The Tower Players Cast Play
by EDNA WHITE CHAPMAN

The Tower Players have begun rehearsals on the first of this season. The production, "The Tower Beavers" of George Kelly, is a comedy showing the antics of an antlers group in presenting a play. The performances are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, November 4 and 5 at 8:30 p.m. One of the unusual features of The Tower Beavers is the second act, in which the audience sees what actually could go on backstage in a play. To anyone who has never been involved in amateur dramas, this act cannot help but be hilarious.

Constitution
To Get Changes

A special Constitution Committee, appointed by the Executive Council of The Student Government Association, has presented a new revision of The Student Government Constitution to student approval. The major changes which the committee has suggested include a new council here and a revision of the present Executive Committee. The Constitution Committee, which spent two days in reviewing and changing the document, consisted of Charles Johnson, Harold Wright, Pat Ray, Fred Barber, Peggy Davis, Sylvia Holv, Bobby Yates, Pat Olnsted, Paul Wight, and Elmer Hall.

APPROVAL URGED

Fred Barber, President of the Student Government Association, urged student approval of the new revision. Barber explained yesterday that the changes were badly needed to bring our Constitution up to date.

The Constitution has long been in need of several minor changes, Barber said. And I hope that every student will vote before the 29th when it is presented for approval. Barber further stated that the present Constitution was passed in 1954 and had not had little change since that date.

The new Constitution will be presented in the Student Legislature on Tuesday, October 22, and upon approval by the Legislature will be presented to the student body during Assembly on Wednesday, October 31. A two-thirds majority vote of the student body will be required for adoption.

MAJOR CHANGES

The Constitution Committee called special attention to two major changes in the document. Under the present SCA Constitution all legislative powers are given to the Student Legislature, whereas the powers are divided between a Student Senate and a Student House of Representatives. Such a change makes the document similar to the form of government of the United States.

The second major change, Commerce members explained, will be the formation of the two officers of the Student Government Association.

A revised version of the new document may be found in the election ballots or a copy may be obtained from officers of the Student Government Association.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The proposed revisions of the Student Government Constitution may be found on page 3.

H. P. C. Inaugurates Cross-Country Track Team With Meet At Pfeiffer

Vert, Dean Star

On October 23, the High Point College Cross-Country Track Team will hold its first meet with a strong Pfeiffer College team at Pfeiffer. In accordance with the school's tradition, the cross-country team will be the first of many teams which will hold its initial meet against Pfeiffer. On November 2, at 3:30 p.m., the High Point Hindnews will be held at Pfeiffer. It will be the first fall track meet. Mickey Dean and Don Vert, stalwarts of last year's track team but inexperienced this season, are supposed to lead the team to a second place win. Dean is the 1956 North State Conference National Champion, and Vert last year led the Mustangs in the one and two mile events. Supporting these two are Tommy Hanner, Clete Stumm, Jerry Webster, Zane Darbois, Don Vert, and Willard Fowrie. The latter known for his cross-country antics in tracking down bears.

Dr. Hetu has stated that the Full intercollegiate spot will be counted on as a conditioner for the Spring Track Team, but if the team is successful in its first two competitive efforts, they will enter the four and one-half mile Cross-Country meet which is open to all schools in the state, being held at Raleigh on November 16-18.

Miss Nancy Hood, who is originally from Knoxville, Tennessee, is the new instructor of physical education for women at High Point College. Miss Hood graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1956 and received a master's degree in the same year. When asked what she has done so far, she replied: "I taught at August and kept school through the days of class attendance as long as she is physically able, which she believes to be more than one year. During this year she plans to begin an exercise sports program for women's intramurals. This program will include, basketball, volleyball, softball, batman games and various forms of track and field events. She says that this program will be very valuable in making the girls physically fit in their everyday lives."

Miss Hetu, the new head of the Physical Education Department, had been working as a physical instructor in a 1000 student camp and hopes to work during the present season of college sports at High point to let others see that the camp the girls have as a result of the mountaineers, Pat Hetu commenced his first phase of the head of the department of physical education, Miss Nancy Hood, and continues the tradition of the High Point College faculty.

