ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Football Game To Highlight Lone Holiday

The administration of this institution has issued one day of ob-serverance of Thanksgiving Day this year, as it has been announced.
The day set aside for the ob-serverance is Thanksgiving day its-self, at which time no classroom activities will be held whatsoever.
With the amendment of classes there will be a major activity on the campus that day to the interest of the students.
The Purple Panthers, as we shall call them, have racked up four straight wins, and after Saturday's night fracas with Wofford, there is bright postivity. The day set aside for the ob-

HOMECOMING SHINES

- The Homecoming took its old style in college here this year in a giant celebration that turned out to be a great success on Friday. The parade up town was great and the football game over Guilford's quarters as usual was marred by a few hecklers in other district. Along with all the excitement and enjoyment furnished by the big game here and the biggest game of the season around to see the congregations carrying the High Point banner pro-\r\n- form and cheer in unison. The day was a thankful, especially that day. The High Point College basketball team was lucky handed to Guilford, knocking them from the pinnacle of un-\r\n- beaten teams.

FOOTBALL NEARS END

- The football season is almost over, and the boys will soon be pack-\r\n- ing away their gears for next year. Now it won't be long until the gym doors will open up and basketball prospects start dressing equipment to wages their campaign. But before all of this happens, let's turn to the football season and review it quickly. Coach Ralph James, not in the habit of incurring disappointments on the football field, came out with a very successful record in spite of those two losses, which marred his undefeated season. Football here has been run off \r\n- in good form. The Panthers have tripped six opponents, tied one, \r\n- and lost two. The Panthers started off with a decisive, 19-0, win over \r\n- the N. D. M., having active \r\n- membership in practically every school in the nation. They turned down the following: Day Students 1 \r\n- and Day Students 2 2 \r\n- I. T. K 0 \r\n- N. D. M 59 \r\n- Screaming Eagles 0 19 \r\n- 19-6, lost to Catawba, 19-7, fell to Appalachian, 10-7, licked Newberry, \r\n- 19-6, lost to Catawba, 19-7, fell to Appalachian, 10-7, licked Newberry, \r\n- and Newberry, 61-0; Screaming Eagles, 19-0; and \r\n- 19-6; that is getting in a game. Thanksgiving Wishbone

It's almost time for turkey and cranberry sauce, and just the other day a few tiny puffs of wind swept through the air to remind you that the holiday season is close. And since you are likely to be entertaining in the coming weeks, you will want to keep a few suggestions in mind to help make the occasion a success.

Youth Rally Set At Gospel Tabernacle

A noon Youth Rally will be conducted at the Gospel Tabernacle on Willowbrook Street, in High Point, Friday night, beginning at 1:45 p.m. The rally, under the sponsorship of the Youth For Christ Movement, which is nationally recognized for its work, will present an array of noted speakers. Most noted among the speakers for the rally will be Mr. C. Troop, the famous composer who was employed by Ridley in 1914, who will be presenting songs of his work and some tricks of concerti. There is a special invitation extended to the students of this campus to attend.

THE UNIVERSITY OF N. C. JAYVEES THANKSGIVING DAY HERE AT ALBION MILLIS STADIUM.

The basketball season is just around the corner, and from the spirit and enthusiasm, the hardwood sport is trying its best to push football out of the picture already.

The basketball prospects have been working out continuously for two weeks, and from all indications, they are going to hold tight to that position that they won last year, the North State championship.

Under the direction of Coach Seymour Franklin, the hardworking members have engaged Hands History of Winston-Salem in two practice sessions thus far, and from the reports gathered, the scores of the two games were pretty even. Due to the secrecy of the games, the scores were not for publication.

Guides by several stars who won recognition here before the war, and some of last year's veterans, the squad is well rounded out. There are such players as George Davis, Lash Lee, Frank Borey, Bill Sheets, Jack Preston, Jack Snyder, Ralph Marshall, "Red" Ted, Bill Sheets, Arthur Shook, an all-conference man of 1944, bidding for a berth on the starting quintet plus several others as notable.

The season opens at home games scheduled thus far, tentatively.
