High Point College is Thirty Years Old

Thirty years have passed since High Point College opened its doors to students. In those thirty years, many events have taken place that are well worth noting.

To begin with, there has been continuous progress in the educational departments. The professors, selected for their duties from the best shadings of the professional world, have installed in the students a desire to promote mankind and human society.

The disgusting situation of the "men's dormitory; the disgusting situation of "not enough beds" has been improved. At present we do, because it is hard to believe that we have the chance to do just that. We know that now that we have the chance to do just that.

For years there has been a provoking situation in the men's dormitory. The professors, selected for their duties from the best shadings of the professional world, have improved in the students a desire to promote mankind and human society.

Our hats are off to the Administration of High Point College.

The Tiger College, under the direction of Mr. Cox, has had on its team a string of moments, but the majority of them look as though the spring so necessary to this department will be equally as abundant this same season. Monday, January 21, the choir sang its beautiful rendition of "This Little Light of Mine." They were conducted by Mr. Cox at the Methodist Church.

Another event of this nature should make the Tiger Band proud. On Monday February 1st, the choir sang its beautiful rendition of "This Little Light of Mine." They were conducted by Mr. Cox at the Methodist Church.

Personality of the Month

By Jean Lucas

Remember your first love? Of course it was nothing less than the whole world, but it was the beginning of a pattern which went to the heart.

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
And still we dream of love.

This was the verse which made you the beloved girl and the talk of school for weeks afterward. It was the beginning of a pattern, a markable period of courtship.

Books before that essential Valentine, THE BOY had been loud,
Loud up in to his little limits. First there was his courtship, then what he chased you all over the playground. This vocal display brought to the attention of his fellow classmates that he had singled you out, and that there was in his heart a certain desire to have you. In class the day before, you couldn't understand the mark he felt for you. His face feeling for you was the look he took to your apple when you didn't like a piece of it, or when he was told he was off one man (1) for you. Then—you would forever forget—it in the day he asked you to become a "Cigarette Girl of the Marine Home." After the dance he whispered in your ear that he would love you forever and ever, and then you returned the pledge.

What was his name?

MAXINE Swarengin

Maxine Swarengin, just plain "Mac" to everybody, is a pleased person. For she has probably become one of her friends; if you are an up-pperclassman, you are proud to count her among your friends. As a personality, she stands out when there is work to be done, leadership needed or as a counselor, she is ready to do what she can to help anybodystudy and push and prodding and knocking and helping, she helped you.

Her activities are almost too numerous to mention. At the present time she is resident of the Women's Hall Council, a member of Theta Phi Sigma, and is an associate to Dean Alford. She has served as a member of the Student Government, Junior Committee,Theta Student Council, choir and the Tower Players.

As "Mac," her activities are almost too numerous to mention. Those who do not have the necessary average must wait.

A new television set was the high point of the college celebration. The club was very much interested in the success of the experiment and the committee was very happy for the students. They had a lot of work to do last year and were anxious for the end of the war. The second term does not usually have as many students as the first term. This is due to graduation and other matters. Registration officially closed today.

Fraternity Averages Computed: NDM Takes Scholastic Honors

By Body Tracker

The N. D. M. Bombers have enjoyed first place honors in scholastic achievement by ouging the last year's winner, Ignesia Phi Phi fraternity. Fored into second place by the examinations of march, only a quality of a frater could be almost certain the EHO would be to snub the N. D. M. Bombers. The Bombers are nervously enjoying the most pre- positions of some. Perhaps some credit is due the N. D. M. Bombers that they advanced more than any other fraternity—from fifth place last year to top position in this year.

Also enjoying a significant rise was the Lambda Chi's list, which came up from the fourth bottom last year to claim third position in the inter-freaternity standing.

The Sig El's and KEK's slipped a bit, which is understandable. The Sig El's recently lost an important member, while the KEK's went two. The Sig El's average also went down 0.75.

ORDER OF THE LIGHTED LAMP members were tapped as usual February 17 in an inspiring ceremony conducted by Dr. Dennis Cooke, Dean of Students. The new members were: Shirley Lynn Bess, Virginia Beach; Mary Ann Buell, Raleigh; Shirley Bridgett, Shirley Marie Brown and Roberta Robinson, Howard new, Louie Carroll, Elizabeth City; and James Michael Lewis.

Kappa Chi Members To Attend Meeting

Last Tuesday evening, February 23, 1954, approximately 116 High Point

The members will represent High Point College at the national assembly February 17 in an inspiring ceremony conducted by Dr. Kenneth Goodson, district superintendent of the Winston-Salem district, de-...

Will it be finished in time?