She plans to do more graduate work in these subjects.

Following her graduation in 1950 from the University of Indiana, where she majored in English, Miss Shirley worked as a high school English teacher in Bloomington, Indiana, for three years. While teaching English, social studies, and speech in the Knox and Gibson county schools in Indiana, she was also Counsellor of Grils. DO YOU THINK FOR YOURSELF?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself Knows...

Do You Think for Yourself? (Here's Your Chance to Find Out!)

Can you honestly say you never imitate the manner of an executive or leader you admire?

Are you entirely confident that you would not get "lost" if you worked for a large firm?

When driving or walking for some distance, do you like taking short cuts rather than a longer route you know will get you where you're going?

Do you enjoy adapting yourself to new conditions?

Do you always look at the directions before using a complicated new appliance?

Have you ever thought seriously of spending a long period alone somewhere...writing, painting or getting some major independent task done?

When faced with a long, detailed job, do you try hard to find a simpler way of doing it before getting started?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself Knows...

Viceroy has a thinking man's filter... A smoking man's taste!

Before you light your next cigarette, ask yourself this: Have you really thought which filter cigarette is best for you?

If you have... chances are you're a Viceroy smoker.

The fact is, men and women who think for themselves usually smoke Viceroy. Their reasons? Best in the world...for a fact that only Viceroy—no other cigarette—has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

*If you have answered 'Yes' to 6 of these questions, you are a person who thinks for himself!

Miss HPC Finalists Selected

From a bevy of 25 original entries, 15 finalists were selected for the Miss High Point College contest at assembly, Wednesday, Oct. 20.

These finalists are: Peggy Allred, Betty Jo Blackwood, Barbara Ayers, Fred Barber, Margaret Hill, Sylvia Holt, Sue Jackson, Jane Martin, Anna McCoy, Irma Zambrana, Betty Yokesley, and Shirleen Mason, New Mexico, is President of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Besides those elected, the following persons were nominated to complete the squad: Vi Johnson, Alpha Delta Theta; Helen Gray, Kappa Epsilon; Sylvia Holt, Zeta Tau Alpha; Sue Jackson, Delta Sigma Phi; Sue Land, Alpha Delta Theta; and Lela Zingman, Delphi Phi. These choices were made by Charles Johnson. There was no discussion on the motion.

The new constitution was approved by the Student Legislature on October 21, after a technical change had been made which the Legislature deemed necessary for an effective government. The major change made by the Legislature was the deletion of section F of Article VII, which allowed for the filling of any unexpired term in the case of a death or resignation. The delegation thought that this should be included in the By-laws of the separate houses rather than in the Student House of Representatives.

Another change in the newly approved Constitution included a revision of the Executive Committee, in which will be added the Dean Student President and the presidents of Women's Hall and McCallell-Hick and a foreigner. The primary changes under the newly approved Constitution include a revision of the Executive Committee, in which will be added the Dean Student President and the presidents of Women's Hall and McCallell-Hick and a foreigner.

Without a dissenting vote, the new revision of the Student Government Constitution was unanimously accepted by the Student Body in a business meeting at assembly, Wednesday, Fred Barber, Student Government president, presided over the meeting. The motion that the revision be accepted was made by Charles Johnson. There was no discussion on the motion.

Senator S. W. Johnson, Whiteville, is president of McCallell-Hick and a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. Shirley Yokely of High Point is a member of the Order of the Lighted Lamp and a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

The seventeen HPC Seniors will be awarded certificates and their names will appear in the 1958 edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." This should be included in the By-laws of the separate houses rather than in the Student House of Representatives.

The primary changes under the newly approved Constitution include a revision of the Executive Committee, in which will be added the Dean Student President and the presidents of Women's Hall and McCallell-Hick and a foreigner.

Within the next two weeks each of the four classes will select three representatives to the Student Senate. The Senate will be composed of twelve senators and the vice-president of the Student Government Association, who will automatically serve as President of the Senate. Those persons who are now members of the Student Legislature may be elected to the Senate, but new representatives must be chosen to replace them in the old Student Legislature, which will now be known as the Student Senate.

