Vol. XXXIV; No. 1

High Point, N. C.

September 25, 1959

Dr. Wendell M. Patton, new president of High Point College, is shown with his family, (seated, left to right) Leland, Melissa Lee, Mrs. Patton, and (standing) Wendell III.

Patton Assumes Duties As Fourth President

Dr. Wendell M. Patton took over the duties of president of High Point College on September 1. Dr. Patton is the fourth president and succeeds Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, who asked to be relieved of the presidential responsibilities which he carried for ten years.

A native of Spartanburg, S. C., Dr. Patton attended Wofford College. Following World War II, in which he served as a ground and flight training officer and attained the rank of captain; he transferred to the University of Georgia where he took his B.S. and M.S. degrees. He won his doctorate from Purdue University in the field of psychology. His Master's thesis was written on "The Duties and Functions of College Administrative Officials."

Dr. Patton brings with him extensive experience in college administration and teaching. At the University of Georgia, he served as assistant registrar and admissions officer; he served Lander College, Greenwood, S. C., as business manager and head of the department of Education and Psychology; while doing graduate work at Purdue, he also taught.

For the past seven years he has been in the field of business, the first half of that period with Bruce Payne and Associates, Inc., New York management consultants. For the past three and one-half years he has been assistant to the president and general manager of Shuford Mills, directing staffs and service functions and giving much of this time to long-range planning.

Dr. Patton is a leading Methodist layman at Hickory, prominent in the civic as well as business life, and is frequently called upon by the American Management Association for speaking engagements in various parts of the country. His father operated a small school in which Dr. Patton helped. Dr. and Mrs. Patton have a daughter and two sons.

Modestly accepting the call to the presidency, Dr. Patton told the trustees that brain power has replaced manpower as a natural resource. "In this age of rapidly expanding technology," he continued, "we are prone to confuse our sense of values—and in so doing overlook the great contributions the Christian liberal arts college can and should make. There is no question but what this type of college is destined to become the backbone of our system of higher education. But we must assume an aggressive leadership and shed the passive apologetic attitude so often the earmark of the small college of the past.

"High Point College has emphasized quality in its educational program. We must become even more conscious of quality—especially as we broaden our scope and enlarge our horizons. Quality standards must be dynamic and not static. Change is inevitable and will occur, but only when change is made on purpose does real progress result.

"This community needs High Point College—just as High Point College needs the support of this community. We must re-double our efforts and do some earnest soul-searching as we look for and find ways to help each other. . . . With God's help I will do my best to be an effective tool in the furtherance of His work—with the hope and belief that High Point College will continue in its goal of becoming a stronger, vital and constructive influence."

360 Freshmen Begin Classes

Classes began at High Point College on Friday, September 18, which officially marked the opening of the college's thirty-sixth year of continuous service in the field of higher education. Activity on the campus was quite apparent beginning Sunday, September 13, with the arrival of the freshman class. The largest freshman class in the history of the college began a series of activities on Monday including orientation, testing and registration. According to college officials, the incoming freshman class is not only the largest but the best prepared class for many years.

The upper-classmen were on hand Wednesday to begin registration which continued through Thursday afternoon. According to Mr. N. P. Yarborough, registrar at High Point College, the enrollment this fall semester is the largest in the history of the college with the respective classes approximating in number: 360 freshmen, 286 sophomores, 196 juniors and 158 seniors. Late registration is expected to increase this number to well over the present total of one thousand.

New additions to the faculty include Dr. Gerard P. Cleisz, Language; Dr. Dan B. Cooke, Education; Mr. Louis R. Daugherty, Business; Dr. James C. Dixon, History; Mr. Larry V. Lowe, Speech; Mr. Benjamin Lucas, Jr., Sociology; Dr. Edwin H. Pleasants, Language; Dr. Richard D. Poole, Physical Education; Dr. William J. Sowder, English; and Dr. Albert H. Wollett, Physics.

In addressing the new freshman class, Dr. Patton, president, stated the hope of the entire faculty in saying, "All of us are here to help you gain the maximum benefit from your college years. This is the biggest adventure of your life so make the most of it. This college will become a part of you and you will become a part of this college. Make sure you leave the best and take the best."

This busy week of activities in preparation for the start of the fall semester was climaxed on Saturday evening with the faculty and staff reception for the entire student body. The students were received by the administrative officers, heads of departments, other faculty members and their wives. Following the reception a dance brought the evening to a conclusion.

World Affairs Assembly Topic

Dr. S. E. Gerard Priestley, one of the outstanding specialists in world affairs, will be the speaker in Assembly October 7. Dr. Priestley will spend the day on High Point College campus.

Dr. Priestley watched the rise and fall of Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy. After America entered World War II, he lectured to more than a million men and women in the armed forces of the United States and her allies. His radio broadcasts also were heard in many parts of the world.

Since the war, Dr. Priestley has traveled in more than 60 countries, studying current political and economic conditions and meeting with government officials, prime ministers, members of parliaments, United Nations experts, educators, businessmen and farmers. He watched American aid officials at work in Bangkok, Rangoon, Delhi and Baghdad and visited many of the projects sponsored by the U. N. and the Colombo Plan.

From 1948 to 1953, Dr. Priestley served as vice chairman of the Speakers Research Committee for the United Nations. He also acted as moderator of the radio program, United Nations Forum of the Air, originating in New York City. On his most recent trip, Dr. Priestley studied political and economic conditions in Southeast Asia, the Middle East and Eastern Europe. He knows the Near East intimately as the result of many visits in the past 20 years.

Born in Windsor, England, Gerard Priestley spent his first 25 years in the United Kingdom, where he spent four years as an undergraduate at London University.

In 1935 he was granted a scholarship to Hartford Seminary in Connecticut where he received the Bachelor of Divinity degree. After spending a year of research and travel in South America, he received the degree of Master of Sacred Theology from Hartford. Continuing his studies at the graduate School of Arts and Science, New York University, he received the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in history and international economics. Dr. Priestley spent a year of research at the National University of Mexico. He also holds the post-graduate degree of Master of Social Science from the Graduate Faculty of Political Science, New School for Social Research, New York.

Dr. Priestley has taught history at Springfield College and at University College, New York University. He has lectured on international affairs at more than 500 colleges in this country and abroad.

SGA To Run Center

Dean Nelson has announced that it is his desire for the Student Government Association to operate the Student Center. Dean Nelson proposed this increase in student responsibility at a recent SGA Council meeting.

