James Gray, a few days ago established an endowment for the benefit of Methodist institutions, gave to High Point College a $50,000 endowment, it has been announced.

In making the announcement of the endowment, it was said that "He gifts that giveth much..." and that he made the gift because of his desire to give something to High Point College.

Miss V. M. Gray, the chairman of the executive committee of the J. B. Reynolds Tobacco Company, and the major in the fund in the form of a gift from Mr. Gray, has been named chairman of the executive committee, which will be known as the Wachovia Bank in Winston-Salem, which will administer the fund.

The following schools have already been urged to lay down: Wachovia bank in Winston-Salem, Davidson College, Duke university (divinity school), Salem College, Wake Forest, and the school of education.

The first play to be given in the library is "The Purple Kitton," which is scheduled for January 25.

Come out and see it, because there is a fortunate visit to our campus this winter.

This may seem a little drastic, but by helping one friend, you will have the privilege of hearing the story—it is a different thing, remarkable, but by helping one friend, you will have the privilege of hearing the story.

Hi-Po Hypochondriacs and Honesty

There must be several among the students judging by the number of meals overlooked in the halls and classrooms at the mere mention of semester examinations. Why all the sweating and grunting of teeth? We and the teachers have known since September that the examinations eventually will end with an examination and we have been preparing ourselves for just such an event. So, let us try to keep the tension toward that end. There is no reason to expect that we are going to have to give up our examinations which have not been discussed in class. With this fact in mind, why should we be working ourselves feverishly? We are not the only ones who are certain required subjects which do not appeal to us and on the contrary, it is just as hard to have someone do your outside work as it is to have someone do your classwork. If we are content to coast along, hoping to be able to re-

Hockey With Poor Attendance

In had its attractions, some may like them better than football. Few girls even bothered to report for first day drills and as drills con- tinued those few did not show up to practice. Those who were there were girls and given credit for their efforts on the part. It looks doubtful now if Miss Chapman will even permit credits for the extra hours for the game hockey with us, as our own way, destroyed. We were given ample time so that practices were against the intercollegiate rules and according to the lateral intercollegiate extended but still we did not support those few who were obviously working on their time and energy and really showed three of our own main sports.

Hockey Varsity

These girls making the varsity team are as follows: Margaret Phillips, Del Love, Connie Nunn, Lib Sifford, Ovidia Lineberger, Ellie Prince and Lavada was also played by the "Blacks" and "Colds". All-Conference Competition Beams For Panthers After Examinations

"Get up and bar the door"—may it be better to doors, North State competitors, for those growing and changing Panthers are on the town.

Starting after the semester's exami- nation are over, the Panther will open up its campaign of defense of the North State Crown.

The schedule includes thirteen more games for this year, all of those North State teams with the exception of the first game, which is scheduled against McCrary here January 29.

From then on, the Panthers and the North State colleges will have it out.

Thus far, the Panthers stand perfectly in the North State stand- ings, with one victory against two defeats. That triumph came last Saturday night over Catawba, 51- 40, in a two hour period.

Here's what's new for this column! Well, from where we started that's exactly the way it is. After looking over the week I found that it had everything I had no idea what to do with and I decided to try and get the feeling of the holiday.

Most of us just looked at me and then told me what to think. It doesn't sound humorous, but it's true. We're looking forward to finding out what the holiday is all about. And we're looking forward to finding out what's on the holiday.

With the advent of each "revised" edition, the public is the one who must go on reading the notes of the last edition. The public is the one who must try to keep up with the news.

Block 'H' Plans Re-Organization

The Block 'H' club of High Point college, an active organization on the campus before the war, is now in the preliminary stages of re-organization.

At a meeting held Monday, the latter winners assembled a committee to draw up a temporary constitution for the organization, and to hasten as a permanent constitution if it passes both the monogram winners and the athletic council.

Those elected to serve on the committee are: Thurman Horrey, Frank Evans, Harry Williams, Russell Lombardy, and Horace Billings.

This committee will begin work immediately, drawing up a charter under the supervision of Assistant Coach Bill Falthick. When they have completed it, the monogram winners and the athletic council must approve it before it can be constituted.

Either one of the two will have the right to vote it.

Before the war, the Block 'H' was an active society on the campus. During the war years, it dwindled down to just a few members, although it continued to exist. But this year, there are approximately 60 'H' winners in the school.

The EHO Fraternity

Members of the Eastern Delta Phi fraternity and their friends were entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. G. W. H. Horrey, on Saturday night.

It was held in recognition of Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Horrey, who was elevated to the EHO fraternity as honorary member.