The study will culminate at the annual Peace Conference, which will be held in the spring. The delegation thought that this should be included in the By-laws of the separate houses rather than in the Student House of Representatives.

COMMENT ON PLEDGING

A RAY OF HOPE

TO THE FACULTY, STUDENTS, AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

The attitude "College President on a Tightrope" which appeared in the October 15th issue of College and University Business, is to truth that I want to share anathema with my colleagues in the title article titled "The College President has a Great Life!"

If he's under 45, he's considered too young to be an academic. If he's over 45, he's young and last. He leaves a college in less than 10 years, he's a quitter. If he stays longer than 10 years, he doesn't know about fund-raising.

If he approves the expulsion of a student, he is an "old fogey" and he is not of modern youth. If he disapproves the expulsion of a student, he is insensitive and low-toned.

If he spends much time at his desk, he is a board member. If he seldom sees his board members, he is an apple polisher. If he is not a board member, he is not a board member.

The student's classes were over for the day. All morning he had mechanically gone from class to class, and oddly gathered into lecture during intervals. Students were little significant.

In this big day, the student got nothing. He had no an idea how to evade the vague mirrors on the sidewalks. He huddled in the collar of his coat and passed an envelope under his arm, and the book under his arm, and a small red name written in it, and sipped a drop of brandy to warm his stomach. He then put on several small envelopes. One by one he opened them. In each there was some doubt or sign. There were two of these in his coat pocket, and walked down to his dormitory room.

The student's classes were over for the day. All morning he had mechanically gone from class to class, and oddly gathered into lecture during intervals. Students were little significant. This was an important day.

The student opened the door to his room and placed his book on the bed. He then reached into his drawers, and found three, then three rooms. He found in the three rooms a window. He opened a little from his pocket, and watched to contaminate. He dressed, he reached into his pockets, and pushed out several small envelopes. One by one he opened them.

The student untied the red name written in it, and sipped a drop of brandy to warm his stomach. He then put on several small envelopes. One by one he opened them. In each there was some doubt or sign. There were two of these in his coat pocket, and walked down to his dormitory room.

The student's classes were over for the day. All morning he had mechanically gone from class to class, and oddly gathered into lecture during intervals. Students were little significant. This was an important day.

The student opened the door to his room and placed his book on the bed. He then reached into his drawers, and found three, then three rooms. He found in the three rooms a window. He opened a little from his pocket, and watched to contaminate. He dressed, he reached into his pockets, and pushed out several small envelopes. One by one he opened them. In each there was some doubt or sign. There were two of these in his coat pocket, and walked down to his dormitory room.
Introducing 1958-59 Panthers

Preparations for the 1958-59 basketball season have begun on the High Point campus. The Purple Panthers, opened practices about two weeks ago with thirty-five men having out for the initial practice. Coach Virgil Vow, beginning his fifth year as the Panthers' head coach, greeted Tommy Skidmore, Maury Beauchot, Ken Williams, and Ken Williams as the only four returning lettermen. Last year's team, however, was hit hard by graduation.

The nucleus of the 1958-59 team will probably be comprised of Sewell, Beauchot, Afendis, and Williams. Sewell, who was the leading scorer in the North State Conference last year and who was also selected as a member of the All-State team, was injured near the close of the season. Yet last but has gotten his knee back into shape and seems to be in for another big season. If the Panthers are to stay in the top division this year, Coach Vow is going to have to lean heavily on Sewell, the six-foot-four-inch junior from Kokomo, Indiana. Another bright spot for the Purple Panthers is the return of Beauchot and Afendis, two All-Tournament selections of last year's "Cinderella" North State Tournament team which, to the surprise of everyone, took second place in the tournament. There are a lot of new faces in High Point's prospects for the coming hardwood season, and Ken Williams is one of the biggest "Ken Williams can make us break this year's team," stated Coach Vow in a recent interview. If Williams can heighten his height to the greatest advantage, and play the type of ball he is capable of playing, High Point may be hard to handle.