The Student Center, with its new lounge and student offices, is ready for use except for a few minor touches, according to Dean Nelson. As soon as the SGA can work out an operating schedule the Student Center will be open for use by the students.

Ray Sheppard, SGA president, said that the council is in hopes of setting up a schedule soon and that the times when the Student Center will be open will be posted. Sheppard also asked that all students cooperate in keeping the rooms in the condition they are now in, and in aiding the SGA Council with this new responsibility.

The Student Center now has a fully furnished lounge which will be available for the students for use as a place to visit, to watch television, and to listen to records. The room was furnished by Mrs. Charles F. Long, of High Point, in memory of her grandson, Charles Long Casey. Casey was the first graduate of High Point College to be lost in action in the Korean conflict. The TV and stereophonic set are gifts of the class of '59.

The upstairs of the old and new sections of the Student Center have been made into offices and storage space. The Hi-PO, Zenith, Student Christian Council, and SGA each have offices in the new quarters. There is also a meeting room in which the Student Senate and House will hold their meetings.

Nelson Dean Of Students

James L. Nelson, a former HPC graduate, is the new Dean of Student Affairs. Mr. Nelson is replacing Professor J. H. Allred who has served as Dean of Students for the past eight years.

Nelson, a native of Kernersville, graduated from HPC in 1948 with a B.S. degree in business administration. From the University of N. C. he holds an M.E. degree in business education. Mr. Nelson has also done advanced graduate work at the University of the Philippines.

While he was with the armed services, Mr. Nelson visited Italy, France, Germany, and England. He has also taught in the Philippine Islands and Manila. In addition to his travels with the armed services, he has toured in Japan, China, and Red China.

Mr. Nelson taught in the Forsyth County Public Schools for five years. He has been on the faculty of Western Carolina College and of Oak Ridge Military Institute.

Mr. Nelson is married to the former Kei Imai of San Francisco, a graduate of HPC also. Mrs. Nelson taught the second grade in Kernersville this past year. The Nelsons have one daughter, Vicki.

Before coming to HPC, Mr. Nelson promoted student government in the schools he taught. He is very interested in the student government at HPC and wishes to promote it in the ways he can. Mr. Nelson has also expressed interest in the publications by the College.

WHERE IS YOUR VOICE?

The HI-PO has had as its motto for several years "Voice of the Students." This is a noble goal and one which the editor should always keep in mind.

The editor must print what the students want to read and promote the students' welfare. The content and form of the HI-PO should reflect the attitudes and interests of HPC's student body.

But our motto should not only be a challenge to the editor. It should also be a challenge to the student body. Here is a publication at your disposal, an organ through which you can tell of your activities, express your views and demonstrate your creative ability.

If an editorial expresses a view you disagree with, write a letter to the editor and give your viewpoint. If an organization is planning something special, let the HI-PO know about it. And if you have some poems or sketches, or any creative work, share them through the HI-PO.

This year let your voice be heard in the HI-PO office, so that the HI-PO may truly be the "Voice of the Students."

THERE'S A NAME FOR IT

We got all involved in "days", "weeks" and "months", because of one innocent question.

Of course everyone is involved in nothing else but days, weeks and months, but it seems that the year is loaded with specials, most of which we never heard of before. Furthermore, someone in Michigan now makes a business of keeping people informed about all these special doings and for a sum you can find out about everything.

Apparently the Department of Commerce and then the U. S. Chamber of Commerce used to compile a list of all the special days and weeks, but they have broken down and thrown up their hands in despair.

The most thrilling discovery we made is that May is "Mute Your Muffler Month." This is one of the deep secrets of calendar makers and day, week and month namers. Never before have we heard of a month devoted to "muting one's muffler."

We have been unable to delve deeply into the problem of special events that occur all about us in such tremendous profusion, because we have yet to patronize the man in Michigan who keeps track of them.

However, we are sure some important causes have been overlooked and we offer the following weeks for sale cheap to anyone who can use them:

"Let's Stay Out All Night Week."

"Let's Not Get Up All Day Week."

"Don't Talk About the Russians Week" (or make it a year).

"Let's All Quit Talking and Do Something Week."

With the adoption of the last week, we expect the entire political system of the nation to fall apart and a deafening silence to reign. Would this be better than a week in which we talk all the time and do nothing? The alternatives fascinate us.

Death To A Trend

Let us have a brief moment of silence for the almost certain passing of that great American concept—individuality. For, although there may be a slight flutter or twitch or a moan of protest, death resulting from an acute case of mass tolerance of mediocrity seems at hand.

Today the average American goes through high school and college with as little effort as possible, gets a job making the most money for the least work, gets married, raises a family, and lives frantically ever after—spending twice as much money as he makes in trying to keep up with the Joneses. This is the dream of the 99.44% pure-blooded American as he floats blissfully in his world of bank loans, bridge games, and monthly payments. This is the safe, painless way to practically insure a life of middle-class mediocrity.

Almost no one is willing to risk the stigma of being different. Nowadays it's practically un-American to think for one's self.

This intellectual lack is strikingly illustrated by what passes for entertainment. Instead of debates, simple conversation, or even a good book, there is that adult pacifier, the television set with its never-ending westerns and detective stories. Music is no longer with us per se; in its place has come a combination of chipmunks, Charlie Brown, and the cha cha cha. And as far as books are concerned, the characters are about as real as Little Orphan Annie and just about as believable.

Every day the situation gets worse and worse. It's high time we found a cure for this disease before all of us catch it. We may very well be too late already. As I said before, let us have a brief moment of silence—better make it a half moment of silence or we won't have time to finish our bridge game before "77 Sunset Strip" comes on.

Challenge From Rhee

In Austin, Texas, a fifth grade teacher had his pupils write letters to world leaders, conveying friendship messages to all children. A letter from Syngman Rhee, president of the Republic of South Korea, carries advice which should be well taken by our own generation.

"My Dear American Friends:

"Your world friendship project is most commendable, and I am pleased to send you a message of advice for all boys and girls everywhere.

"... When I was as old as you, there were no automobiles, no air-planes, no radio, no television, no miracle drugs — and no atom and hydrogen bombs.

"Also, there was no peace, and some of the peoples of the world were trying to push other people around. That is something that has not changed; yet, it is the aspect of our life that most required change.

"The generations that precede you have provided a wonderful heritage of inventions to make life more interesting and comfortable. But to you, they have left the supreme task: that of creating a world order of freedom, of justice, and of peace.

"Because you are citizens of the United States, which is the strongest and most democratic country in the world, your own role is especially important. If you don't understand what is going on, and if you are not alert to the intentions of the enemy that we call communism, there won't be much hope for the rest of us.

