. He thought that Washington worked in the office of Vice President to "rifle," and the speaker noted that the President's signature was "tall, single, slanted."

Washington's influence on the country was described by the speaker as "wise," and he pointed out that the President's signature was "tall, single, slanted." The speaker concluded his talk by saying that the President's signature was "tall, single, slanted," and that the President's influence on the country was "wise." Overall, the speaker's talk was well-received by the students.

What has happened to the question? Has it been disposed of? The students in the last chapels spoke of the need to keep students interested. A Trip Through Girls' Dorm

Dear reader, you remember that last summer I went to the Summer Congress, and that I wrote about it? Well, I thought I would report to you again about my strange experiences at this place. But perhaps before I start, I should explain to you a few things about this place. It's called the "High Point College." It's a small college in North Carolina, not far from Greensboro. It's famous for its beautiful campus and its friendly atmosphere.

As I arrived at the campus, I was immediately struck by the beauty of the place. The trees were covered in green leaves, and the flowers were in full bloom. I was greeted by a friendly student who showed me around the campus. She took me to my dormitory, which was a beautiful building with ivy-covered walls. I was assigned a room on the second floor, which was decorated with pictures of famous artists and flowers. I was very happy with my room.

During my stay at the college, I had the opportunity to meet many interesting people. I became friends with a girl named Jane, who lived in the same dormitory as me. She was very kind and helpful, and always had a smile on her face. She was also very smart, and always seemed to know the right thing to say.

Despite the many challenges I faced during my stay at the college, I found myself enjoying my time there. I learned a lot about the world and myself, and I made many new friends. I will always remember my trip to the "High Point College."
Three Akrothinians To Receive Medals

Lee, Simonson and Davidson Won the Awards Offered By Former Members

TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Two medals and ten dollar gold pins will be presented to the winners of the Akrothinian Literary Society at the annual banquet held tonight in the college banquet hall. The awards will be presented at a program which is to begin at 8:30 in the college banquet hall.

These examinations may be taken by any student who wishes to participate in the debate. The students who make a good showing will be able to use the money raised by the debating societies to help finance their trips to the outer edge and back.

Garfield Jennings Sentenced By Court

The college campus has been invaded by the refractory shrubbery which was donated by the college administration. The Watauga garden club and the local horticultural society were the planters of the new additions.

In order to reduce the cost of the plantings, some students have volunteered to work on the grounds and others have had to pay for the services rendered.

In a continuation of the 1932 season, a non-decision argument will be argued between Madison and Morgan at Guilford. Madison is to use the money raised by the debating societies to help finance their trips to the outer edge and back. The student who makes a good showing will be able to use the money raised by the debating societies to help finance their trips to the outer edge and back.

Two Students To Assist In Physical Ed Classes

Since the college expenses are so high that the average student cannot afford to be in the classes, the college administration has decided to offer the classes free of charge to all students. The classes are open to all students who have passed the physical education examinations.

In a continuation of the 1932 season, a non-decision argument will be argued between Madison and Morgan at Guilford. GLEANINGS

I see by the paper—

A Lessner-Closter student recently secured a record which is the second award of first place in the play-writ- ing contest sponsored by the Univer- sity of North Carolina. Congratulations! We believe that this is a definite indication that "little people" still appreciate "little things." The topic is rather unique—long about all the way we do it these days—fath- em.

"Keeping Up With the World" by Feeding Foster, a column which appears weekly in the Colleges, states that at El Acadar in Cairo, Egypt, one of the largest educational institutions in the world, a student in one of the extra-curricular classes has been an examination which includes reading, writing, Chinese, Spanish, ancient Greek, Latin, geography, history, mathematics, art, music, and gymnasium classes. It is spread over the entire year and begins with the first day of school and ends with the last day of school. It seems to be a good idea and is in existence in other schools. It is rather a good idea and seems to be a good idea.

In Foster's section we also learn that the girls of school age enjoy playing in the fields on the courts of a railroad as well as the girls that play. The boys that play all the time until they graduate from the school. They get "friends" enough during the other three years and 20 days.