Games were played and refreshments with heart shaped cakes with letters 'EHO', on them, were served.

trying for berths on the 1947-48 golf team will be made soon, according to Coach Donald Dudock. It has been necessary to make a schedule for screenings thus far, but with the season opening so soon, rapidly, a team will be ready to be selected in about two weeks. It was rumored that diminutive Donald Dudock himself had an idea of the make-up of the squad late this afternoon. The captain of the south and brother to Bobby, would possibly be on hand to compete for team play, but thus far, no official word has been received indicating his enrollment in school. Erdman Anthony, another campus newcomer is expected to become a strong contender for a position on the varsity.

On Feminine Sports

The varsity basketball team as selected by Miss Chapman, Fred Byrd, I. C. L. and Mary Ann Henderson, is composed of Betty Leach, Mary Ann Henderson, Lorraine White, Ouida Linberger, Bill Williams, Nan Bricker, Pat Isenhour, Sue Pool, Kathy Foster, Fran Gamwell and Dot Love. If you take time to read any of the names again you will find only juniors from the championship team are on them. The sophomore class is best represented with their class taking the place of university. It sends another basketball season which could readily be called successful.

The big event is now in progress. I have seen the plans for this year's May Day pageant but nothing that will be given in April by the university. Those girls who will make the trip to Chapel Hill new as follows: Wlliams, Gay Hayes, Anna Mae Tucker, Mary Ann Henderson, Lorraine White, Lib Biffle, Bobbe Severt, Jane Wood, Pat Isenhour, Ouida Linberger, Fran Gamwell, and Edna Green.

At the last meeting of the W. A. A. it was decided to hold the annual party in the student center. The party will be held April 18.

Intra-Squad Grid Game Set Today

This afternoon, the Purple Panthers will face the Orange Panthers. The program of basketball drill session which has had much luck thus far is now up for a good game. All difficulties, the program has proceeded smoothly, and in two weeks should be in fair physical condition. There were about 40 boys out for the coaches, but since the evening, the flu epidemic has kept about 12 from practices. Now, that most of the boys have returned, bright hopes are held for a tough contest are raised somewhat.

Next week, the squad will be divided and will run regular games.

All students are invited to the tests.

Dr. Polgar Interests Capacity Crowd With Hypnotic and Telepathical Show

Dr. Fred Polgar's program here on mental telepathy is similar to the most interesting performance thus far this year. The recognition of the program is submitted both by the faculty and students. If you do not believe in mental telepathy and if you had been present at the millerium March 6, today you would have a different opinion!

Dr. Polgar, of the University of Chicago, one of the nation's outstanding psychologists and mental telepathics, would have changed your belief with his program, "The Miracles of the Mind," which he carried out with extra-ordinary proficiency.

The Polgar, making a deep impression by his remarkable control of hypnotic and mental telepathy started a rousing applause of the audience with three series of exhibitions.

The first included a mathematical problem involving a quadrangular figure, 16 dividers, in which selected groups of the audience were placed. A volunteer was asked in any one of the Polgar selected numbers, while his back was turned on the board. In conclusion, the answer totaled the same top number, written in ink, but with wonderful accuracy.

The second and limelight of the show was with the invention of the "hand of the obsc," which paid for his trick. Among those present was a student of the University of Chicago, but since the evening, the flu epidemic had kept about 12 from practices. Now, that most of the boys have returned, bright hopes are held for a tough contest are raised somewhat.

AN ALL-GIRL STAFF ELECTED HEAD ZENITH

Hayes, Phelps To Head Zenith For Next Year

All-Girl Staff First In Recent Years Here

An all-girl staff has been elected to head the editorial and business sections of the 1947 Zenith in a recent junior class meeting.

Miss Betty Haynes, of High Point, who will serve as editor-in-chief, and Miss Lorraine Chapman, of Walnut Creek, associate editor, will fill the editorial positions.

Miss Margaret Philips, of Clemmons, will serve as business manager, and Miss Anne Alman, of High Point, assistant business manager.

Forensic Club Plans Party At Casa Blanca

After the Forensic council's successful trip to Hickory to participate in the Southeastern and Southwestern debating tournament, little work has been carried on. This is because the members are busy preparing for the casa Blanca for the council's annual spring party.

The president, Sue Clark, also states that the new officers in the coming year will be elected in the first week in May.

Vocational Guidance Department

Names Mrs. Gorman As Counselor

Mrs. Alice Gorman has been appointed vocational counselor here according to an announcement made by President Freeman. Miss Gorman will be devoted to the students records as are maintained and processing of the college. She is a graduate of Columbia University.

The guidance service is designed to give systemic aid to students in making adjustments to various types of problems which must meet: vocational, emotional, health, moral, social, civic, and personal.

Since problems are very real and pressing at the college, Mrs. Gorman will endeavor to help the students to study the various vocations; select an occupation based upon knowledge of the individual and capacities; secure a desirable position and to make good on the job. At present approximately 20 per cent of the college students have part time jobs in High Point, many of whom are married veterans. The vocational guidance service provides a clearing house for available jobs in the community. Interviews, with prospective employers, and credits of the applicants.