"My counsel is to stand firm for the values and the actions that have made your nation great. Do not compromise with evil. Do not think that you can live as free and happy men and women when others are enslaved and miserable.

"This is your challenge, and it is one that those who came before have never been able to meet. But I am confident that you will not fail, because you have greater opportunity for knowing, for finding out the truth, than any boys and girls of the past.

"My very best wishes to all of you."

This letter was directed to fifth graders, students a generation behind us. Will we continue in the manner of our preceding generations and leave this challenge to be answered by those to come, or will we use our "greater opportunity for knowing, for finding out the truth?"

TAKE TIME

Take TIME to think—
It is the source of power.
Take TIME to give—
It is too short a day to be selfish.
Take TIME to play—
It is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take TIME to read—
It is the fountain of wisdom.
Take TIME to pray—
It is the greatest power on earth.
Take TIME to love and be loved—
It is a God-given privilege.
Take TIME to be friendly—
It is the road to happiness.
Take TIME to laugh—
It is the music of the soul.
Take TIME to work—
It is the price of success.

Not A Bad Idea

University of Minnesota DAILY columnist Todd White tells what he did when tuition went up.

I didn't mind it a bit. In fact, I'm delighted that they raised my tuition $25. It solved all my problems in one fell swoop.

You see, I am a University parking lot attendant and must manage on a budget of $100 a quarter. With tuition formerly at about $75 a quarter, I was left to struggle along with $25. It's nearly impossible to get room, board and something to wear on only $25, and I have found it exceedingly trying.

Now my problem is solved. The University takes the whole hundred dollars, and I don't have to rack my brains trying to figure out how to get along on $25. Instead, I can devote all my time to existing on nothing by fully utilizing the facilities of the University.

Until I can think of something better, I'll cultivate a hangnail and take up residence at the infirmary. When that heals, I'll tell them I did it on purpose, and they'll send me over to the psycho ward, and that'll take care of another few day's lodging!

IT'S NOT EASY

To apologize, to admit an error,
To be unselfish, to profit by mistakes,
To take advice, to be charitable,
To be considerate, to forgive and forget,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
To begin over—
But It Always Pays.

"I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."—Stephen Grellett.

It's what we learn after we think we know it all that counts.

—Abe Martin.

Auditions For Musical Held

The biggest venture ever undertaken by the Tower Players is now in the making. Auditions for singing and speaking parts in "Guys and Dolls" will be held the first of next week. The performances are scheduled for November 19 and 20.

Tickets are on sale now at an advanced sale rate of 60 cents. The price will be $1.00 at the door. Students who wish to take advantage of the reduced rate should contact Arlene Lanzieri.

Auditions for the singing parts will be held on Monday, September 28, at 1:30, and on Tuesday and Wednesday at 3:30. All singing auditions will be held by Mr. Fryhoyer in his studio.

Miss DeSpain will hold try-outs for the speaking parts for men at 2:30, Tuesday, September 29, and for women at 2:30 on Monday. These auditions will be held in room 3 in the Music Building.

There will also be auditions for dancing parts in the Musical. The time of these auditions will be announced later. Anyone interested in working on the stage crew, the lighting, the make-up, or the costumes should contact Miss DeSpain.

After the success of the Tower Players' musical last year, it has been decided that High Point College is ready for a recent Broadway musical. "Guys and Dolls" had an unusually long run on Broadway and is the favorite modern musical of many. It is hoped that this, the largest financial venture attempted by HPC's theatrical group, will receive the complete support of the students and faculty.

P. O. Boxes Held Up

The post office boxes are being held up because of the steel strike, announced Mr. A. B. Williams, bursar of the college. It is hoped that they will arrive by October 1.

Mr. Williams said that arrangements had been made to purchase used boxes which are in excellent condition. These were to have been delivered the first of August. However, a labor strike prevented the completion of the building which was to replace the one from which we are buying the boxes. Then the steel strike occurred and it has been impossible for the other party to use their new boxes and so we are unable to get ours.

Until the boxes arrive and are installed, the mail will be delivered to the dorms. Mr. Williams said that he regrets the inconvenience but there was no way to foresee and thus prevent the situation.

Contest Open For Guest Editorship

Mademoiselle magazine is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership in its 1959-60 College Board.

Mademoiselle's College Board Contest offers a chance (for the freshman as well as the senior) at winning one of the 20 Guest Editorships—a month on the staff of Mademoiselle.

A girl who is accepted on the College Board will do one assignment during the college year designed to help her discover her own abilities and job interests, and to develop her critical and creative talents. For her assignment a College Board member may write a feature about life on her campus; or submit art work, fashion, feature, fiction or promotion ideas for possible use in Mademoiselle.

College Board members who come out among the top 20 on the assignment win a Mademoiselle Guest Editorship and will be brought to New York next June to help write, edit and illustrate the August College issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

While in New York each Guest Editor interviews a celebrity in her chosen field, visits fashion workrooms, newspaper offices, stores and advertising agencies, besides working daily with the Editor to whom she is assigned.

November 30 is the deadline for applying for College Board membership. Successful candidates will be notified of acceptance before New Years.

For further information write the College Board Contest, c/o Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York, or see the August, September, October or November issue of Mademoiselle.

Ceramics Class Now Offered

A class in ceramics is being offered this semester at High Point College. The class is held once a week from seven to ten on Tuesday evenings and is taught by Mr. Raiford Porter, art instructor.

A new laboratory has been set up especially for this class. The course is designed for art teachers as well as persons interested in ceramic work. It is a beginner course in the making of pottery through build-up and wheel technique. Use of glazes, kiln and molds is stressed.

A Glance At Sports

by DALE BROWN

When three teams are virtually tied for the National League lead with about a week's playing schedule left, an article on the forth coming World Series is impossible. Thus this item has to go to press with San Francisco and Los Angeles showing identical 82-66 records and Milwaukee just a half game out.

Over in the Junior League, the weak but timely hitting Chicago White Sox have just about wrapped up their first pennant in four decades. Cleveland hasn't been able to win the big games, especially in Comisky Park and is going to have to settle for the second rung this season. Pre-season favored New York was never able to get off the ground and had to come from the cellar to win the battle with Detroit for third place.

The kind of pennant race that every sports fan dreams of is being staged in the National League this year and the outcome will probably not be decided until the final day. Until Saturday night it looked like the Giants might be able to hang on to the lead and grab the flag, until Roger Craig and Don Drysdale teamed up and gave the Dodgers two big wins and a tie for first. Milwaukee remains in the thick of things and could very well walk off with all the marbles.