Free pictures are about to pass on the "free" to be sold in the shops and then elections are not far away. Little leagues, etc., etc., etc.

LUDWIG PLAYS LAST GAME
In Last Tilt

Pantkrs, High Point's brilliant pivot, took a short forward in Littleton last night, conference opening by adding a 54-37 crushing on the Guilford Panthers in their final tilt of the season.

Guilford jumped into an early lead and was never in danger of being headed except for a few minutes of the second half. At 15:54, Parkes and Haywood led the Mavamajors for the first 20 minutes of the game. The men were defeated by the Guilford Indians, the second for the season. The Indians were turning back the tilt.

The next assignment, against the Erskine College basketball team, will be defeated by Lenoir-Rhyne.

Miss Mabel Williams, Mrs. Williams carefully and tenderly muted the alarm. No one answers. Why not? Both boys and girls. In response to an invitation extended by Mr. Spooner, dean of men, that the girls want to inspect the quarters occupied by the boys of the institution on Tuesday, March 3. The inspection tour began immediately after the inspection. The rooms were occupied by the boys in their own quarters.

The young women were well pleased with the appearance of the rooms. Each boy had fulfilled his duty as a member of this dormitory. Flowers graced the walls and sparkled with cleanliness. The sound of it was still important. The air was one of a lovely concert, most artistic and thoroughly appreciated by the host of listeners.

Debaters Divide In First Triangular Meet of Year

When her Ph.D. degree at Columbia University, they both showed outstanding ability in being able to think quickly and to argue skillfully. Marshall's appearance as a member of the Columbia debating team was the second best and their refutation was excellent.

Miss Idol was under a physician's care when she attended the debate. Reverend Allen Frew, Reverend Broyles, and Mr. Harrison are planning to carry a number of the college students last week. The letters are intended to give the students a closer association with the college, under the direction of Prof. R. E. Thompson and Dr. H. E. Hulon. These talks will be given at the college in the college auditorium.

Miss Luce, first violin, Jewell Welch, and Frances Smith sang, "Au Matin," by Godard; "The Voice of Jesus Say," a vocal solo by "mental telepathy." We thought it into infinity.

Students are encouraged to engage in athletic activities as a means of improving their physical well-being. It is believed that participation in sports can help in overcoming negative physical effects, such as those produced by infantile paralysis, and is helpful in correcting abnormalities of the body. In fact, basketball is an excellent means of eliminating deformities and promoting the overall development of the body. It is noted that basketball is helpful in correcting abnormalities of the body, including the elimination of deformities.

The possibilities of the literary society are vast. Last Saturday morning a committee met and made a statement about the value of society work in our lives. They emphasized the importance of society work in our future. It is essential that we participate in society work to gain some benefit from it.

Peace Seminar: On the Peace Society held weekly meetings were held by Mrs. Alice White with a general discussion of the movement for disarmament. Various views were expressed on the subject of the movement, their views on the arms race and some other matters. The Peace Society was an essential part of the life of the college and is an important feature of any college.

Nikathan: On Thursday evening at 8:30 the Nikathan Literary Society held its regular meeting. The following interesting program was presented:

- "The subject of the meeting was: 'What Do I Mean To Be a Christian.'" - "The question was: 'What Does It Mean To Be a Christian.'" - "The discussion was: "A Jap Viewpoint of Life.""

The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. W. Howard, who conducted the devotionals. The annual address was given by Mrs. W. Howard, who is the current President of the Nikathan Literary Society.

All.

Which are the new fabrics for Easter? Which are the new colors? Better ask the milliners than I.

"Springtime, you're looking so fresh!" "Springtime, you're so gay!"

THIS WEEK, WE'LL HAVE THEM ALL!

And if you want new hats, too, the milliners will be happy to help you.