Will it be finished in time? That is a question posed at some time or another in the mind of every senior and junior of this institution. Some are wondering whether they will be able to graduate in the new auditorium, which is under the slow process of construction. They want to be the first graduating class to use the auditorium for that purpose. Will they be able to graduate before the new auditorium is completed?

We think affirmatively to that question; but, as the law of chance would have it, we lack no means in saying that no one will be able to graduate unless they possess the university in the form of a degree.

According to the progress at the present time, and in view of the developments, delays and changes that might occur, the auditors should be available for use by May 15. Will it be finished in time? We believe it will.

Your Blood May Save a Life

Once again there is an urgent plea for blood. On March 12, as a result of the efforts of the Business Staff Maurice Waddell, Gloria Davis, Larry Johnson, and others, the Blood Drive for the new auditorium, which is under the slow process of construction. It's All Greek

In starting our news we would like to say some words about the Greek scene. The most important event so far this term is the initiation of a new fraternity, the Lambda Alpha Kphi.

Panthers End Season At Bottom

Kent's Korner

By Kent Moseley

It was one day last December when I made some mad predictions about various things. I missed on some, and I hit on some (Maybe one). Anyhow, one of my predictions was that the Sigma Alpha Phi Sorority would win the girls' intramural volleyball league. At the same time I predicted that the TKE would win the Boys division. Hello on one—missed on one! The Theta Phi Sorority won the Girls division. Congratulations... they had a fine scrumpy team. I saw the final participation... [some story on this page].

HIT ONE — MISSED ONE...

To hit one and miss one on those farsighted guesses isn't too bad as I once heard a coach say when he was commenting on a boy that didn't live up to his expectations after he had given him a scholarship, "I really struck out when I gave that boy a great-in-a-day..." I really went wild in my guesses concerning the Purple Panthers basketball team and season... I picked them to end in up third place...

TRA-LA-LA-BOOM-DE-A

One thing that I am sure of is that the local college students should be congratulated on is the way that they have reacted to having a losing ball club. At no time this year have I heard any of them say, "This is the way the college is run..." and then after the game it went something like this: "Tra-la-la-boom-de-a have you had yours today" and then after the game I went home and I said to myself, "Was I ever wrong!"

COACH BOB DAVIS AND "TINY"

Ex-HPC Coach Bob Davis has his Georgetown College course up to date in the local college "duffers," or as they say in the summer-time. He's averaging 16.5 points per game and a "long ball hitter," or as they say in the summer-time. "Hey, Larry Grissett, Ed Lowe, Gee, Howard Alexander, the all-time high scorer at High Point, had something like 20 points himself; Coach Yow was playing his game to his admirers."

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL...

Coach Sid Williams' Travelers are setting a very fast pace in the intramural league... one that I predict will be equaled by the other college teams, and that they are the Carolina's intramural league...

What It Is & Is Golf

By Kent Moseley

Now that spring is almost here and everybody turns to golf, here are a few terms that should be understood before you start talking golf with your ambition. These terms are especially dedicated to Clayton Synder, Paul Synder, Tom McGeen, Larry Grissett, Ed Lowe, Tom Beaver, Dick Hendsdale, and Bob Whisdon, who are known as the local college "duffers." When taking golf under Coach Synder should also become acquainted with these players definitions used in the beginning field.

A GLOSSARY OF GOLFLING TERMS

CADDIE—The guy that gets all the healthful benefits from golf and plays only 18 holes and never misses a stroke. He's worth ten dollars.

BIRDIE—A story you never tire of hearing. He'd play 18 holes in less than three hours, and never miss a swing.

BOURNE—(Short) refers to the man your team has on the team that has 20 strokes or less. It also refers to the man that has a straight shot and hits it with shot of the ground.

LONG BALL HITTER—A player who hits the ball further than the other team. He's worth $1000 a game.

BIRDIE—A story you never tire of hearing. He'd play 18 holes in less than three hours, and never miss a swing.

IMPACT—The moment the club reaches the golf ball... you least expect it.

OFF YOUR GAME—Failure to balance it on his head. Next make was "I'm sure I'm off my game..."

BIRDIE—A story you never tire of hearing. He'd play 18 holes in less than three hours, and never miss a swing.

THE HIT ONE—MISS ONE

Defeat by Lencor-Rhyne Puts HPC In The Cellar

By Kent Moseley

For the first time in the history of High Point College the long ball team has failed to make the Eastern Carolina High School's high scoring list. The Tee-Kay-Rhyne ace team in the North Central State Tournament, the Theta Phi Sorority split on the second place finish and the Theta Phi team has gotten to play in the annual tournament. The Theta Phi girls won out in sixth place and did not even get a chance of advancing out of the other teams in the tournament of apes. The Theta Phi team always has been marked by a great team of eight women in the tournament. They were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they were the Theta Phi team... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team... they... they were the Theta Phi team...