Many wonder how the White Sox have done it in bringing a flag back to the "Windy City" for the first time in 40 years. With only Nellie Fox hitting over .300 much must be contributed to balance. Surprisingly Chicago has shown very few weak links on defense, and this, teamed with sound pitching and the timely single or double, has been enough to dethrone the Yankees.

While it appears that Harvey Kuenn has the American League batting title sewed up, Hank Aaron and Jim Cunningham are staging a good battle in the National loop. Aaron has been the leader all season and is favored to capture the title. At press time, Rocky Colavito of Cleveland has banged out 41 home runs and driven in 106 runs to lead both departments while in the Senior Loop Chicago's Ernie Banks leads with 42 four baggers and 137 RBIs.

Fellowship Team Retreat Held

The Fellowship Team Retreat will be held Saturday afternoon, September 26, from 3:30 to 7:30. All interested persons will meet in front of Roberts Hall and go to Montlieu Avenue Methodist Church where there will be fellowship singing, a skit and slides of former teams.

John Meares, a well-known recreation leader, will be at the Retreat to provide table fun and recreation. The Retreat will end with a short worship service. The Retreat is an informative session acquainting the new students with the purpose and work of the Fellowship Teams. Everyone is invited regardless of denomination, and there is no obligation involved.

The Fellowship teams were founded on campus in 1953. They are groups of five or more college students who visit churches for one night or a whole weekend to help build a stronger youth group there. The Team members are trained in the various aspects of youth work before they are allowed to go out. Last year there were 18 Fellowship Teams.

Chapel Choir Being Formed

A new choir has been organized at High Point College. To be called the Chapel Choir, it will be solely responsible for the music in Chapel programs. The choir will rehearse every Tuesday and Thursday at 2:30 in the music building.

Because this course was not listed in the catalogue, there will be no credit given for participation. It is hoped that next year the course will receive credit. The choir is open to anyone who would like to join and no auditions are necessary.

Mr. Fryhover, choir director, said that this action has been taken because of the increased interest expressed by the students in the music program at HPC. Since it is virtually impossible to take all those interested into the A Capella Choir, the choral responsibilities will be divided and the Chapel Choir will assume the task of preparing the music for the Chapel programs.

Besides the interest expressed by the students, there is an increasing interest for having the choir perform outside of the college. Last year the A Capella Choir made 44 appearances besides their regular college performances. There is a possibility that the A Capella Choir will tour with the North Carolina Symphony in the Spring. This extra load has become too great for one choir to carry and so a second reason for the new choir.

Anyone who is interested in joining the Chapel Choir should begin meeting the rehearsals immediately or contact Mr. Fryhover.

Positions Open On Hi-Po Staff

There are positions open on the HI-PO editorial staff for reporters, feature writers, artists, typists and proof readers. The business staff needs typists and ad sellers.

The HI-PO staff will meet Monday, September 28, at 10:20 in room 21. All students, old or new, who wish to work on the paper should attend this meeting. If this is not possible, contact Patt Olmsted and indicate your interest before that time.

Any student who worked on a newspaper previously is asked to join the HI-PO staff and continue in this line of work. Those students who are interested but have no previous experience are also invited to join the staff and learn the journalistic trade.

Methodists Plan For Future

The Methodist Student Fellowship started the year with an Orientation Party for the freshmen on Sept. 17. The evening was highlighted with unusual group games, singing, worship, dancing, and food.

The first regular meeting of the season was held on Wednesday, Sept. 23, at City Lake. The large group enjoyed recreation together and closed the meeting with a worship program on the Lord's Prayer.

During the month of October the Methodist Student Fellowship will be discussing a unit on Science vs. Religion which should be of vital interest to everyone. The meeting on Oct. 7 will be lead by Emma Lou Noell; the speaker for the evening will be Mr. C. Ray Purette from Louisburg College who will talk specifically on "a scientist looks at God."

On Oct. 14 the topic will be "Has Science Made Religion Passe?" This meeting will be more of a discussion with an outside speaker to answer questions. On the following Wed., Oct. 21, Dr. Hudgins will lead a final discussion in order to bring the unit (Continued on Page 4)

Foreign Service Exams Announced

In response to thousands of inquiries received from all areas of the country concerning a career with the Foreign Service officer corps, the State Department is again announcing that the next written Foreign Service Officer examination will be held on December 5, 1959, in approximately 65 centers throughout the United States and at Foreign Service posts abroad.

In recruiting officers in the past, the Foreign Service has sought young men and women with broad and general backgrounds. The need for such "generalist" officers has not lessened but, with the more varied types of positions now being filled by Foreign Service officers, there is an increased need also for persons with specialized training. The Foreign Service requires officers who will specialize in such fields as public and business administration, and economics, as well as in language and area studies, international labor affairs, and political science.

To be eligible to take this examination in December, candidates must be at least 21 and under 32 years of age as of October 19, the closing date for receipt of applications. Persons 20 years of age may apply only if they hold a bachelor's degree or are seniors in college. Applicants must be American citizens of at least nine years' standing, and, although a candidate's spouse need not be a citizen on the date of the examination, citizenship must have been attained prior to the date of appointment.

Ford Sparked Revolution

A European scholar and priest has written a stirring defense of American capitalism in which he credits Henry Ford with having sparked a revolution that makes the Russian Revolution pale to little more than a changing of the palace guard.

Writing in the October Reader's Digest, R. L. Bruckberger, a Dominican priest, says: "I consider 1914 a momentous year in history because it was the year in which Henry Ford, by establishing the eight-hour day and more than doubling wages at one stroke, finally freed the worker from 'proletarian' servitude."

"The year 1917, on the other hand, no longer fills me with the slightest awe. I have long since ceased to believe that what we call the Russian Revolution should be dignified with so noble a word as revolution. The year 1917 stands for no more than a palace revolution which substituted a red czar for a white one."

Father Bruckberger asserts that Henry Ford changed the selfish, profit-hungry American capitalism of 1912 to the "people's capitalism" we know today.

"When Ford adopted the eight-hour, five-dollar day in 1914, he made the worker a customer in the market. By putting America on wheels, he rescued the farmer from isolation. By bringing the market to the farmer's door, Ford created an unlimited national market."

Says Father Bruckberger: "Because of Ford's industrial revolution, unlimited growth and increasing prosperity are possible for mankind. Ford's discovery was nothing less than the discovery of the kind of human organization which makes this expansion possible."