SOME PHASES OF COMPETITION ARE BAD

What a queer, peculiar topic for an essay! Well, it is nearly an essay now, or it may soon be, but try telling it when we have prepared the next year's edition. The sheets of stories are "do, do, do, do," the papers will be "do, do, do, do," but the stories will be "the big story." The "do, do, do," stories were drawn from our daily figures. The "do, do, do," stories were drawn from our reports.

The boys had the best class of games. The girls had the worst. All of them had to go as they were requested.

A Trip Through Girl's Dorm

Last week we made a visit to the famous dormitory of Irma Paschall. We found her sitting in her room, absorbed in a serious conversation with a friend. We managed to get an interview with her and she was kind enough to tell us about her experiences at the school.

She said that one of the things she loves most about the dormitory is the variety of personalities among the residents. She mentioned a particular incident where a student asked her what she preferred on a particular course and she replied, "I prefer a Ford." This prompted a discussion on the preferences of different students and the diversity of interests.

Irma also shared that she had heard from a friend that there was a rumor about a student who had changed her preferred color from blondes to brunettes. Despite the rumors, she assured us that it was all fine.

We then proceeded to ask Irma about her plans for the future. She mentioned that she was interested in pursuing a career in fashion design. She expressed her desire to work in a Taylor shop and was fascinated by the idea of being able to design and create clothing for others.

In the meantime, we heard a knock on the door. We assumed it was someone coming in to visit, but instead, it was a professor. He informed us that there would be a surprise test that day and he suggested that we all be prepared.

We left the dormitory with a sense of the richness of the experiences and opportunities available to students at this institution. We were impressed by the dedication and spirit of Irma Paschall, who exemplifies the diversity and dynamism of the student body.

Students Answer HYMN Questions

Dr. P. E. Lindsey, professor of religious education, gave to sixty-five of his pupils a questionnaire on some of the best-known hymns. The results of this test showed that the students knew very little about the hymns they sung so much.

The first section of this test dealt with the authors of hymns. The students gave their best guesses and the results were not too bad. The students were familiar with the names of some of the best-known composers of hymns, such as Mendelssohn, Händel, and others.

The second section of the test dealt with the names of the hymns. The results of this section were not as good as the previous one. The students knew very little about the hymns they were taught to sing.

In the third section, the questions were more difficult. The students gave their best guesses and the results were not very good. The students did not know much about the hymns they sang so much.

One student, however, did very well on the test. She knew the names of the hymns and the authors of the hymns. She also knew the names of the composers of the hymns.

The results of this test showed that the students need to learn more about the hymns they sing so much. They need to be more familiar with the authors of the hymns and the composers of the hymns.

The CHARGE of the WATER BRIGADE

I had been sitting in my room, studying history. Perhaps I was sleepy and perhaps not. The thought of battle did not excite me. I was more interested in the battle of the minds. I had been reading about the famous water charges that were made during World War II. A battle water charge in the town of Leave. Leave's water was supplied by a tank, which was protected by a wall and a fence. The tank was not large and the water was not good. The student who had the highest water charge had to pay for the water.

I was not sure if I was right in thinking that the water charges were a problem. I decided to ask a few of my friends if they knew anything about the water charges.

I returned to my room and was about to go to bed when I saw Irma Paschall. She was reading a book and seemed to be in a state of excitement.

I asked her if she knew anything about the water charges. She told me that she had heard that the tank was under attack from the enemy. She also told me that she was going to write a letter to the townspeople to tell them about the situation.

I was very impressed by Irma Paschall's determination. She was a true patriot and a true leader. I decided to write a letter to the townspeople as well.

ATHLETICS AND ATHLETES

There has been much comment recently concerning the fact that the athletes are here to entertain and that the athlete is here to give a good performance.

In this case at our school? There is much evidence pointing to the fallacy of such a statement. It is true that athletes are a large part of the program here, but it is necessary that we have athletes to attain the end that the entire student body may engage in some form of physical recreation. Unless individuals engage in these activities, there is no outlet for them to get in any work that helps him to build up the equipment and a place where he might work out under supervision.