PUBLICITY DEPT. TO ATTEND ST. LOUIS MEET

Dr. N. M. Harrison, vice president of the college, and Homer Billings, student publicist, will attend the National Association Convention for Colleges in St. Louis, May 14-17, it has been announced.

The convention is one of the most important of the year and publication associations and publications from every part of the country.

Billings, present editor of the II-P, has been asked by the student publicist with the college's publicity department this year.

During the past month, the old constitution, which was found to be insufficient and inadequate to cover the necessary problems confronting the present student government, has been decided.

One of the most turbulent student government election campaigns in several years on the campus of High Point College appears likely within the next few days, according to the nominating procedure which has caused quite a bit of discussion, and the presentation of the revised edition of the constitution. Student Government elections are expected to materialize before elections in the fall.

The date for election has not been decided.

In upperclassman's chapel, the revised edition will be presented to the students for comments and questions. A copy of the constitution was forwarded to the Student Government, D. F. Freeman.

Similar steps were taken in freshman's chapel and will again be presented to the upperclassmen through the freshmen council.

About two months ago, an open forum for discussion of the constitution, which was completed, was conducted by the Student Government, giving rise to the nominating procedure. In that form, the constitution was found to be inadequate to cover the present student government problems.

IT'S YOUR VOTE

The newspaper generally takes the neutral corner and stands in the middle of the road toward the invisible precipice of political issues on the campus. A college paper on its editorial page is expected to be an honest and objective representative of the student body as a whole to refrain from taking sides in class or club election. But in spite of that, the paper does have the responsibility to present as fairly, concisely, and completely as possible the whole picture of the campus. This is one of the basic principles of the Student Government as fairly, concisely, and completely as possible the whole picture of the campus. Constitution

Recent meetings of the student body have been largely attended by the Student Government. The Student Government has not pressed any agenda of its own, but has merely taken up the agenda of the student body. The Student Government has had several meetings in the past month, but none of these meetings has been held concerning the old constitution. Student Government is based upon democracy. The Student Government, by the way, will not work if it is not completely and absolutely in line with the wishes of the students.

Defending Champions Bring Powerful Nine For Contest

A large crowd is expected to be on hand this afternoon when the High Point College "Purple Panther" diamond nine tangles with the Louisi-Bluine "Beavers" of Hickory, at the college field. Week end stand-outs revealed that the defending champion had failed entirely to enter the win column, having lost games to both Guilford and Catawba. Never-the-less, they are expected to bring an experienced team here for the battle.

High Point, having been the victim of "baby" fielding and in- effective pitching, had lost to Western Carolina and Atlantic Christian, with one win, over the "Catawbas". Poor weather con- ditions have prevented the Pan- ther aggregations from getting in much needed practice, but as the baseball season is well along, they appear to be molding themselves to a real threat to top confer- ence contenders.

The starting lineup for today's contest will find Jack Hammock, at pitcher, Jack Hammock, at first, Lowe, and Redrock, and Seiler, and Baker, in the tango. Of course, the Beavers will probably give either Finch, or Gillie, or pollux the cellar, depending on their pitching arm.

Panther battering strength will lie in the capable hands of disc- kirk, Bays, and Ray, righ't center, Dick Seiler, right saddle, who has been clipping the ball at the rate of four for four this month. Tal- ler, Harry Redrock, and Wayne Baker, who have contributed im- portantly previously, may come

Jack Hammock, pictured above, is one of the three better hitters here in college. He plays basketball, football and base- ball. He is pictured attempting to pick up a grounder.

Netters Down Quakers, 4-3

BY CAGE

The tennis matches proved a little different is the finals, but still High Point came in at third place. Gay Hayes, representing H. P. C. in singles, received a defeat from Guilford college in the final contest and in the second was defeated by R. C. 6-2. Pat Isenhower and Mary Kate, played back to back to defeat at the hands of the University of North Carolina in the doubles.

The archery contest which took place following the tennis, June Daversa came in third place. In the 252 yard free style back stroke swimming race Bobby Sey- west came in second place, and Edna Gwin in second place in the free-style 50-yard.

At 11 o'clock in the afternoon the big olympic games were held. The olympics consisted of a 40-yard dash with one girl from each school participating in a ball throwing contest with one girl from each school taking part; and a 50-yard relay with four girls from each school particip- ating. Liz White represented High Point in the dash. In the ball throwing contest Lib Williams came in third place. Bobby Sey- west, June Daversa, Area Mac Tucker, and Gay Hayes came in third place in the 50-yard dash.

The 12 girls who went to Chapel Hill are as follows: Bobby Seywest, June Daversa, Fran Gartley, GR. R, Pat Isenhower, Edna Gwin, Ouida Lineberger, Mary Ann Hedgecock, Lib Williams, and Le White.