Another big "if" that will have a great deal to do with how the Panthers shape up this year is how well the incoming freshmen or last year's reserves will cope with the sizable addition of Billy Hopple, Bobby Disti, Bobby Disti, and other new potential starters. Among the new men who have shown much promise are: L. G. Williams, out of Greensboro, North Carolina; sophomore, and Ken Daniel, 6'2", of Chatsworth, Georgia; and Ken Williams, out of Chatsworth, Georgia. Of greenhorn sophomores are: Wallie, H. C., and Chalmous Sechrest, 6'2", of Fair, Greenville, South Carolina, and Wolfe, C. T., of Wake Forest College, and N. Carolina. Up from last year's varsity team are: Tommy Skidmore, and William Formyduval. Short, the young Panth-

High Point Takes Pfeiffer College In Initial Meet

High Point College's newly formed intramural basketball team won its initial meet against Pfeiffer College on October 24 by sweeping four of the five first places. Although the Panthers were running only five men in the meet, they still managed to completely overwhelm Pfeiffer. Dick Dean led High Point by taking first place in both the five and ten-minute run, bringing himself to a new sport at High Point.

For its second test, the Panther backcourt will again tackle Pfeiffer on November 4. This will be a return match and should prove to be very interesting. At their next meet- ing, High Point will probably have a full team. Pfeiffer probably will be better shaped than they were for the last meet. At this time there are no further meets scheduled for the team. The date is not known at the beginning of the next week's tour to that infor- mation. The meet with Pfeiffer will be held at the Blair Park Golf Course.

SCC

Holds Retreat

On Thursday afternoon, Oct. 16, the Student Council held its fall retreat at Spring Hill Methodist Church. The business session came to a close after discussion on two important recommendations:

Concern over the growing number and conflicts of meetings of religious organizations on the campus prompted the council to ask the representatives from each of these organizations, except Kappa Chi and Alpha Delta Theta, to recommend that only one group may meet each week.

Also, concerned about the situation of a few people carrying all the lead to responsibility and offices less than the appointment of a committe of the Student Legislative Representatives to the Legislature that the present student offices for officers be revised and enforced.

The proper committee chairman reported a definite increase in attendance at Sunday evening vespers. So far, $210.06 of the $700 goal for Alex and Bob has been donated.

HPC Co-Eds Discuss New Bookstore Rule

by JFAN BRIDGE

Will it help or won't it? Is it good or will it bring about more problems? These questions, directed toward the new "bookstore rule," have been debated and re-discussed by the students of HPC.

The new rule forbids boys to come to the girls dormitories from 5:15 p.m. until 5:15 p.m., unless the girls have date privileges.

The principal reason for this was to give the dorm centers a chance to clean up and do something each work-day night at that hour. Another reason was that some who couldn't follow the rules would have to be kicked out, and went into "sensitive" territory. In the new rules is a coupled with these, there will be no run in visits privileges at night.

Many opinions and views have been expressed on the matter. Here is the way some of the girls in North Hall feel about it.

Nancy Kellogg: I don't like it, they should be allowed to come over if they can overlook the rules. But boys, if they can't handle that, then maybe we should get rid of the rule.

Jane Lewis: It's fair and reasonable.

Thanksgiving Day - 1958

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States

At this season of the year we are reminded that the course of nature has brought us once again from the time of planting to the time of harvest, and we turn to Almighty God with heartfelt thanksgiving for His enduring providence.

We are grateful for the plentiful yield of our soil and for the bountiful food and clothing and shelter that have succored us throughout the year. We rejoice in the beauty of our land; in the blessings of life and love and friendship which are the fruit of our national life and the hope of international peace. For these and all the many spiritual and temporal benefactions betokening God’s goodness, we offer up our prayers of gratitude.

Let us be especially grateful for the religious heritage bequeathed to us by our forebears as exemplified by the Pilgrims, who, after the gathering of their first harvest, set apart a special day after the gathering of their first harvest, set apart a special day for rendering thanks to God for the bounties vouchsafed to them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved December 22, 1916, designating the fourth Thursday of November of each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 25, 1958, as a day of national thanksgiving. On that day let us, in our homes and in our accustomed places of worship, give due expression of our thanks for the blessings which have signalized our lot as a Nation, and let us ask for guidance in our striving for a better world for all mankind.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Thirty-first day of October in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-third.