There is also another matter of importance and that is that the athlete helps in the development of character, and it is not for any institution not to allow some outlet which would benefit its members as a whole.

Consider also the participants in athletics. Does the High Point rot in or have an athlete receive too much praise and glory? Contrasted with those other institutions he is so accustomed to. When the athlete has sacrificed rough touch and many bungles in order to win the coveted letter or memento journeys around through other institutions of the same civic and economic life. Many people believe that it is possible to be a good athlete and in fact disastrous to some. Many people have gone through during this time. They were hard and trying and in fact disastrous to some.

A.V. Davis talked on the subject, "Is it just what you'd expect. People

LUDWIG IS OUTSANDING

The 2:00 o'clock physical education team defeated the 11:40 class in the first game of the physical education tournament for the championship of the afternoon department by the score of 28-12. The game was called just before the final whistle because of a severe wound on the leg of Johnson, captain of the 11:40 class. The score was 12-0 when the game was stopped.

Bill Ludwig, former captain of the baseball team, and member of the 2:00 class, played a good game for the winning team. It was his first appearance of the season.

The game was rough throughout, and in the first half the 11:40 side led, 12-0. The score did not change during the second half, as Johnson left the game before the final whistle was blown.

The 2:00 class has had a fine fighting spirit with high sportsmanlike conduct throughout the season. Each member has worked up. Each year four men are selected by the council, but several of the good men will have to be replaced due to graduation.

A Trip Through Girl's Dorm

This will be the last section of the dormitory. I have observed that girls in this end of the dormitory have been extremely busy preparing for their arrival. They were eager as to the arrival of the new girls who are expected to arrive in the near future. The final room that we enter on the right side of the hall is the dormitory room of Margaret Weir and Ethel Faw. Margaret Weir and Ethel Faw are twins. They are affectionate and get along well with each other. They are both members of the music club and enjoy playing the piano. They are also very good at cooking and make delicious meals. The dormitory room is spacious and has a large window that provides plenty of natural light. The girls have decorated their room with pictures and posters that reflect their personalities. CO-OPERATION

What High Point college needs now is a strong co-operation of each student. It cannot be begun without it, and until it is begun it cannot be continued.

The value of the mental and moral training which is given in any college is imperishable. The teacher who goes into the college to try to make the students who are early or late in coming to the dining hall at five o'clock get in at five o'clock is not a good teacher. But the teacher who goes into the college and teaches the students how to get along with other people in the dining hall is a good teacher. He takes the whole case into consideration and does not limit his instructions to the time of the students.

FRIDAYS

The role of the college starts when your Dean has been able to bring a great amount of money to the college. They know this is the case and they think their meals in the dining hall. They do not know this is the case and they think their meals in the dining hall. They do not think they are entitled to the college. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should do. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should have. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should wear. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should talk about. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should sing. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should read. They think the college is entitled to tell them what they should do in their spare time.

PEACE SEMINAR

Are you willing to support peace or do you want war? That is one of the things that the college wants to know. You have not expressed your ideas if you have not. Why don't you write a letter to the Peace Federation and let it have your idea? We are all interested in it not having war, so let's be interested in peace. Let's be interested in it not having war.

Each week our students write several letters. It is not an extravagant statement to say that our students write over a thousand letters a week around every night. This would be a great amount of correspondence, but it is not an exaggeration to say that our students write better than 10,000 letters a week. They are better written and at the same time they are more interesting than other papers. They are better written than other papers. They are more interesting than other papers.

Let's get the Peace Federation and help it. We have all been interested in it not having war, so let's be interested in peace. Let's be interested in it not having war.

John Ward and Robert Williams Selected as Editor-in-Chief and Managing Editor to Succeed William Ludwig and Dwight Davidson

In the recent election for the position of college weekly editor, John Ward of Gilbertsville, Ky., and Robert Williams of Pinnacle, N. C., were elected. The board of trustees met recently to choose the new editors, and the three students were selected.

Mr. Ward and Mr. Williams have had experience with the weekly through their work as editors on the college weekly, The Gargoyle. The two students have been active in the literary and dramatic societies, and have been members of the Alpha Theta Psi sorority.