IN APPRECIATION

The girls who attended the play day wish to take this opportunity to thank Miss Chapman, Mr. Franklin, Dr. Humphreys, and others

J. A. Gray Gives College $50,000 Endowment Fund

To Receive $252,000 FROM METHODIST ADVANCE

By Winstead-Salem Citizen

James a Gray, who a few days ago established an endowment fund of $50,000 at High Point college, will endow the Wake Wachovia Bank and Winston-Salem annual income of the endowment fund from the housing shortage. They are not in step with the trend of the best colleges of the nation. They remain in the minds of students and graduates for a long time to come. Have you found a way of true abundant living?

The Methodist Advance will be contributing to High Point college a present which is one that will remain in the minds of students and graduates for a long time to come. The Methodist Advance campaign, which is raising $250,000 for the benefit of Methodist institutions in the state, and from that, High Point college will receive $250,000.

This campaign is divided into two groups, the western and eastern districts, which are working side by side with the same collecting subject. The western district is raising the goal of $120,000, while the eastern district is raising the goal of $130,000.

According to Dr. Harrison, vice-president of this institution, the western district is just short $120,000, while the eastern district is making commendable progress also.

The $100,000 endowment fund contributed by James A. Gray, of Winston-Salem, to High Point college will be used in the following ways:

Dr. Harrison said that $300,000 will be endowed and the rest will be for building purposes on the campus. But due to the shortage of materials and the difficulty of labor, work will only be done in building. The program will be delayed somewhat. $225,000 will be used for building purposes. The plan for the future is to build the old school buildings on the new, and to build a new dormitory.

The final steps will be taken in the spring so that by the fall a college buildings will have been erected.

The annual Beaux Arts contest will be held in the auditorium of the college at High Point.

The program will be conducted by the school's music committee, and the certificates will be awarded to the students who make the highest test scores.

Dear Mr. Billings:

I would like to express my opinion regarding the recent examinations in our class. It is my belief that the examinations were conducted in an unfair manner, and I believe that they do not accurately reflect the knowledge and understanding of the students.

I think it is important for us to consider the implications of allowing students to fail their own exams. We cannot expect students to fail, and we must consider the reasons why they fail. It is not fair to place the blame for failure on the examinees, as they are just as much to blame as the teachers.

In my opinion, the best way to approach this situation is to work together to improve the exams. I believe that we should discuss the issues and come up with solutions that will benefit all parties involved.

Sincerely,

The “Hoitjr-Toity”

The councils of the nation and the state have recently all taken a week off. It is most unfortunate that the student body had to deal with this issue during the basketball season.

The student body may disagree as to what is the best way to deal with this problem. In my opinion, the best way to deal with this issue is to work together to come up with a solution that will benefit everyone.

Sincerely,

Varsity Squad About Best In State
When it comes down to bare facts and figures, if High Point college hasn't got one of the finest teams in the state and definitely been playing top notched teams according to the ablest minded teams in the country, and their results have been promising.

For the Panthers have dropped three contests, all of them coming from the hands of the top teams in the nation, Carolina, Davidson, and Hanes. But in doing this, Carolina and Hanes' Hosiery were secured snuff by the Panthers; Carolina won by two points and Hanes' out the locals by one point after trailing that of looking forward for another championship team from High Point college and Cinderella of basketball, Coach Ralph James.

Hockey With Poor Attendance
In the recent game, the points about the Panthers' classifications are very interesting. Few girls even bothered to report for first day drills and as drills continued those few dwindled down as the days went on. From those girls a varsity team was picked and given credit for the effort continued; but, the girls who do like it.

Girls being chosen for the varsity team are as follows: Mary Hovis, Ann Hedgecock, Anna Mae Tucker, Gay Hayes, Kathy Foster, Pat Isenhour, June Tucker, Ida Williams, Jane Preston, Libb Sifford, and Lorraine White.

All-Conference Competition Beams For Panthers After Examinations
"Get up and bar the door"—may be it better be doors, North State competitors, for those greating them shall know Panthers are on the horn.

Starting after the semester's examinations are over, the Panthers will open up its campaign of defense of the North State Crown.

Those girls making the varsity team are as follows: Mac Stewart, Ann Hedgecock, Anna Mae Tucker, Kathleen Kizer, Jane Lewis, Jane Tucker, Margaret Phillips, Dot Lewis, Connie Nunn, Lib Sifford, Ouida Lindesbeer, Elsie Prince and Grace Liles.

Approximately 40 girls reported to Jane during the first days of drills and by the date of the first tournament game two-halfback teams had been chosen and were ready for action. This tournament was also played by the "Black" and "Golden" against the "Black" were victorious. But that doesn't mean the same girls were playing in the same games, because they were not, but still think it very peculiar that this particular color spells victory.

