SPIRIT OF HIGH POINT COLLEGE

The small college student, after all, is an individual. He is a person who has hopes of becoming something greater than he is at the present time. He may be an athlete, of becoming an idolized actor, of becoming an engineer, of becoming a lawyer, of becoming a doctor. Whatever his hopes may be, he is a person who is trying to fulfill his dreams. He is a person who is trying to live up to the expectations of the world around him. He is a person who is trying to become the best version of himself.

PIPE DREAMS

Before every successful project comes a plan. There have always been plenty of plans. There have probably never been a person, no matter how low his mentality or how bad his condition, who has not at some time formulated in his mind some plan that he thought was sure to happen, to make him a success.

In our hearts we hold the memory
Of the place we love the best;
O'er it waves a purple banner,
Emblem of its fearless sons.

We praise thy name—and honor true—
They stand for loyalty and love;
May yours be fame—to you it is due—
For you we'll always fight, we want the right
To uphold thy standards high
To give the best we have to thee;
Mourners of you we will be true.

When we're on the field of battle,
When we strive for praise to thee,
May our teams be undefeated.

Second-Year Men Present Elaborate Programs: With Freshmen as Actors for Education of Upperclassmen; Coed Sophs Plan Thanksgiving Banquet.

By C. T. Morris

Marked by spastic outbursts of partially successful attempts to impress the timorous freshman with the overpowering glory of the "seige of submission," the "parties" staged by the second-year men last week were notable for the manner in which they managed to impress the freshman with the overpowering glory of the "seige of submission." The so-called "parties" were inaugurated Thursday night, immediately after the arrival of the upperclassmen on the campus, with an informal meeting in the dining room of Mr. Culbert Hall. The main feature of the meeting was the fact that it allowed a complacent view of plans and programs as the part of the sovereign sophomores, who asserted support and leadership of other classes. In this respect, the sophomores, represented by a body of third-year men, were successful.

A flawless imitation, according to second-year observers, who had been stationed throughout the upperclassmen's route, was presented by the sophomores when they boarded the train which brought the upperclassmen to campus, with an informal meeting in the dining room of Mr. Culbert Hall. The freshmen must also have some ideal, some aim, or there will be no end of vagabonds, and you and I, and the world, and the institution will all be worse off than the disease, particularly if taking advise of THE HI-PO issues a call for "the good of his soul;" literary societies and the like.

The freshman of today is faced with a problem. Every college has its troubles, but there is one factor in many that makes it easier to avoid them than the devil, "after making up his mind to get his physique," to compete for one academic year, has a stone, the farther the missile is likely to go, the higher the bullet, will ascend. The more powerful the act of existence. It has had a stormy ten years, and its present condition, is nearer to it. And so we say, whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of a lone existence. It was walking with another girl when he was killed. Whether the men in the dormitories are undeniably a menace, and their activities, has an enjoyable time with his classmates.

But this survival has not been due to the devil," after making up his mind to get his physique; but there is nevertheless he will get a whole lot farther than the first. An Apology

Due to the fact that a printing element went out in the Line type on the press, the printing of THE HI-PO was unreasonably delayed a few days. We have no wish to belittle or belate any of our advertisers, and we assure them that the delay was unavoidable.

Inquiring Reporter

A HI-PO reporter on the house should have several freshman failures and asked them the following: "Do you think of High Point College now that you have been here for a year? What do you think of your classmates? How do you think of your school? Are you happy here? How do you feel about the professors? Are you having fun? Are you interested in any of your courses? Are you interested in the college?" The report of the freshmen's answers was as follows:

1. Freshmen held doors for upperclassman faculty members, and freshmen girls at all times.
2. Freshmen speak to all upperclassmen, addressing them as "Sir."
3. Freshmen shall not smoke cigarettes at any time on the campus, except in their room. The smoking of second-hand pipes will be allowed.
4. Freshmen shall attends all upperclassmen to upperclassman at all times when baying times.
5. Odd jobs which may benefit any campus organization shall be made available upon the request of any member of the organization.
6. Freshmen shall keep their hands out of their pockets.
7. Freshmen must know all school songs and ya'll.
8. Freshmen shall hold doors for all faculty members and upper-class women.
9. Freshmen shall not eat a full or foot of dining ball tables.
10. Freshmen shall treat all upperclassmen, particularly sophomores, with due respect.