Wylie Charges Newspapers, Education

Home town America's newspapers are the last bulwark against the ever-increasing loss of freedom, Philip Wylie, internationally famous author, commented at an award dinner at Florida State University. Wylie is best known for his "Generation of Vipers" in which he displays an uncanny insight into human behavior.

The objective of too many big city newspapers is not to give the news, but to peddle the most saleable details of daily events, Wylie said. Press associations all over the world are busy sending in stories to fill front pages designed mainly to sell issues packed with stories to feed morbid, shock-hungry readers. Factual news and editorial comment are out-weighted ten to one by intimate and insignificant happenings of questionable value in the entertainment world and sports, he added.

It thus falls to the smaller newspapers to prevent complete loss of freedom's franchise, which they can lose as a trolley line loses its franchise when it's not used, Wylie continued. By accurate news reporting and elimination of slanting or coloring, editors of these papers can do the job their metropolitan counterparts are shirking. Every newspaper can be courageous and free, he said, only if its editor or publisher crusades for something that enables the publication to exercise its right to free expression and molds public opinion through true accounts of actual events.

Emphasis on worth of the classroom over the gymnasium or gridiron is a primary need, Wylie asserted. Newspapers playing up to circulation sales demands, have sabotaged the United States by loading up our educational institutions with muscle men, turning our universities into entertainment centers, rather than focal points of learning.

Cheating and dishonesty in class work and tests has been encouraged by the knowledge that an athletic star commands more attention and respect than exceptional scholastic achievement, Wylie complained. This accounts for Russia's present gains against us in the race in science and research. In Russia, sports are purely professional and have no connection with scholarship. There is no amateur in the Soviet Union. Excellence in athletic ability is completely subsidized. People are constantly screened for what they can do, not what they want to do. Then they are assigned to work without regard to their feelings, as everything is state ordered. This can be prevented here by an alert press, Wylie concluded.

Auditions For Pan-Hell Holds Fall Follies To Be Tuesday

Auditions for the annual Fall Follies will be held in the auditorium on Tuesday, October 13. Only freshmen and transfer students are eligible to perform in this talent show. Any type of talent is acceptable. Interested students should sign up for an audition time in the cafeteria or Roberts Hall before Monday, October 12.

The follies will be held in Memorial Auditorium on October 22 at 8 p.m. Judges will be chosen from outside of the college and awards will be given to the acts chosen for first, second and third place honors.

Intermission entertainment will be provided by last year's winners, Zane Daniels, first place, and Denise Brown, second place. Last year's third place winner did not return to HPC this year.

The steering committee, Patt Olmsted, Helen Clay, Paul Jones, and Bill McDaniel, have announced that they hope to obtain the services of Shrimp Flynt as Master of Ceremonies. The committee extends an invitation to all new students interested in working with make-up, sets, lighting or programs to contact them. It is hoped that more new students will take a more extensive part in this year's production of Fall Follies.

This year the SGA has turned the production of the Fall Follies over to the HI-PO staff. This action was taken in view of a request entered by the staff, in order to raise more money to publish more HI-PO's.

Lovejoy Speaks At 'Set-to'

The Student Christian Council will stage a "Student Set-to," on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 20 and 21. The theme of the Set-to is "The Courage To Be," and the leader is Dr. Gordon Lovejoy of Guilford College.

The Set-to will begin on Tuesday evening with a dramatic reading of "The Devil Passes" in the auditorium at 8:00 p.m. by The Winston-Salem Art Council Quintet.

Dr. Lovejoy will speak in the Assembly on Wednesday morning and in the afternoon the students will challenge him with questions concerning his morning address. The Set-to will conclude with an address by Dr. Lovejoy on Wednesday evening.

Dr. Lovejoy bears the titles of Kentucky Colonel and Nebraska Admiral—honors which were given to him for his work in human relations in these two states. He is a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina.

He has taught at Furman University, Lynchburg College, and the University of Miami, and has been visiting professor at the Brite College of the Bible. One of the few protestants to be thus honored, he has served as a visiting professor at Notre Dame University.

At the present time, Dr. Lovejoy is visiting professor of sociology at Guilford College and is Assistant Director of the Southeastern Division of the National Conference for Christians and Jews.

The Student Set-to is planned as a day of religious emphasis, in which all students and faculty will participate.

Pan-Hell Holds Open House

The Panhellenic Council will hold open house at the new Panhellenic House on October 11, 1959. Everyone is urged to stop in and tour the building which is located at 905 Montlieu Avenue, opposite Memorial Auditorium.

The Panhellenic House is now a part of the college property. City Panhellenic, under the leadership of Mrs. W. T. Powell and Mrs. Frances Dalton, raised $6,500 and borrowed $12,000 in order to purchase the House. All the furniture has either been given or was bought at a reduced price.

There are two chapter rooms upstairs. Two sororities will meet on Monday nights and the remaining two will meet on Thursday nights. The sororities will alternate each week. Mrs. Lillian Mays, secretary to the deans, is residing in the house.

A committee from Panhellenic is in charge of the house. These members are as follows: Becky Jarvis, chairman, Sylvia Deaton, Ann McArthur, Thelma Mitchell, and Mimi Modlin.

The rules governing the use of the house are still being considered and more about them will be released later. The details concerning open house will be posted later and everyone is urged to attend.

Delegations Sought For Model UN

Plans are now underway for the annual Model United Nations' Assembly, sponsored by the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement. This year's assembly will be held at Main Street Methodist Church in Greensboro on December 4, 5 and 6.

Allen Windley, chairman for the HPC delegations, has announced that two teams are already formed on campus and that other interested students should contact him by October 17. So far, High Point students will represent Yugoslavia and Nationalist China.

The purpose of the Model UN Assembly is not only to help students understand how the UN operates but to challenge them to have a greater concern in the affairs of the world. Teams of three delegates and alternates, if desired, may choose any country represented in the UN and present the view of that country on major issues of the UN today.

Once a country has been chosen and approved by the steering committee, the team obtains all available information on that country's stand on UN matters and prepares to present these views at the assembly. All colleges in North Carolina are participating in this program, so it is important that application for certain countries be made immediately.

Sherwood Nance, Louise Stokes and Philip Wong are already planning their presentation of the Nationalist China views, and Allen Windley, Bobby Little, and Judy Rollins are working on Yugoslavia.

Ike Syjala is in charge of obtaining information for both groups. Delegates' fee is $3.50 for room and board. Interested students who would like to attend as observers may do so, paying only for the meals they eat there.