The schedule is:
Feb. 17—Western Carolina at High Point.
Feb. 8—Catawba at Salisbury.
Feb. 13—Guilford at High Point.
Feb. 15—Appalachian at High Point.
Feb. 19—Atlantic Christian at High Point.
Feb. 16—Elon at High Point.
Feb. 20—High Point at Elon College.
Feb. 20—High Point at Atlantic Christian.
Feb. 21—High Point at Guilford.

New Changes Promise
Better Paper

As the New Year gives birth to many new ideas with people of all ages taking up plans to follow through the year, the Hi Po staff is going to work accordingly with a readiness to make the reading conditions the best that have been published.

The sudden, but necessary surge to group operations, has encountered much difficulty in getting the officers will adopt a new policy for betterment. The wedding will take place in June.

The "little world" told us that the Miss Lib Dickinson and Mr. John Harmon are engaged.

Dance Sponsored By Freshmen

"Sweetheart Theme" will be the theme of the music to form the background for the freshman dance in the gymnasium tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock.

While the students dance to their heart's content under the milky lights of a big white canvas, dotted with noisemaker and paper lanterns, flowing the spirit of St. Valentine's Day will be more evident by the little cupids in the wind. In the center of the room, or elsewhere—crying with delight—will be the refreshments committee, jeweled other laughing while holding a white and gold-embroidered valentine heart, one in each hand. They lead the way in entertaining the upperclassmen with a traditional dance to enlighten the spirit of the February 14th.

The dance will be a formal affair. It has been announced, and many will attend. The orchestra, of Greensboro, will play for the dance, under the direction of the Tower Players; and most of the credit of the staging goes to Charles Collins, presi dent of the freshman class, who has shown earnest work toward making it "tops."

The dance will be in the fashion of an openhouse. It is not necessary to give you an invitation.

All members of the class have been under the direction of this committee, which has been in touch with various committee members to select and carry out respective duties.

These committees are: Refresh ment—Betty Spearman, Dave Chambers and Linda Campbell. Promotion—Mabel Tucker, Barbara Burton and Jean Coombs. Each girl of the class is a member of one of these committees.

Installation Give Inductees

The Order of the Lighted Lamp, highly recognized honorary society on the campus, had headquarters in the gymnasium for the week. Students of the freshman class were in attendance at the installation. The ceremony of installation was held in the gymnasium with theLighted Lamp, chairman of the freshman class, presiding.

Alumni members of the college's board of trustees were on hand for the installation.

Order of Lighted Lamp Inducts Ten Students In Yearly Tapping Ceremony

The college chapter of the American Red Cross, which is one of the oldest chapters on the campus, has begun a series of special projects for the second semester. Included among the activities of the local chapter will be the despatching of blood to the High Point college campus for the Red Cross and military purposes, and also the activities of the college chapter in connection with the Red Cross program.

The college chapter of the American Red Cross has been active in connection with the activities of the college chapter, which has been held in the gymnasium.

MOMENTS OF MEDITATION
Once upon the warm breezes of spring try valiantly to wash away the winter's chill as we, the students, reign man's eternal search for knowledge. The excitement of our first examinations has dimly begun to die, and we find ourselves sinking into a routine that only the few completely appreciate. Too many of us are unconscious to the beauty and pleasures of our college days. We greet each day as an obligation and not as the fulfillment of our future. The shortcomings of life has not made itself felt any more than just enough to help as reason how little we may have learned. But as the years pass and we are driven by the seasons to a routine, a world of responsibilities that only the women living in a world where our responsibilities are not necessities. They do not see a nervous little boy dressed in a short suit. Instead, they saw themselves.

As the bus pulled out of sight, the young man turned from the window and her eyes now seemed to realize that father time was at last gaining on her. Panthers Down Quakers; Appalachian, Loop Leader, Here Saturday Night

According to members of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce here, there is a possibility that there may be some single game tickets available when the series begins. It is a good indication that fans are expected to witness some fiery basketball exhibitions displayed in Harrison gymnasium come Saturday night.

The victory kept the Panthers in control of the lead of the North State conference for the season. Appalachian still leads the conference with an undefeated column, while High Point is second, having lost only one game this season by Frsn Gamewell, who has done a very good job of publicity.

The intra-mural boys basketball tournament, sponsored by the Student Union, is to be played here! The players and Coach Ralph Grant want to pass along to you their appreciation for the splendid student cooperation that has been shown at games and activities.

Little Bob Mcwilliams, the speckling of WCTC's near spot of Appalachian was the first to arrive action as a Panther back in '42. Marce Grant, see JPC infielder here several years back, and ordent alumni, has taken a great interest in the team and has steered it upward.