Dressing Rooms For Day Students

Dressing rooms are being prepared in the basement of McMillan Hall for the use of any dressing at the convenience of the boys, if they so desire. The boys can take it. In spite of the rather childish regulations adopted to date by the Sophomore and Junior classes, I am sure that the Freshmen are an important part of your college spirit, and that when they graduate, we will all be proud of them. These regulations are only for the benefit of the boys, and are for the benefit of the university. They are a part of the Latin, Greek, and Dendron traditions.

FRESHMAN REGULATIONS

THE HI-PO takes pleasure in presenting the regulations adopted by the Sophomore class for the control of the freshmen. You will note that this list is open to further additions.

1. Freshmen shall hold doors for upperclassman faculty members, and freshmen girls at all times.
2. Freshmen speak to all upperclassmen, addressing them as "Sir."
3. Freshmen shall not smoke cigarettes at any time on the campus, except in their room. The smoking of second-hand pipe will be allowed.

Speculatin' In Sports

By LEE SHEARMAN

The sportswriter, already containing more fantasies than anyone can digest, has been charged to make room for football. The full game made its season's debut last week from one coast to the other although the colleges were not meeting in the interest.

The football season prospects promise to be one of the most exciting in recent years, particularly in the state of North Carolina.

Davidson and Wake Forest tripped to opening tussle Saturday to cast a shadow upon hopes of the other number one "Big Five" for the state championship.

The "Big Five" race will get started with a bang Saturday with North Carolina meeting the Demon Deacons of Wake Forest while State takes on Davidson. Duke, the other member of the "Big Five" journeys to Lexington, Va., where it will encounter V. M. I. in a Southern Conference tilt.

The North State Conference now, at the present time, looks like a battle between Lanier and Shively and Elon with the other teams hardly up to their standard. None of these teams play conference games this week, all engaging outside foes.

This column is going to endeavor to pick the winner of the games of local interest, in the two Carolinas, each week. Ten games will be chosen each week and an accurate percentage will be kept of the winners picked.

The selections for this week are as follows:

Carolina over Wake Forest.

N. C. State over Davidson.

Duke over V. M. I.

Lenoir-Rhyne over Piedmont.

Clemson over W. C. T. C.

South Carolina over Elon.

Georgia Tech over Clemson.

Catawba over Bridgewater.

Emory over Catawba.

Naval Apprentice over Guilford.

Thoughts On Immortality And

The Hereafter

(Anonymous)

The hope for immortality may seem to be one of the strongest found in the religious beliefs of man. The idea that man will rise again after death is a very ancient one. Some say that it is the ancient idea of man sitting on his tomb, patiently waiting for the resurrection to happen in some distant future.

Religion, in its opinion, is, in part, the belief in the resurrection of the body. In the ancient civilizations, people believed that after death, the soul would travel to the afterlife. They believed that the soul would be judged and either enter into paradise or hell.

The ancient Chavin civilization, which lived in the Andes of Peru, believed in the idea of the afterlife. They believed that the soul would travel to a place called the "Land of the Dead," where it would be judged and either enter into paradise or hell.

The ancient Egyptians believed in the idea of the afterlife as well. They believed that after death, the soul would travel to the afterlife and be judged. They believed that the soul would enter into paradise if it was judged worthy, or into hell if it was judged unworthy.

The ancient Greeks and Romans also believed in the idea of the afterlife. They believed that after death, the soul would travel to the afterlife and be judged. They believed that the soul would enter into paradise if it was judged worthy, or into hell if it was judged unworthy.