'Guys and Dolls' Cast Announced

Auditions for the Tower Player production, "Guys and Dolls" were completed September 30. This recent Broadway musical will be held on November 19 and 20.

A tentative cast has been recently posted and the leading characters as they now stand are: Benny Southstreet, Bill Damon; Sarah Brown, Wini Stuart; Adelaide, Libby Graham; Nathan Detroit, Don Drapeau; Nicely, Nicely, Neil Stallings; Rusty Charlie, Charles Huff; Aroide Abernathy, Marty Hogan; Agatha, Vivian Lloyd; Harry the Horse, Harvey Shaw; Brannigan, Bill Adams; Sky Masterson, Ed Stafford.

Other members of the cast are posted in the Music Building. Work is now underway for one of the most promising performances of the Tower Players. Tickets are now at a reduced price of 60 cents. Contact Arlene Lanzeri for the advanced tickets.

The Sorority presidents gather in the dining room of the Panhellenic House to prepare for open house to be held Sunday. Wini Stuart, Phi Mu; Edna Rose Duncan, Kappa Delta; Helen Clay, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Peggy Davis, Alpha Gamma Delta; admire the mirrored wall and lovely furniture in this one of nine rooms in the House.

PE Majors Have First Meeting

The program "Let's Get Acquainted" was presented to the Health and Physical Education Majors' Club on September 30.

Dr. Gil Hertz introduced the guests, who were Dr. E. H. Elinwood, public health officer, and Mr. Ed Burkett, administrative assistant, representing the Guilford County Public Health Department. Miss Dot Gueth, executive director, Miss Hal Ballew, and Mrs. Ted Schubert, represented the YWCA.

Representing the YMCA were Mr. Max Cooke, executive director, and Mr. Ken Yarborough, physical director. The American Red Cross was represented by Mr. Paul Justice and Mr. James M. Hayworth, co-chairmen of the Red Cross Blood Program.

Dr. Dennis Cooke, director of teacher education, and Dr. Dan Cooke, associate professor of Educational Psychology, represented teacher education. Representing the High Point College Staff were Dr. Harold Conrad, Dean of Instruction, Mr. Jim Nelson, Dean of Men, Miss Betty Shirley, Dean of Women, and Dr. Wendell Patton, President of HPC.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas Haggai of Emerywood Baptist Church dismissed the program.

Rush Ends 48 Pledge

On Friday, October 2, 48 girls were invited to join one of the four national social sororities at High Point College as a climax to the past two weeks of supervised rush for membership. The formal rush period began on September 14 with silence being observed by freshmen and sorority members and lasting until bids were picked up on October 2.

The sorority members made contact with the rushees at rush parties which consisted of two 20-minute "Icebreakers", a one-hour informal party and a three-hour formal party.

Both the sorority members and rushees are to be congratulated for their cooperation in observing the rush rules which were set up by the Panhellenic Council.

Legislature Meets; Center Now Open

The 1959-1960 Student Legislature will convene Thursday, October 8, with a joint meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives. Thereafter, as stated in the SGA Constitution, the House will meet on the first and third week of each month, and the Senate will meet on the second and fourth week of the month. The time of meeting will be determined by the individual bodies. Ray Sheppard, SGA president, urges organizations who have not elected their Student Legislature delegates to do so immediately.

The student government head also announces that the SGA, through the campus service fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, will operate a lost and found department. The office will be located in the tower of Roberts Hall and will be open Monday through Friday, from 12:15 to 2:30 p.m. Items found at hours other than these should be turned in to Dean Nelson's office.

Another release from the SGA office concerns the hours the Student Center will be open and rules which will govern its use. The following report has been submitted by Betty Gray Dorman and Don Drapeau, chairmen of the committee in charge of the Student Center.

STUDENT CENTER HOURS

Monday, 1:00 - 4:00, 6:00 - 7:30; Tuesday, 6:00 - 10:30; Wednesday, 6:00 - 10:30; Thursday, 1:00 - 4:00, 6:00 - 7:30; Friday, 6:00 - 10:30; Saturday night, designated by organization in charge; Sunday night, designated by Student Christian Council.

STUDENT CENTER RULES

1. No food or drink shall be carried into the lounge.
2. The lounge is a place of quietness for reading, watching television, listening to records . . . there should be no dancing or rowdiness in the lounge.
3. The furniture may not be transferred from one room to another.
4. Please use ashtrays and do not put ashes on the floor or scar the furniture.
5. Do not go on second floor unless you are to work in one of the offices.
6. The stereo is a delicate machine - remember this. Know how to operate it and do it carefully.
7. If the kitchenette is used be sure it is cleaned.

8. Anyone wishing to use the Student Center contact someone in the SGA office two weeks prior to the date you wish to have it.

The operation of the Student Center is a new SGA responsibility. The SGA council urges full support and cooperation by the students in this new venture. Those in charge remind the students that the Center is open for them and urge them not to abuse their privilege.

Plans are incomplete concerning what individuals will be in charge at the designated hours. This matter will be introduced at the joint Senate-House meeting October 8.

Playboy Seeks Representative

PLAYBOY, the entertainment magazine for young men, is seeking student representatives to work for its College Bureau on campus.

The PLAYBOY College Representatives act as reporters for the magazine on campus life and trends. They also act as a direct liaison between PLAYBOY's national advertisers and local outlets, and pre-test merchandise, conduct surveys, and promote the magazine's campus circulation. The five-year-old publication now has a circulation of over 850,000.

Work on PLAYBOY's College Bureau provides practical experience for anyone interested in public relations, journalism, merchandising, advertising, and sales techniques. There is also financial remuneration for this work.

Any student interested in representing his campus should write for complete details to: Anson Mount, Director, PLAYBOY COLLEGE BUREAU, 232 East Ohio Street, Chicago 11, Illinois.

NEW VIEWS ON COLLEGE GOALS

"In colleges the desirable goals have become 1) to be 'well rounded'—which is to say sufficiently dulled so as not to stand out either offensively or brilliantly, and 2) to be 'well liked'—which is a key to amiable mediocrity."

The above criticism of the social goals of the average college student set this writer to thinking. Truly we are constantly urged to be well rounded, to know a little about everything. Doesn't this add up to a "jack-of-all-trades-master-of-none"?

This attitude seems best displayed in everyday conversation heard around campus. No one really knows much about any one thing, so we all talk in generalities about such things as the weather, the latest records, or the latest date.