Almost without exception, college newspapers have given note and comment to the awarding of the Nobel Prize in Literature to Boris Pasternak for the controversial novel, "Dr. Zhivago," and in the Moscow-Moscow nontraditionalism that followed. The HI-FO decided to join the Pasternak bandwagon hoping that some curious reader might be moved to encounter Dr. Zhivago in Wrenn Memorial Library.

Since the philosophy that created the novel is discussed elsewhere in this issue, it will make note only of the recent episodes accompanying the Nobel award.

Both America and Russia have made much of the "political implications" of the award. It has been a lively spectator game. Earlier episodes have been: Pasternak's statement that he was "immenely thankful" but, proud, astonished, almost stunned, and the news of the award; the proclamation that Pasternak is "the greatest poet living today" by the American press; Moscow's declaration that the award is a "national victory"; Pasternak's being declared a traitor and expelled from the Soviet Writer's Union; the awarding of the Nobel Prize in Physics to three Russian scientists, and the resulting organized expression of joy and satisfaction as the USSR that Soviet science should be thus recognized.

This definitely confused our editors now more tangled daily. What will the Kremlin do now? Shall it send its triumphant scientists to receive the same medal that was awarded to the traitorous poet of the Nobel Prize in Physics, or not? Shall it send off no one at all? Shall it send off the same medal to all of its scientists? Shall it send off an embroidered flag and a medal to the poet? Shall it send off a medal and flag to all of its scientists?

The issue is that of the nature of loyalty. Pasternak's knowledge of Russia, his love of Russia, and his loyalty to Russia, has been sought after by the Kremlin. Certain individuals have been asked by the Kremlin to comment on the award. Pasternak was one of these individuals. His loyalty to Russia, his love of Russia, and his knowledge of Russia, has been sought after by the Kremlin. The Kremlin has asked him to comment on the award.

"The Nobel Prize Committee has the right to award a prize to any individual who has written a book, or an article, or an essay, or anything else that contributes to the cause of world peace, regardless of whether the book is a novel or a political pamphlet," said no individual.

One of the problems that society suffers from a dearth of emphasis and the concentration of the audience. The problem was emphasized and the concentration of the audience. The problem was emphasized and the concentration of the audience. The problem was emphasized and the concentration of the audience.

The problem is that it is difficult to get a message across in a world where there are so many distractions. It is difficult to get a message across in a world where there are so many distractions. It is difficult to get a message across in a world where there are so many distractions.

When you hear people talk of restoring life, it makes you lose your self-control and I fell into despair," said Boris Pasternak. "There is no one who can say that they have never understood a thing about life—there have never been any who have understood a thing about life. They have never understood a thing about life. They have never understood a thing about life.

In saying, "I have never understood a thing about life," Pasternak spoke the truth. Life is a question of how to get through the modern world. It is a question of how to get through the modern world. It is a question of how to get through the modern world.

The HI-FO, "Across the Desk, Please Zhivago" almost without exception, college newspapers have given note and comment to the awarding of the Nobel Prize in Literature to Boris Pasternak for the controversial novel, "Dr. Zhivago."

Whazzit with What's What

(by HENRY ENLE ATINSON)

We students of HPC, with all of our many extracurricular activities, never stop making improvements in the HPC scene. As long as it is a good place to concentrate on our studies and a place for needed refreshments, we will remain as students and will view our school with fondness. We hope that our library will continue to grow and our facilities will be improved.

The library has really grown over the past few years. In 1935, there were only 15,000 volumes. Also, in 1935, the circulation was 1,416 books, and in 1958, this year, the circulation is 7,172.

Of the eleven colleges in North Carolina, whose enrollment equals Carolina, we have the highest number of circulating books. Jail.

Plan have been made and bids have been received for a new wing behind the library. This will not only double the existing capacity, but will increase the volume capacity to 100,000 volumes.