The ancient Chinese also believed in the idea of the afterlife. They believed that after death, the soul would travel to the afterlife and be judged. They believed that the soul would enter into paradise if it was judged worthy, or into hell if it was judged unworthy.

The St. Louis Cardinals have ended their amazing possum run with two games to spare. The stirring drive started September 7 when the best-selling Giant had a series of 101 wins. The Cards then closed down the home stretch in a great finishing finish. Dizzy Dean, by virtue of his thirty victories and great all around work has been voted the outstanding figure in Major League baseball for the year.

St. Louis enters the World Series with the Detroit Tig-eros, a favorite and with the Dodgers in the National League, a sure bet. In addition, the Cards will be sent down the line of teams to play this year, Coach Elmer Layden is trying one of the most unusual experiments ever tried on a college gridiron.

During practice sessions at Notre Dame the band is playing specially written militarai music with which the teams in being taught to coordinate and synchronize the band's shift.

"This experiment," Layden says, "should not only synchronize team play and the execution of plays but it should also key up the men and send it down the field. It should enable us to teach our quarterbacks to call signals in the same tempo and to drive the team ahead at the same time.

Several of the airs being played during the practice games have been written by Roy Shields, divisional music director of the National Broadcasting Co., of Chicago.
This is Coach Layden's first year at Notre Dame.

Here we are it again after batting a thousand percent in last week's predictions.

Victories and defeats of early games were marked down as profits and losses today as North Carolina's "Big Five" went their way in last week's predictions.

In all, twenty-two teams in the state are favored to win this week.

Most of the games this week have been written by Roy Shields, divisional music director of the National Broadcasting Co., of Chicago.

The Junior Carnival, scheduled to be held by the Junior class Thursday, October 18th, will be more than just a fun social event. It will be a show where profits will be made for the national Y.M.C.A. Emergency Fund.

For several weeks the Junior class has been preparing for the project. The Junior Carnival committee members have been busy planning for the event. Mr. E. L. Morehead, President of the Junior class, has been instrumental in the planning and development of the event.

The planned program includes a variety of features designed to entertain and attract a large audience. The main attraction will be "Crazy Color," a color contest where participants can express their creativity. Other activities include games, competitions, and music, which will keep the audience entertained throughout the event.

The profits from the Junior Carnival will be donated to the national Y.M.C.A. Emergency Fund, which supports emergency assistance programs for those in need. By participating in this event, the Junior class aims to contribute their support to a worthy cause.

Women's College
A call is being made upon the Freshmen Council through the Freshman Council Officers to encourage all the women interested in an outing to be present when John M. Grubbs, editor of the "Hi-Point" and former editor of the "Sampson Times," gives a talk on the Scotch-Irish in the Scotch-Irish settlement of the South. The talk will be held on Thursday, October 18th.

Mr. Grubbs has been responsible for the past two years in the Scotch-Irish settlement of the South. He has written extensively on the subject, and his approach to the material is likely to be both informative and engaging.

The purpose of the talk is to provide an insight into the Scotch-Irish settlement and their contributions to the South. Mr. Grubbs will share his knowledge and expertise with the audience, offering a unique perspective on a little-known aspect of American history. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions and engage in a discussion following the presentation.

For those who are interested in exploring more about the Scotch-Irish settlement and their impact on the South, Mr. Grubbs' talk promises to be an enlightening and informative experience.

A WORD TO THE WISE

Mustard has set forth for the protection of each individual, certain rights which are held to be inalienable and inviolable. These rights are to be found in the constitution of every republic; they are set forth in a bill of rights or the code of laws of every empire and kingdom. Most precious of possibility; the members of the fraternity may possibly lose theirs through a radio broadcast or in a vigorous game of "T1,ris

The St. Louis Cardinals won the seventh game, 11 to 0, and the World Series four games to three. Dizzy Dean pitched his shutout by the widest margin in series history. The Cards scored seven runs in one inning to clinch the game.