Those students who are well versed in some particular subject refrain from expressing this knowledge for fear they will be considered an egg head. Even the subject matter of a class is forgotten when the chimes ring, for who wants to be a square?

And doesn't everyone want to be well liked, to feel that they belong? Does this really indicate mediocrity? Perhaps it does. It was once said that a test of a good act was to measure the dislike it aroused in others. If an act is really good, then it must cause someone to dislike it, someone who is opposed to the good. Otherwise it was a useless act.

'Amiable mediocrity' seems to be all around us. The times we don't express our honest opinions because we want to be liked... the times we associate with students we don't really like because they're the BMOC's... these are the times when we allow ourselves to be mediocre. These are the things which prevent us from rising above the average.

Oh, to hear a good old fashioned philosophical argument in the cafeteria, or even an intelligent discussion of integration or foreign affairs. But I guess I'm wishing for too much. After all, how many of us are willing to give up our well rounded, well liked personalities for the uncertain, unpopular position of the superior individual student?—P.O.

FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE?

Recently 48 girls pledged the four sororities on campus. Soon the fraternities will have their rush and will take in an even larger number of students. Will these pledges be better or worse off for their decisions? Will High Point College be better or worse?

The fraternity system receives a great deal of criticism from all types of people. Fellow students often criticize these organizations; college administrations are divided in their opinions as to the worth of them; parents are dubious because of bad publicity.

Those in favor of fraternal organizations can list as many favorable points as those opposed can list unfavorable points. But it is a well known fact that words mean very little. The only way these organizations can justify their being is by their actions.

And so there is an ever present challenge before these groups, one which the new pledges must learn to accept with pride. And the present members of the fraternal orders must train their pledges well, if the pledges are to be expected to carry on in a constructive manner.

Sororities and fraternities have a tremendous opportunity to influence the atmosphere of our campus. If they support the Community Concerts, the basketball team, the Tower Players, and all the other constructive activities offered, they will not only do the college a favor, but will do themselves a favor.

For not only should the sororities and fraternities contribute to the growth of the college, they should contribute to the growth of individuals as well. Every fraternity man and woman will benefit from a program designed to prove the worth of fraternal organizations. If they don't the system will be proven to be more detrimental than constructive.

If the sororities and fraternities on the High Point College campus produce intelligent, mature adults who are capable leaders and followers, they will never need to fear criticism.—P.O.

The South in '60

Election fever is slowly working its way out of mothballs as straw ballot polls and favorite son candidates are popping up everywhere. An added attraction of the '60' campaign will be the jet non-stop, replacing the now obsolete whistle stop. A candidate may now address a Manhattan luncheon at two and put on a 50 dollar smile at a hundred dollar a plate dinner in Los Angeles at eight—not to mention the cocktail party on the plane trip.

Let's face it folks, only a prayer could save the Republicans; Nixon can't... Rockefeller could, but the green-backed governor is not quite feeling his political oats yet. His five hundred thousand plus plurality in New York can be chiefly attributed to torn and tattered opposition. Yet, even though the Republican picture is gloomy, the Democratic portrait is by no means a Picasso. Dear "Old Dixie", which has always been the golden boot of the Democratic donkey, is wavering. Southern senators all the way from Eastland to Irvin are revolting against party leadership. Their target is National Chairman Paul Butler, who has the avowed support of most northern conservatives. Within the party itself this poses a greater threat than even Civil Rights.

As far as the candidates go, a bright young man from Massachusetts can now be given the nod. Aside of his brilliant record, the Bay State senator has all the sex-appeal and money of a country club playboy—he plays a good game of tennis too. Here again the South may toss restlessly. Senator Kennedy is a Catholic. The Southern delegation, which backed him in the last convention as a Vice-Presidential candidate, may say "nix" to his presidential ambitions, thus paving the way for a Dixiecrat withdrawal. A split party could well carry either Nixon or Rockefeller into the White House, while the Democrats are drying their November tears.

Though it is unlikely that a Southerner will hop on the ticket, watch out for the quarterbacking of Hodges who may very well be top man on the South's thirteen member unit.

A united Democratic party solidly behind a single candidate can turn November into a very nice month. In the case of a split the Northern Democrats would achieve very little and the Dixiecrats would end up with only unglorified satisfaction. Do not forget Eisenhower isn't running in '60'.

Learn To Use The Library

In order to help the students of HPC more fully understand the new system by which the Wrenn Memorial Library is being operated, the HI-PO is attempting to explain briefly the method we are to follow. It is hoped this new method will be beneficial to both the students and librarians.

As you enter the library the first thing that catches your eye is the librarian's desk, where you check out books. On the left you will find a new lounge for student use. Also on the first floor are reference books, current periodicals, and a reading room.

On the second, third, fourth and fifth floors, there are closed stacks which you cannot enter without permission. There is a micro-film reader on the third floor which includes editions of the New York Times from 1955 to 1959.

Each month a book list is sent to the faculty and one is placed in the library. The library obtains from 250 to 300 new books each month.

This year the library has started a new system which consists of "closed stack books." In using this method, you have to fill out a sheet of paper with the catalogue number, author, title, and the borrower's name. You then present this to one of the student assistants and they will find the book for you.

On the first floor you will also find an exhibit case which is open for all students to display their hobbies or collections.

The librarian announced that since the closed stacks require so much more student help and since so few people use the library on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, that the library will be open then only for reading and studying.

Letter From The Editor

Dear Students and Faculty:

Letters to the editor concerning campus, city or national events are invited and encouraged. They should be typewritten and sent to me or left at the HI-PO office in the Student Center.

All letters must be signed although the name will be withheld from print if so requested. It is hoped that you will use this medium to express your opinions.

—Patt Olmsted.

Freshmen Girls Think It's Great

by NINA LAWSON

From the very first day of school, many girls on campus have been going through "rush." There has been little sleep, and many lessons have been neglected; but all the girls seem to agree that it has been worth it.

On asking Gloria Teague, freshman, what she thought about rush, she replied, "I think it's great. It's a wonderful chance to get to know the girls on campus, and it also gives us an opportunity to learn about sorority activities."

Judy Benge, freshman, said, "During the ice-breakers and parties I met someone new each night, and each girl made us feel like someone special." She added, "The parties were wonderful. They seemed like something out of a book that you never believed to be real. I can't think of a nicer way to begin college than to be rushed by a sorority."

When asked what she thought of "silent rush," Judy replied, "I felt so funny when I ran up to someone I knew to talk to them and they would say that they couldn't speak." Although they didn't like the idea of not talking, most freshmen agree that "silent rush" is best—that it gives all the sororities a fair chance.