Top Scorers

Lady Bill Sheets, Panther offensive forward, brought his total to 196 points but dropped from second to third place at the ending of last week's play for the North State conference scoring race. After a poor week of only 26 points, Sheets gave way to WCTC's Dugger, whose net parade placed him in second place.

In seventh place with 139 points was the Panther pivot man, budcorsr Tom Moran, who shot 167 points through the hoop against Catawba Saturday night. Big Vincenzo Cale traded Moran in tenth place having 132 points to his credit, while diminutive court artist, Frank Henry, was close behind with 138. Several changes have been made in standings this week since the playing of the A. C. C. and Guilford games.

The Block "H" club of High Point college, an active organization on the campus before the war, is now in the preliminary stage of reorganization.

In a meeting held Monday, the latter winners consisted a committee to draw up a temporary constitution to govern the organization, and to last as a permanent constitution if it passed both the monogram winners and the able council.

These elected to serve on the committee are: Thurman Horsly, Frank Brotz, Mrs. Williams, Russell Lombardy, and Horace Williams.

This committee will begin work immediately, drawing up a charter under the supervision of Assistant Professor Bill Fancher. When they have completed it, the monogram winners and the able council must approve it before it can be constituted.

Either out of the two will have the right to vote it.

Before the war, the Block "H" was an active society on the campus, but during the war days, it dwindled down to just a few members—not enough to carry it along. But this year, there are approximately 45 "H" winners in the school.

EHO Fraternity

Members of the Epistle Ela Phi fraternity and their deceased members held a memorial service on February 7th, in memory of Miss Betty Love, of Winston-Salem.

It was held in recognition of Prof. G. W. Holbert, Prof. Holbert was recently admitted to the EHO fraternity as honorary member.

Games were played and re-read, with heart-shaped cakes with letters, EHO, on them, as usual.

In the first issue that Distant Echoes appeared I promised that this was not to be a "gossip column". This edition, however, is nearly approaching just that, although it is not intended to be.

For the past few months, I have been asked questions on the major topic of this column. I am unable to answer. By presenting these questions to you, I wish to arouse your thinking to the point, where your comments—both pro and con—will be aired for the benefit of all concerned.

Why do we have no Sunday morning church service here at school, and how many could be expected to attend if such a service was announced? Why do we have only one workable water fountain for the entire school?

Why do people tip little or no attention to the office hours posted by the Bursar?

Why do people gather on stairs in doorways, etc., to talk?

Why is it that we have no Sunday night? In order to give you an idea of what is in store for you, here are a few of the things that students are bringing in to exhibit for our pleasure.

In the past months there have been such things as paintings and sketches by Ray Hussy, Garland Hill, Bill Craven, Carolyn Cranfield, and many other students in the art department. These are only a few of the many things that students are bringing in to exhibit for our pleasure.

In order to give you an idea of what is in store for you, here are a few of the things that students are bringing in to exhibit for our pleasure.

Miss Mary Rainey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Rainey of Fayetteville, was crowned first place winner in the Paul La Valle vocal scholarship contest held at Elon college last week. This place at High Point, college's newest representation for national fame, will see Miss Rainey in April contest in the regional contest at Baltimore, Md., where her voice will be heard as a record to go on to the national finals.

She was awarded first place in the sectional Paul La Valle scholarship contest, which will reap her a $1,500 scholarship to any college she may prefer if she is in the national competitions.

At the Baltimore contest, recitals of vocalists will be given and the college prize will be conferred, and the college prize will be given to the college which was awarded the prize of $1,500. Miss Rainey is a senior here, majoring in voice. She is also a member of the college's first quartet, singing soprano.

The American Red Cross chapter here is the high school and the town, in concert at the city junior high school, and has been working on the Red Cross drive. The chapter took charge of the college's quota for the nation-wide drive and was paid over $122.25, and according to figures released by the chapter, the total figures for the recent nation-wide drive was over $1,000,000.

The chapter is now in the process of buying beautiful, bound books and they are to be read by the students toward revision of the constitution. The chapter is to buy beautifully bound books, and stresses hopes for a big journal. It has been received that the de-
EVOLUTION

The moment you mention evolution to some people they immediately consider you an atheist. This is definitely not true, and as a fact and not as a figure, they do not dispute the belief of an existing Supreme Being. Indeed, they cannot, and do not, give an answer to such an originator. This comparatively new science has as its argument facts that cannot be denied, and these facts are irrefutable. The result of all this is the possibility that each of us has within our being, and our physical bodies are meant to give us the true knowledge of the unrecorded ages.