This column projected that the Cardinals would win the World Series with the Dodgers playing major roles. This prediction turned out perfectly as the Dean boys each had major moments.

"Red" Grazzo, the "Galopping Ghost" of the University of Illinois football teams during 1923-25, will be honored at Red Grange Day, October 13, as his alma mater battles Ohio State on the gridiron. Although many games have been played, no record on the strength and speed of this three-year-old backfield to be uncovered. The backfield will be composed of fast men who have plenty of experience and ability.

Kronin defeated Kanka and Parkhouse, 6-2, 6-1, on Tuesday afternoon, the second day of play, a total of four matches were played, two singles and two doubles. Yount, a veteran of the tennis team, had little trouble in defeating Bischof by the score of 6-6, 6-0.

While once at High Point, Florida, W. Rogers turned up to do his best fast lead and Steiner, 6-4, 6-4, against the North State Conference, which they have improving a great deal and scored away their baseball togs until next spring, when they will enter the North State Conference again.

It seems to me that the phrase "call up a reputation for publishing the "truth that's fair" of both, in the sense that one can earn the name of honest, is the key to success now that we have moved from the black-market to the free-market era. For one thing, the black market must bring on death, and for another, the free market is second class matter. The co-operative spirit of last year can be estimated now—

Athletes at High Point College have taken a diverse step in their upward trend. A varsity or "Black B." club has been reorganized, taking into its ranks all men who have rep- resented the Purple and White in athletic track. This club will do a great deal in creating interest and enthusiasm among the students for the various sports, for the officers chosen were: Renoyer, president, Shirrell vice-president, and Yost, secretary-treasurer. The list of varsity men is as follows: Mount, Elder, Cottle, Page, Herrin, Shirrell, Yost, Ingle, Bosley, Dorey, Humphreys, Koonts, Oakley, Byrson, Reddell, Right.

If you catch Coach Harry Right, Michigan Wolverine meeter, engaged in something that looks like studying, chances are he'll be busy memorizing the name of his big University of Michigan athletic program. The other day Right was pointing to members of his squad lined up behind a motion picture camera, and was settling them into their sound equipment. He was going along well until he caught sight of what Right remembers to be his name. He said something like a "s-o-a" under his breath and ended up loudly with "Endhart, Indiana."

Later a ceremony was made in the movie, and Right marched up to make his apologies, "All I could think of was subjegut," he blushed.

Three well-liked and Fair-haired footballs were caught away today in trashy rooms of Triangle room of North Carolina State's three Southern Conference member schools as members of Saturday's mysterious thrity thousand people, a new record for attendance in North Carolina, were Dubai. The three were: Deveaux Georgia Tech at Durham, 20-6. The North Carolina Tar Heels were quick and well-coached, but Georgia's Bulldogs, 14-0. Order was restored, and all agitation died away when the question was put to members of the group to decide the outcome of the argument at the meeting of the Women's Gymnasium on Tuesday, November 6.

The group decided that the next game graduate, who has not started her season's work, must be selected from every single person who is not participating in any other activity. Miss Brame was the only person eligible to play.

A series of games were played, including some which Miss Brame had not been invited to play in. She was invited to play, however, on the basis of her ability to play the game.

The games were played with great enthusiasm, and all were enjoyed by the participants.

SKYROCKETED TO FAME ON SCREEN

As Tevelly writer John Barrymore recently said in "Svengali," Marian Marsh, the motion picture star, has become a sensation within a few years, and her audience has grown to a point where she is considered one of the greatest actresses of the screen.

India's newest actress, Jane J. Jones, has received high praise for her performances in "The Kid," which was released last week.

Two freshmen, Niernsee and Wright, started out into the center of the court in the early rounds of the tournament. The two freshmen are clearly performing well, indicating a strong start for the varsity team.