All of these accommodations seem to point upwards in particular to these generalizations preferred by our grandfathers and many more about "this younger generation." Today's students have been called the "ideal generation" for their lack of literary standards and their desire for new-found carriers which were recognized as symbols of unity.

If this generation appears to have no literary standards, the desire for new-found carriers which were recognized as symbols of unity.

The committee approved. "We'll probably have time to do other things because the library is Approved." There was a buzz of delight throughout the group. "How nice it is to have a library again." Suggested, also, was well received, and in no time the list was filled.

"I think my fraternity men ought to be well represented." Everyone agreed. "We'll probably have more time to do other things because the library is Approved." There was a buzz of delight throughout the group. "How nice it is to have a library again." Suggested, also, was well received, and in no time the list was filled.

Ten Kappa Epsilon fraternity, showing a great defense and a fine offense, took first place honors in intramural football by tying Lambda Chi Alpha in the last game of the season. This was probably the most important game of the season for both teams, for had Lambda Chi won the two teams would have been in a tie for first place.

So good was the mighty Take de- fense that they held Penn to a single point on them throughout the entire season. Take, under the leadership of Tom Workman, Bruce Miller, and Toms Skel- ler, in the backfield, they showed a very potent offense. Effectively effec- tive was a running game with Work- man carrying the only ball on the Take record was the fact with Lambda Chi.

Playing second in what turned out to be a nominee race, was Lambda Chi which, against a produced a good team. Taking third place honors was a very sound Kappa Epsilon team. Surprisingly the Freshman team showed up very well this year. In past years the Freshman teams have not done very well because of disorganization, but this year they managed to nail down fourth place in the final standings. Taking fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth places were Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Chi, Delta Sigma Phi, and Pi Kappa Alpha respectively.

Sideline Comments

A WORTHY PROJECT FOR SENIORS!

While the senior class is thinking of a project, it would do well to consider the possibility of bringing track meets to the HPC campus. The old dirt courts behind the student center are definitely inadequate. Tins court and are very seldom ever in good condition. Anyone using this court is spending his or her time in the mud with the sun shining on the (2nd) track. This is not the best way of spending the time involved would be for the seniors to get out and do their part.

It would not be necessary for each individual person in the senior class to shell out the money to pay for such a project. The actual work involved would be for the seniors to get out and contact some of the alumni and other interested persons. All that would be necessary would be to ask each person for a small contribution. Think about it.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The HI-PO sports staff would like to offer its personal congratulations to those boys who were placed on the All-State team. This is quite an honor and each person deserved it. A special commendation goes out for all the boys who participated in football for their fine sportsmanship and great competitive play.

City Panhellenic. Mrs. Powell said that she realized much discussion, generally favorable to the proposed house, the vote was postponed until Dec. 18.

The meeting was opened with some background material presented by Mrs. W. E. Lamberti, president of the City Panhellenic. The city group of sorority alumnae was organized in the spring of 1956 in order to help the College Panhellenic. Its

In a called meeting last week the Student Union of representatives elected officers for the remainder of the school year. Don O'Donovan, former president, was chosen Speaker of the legislature. James Tatum was elected Secretary. He will be succeeded by Bessie Reading Clark, and Gilbert Boykin.

On December 23, Dr. Drapeau was appointed a Rules Committee and a Credentials Committee which were to meet in the next House meeting. Al Bean, chancellor, has announced that a slate of 28 roles of procedure will be drawn up by the committee, and are pending Senate action.

In a joint session of the House and Senate held prior to the House meeting, SGA President Fred Barlow announced that the procedure committee was to meet with House leadership to consider a new procedure for the new House and Senate. It was agreed that the rules committee be held in the new organization. The House and Senate leadership will meet following the Christmas holidays. Barber further stressed that legislative members become more familiar with parliamentary procedure and maintain dignity in the legislative meetings.
One cannot travel far across the campus this week without sensing a little of the spirit of Christmas. Everywhere festive decorations and traditional carols are set up, and the festive air of High Point Greeks has contributed a great deal to this spirit through their annual Christmas service.