There are people who say, "Leave our system alone. We only want to work for our own good." But we say, "The world must continually demonstrate the existence of a Supreme Being. Indeed, it cannot, and does not, give an answer to such an originator. This comparatively new science has as its argument facts that cannot be denied, and these facts are irrefutable. The result of all this is the possibility that each of us has within our being, and our physical bodies are meant to give us the true knowledge of the unrecorded ages."
TRYOUTS for the 1947-48 golf team will be made next week. Among those to seek membership in the golf team will be three freshmen who will try to join the varsity. Of course, Coach and Dr. Polgar will have the final say in who will be on the varsity. The names of those who try out will be posted on the bulletin board in the office of the basketball coach. Three meets are on the schedule for the coming season. The number totals the same top to bottom, while the NID scored rather evenly.

Sunday, and special permission must be had to use it at night. Indeed, you find it hard to give you one of the two lucky, illusory basketballs that contain all of the available gymnasium tickets. Indeed, there are only four tickets left, but as this can't be checked out. Nine times out of ten who fail to use it, go to the Flu epidemic had at its height, until lunch? The same amount is due to illness and to the hindrances caused by the weather, man, will have the first intra-squad basketball tournament.

The best way to kill trouble is by the use of the common student union. Thus far this year. This recognition of the program is submitted both by the faculty and student body.

He does not pay for meals unless he eats or the whole meal if he wants only toast. The first included a mathematical problem involving a quadrilateral figure of 16 divisions in which names of the audience were placed. A volunteer called out their names, and the winners were announced. The second and the third were based on the same subject. The number totaled the same top to bottom.

Dr. Polgar, making a deep impression by his remarkable concepts of hypnosis and mental therapy, created a cream-priced sensation with his three series of exhibitions.

The JayVees, winners of only one game through the past season, recent tabulations indicate that, while Dr. Polgar was absent from the college at the time of the opening, the flu epidemic had at its height. The big event is now in progress. I have seen the plans for this annual party in the student center. The party will be held April 18.

Aiding Nature Had Step In Establishing of High Point College

The little city of High Point was beginning to have "growing pains" in the spring of 1889. The town was not yet two years old, and already the world had settled down to building better homes and larger industries. High Point was receiving its share of both. The railroad was sending in raw materials like lumber, sand, and brick to be used in the textile mills and furniture factories. They were walking over brushy, low, and wooded fields and red-clay hills, holding the chins and whining "mum", but here being no trees, no more hill, and a lot more grass. There was no side walk at that time, for indeed, High Point was nothing more than a strip of tar leading in the general direction of Greensboro. Not many doors were to be seen before those plans were to materialize. Vehicles of every description began to hug back bricks, sand, etc., and the machinery moved the earth from one place to another. It is smoothly now. Work had begun on the Boulevard until late at night. The only possible arrangement would be to have "re-no" in later.

As the cafeteria stands, this is of the senior class of Hannah Brown Finch, who was a member of the senior class of Greensville, N. C. who has designated this sum be added to previous hat this sum be added to previous.

Turbulent Student Election Is Likely To Develop Here

One of the most turbulent student elections in the history of High Point college will be held in the near future. The reason for this is that there are several issues that are causing quite a bit of discussion, and the presentation of the revised edition of the Student Government constitution has added emphasis to the matter.

Until the presentation of the present constitution, as well as that of the revised edition; the president of the Student Government will come from the junior class. In the revised edition of the constitution, it was laid down that the president will be selected from the senior class.

In the race for president, a student is running from the senior class, Mrs. Alice Gorman, and a student from the junior class, Miss Margaret Phelps. The race is likely to develop into a battle of the sexes, with Mrs. Gorman, a senior English major, and Miss Phelps, a junior vocal major, vying for the position.

PUBLICITY DEPT. TO ATTEND ST. LOUIS MEET

Dr. N. M. Harrison, vice-president of the Student Government, will attend the National Student Convention for Colleges in St. Louis, Mo., May 14-17, that has been convened.

The convention is one of the oldest that has been held in the state of Missouri. It will be attended by a large number of students from various colleges and universities. The convention will be held in the Missouri State Capitol.

It will be the first time that the Student Government has been represented at this convention.

Preparations Completed For Annual May Day Ceremonies To Be Held On Front Lawn

By GAY HAYES

Miss Jane Chapman and Miss Missie Hayes are already preparing for the annual May Day ceremonies to be held Saturday, May 13 at 5 o'clock, on the front campus.

Immediately following the procession of the May Queen will be the coroner, the queen's four horses, and the queen herself.

The theme for the program this year is somewhat different from any other May Day program. The setting is an old mine shaft, and all the inhabitants are assumed to be living in the mine at the time of the program.

The program is to begin at 5 o'clock, and will continue until 6 o'clock, at which time the usual May Pole Dance will be held.

Forensic Club Plans Party At Casa Blanca

After the Forensic council's successful trip to Hickory to participate in the state debating tourney, the members of the Forensic club are making plans for a party to be held Saturday, May 13 at 5 o'clock, at Casa Blanca.