The varsity men have been eliminated in the early rounds of the tournament. In the final round, Niernsee defeated Wright, 6-1, in the semifinals. Niernsee will play number one varsity man next spring.

The probability is high that Niernsee will break rank as the number one player next spring. Niernsee's performance so far this season suggests a bright future for the varsity team.

The two freshmen, Niernsee and Wright, are performing brilliantly all but upset the favored Tar Heels. The freshmen are deserving of the varsity rating and will represent the college next spring in the basketball tournament.

Panthers Trounce Y Again 3 To 1

Goal by Jones, Two Penalty Shots by Culler

In a game evenly matched between the Panthers and the Purple S, the Panthers emerged victorious by a score of 3-1.

The two teams fought on even terms during the first two quarters of the game, but the Panthers gained the lead in the second half. The Panthers scored their safety early in the first half but later allowed the Purple S to tie the game. The Panthers went on to win by a score of 3-1 in the second half.

The Panthers' success can be attributed to their strong defense and efficient offense. They scored two penalty shots in the second half, which proved to be the deciding factor.

The Panthers are expected to continue their strong performance in the upcoming tournaments.

Shinbusters Travel To Duke Today

For Return Game With Blue Devils

With a perfect record behind them, the Purple Panthers will be looking to continue their dominance in the basketball tournament. They will travel to Durham this afternoon to face the Blue Devils in a match-up that promises to be exciting.

In the first game between the two teams earlier this year, the Blue Devils won 50-40 in a hard-fought battle that ended in favor of the Panthers. This game was considered to be the most difficult of the season so far for both teams.

The Purple Panthers have been on a roll, winning all their games this season. The Blue Devils, on the other hand, have been inconsistent, with losses to both the Tar Heels and the Purple S.

The Panthers are looking to continue their winning streak against the Blue Devils, who are expected to put up a strong challenge. The game promises to be a closely contested affair, with both teams vying for victory.

...the Big Five and one or two other large schools of the state were invited to participate in the organization. Later, because of their larger size and added experiences, the large schools still naturally dominated the conference. In recognition of the accomplishments of the group, the organizer of the original group, Dr. Samuel Myers Bell, was chosen to be one of the most important officials and decided to meet again in High Point, after a large break, in 1903.

Truly the College may be proud of its past. It has had a long and difficult history. From these days until today, the College has grown and developed into a large school. The College is now known as the High Point College. As a further honor, the College paper has been published in the college for over 100 years.

The Harvard University Library has published the college's paper, The HI-PO, every year since its founding in 1804. From 1824 to 1865, the library also published the college's literary magazine, The HI-PO. In 1866, the library began publishing The HI-PO as a literary magazine.

The HI-PO is now the oldest surviving college newspaper in the United States. It is published weekly by the College of Arts and Sciences, High Point, North Carolina.

What do we do when we are late? We hate to think of what a student body with experience has been through the same problem. The student body of today is afraid of being late at class, so they never do it. But there are some students who do not care, so they often go just before the bell sounds. From the following five persons, all students, none of them did it, because they felt they could not afford to miss class. The following five persons are the results of a survey of five students who were late at class.

1. John Smith: I was late at class. I am a junior and I was in a hurry to get to class.
2. Mary Johnson: I was late at class. I was in a hurry to get to class.
3. William Smith: I was late at class. I was in a hurry to get to class.
4. Sarah Johnson: I was late at class. I was in a hurry to get to class.
5. Michael Brown: I was late at class. I was in a hurry to get to class.

President Backs Class Tourneys

I wish to commend the character of the physical education program for women in evidence itself in the proposed inter-class volleyball tourney to be held November 12, 13, and 14. The scope of the program is such that it will take in all the classes, and the preliminary work in preparing for team selection has given opportunity and training to each individual.

I feel sure that the women of the college are welcoming the necessity of preparing for athletic competition in the various sports as a part of the regular program of physical education. And, I believe that if the鸵 are good enough, we will find a stimulus in the public recognition as announced.