Mr. Ward, who is a junior, has been on the staff of the weekly for two years, and has held the position of managing editor. Mr. Williams, who is a senior, has been on the staff for three years, and has been the associate editor.

The new editors will take charge of the weekly on the first of January, and will work in cooperation with the present staff to continue the excellent work which has been done.

They have already planned a number of features for the coming year, including a series of articles on college life, a column of news and events, and a regular department on campus happenings.

The new editors express their appreciation to the previous editors and the staff for their cooperation and assistance, and look forward to a successful year ahead.

OUR ELECTIONS

Were the students right when they did not come to the meeting held in the college auditorium last Thursday to elect those persons who are responsible for the printing of their paper which is to come to them each week? Their attitude is not doing them credit. It was indicative of the spirit that has been shown all year in such matters. There comes up at the next opportune times (the constant hate) from those same students when the publication does not appear on scheduled time. What is to be done? Is the staff to be trained and asked to come to do the work? Are they interested in the students' needs? If the students are not interested then let them make sure and do their remarks at an earlier date than the present, so that when your effect, their effort, for the benefit of this thing and get instead the fellows who have been newly elected and it is evident that the same can be constructive. Give them a good sound off and let them reflect enough confidence that they are able to do a "satisfactory" representation of the student body.

Errors Mar An Exciting Contest Played For the Championship of the 11th Annual Tourney

The college tennis tournament was won by Taylor last Saturday morning when the boys from High Point defeated the Kittens of Greensboro. This is the second time in the history of the tournament that High Point has won the crown for the boy's tennis tournament.

The Kittens were the favorites to win the crown this year. They have won the boys tourney in each of the last three years. But the Kittens' hopes of winning this year were dashed when they were defeated by Taylor, 3-2. The Kittens had a chance to win the title after the first two frames were played. But Taylor came back to win the last three frames and take the crown.

The Kittens' loss was a disappointment to their fans, but they can take comfort in the knowledge that they have won the boys tourney in each of the last three years. They can also take comfort in the knowledge that they have won the girls tourney in each of the last three years. The Kittens are the only team in the country to win the boys and girls tourneys in each of the last three years.

INTRODUCED THIS YEAR

There has been much discussion this year as to what the tennis teams will be offered for their efforts on the part of the school. Of course, the tennis teams are anxious to be classified as a major sport. But in the last half of this school year the tennis teams have been offered a new sport, baseball.

This sport is introduced here this year and it is with unanimous consent and with the field, for the last three years in as many times at the plate. Williams also boosted his average by getting two hits. Craver pitched a fine game allowing the opposition only seven hits while his team-mates were collecting six hits. This was the best game of the season. Their progress was very rapid as they will know the extent of their development and will be a very hard team to beat.

Salutations

It is with a full realization of the responsibility of the outgoing staff, to the school, to the student body and to the alumni that this staff begins with this issue. The retiring staff is to be consoled for their sacrifices this year. Their task has been a heavy one, but it is one that will bear a worthy place in their time and for all that come after. The retiring staff has worked untiringly and in perfect harmony with the administration, and the new staff can see no necessity for a division between us.

The HI-PO is a student publication, and it will, of course, be under the impression that we are writing to gear up for our final battle for student recognition in order that YOU may enjoy your paper. Contributions from any source will be appreciated and enthusiastically used. We shall, however, reserve the right to publish only contributions that come within some semblance of journalistic style. The new staff is enthusiastic and encouraged in OPEN FORUM opinion.

This spring the Olympic games will be held in Los Angeles. Athletic directors of both states are in the capital to compete for the title.

Track is the most popular of all the major sports, football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, and football is the most popular track for their power and success. Track is a game of speed, the baseball slider, the hopping distance, all annihilated and nothing but speed and endurance. Track is the game of all the other games and its beauty is in the speed of the runner before starting what a foot or a lane can do.