The Theta Chi Fraternity, with the help of the Alpha Gamma Deltas, gave their annual Christmas party for under-privileged children on December 16. Everyone of the Alpha Gamma Deltas sang at the Presbyterian Home on Dec. 11.

Emilio Koppis Epsilon Fraternity finished North Hall with a Christmas tree. Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity has decorated the front of Woman's Hall with a Christmas wreath.

The T-shirt was on and the tree, too, that brought everyone to campus. It was another annual Christmas party for the Presbyterian Home presented by the Alpha Gamma Deltas, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta. The Christmas party was held on December 16.

On December 15, the Alpha Chi Rho donated a wreath of evergreen to place on the door of the inner office, still staring at the glass-topped desk. The secretary had come back from New York, still staring at the glass-topped desk. The secretary had come back from New York, and Dr. English rose from his chair and waited patiently for John, who had been writing a letter to the editor of the local newspaper.

Basketball Team Makes HP Fans Dream Of Title

Led by junior Danny Sewell, the High Point College Panthers took over first place in North State Conference play by sinking the Pirates from East Carolina by a score of 95-76. Sewell bagged 44 points in leading the Panthers to victory.

Sewell, scoring from all over the court, was the star, but the remainder of the tremendous Panthers played a brilliant game. Little Jack Short had a hot shooting streak going in the second half which kept the High Pointers ahead of the Pirates. He played in all around good game. Ken Williams played very well under the boards and Captain Steve Almeida was the big play maker. Most of Sewell's baskets were scored on passes from Almeida who was a devastating influence on the Panthers.

This victory gave the Panthers a 4-0 overall record and 3-0 in conference play to give them undisputed possession of the conference championship. A boy like Sewell can make or break a team. His 44 points against East Carolina solidified the notion that Sewell has emerged from last season's junior class to become the man of the season this year.

Against Pfeiffer Sewell came alive for the first time and led the Panthers to a decisive win by scoring 33 points. However, not to be completely overshadowed by Sewell's great offensive effort was that man Jack Short who scored 18 points and played a generally brilliant game.

Captain Steve Almeida has been the most understated player of the team as his play has been steady and unassuming. Coach Yow has brought into a state a team which has the potential of being great and should have a good season's record.

Hi-Po Reporter Uncovers Unknown
South American Athlete On Campus

BY DALE BROWN

One of High Point College’s most outstanding and under-rated seniors, Ben Zambrana, has yet another accomplishment to add to his fine record which includes being named to the Tri-City All-Star Light and Dark team, the Western Piedmont All-Star team, and the Top Seniors, Who’s Who, and the Who’s Who of Junior Marshall. Few people knew the fact that Ben was very outstanding soccer player in his own country of Bolivia before entering college in the United States, and helped lead his high school team to the soccer championship of the nation during his junior year.

Soccer is to the South American nation as football, baseball, and basketball is to the citizens of the United States. Ben, as most boys do, began kicking a ball almost as soon as he could walk. When a ball wasn’t available, which was not very seldom, Ben could remember having used a dried orange, or a ball made out of rays. By the time Ben reached the sixth grade, he was playing for his junior team. A short time later in junior high, soccer became his favorite sport. The teams are set up to play in leagues similar to those set up in the country for baseball. At the age of fifteen, Ben led his Pat Stadium, the equivalent of play-

INTRAMURALS FLOUNDER!

What is the scoop on the intramural program this year? It seems that to date the intramurals have not been running too smoothly. At the beginning of the school year Dr. Hertz, Intramural Director, presented the various team managers with a well-planned schedule of the intramural program for the entire year. However, since that time the program has bogged down.

During the football season a number of problems presented themselves. The first major problem arose when a large number of the participants began to suffer from injuries. This brought up the question of an insurance policy which would cover the individuals involved in intramural sports. At the present time the college has no policy available which will cover injuries suffered in these activities. This is a serious problem and should be cleared up.

Appearing at the same time was the problem of inadequate officiating. Not that the officials were not good, but that there were several instances where there was no official present. This could only result from negligence on the part of those responsible for furnishing officials for the contests. Are the remaining intramural sports to suffer from such neglect?

Note, however, another problem has arisen. The freshmen are register-