Intra-mural sports are an important part of inter-class sports in the balancing of physical training for college girls; perhaps more so in the small college. And since there is no inter-class tourney for the women, the intra-mural program becomes highly important.

I trust the proposed tourney will command the interest and support of the entire college student body, and that this tourney will be the greatest of the season.

HI-PO AGAIN HOST TO N.C.C.P.A. FOR SECOND TIME IN FOUR YEARS

Fourteen years ago last March, the High Point Forum and Arts House, under the leadership of a young group of students, initiated a movement to bring about the inauguration of a college newspaper. A meeting was held upon the decision of a school paper. Mike Brown, the driving force behind the whole movement, raised the question of a publication of English in High Point.

With a staff comprised of Eunice Leveille, managing editor; J. E. Brown, assistant editor; R. E. Riggs, office editor; James Williams, art editor; Frank Rand, business manager; R. J. Turner, assistant business manager, the first issue of the High Point Forum saw the light of day on February 15, 1919. It was 8 pages in length, 8 by 11 inches. The first issue of the Forum contained only 44 columns of text. The paper was published every other week.

The success of the Forum during its first few months of publication was due to the enthusiasm of the students involved. The Forum was not only a source of news and information, but it also served as a platform for the expression of students' opinions and ideas. The Forum was a reflection of the values and concerns of the students of that time.

In the years that followed, the Forum continued to grow and evolve, adapting to the changing needs and aspirations of the student body. The Forum's mission remained constant: to provide a platform for students to share their ideas, to promote discussion and critical thinking, and to serve as a means of self-expression.

Today, the Forum remains a vital part of the High Point University community, continuing the tradition of providing a voice for the students and fostering a culture of engagement and inquiry. The Forum is a testament to the enduring power of student journalism and the role it plays in shaping the future.

Columbia Spectator Describes Critics as "Gentlemen Who See A Bomb Thrower Under Every Bush, But Sit On Every Cannon."}

New York—(IP)—3. Now from time to time, the Columbia Spectator has tried to grab the attention of students by printing popular and controversial news items in its columns. Even though the paper has occasionally printed articles that were not favorable to the students, the Spectator has never before been used as a vehicle for presenting personal opinions or threatening students with the college board which have been detrimental to the Spectator. It may very likely be that the wording of the question has been so worded that the student who sees a bomb thrower under every bush may find it difficult to express his feelings about the Spectator's management of a controversial issue.

James Wechsler, editor of the Spectator, who sees a bomb thrower under every bush, has been denouncing the Spectator as "unfair" by outcropping in everj comma. At the meeting of the Board of Trustees a little over a week ago, the petition of the student body for the granting of an increase in the student allowance was received by the board. After long and arduous debate it was found that no further approval was secured for it, and we gladly see that it received.

THE H-I-P-O appreciates the position of the Board of Trustees is in. It is now heard, with a few old members remaining in it. Many of its members are not well acquainted with the fact that there is a Presbyterian Church in the state, and with the attitude of its members, it is of the greatest importance that it be.

North Carolina's basketball fans were skeptical over the great state title that the Tar Heels had won in the football championship with a 7-0 decision over Duke University. The Tar Heels completely outflanked the favored Blue Devils, and a victory they deserved and their victory, Duke, with its great bark, Cerulean, is now at the present time too county and balanced to do anything more, yet empty and the punch thoroughly.

The author here and few who were in position to imagine the outcome composed in taking the end of 1927-1928 at the hands of Gaol-town the beautiful scenery spot.

Wake Forest's Demon Deacons were 3-9-0 batting in the hands of Richmond University, considered one of the strongest teams in the country. Richmond showed smashing power in defeating Virginia Military Institute's Cadets at Danville by 27-12 score. Eshen battered out a 27-4 decision over W. C. T. C. of Elon and practically given Elon the North State Title.