We could be just as proud of our track team as our football team and have just as a fine reason to do so. Our team has been, and still is, in the forefront of the sports. In years to come, you will drive about the college and see the old athletes who have already become big with the Hi-Point College, track team.

Looking Back—Fond Memories

As we look back over the year now, we see that it has been an outstanding year for both the students and the faculty. It has been a year of growth, development, and improvement. We, the new staff, enter office with the desire to edit all contributions and shape them into some semblance of journalism.

The Girls Tennis Tournament Will Be Officially Opened Monday

LARGE NUMBER ENTERS

The Girls' tennis tournament will get underway Monday. This has been a long awaited event, and the players were on edge for the best match that was sure to be fought before the champion is finally announced. It is hoped that they will have time to rest and digest the match that was as good as the singles, for there are few girls who should be able to play a little better than they had to:

The matches have been under careful experimentation and are in a very good condition for this tournament. This is an entirely new undertaking, and the girls think that it will be a great success. Many of these girls have been playing for some time, and they are all conditions of resistance. The officials for the tournament have been selected as yet but will be selected at an early date.

The members of the choir will be on hand, and no admission will be charged. Come see some of the fine work that has been accomplished in the last months. The programs should be good, and in the little as well as on the campus. There are fifteen meetings scheduled, and the spring season is off to a very good start.

Deceiving Beauty

My friend, who was a homely, ordinary, unassuming man, did a lot of things for the town. He would go around to the home of the dead and smell the sweet without blossoms. The apple orchards could not see and appreciate the beauty of his home.

Turning to look at my mountain friend, I could never turn away from my garden flowers. I kept growing them. I watered them. I would faithfully water them. I could not see them with anything but admiration.

The CHARGE of the WATER BRIDLE

A stream wandering lazily, slid away looking community that I ever saw. As we neared the top I was prepared to see the country. We walked over the top. Around us was a small mountain range that simply ended in a sheer precipice. Being in so remote a region, we were not troubled by the seeing of any wild animals.

PROJECT AND PROJECTS

The new gymnasium project is about to be fulfilled. As we write this, the building is scheduled for completion in the near future. The planning for the gymnasium project took place during the summer of 1932. The work was supervised by Mr. N. M. Harrison, under the direction of the Board of Trustees.

LOYALTY AND SCHOOL SPIRIT

The student body of High Point college gave a splendid display of loyalty and school spirit. The class of 1932 has made a dream come true. They have been able to use the newly-constructed addition to the gymnasium. The class of 1932 donated the fountain (which Harrison proposed) and the class of 1930 donated the sun dials, and gazing globes which will add to the appearance of the campus. The fountain, which will be the center of interest among the students, will be a beautiful addition to the campus.

Seniors Take Deciding Clash From Sophs, Score 3-2

SENIORS COP TITLE

The Last Game Of The Tournament

Warlick Strikes In Last Frame
Closing One Over Fence

JAMES AND LUDWIG HURLEY

Said two runs are their last half of the seventh. Victory for a home run was given by "Worm" Warlick with a shot on base, the senior hit the narrowest baseball and scored the first run in the final game with the sophomores, Tuesday afternoon, by score of 5 to 3.

The sophomores scored first in the first inning by the hitting of a single by Taylor and a long drive left field to the plate. It was just a flip too late to catch the fast-throwing baseman. Ludwig, however, lighted, cut up and got the single runs. Cutting until the third when, with one down, Williams, shortstop, and Brough, an infield out and a single by Crissman.

The situation was becoming desperate as the senior's lead was set. roster against James, sophomore pitcher, who was walking down, was three, two, three. The order had failed to get a hit, or run off except when James, in this frame, hit two home runs and hit to center field for a home run. Bethea then had the first hit to hit to left center field for a single.

Warlick, who is walking on pretty well every day, was the star of the first two innings setting the sophomores in the last inning with the help of the senior's defense. He is nothing for the seniors. John, until this inning, had not only played only one hit to left field, had his first fielding play out of the first hit on the field, had an outside.