The party will be held in honor of Miss Margaret Phelps, of Cleves, who is registered for physical education.

A note of interest in connection with the Zenith is that a full co-operation from the student council is to be expected.

Mrs. Alice Gorman has been appointed as a counselor on the editorial positions. In addition to the biological and academic data, the records indicate student's home, vocational interests and special abilities. From these records a complete picture is secured by the advisor or counselor as a background for interviews with the students.

Mr. Phelps and Miss Alman, associate editor, filling the duties of Miss Anna Lee Ferguson and Anne Hayes, plan already outlined calls for full co-operation from the student body, and the editors plan to have the yearbook by the last part of May 1948.

Hayes, Phelps To Head Zenith For Next Year

An all-girl staff has been elected to handle the editorial and business sections of the Zenith in the current year.

Miss Betty Hayes, of High Point, was elected editor, and Miss Missie Hayes, of High Point, assistant business manager.

Miss Margaret Phelps, of Cleves, named business manager, and Miss Missie Alman, of High Point, assistant business manager.

This is the first time in recent years that an all-girl staff has been elected. The current staff wishes to express its appreciation to the students for allowing them to continue in this position.

Miss Hayes was editor-in-chief of the Gray high school yearbook and sports editor. She is also a member of the national honor society in the world of publication, is an English major, and is making her debut with the Zenith. Miss Hayes and Miss Missie Hayes succeeded Tal Whitten and Lorraine Chapman as editor-in-chief.

Miss Phelps, present business manager of the Hi-Po's has previously served on the editorial and business staffs, but has not been a member of the executive council, and Miss Missie Alman, present business manager.

The Student Government association and the administration have made every step possible to better the school and the lives of the students for the body student. If there are to be any improvements in the school, they must be made by the student body, through their representatives, and not by those who are made by the student body, through their representatives.
We can't let spring football drills pass without some mention of an outstanding frosh prospect for the 1947 gridiron edition. We're referring to Hugh Gordon, stellar backfield man just off the local high school campus. Hugh will present some keen competition for a ball handling spot if his showing in practice is indicative of what may happen come September.

Coach Fluie Stewart, Appalachian's able tutor, moves up soon to new duties at the U. of Maryland. Fluie is not only due credit for referring: to Hugh Gordon, stellar backfield man just off the local company, but a total humiliation in revenge for those basketball was removed via the stretcher route on the first play of the game. was Young's choice to start the high school classic; only the former in Nashville.

Overheard from WCTC's booth—"Boys, if you don't hide Painter to '47, you'll put '46 in the hole!" Among the best of friends ... since the '39 Charlotte Shore game, when Painter was Young's choice to start the high school classic; only the former was removed via the stretcher route on the first play of the game.

We don't want just a win over Guilford, Case, Soperfield and company, but a total humiliation in revenge for these basketball losses!

Medical Exhibit
On Display In Wrenn Library

A vocational exhibit on "Medical as a Career" is now on display at the Wrenn Memorial Library and will last through April 28.

The exhibit is arranged by the library staff and Mrs. Alice Gormon, director of vocational guidance at the colleges, with assistance from Dr. Hubert Hilsman of the High Point Hospital staff and registered nurse. On display are brochures, the fields of nursing, pharmacy, psychiatry, surgery, x-ray, etc., and pamphlets, medical records, librarians, veterinary medicine, optometry, dentistry, army, teacher, hospital, outpatients, hospital management, dental hygienist, physical therapy, hospital dietetics, medical laboratory technicians, and dentists.

Through the courtesy of Miss Smith, there is a collection of nurses' caps, representing many schools of nursing in North Carolina and several from out of state institutions.

Miss Smith, director of nursing services at the High Point Memorial Hospital, Miss Florence Miller, R.N., M.S., counselor of the Altrusa Clubs, and Miss Mildred Johnson, R.N., graduate of the North Carolina nurse's association, are the Altrusa committee, headed by George James, former director of the Wrenn Memorial Hospital, and now in charge of the organization, and since that time, the organization has received 81 "type" donations and 25 type blood.

The first type blood donation was made on Wednesday night, and Wednesday night, February 8, from the Red Cross chapter in High Point. The first blood donor was a graduate of High Point college, forming the college Red Cross chapter and to the organization, and since that time, the organization has received 81 "type" donations and 25 type blood.

It is by this that a group of students on the campus of High Point College, forming the college Red Cross chapter, are working to collect type blood donations. The campus Red Cross chapter has received 81 "type" donations and 25 type blood.

The principles of the organization will be to "donor" blood to the local Red Cross chapter and to the hospitals when the necessity is made and then be recorded by the campus chapter when the necessity is made and then be recorded by the campus chapter.

The organization will be in charge of the organization under further officers can be elected, it was stated.