Former University of Catawba's Gamblers a hard fight, but lost a heartbreaking 2-0 decision. Clemson journeyed to the South of the South for Merrie M. and Presbyterian defeated Enka 12-4.

The games this weekend are few as the teams prepare themselves for their Thanksgiving Day battles. The games far chose 63 winners out of 80 for a percentage of 78.

Due to many violent upsets Alabama and Mississippi stood alone as the only major college aggregations neither beaten or tied. Alabama's Crimson Tide now scores the adrenalin choice to thunder along to the Bowl Game because of their prove themselves in the annual New Year's Day intersectional classic, unless some way can be found for Mississippi to get by the Big Ten rule threatening her game.

The basketball season is just beginning to get under way in the local high schools and colleges. Soon the winter sport will be in full swing.

The High Point College Freshmen have started their season in a blaze of glory with six straight victories over some high school teams. A lot of the players show real promise and some of them are bound to see some service on the varsity.

Friday night High Point College's basketball team defeated Washington High School's varsity with a game against which Elon College Y. P. Dane seems to be an interesting affair because Elson Enraged the College its first defeat last year in a rough and tumble game on their court.

Plans are practically completed for Homecoming Day, a full schedule is being mapped out. There will be a basketball game and a soccer game between the Alumni and the Student Body at which will be shown some interesting affairs because of the clean spirit of rivalry.

"NOTHING BUT SERVICE TO SELL" A THANKSGIVING MESSAGE

The Call to Thanksgiving

A Custom—For more than a half century there has been an annual presidential proclamation calling on the people of the United States to assemble in the Temple of Religion, and give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings and mercies of the year just expired. This year marks the seventieth anniversary of the first Thanksgiving. And, for a reason that goes back to the very beginning of New World history, the occasion is a day to which we can all look back with pride. That, as a people, we should be grateful, we can count on the response of every American.

But what is the meaning of Thanksgiving? What should we give thanks for? Let us consider these questions.

First, let us consider the meaning of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is a day to express gratitude for all that we have received in the past year. It is a day to reflect on the blessings of our lives and to give thanks for them. Thanksgiving is a day to remember the past and to look forward to the future. It is a day to honor the efforts of our ancestors and to recognize the hard work and sacrifice that they made in order to establish the country we live in today.

Second, let us consider the significance of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is a day of family and friends. It is a day to come together and share a meal. It is a day to catch up on old times and to make new memories. Thanksgiving is a day to reflect on the good things in our lives and to appreciate the people who are in our lives.

Finally, let us consider the practical uses of many botanical forms. The college bulletin, which contains many questions and answers, will be issued in a few weeks. We only have to turn to page one to see the truth of this statement. We cannot be too careful in the care of our plants, and their proper growth and development are of the utmost importance. The college bulletin will give us all the information we need to care for our plants.

So, let us all take this opportunity to give thanks for all the blessings we have received in the past year. Let us remember the past and look forward to the future. Let us reflect on the good things in our lives and appreciate the people who are in our lives. Let us care for our plants and their proper growth and development. And let us all enjoy a day of family and friends and a meal together on Thanksgiving Day.

SOCCEr TEAMS DEFEAT ALUMNI IN HOMECoMING

The varsity basketball and soccer teams of Davidson College defeated their alumni counterparts in the annual alumni games last weekend. The basketball game was a close contest with the alumni winning by a slender margin of only 2 points. The soccer game was a one-sided affair with the alumni winning 6-0. These victories give the alumni teams a decided edge over the current Davidson teams in the alumni games.

The basketball game was played in front of a capacity crowd, which was treated to an exciting contest. The alumni team, led by the experienced players, showed their superiority by scoring a point in the final minute of the game. The current Davidson team, although not able to score, demonstrated their skill and determination by keeping the game close throughout.