Mr. Morris stated that all men in this project should see if the rules of the game are to be changed.

Final Matches Of Girl's Tourney To Be Held Sat.

The girls' tennis tournament is in its last round. The matches will be played Saturday. The tournament has never been so much interested in the games as it is in this season. This is the first tournament of its kind in the college. The same tournaments were practiced for the tournament for several years.

The first round many interesting matches were played. They are all forced to their best. The matches were all in the first round, and some of the freshman women were able to take the deciding set. All of the others were won and some of the others were lost in the second and third rounds.

Witnesses in the early games played the championship match from the freshman women. They were all forced to their best. When the others were all forced to their best in the championship match, they were all forced to their best.

A few of the girls have stated that they were tired of the earlier rounds and they were not satisfied with the way they had been scored in the championship match, as they would probably not realize the importance of their matches, or that they are not as good as with Helen Williams, but they do think that they would have been forced to their best.

For a doubles tourney but this was not a doubles tourney but this was not the best of the many great matches that have been played.

While I am not a connoisseur of this sport, the scrabbles of the game is the most interesting. The winning of this game gave the seniors the championship to the seniors for the trip was enjoyed. James, until this game, is the best of the many great matches that have been played.

Seniors To Go To Finals

The trip was made by motor. The senior's efforts were all in vain, but they did think that they would have travelled the freshmen by a much larger margin.

This made the seniors eligible to participate in the championship which was played Wednesday, Saturday afternoon, on the Duke.}

RETURN OF ALUMNI

The return of the alumni to the campus is always a pleasure to the graduates of High Point college. As the alumni represent the traditions, the past achievements of our college, it is a matter that the new institution has been shown by the response of the new officers and their appreciation of the trust that has been let to them. That High Point college has a splendid future, is the opinion of N. M. Harrison, the contractor, who received the contract and decided to contribute money toward building the gym as their project.

Herald says that although there is no building of the church support the church is shown by the response was not sufficient to provide scholarships which we, the students, must sit down in our college courses. When the alumni return with the alumni, they go as opportunity of entering a career. We have the chance of working with the leaders of the world. We can find out from the alumni that they are making in the business world, the teaching profession, or the ministry. They can help us to decide what we are or professionals we should become.

But the return of graduates to the campus also means that they are to be a part of the college. That was the way a vision of a group of friends, N. M. Harrison, remarked on the beauty of a body of five hundred students, and development of our college. Their visit also means that our liberal arts education system means that they have faith in the future of our students, now strive to make the campus Alto means that they are to enjoy their splendid future, and fellowships that we have already enjoyed.

That the campus is always a pleasure to the students, friendship! and fellowships that we have already enjoyed. That's the way a vision of a group of friends, N. M. Harrison, remarked on the beauty of a body of five hundred students.

Did you ever wonder just how our college newspaper is printed? Did you ever want to know the difference between the press that goes before it and the one that comes after? This process is carried on in the spacious presses. The type-setter is skillful and knows the best ways, and suggests the following:

1. Feverish foreheads: To purify the system—Calotabs.
2. Rheumatism: Fill a quart fruit jar with earthworms. Let them stay in the fruit jar for a week.
3. Bad blood: Rusty iron tea. Pour the tea into a glass and drink the liquid.
4. Cramp: Amputate.
5. Rheumatism: Fill a quart fruit jar with earthworms and put it on the patient's limb (if it is stomach cramp take two table spoons of soda in one cup of water and put it on the patient's stomach).
6. To relieve a cough: Uncover a turtle and while it is soft, cut it open and pour the oil into it. Then take the oil and rub it on the parting day.
7. To prevent vomiting: Three table spoons of soda in one cup of water and rub it on the parting day.
8. Sun stroke: Place the patient under the door steps. (Camel hairs around the wart and bury the hair in the ground.)
9. To prevent scabies: One small bag of unbreakable on a string and wear it around your neck. It will prevent scabies. (Some local druggists may have at Fleas/Instruction's beauty in the Sallons delny.)

Last Days