Theta Phi Claims Volleyball Crown

The Theta Phi Sorority can become a woman's college basketball team by beating the hard-fighting Sigma Alpha Phi team. When the tournament ended in a tie, the Theta's and Sigma's were unable to get off the top of the well earned tie. The winner was to be the team that won out of two of those games.

The Sigma's had the Theta's struggling under their collars in the third game, but with the height of Ann Swanson and Joan Crowder and their fine team cooperation, the Theta Phi Sorority was able to come out on top. The Theta Phi girls participating in the volleyball games were: Joan Crowder, Peggy Brewer, Marie Chandler, Mary Rose, Maxine Swiggett, Jan Pexy, Anne Swanson, Carol Liner, Mary Lee Lester, Virginia Chaney, Judy Williams, and Baily Hancam. Joan Crowder and "Bee" Swiggett with their high scoring led Theta Phi to their victory. After the game was over the Theta Phi girls said, "Bobby Hodges of East Carolina breaks away from Harold Sykes and Paul Stanhope of the HPC team in a game at Harrison Gymnasium February 16. It was the last home game of the season. The seniors regaling victorious with a 19-24 score. It was never a sure after half time for the HPC victors..."

BEST INTRAMURAL TOURNAMENT EVER

In Intramural athletics ran at all time high this year, due partially to the increased program, but due mainly to the office of Mr. Art Paschal. Our Intramural tournament especially seemed to be more interesting to more students this year. This, to us, seems better than good, since High Point College.

Saint Patrick's Shenanigans

By Jane Lewis

Now that the HPC campus is safe from the threat of invasion by Irishmen, the Patricks can get down to the business of having a good time. History has shown that at one time or another in the past, the Patricks have been a force to be reckoned with. Patrick himself was a good or mediocre drinker and a bankable, fellow type of fellow, for his name has inspired quite a bit of laughter in the past, as well as a good deal of respect. This year, history has shown that the Patrick name has been the cause of quite a bit of enjoyment for the rest of us. The other day the Patrick name was involved in one of the most amusing situations that have occurred in the history of the campus.

The story begins with a group of Patrick students who had planned a surprise party for one of their classmates. They had arranged for the party to be held in the student center, and the plans were carefully made to ensure that the party would be a success. However, as the party was about to begin, the Patricks were confronted with a situation that they had not anticipated. The door to the student center had been locked by the custodian, and the Patricks were unable to enter.

Undeterred, the Patricks decided to take matters into their own hands. They organized a group of volunteers to scale the wall of the student center and open the door. The Patricks were able to successfully scale the wall and enter the student center, where they found their classmate waiting for them.

In the end, the party was a great success. The Patricks had managed to overcome a small obstacle and ensure that their classmate would have a memorable evening. As a result, the Patricks are now looking forward to planning more parties and ensuring that their fellow students have a good time.

Eta Mu Eta Society Helps Men to Graduate Study

The Eta Mu Eta Chapter has been awarded a grant by the national headquarters of the Alpha Epsilon Phi fraternity for its efforts to help men graduate. The chapter has been working to support men who are struggling to complete their studies, and the grant will provide additional funding to help them succeed.

In addition to the grant, the chapter has been working to create a support network for men who are facing challenges in their studies. They have been holding study sessions, providing mentoring, and helping men to access resources that can help them succeed.

Alumni Engaged in Many Varied Professions

Students at High Point College are involved in a wide range of professions, from business and law to medicine and education. The college is proud of its alumni, who have gone on to make significant contributions in these fields.

Some of the professions that alumni are engaged in include business, law, medicine, education, and the arts. Many alumni have gone on to start their own businesses, while others have pursued careers in law or medicine. In addition, many alumni have gone on to teach at the college level.

TOO LATE GETTING STARTED

This was the report by Mr. Harold Gale of Northern Entertain- ment. Surviving was a conversation with George Washington on the Thursday night concerning contracting a name band for our May Day dance. Mr. Gale sent telegrams and made every effort to find a band in the country in an effort to find a band for us at great expense to itself. Only two bands could be secured and had not already been booked. They were Tommy Tucker, whose price we could not meet, and Gene Kuppa—who had only a trio and could not play a dance. Mr. Gale said: "Had we known about these numbers of the faculty, the social committee, and administration who supported us in our effort, we might have been able to get one of these names I gave you. I had no idea they all would be booked." At present, plans are being made to contract Bob Hill and his all college band for the dance. We all hope that plans will be made earlier next year and a name band will be brought to High Point College.

The dance committee and government wishes to thank all students whose enthusiasm and support made the fruitless effort an interesting enterprise.

Our sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Harold Gale for his efforts on our behalf and the expense to himself in trying to find a band for us.

Here's hoping for next year.