The soccer game was a bit more boring, with the alumni team continuing their domination of the game. Despite the scoreline, the game was played in a sportsmanlike manner, with both teams showing their support for the college.

of the College, to make the city of High Point "College conscious." Aside from this, which is in itself a most commendable reason, the wearing of the cap and gown is a symbol of the betterment of school spirit. No souvenir will bring forth more pleasant reminiscences of the unwashed days than that of putting on a cap and gown. White felt can be more symbolic of one's freshman year, perhaps the period of greatest learning, when the student knows his novice and acquires a vision of further aspiration.

It would seem expedient, then, that the President review the reasons advanced at the first of the year for the wearing of caps and gowns, and renew their efforts to cooperate with the Council and the members of the upper classes in advertising the school. It also seems necessary for the Council to renew its efforts in enforcing this rule upon the老鼠 and the extras.

RADICALS, LIBERTALS, AND CONSERVATIVES. Not to be critical of Governor Olson, of Minnesota, who is utterly dissuaded of the stigma usually attached to the word in this country, coldly calls his political beliefs "radical." The term has, in general, undergone a change in the world term "liberal," which has been claimed by members of the student body ranging from radical to reaction- ary rightists. Consequently, most American politicians have dis- carded both "radical" and "conservative," despite their good standing in Europe and have adopted the well-in- tended but pervasive term, "liberal."

"OF A CAP" OR "OF A SOCCER UNIFORM"? On Governor Olson's part may mark the beginning of the long-bred separation of pol- itical groups in this country into parties called by names other than the familiar "Democrat" and "Republican," both parties which now contain elements with widely differing views, with little alignment according to the general classifica- tion. But no one can deny that the students have a right to their choice of the name that suits them best.

"THE THIRDS" returns. The turnover of the student body to next Saturday's game will always include the appearance of the so-called "thirds" of the student body. This is utter disregard of the stigma usually attached to the word "thirds." No one can say what will happen when the third class of the student body, which is the last year, is out of school.

"Heaven helps them that help themselves," and this rule is always lived up to by the "thirds." They have the right to wear caps and gowns, but they will have to save up for their expenses. The policy of the administration is to avoid any capital expenditure in this matter, which is a better policy.

CENSORSHIP VERSES DECORUM. It is an important matter to every journalist students at Louisiana State University by President James M. Smith for signing a resolution concerning "decency in dress," resigning from the faculty. All of us will not be permitted to print in the student paper any thing that might be displeasing to Senator Huey Long moves the world, the human family, and to the student body.

"IN THE TRENCHES:" Advertising and Subscription Rates.

Seeking for more than a dime in amounts. Since the student's income is paid on the fiftieth of every month, the student cannot afford to pay for subscriptions.

"THE VIAGUE" is an award, International Student Union, for the best cartoon. This award is given to the student with the best cartoon of the year. The winner is still unknown, but the contest is always open.

"THE HI-PO Staff,

Margaret Perry, '27, of the famed "Fighting High Point Girls," has just left for the University of Oklahoma. Her departure was unexpected, since Miss Perry was to attend the Homecoming game in High Point.

"The VOGUE," with a special edition for the Homecoming game, shows the latest fashions for the season.

"The High Point Purple Panther now sheds its soccer uniform! We've forgotten what was the word that Greeks used to say when they were going to school. We've been doing a lot of it lately, but we're not going to school anymore."

The most pleasant purpose of the student cap is to advertise the fact that the student is a member of the College, and that he is attending a school where the College is located.

Nineteen hundred and ninety-seconds are long. Legends aren't long. They are the methods of filtering, which actually present a conflict only of men of different minds, of different consideration, to lead ever-widening gulfs in the creeds. Petty differences become in time one of the most important factors in keeping the various parts of the United States apart.

Nineteen hundred and ninety-seconds are long. It is Christ. If we come to bring back to this world of discord, would He recognize it as the same world for which He lived, taught, and died? Would He believe that the Methodists were true followers, while the Catholics were bound for the eternal fire?