When entering a rushee's room, one is appalled by all the souvenirs, invitations, and favors hanging everywhere.

Donna Kay Jenkins, freshman, said, "The girls have worked so hard, and it made us think that they really cared when they did so much. I love the favors I got."

On talking to some sorority sisters, they have all had a good time planning and decorating, but it has been a lot of work. They have worked throughout the summer, and day and night since. One anonymous sister exclaimed, "I haven't done any studying yet, and I'm dead for sleep, but it has been a lot of fun."

Karen Carpenter, sophomore, seemed to express the overall feelings of those who went out for rush. She said, "It's a wonderful experience that I wish every girl could

Bolivian Arrives On Campus

The students of HPC, the HI-PO staff, and the members of the faculty would like to greet all of our foreign students this year at HPC. This week your HI-PO reporter interviewed Guillermo Zalles, Jr., known as Bill to many of us, from La Paz, Bolivia. Bill is 22 years old and has had his share of traveling before coming to HPC.

Bill received his first four years of grammar school in his native city of La Paz before coming to the United States. Here he received his high school education at McBurney School in New York City.

From there Bill spent three years studying in Germany. He studied diesel engineering at the University of Heidelberg and at Heidelberg Technical High School. Before coming to HPC he spent a year at Casdilla Preparatory School in Ithaca, New York.

Bill has not been back to La Paz in the past two years, but he is planning a trip for next summer. His father is in the import-export business in La Paz. His mother and one married sister also live there. Bill also has one brother studying here in the United States at Waynesboro, Va.

HPC will see more of Bill in the next four years, especially the business department. Some of his hobbies are photography and sports car racing, but he has informed this reporter that he will not be doing much racing here for some time to come. Bill is also very versatile in three of the languages of the world. He can speak German, English, and of course his native language, Spanish. Again, we of HPC, welcome Bill to our campus.

have. It has been real nice. I don't see how the girls did it."

One new pledge joyfully exclaimed, "O boy, I finally made it. Now I can relax."

How about that, sisters?

With Malice Toward None

by DALE BROWN

WHO WON THE WORLD SERIES, (NOTES THROUGH FIFTH GAME DEADLINE)

Louisiana State, Clemson, Southern Methodist, plus the play-for-pay pros can have the whole spotlight now as the lid comes down on another colorful season of baseball, marked by the two All-Star games and a record breaking World Series attendance mark.

I have just come from the darkened hangout for bachelors, namely the new lounge of the Student Center, where I, along with some 40 other assorted fans, witnessed a fine pitcher's duel and a typical Chicago win, 1-0. It has put the boys from the "Windy City" back in contention and possibly in position to pull it out.

The amazing thing to me through the first five games of this annual affair is the fact that Al Lopez's "hitless wonders" have out-hit the Dodgers in three out of five contests, while Los Angeles is stealing the bases from supposedly the quickest team in the majors.

While the boys from the Golden West were still sobering up following the two game playoff victories over Milwaukee, Chicago took advantage and clobbered them 11-0 behind amazing Early Wynn in the Series opener.

Walt Alston's boys, wouldn't hear of it, however, and came back to win the next three games before today's 1-0 defeat. Charles Neal, Carl Furillo, and Gil Hodges took turns winning these three Dodger victories for the L.A. fans.

Enough for past history. As I sat and watched Bob Shaw, Billy Pierce, and Dick Donovan mow all but Gilliam and Hodges down today in Chicago's shutout win, I couldn't help but wonder if San Francisco and Milwaukee couldn't be going just as well. Don't get me wrong, L.A. has good power and balance, but the National League race was so tight this year that I personally feel both the Giants and Braves had enough talent and depth to win the pennant. They didn't because they choked in the clutch and blew their chance; but that doesn't take away from the fact that both teams were powerhouses.

Many fans on campus expressed disappointment at not seeing the Yankees in the Series this year. Most of them are New York haters and really don't have anyone to cheer against when Mr. Mantle and Co. aren't in town.

Don't worry "Yankee haters" there will be another World Series. O.K. autumn, bring on the football season.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN

It's good to hear the rolling sounds of drums and cheers again on Friday nights as High Point High School plays home to league rivals at the college stadium. Many are the HPC students who walk the path behind the gymnasium toward the bright warm lights that draw them on like a moth to a light bulb.

At last he is within reach of all the color and drama that only high school football can produce, only to find himself on the wrong side of the fence. The temptation is too much and soon we find our eager beaver assimilated with the vast throngs of hoarse teen-agers cheering the Black Bison on to victory. Usually our eager beaver stands out just a little for he usually is muddy from the knees down from trying to find a suitable spot to go over the fence, or else is concealing a three to five inch tear in his new ivy-league trousers. Look for him; it will probably be me.

KUENN AND AARON WIN BAT CROWNS

Harvey Kuenn of the fourth place Detroit Tigers and Hank Aaron of the second place Milwaukee Braves won the batting titles in their respective leagues with .358 and .351 averages this season. Al Kaline of the same Tiger ball club was second with a .327 mark in the American League, while over in the National Loop Joe Cunningham nailed down second spot with a .345 average.

Poole Plans Intramurals

Very shortly now the intramural program at HPC will again swing into action. As co-ordinator for this year, Dr. Poole will replace Dr. Hertz, who was head of the program last year.

A meeting was held on October first to draw up the schedule for the coming year. As soon as this schedule is completed the intramural sports will begin. Included in the program for this year are such sports as touch football, basketball, volleyball, and badminton. Touch football will be the first sport of the intramural year.

The intramural program is open to any group, organization, fraternity or class which has a team to enter in competition. Not much information can be given at this time, as the schedule has not been drawn up yet. More information will be published as soon as it is made available.

Support The Thinclads

Thinclads Start Second Year

The Cross Country track team of HPC will have its first track meet of the year with Catawba College of Salisbury, North Carolina. This will be the first of a series of track meets in which the HPC team will compete with such teams as Guilford College, Davidson College, Washington and Lee, and Pfeiffer College.

This is only the second year that HPC has had a cross country track team. Last year the team experienced a .500 season at the meets. A tougher schedule this year will find that record difficult to match.

With a number of veterans returning and also the addition of several newcomers, the team will start the season with an optimistic outlook. The veterans who are returning are Mickey Dean, North State Conference Half-Mile Champion; Dick Vert, NAIA District two-mile Champion; Don Simmons, Otis Boroughs, Ned Surnott, and Tony Benge. The newcomers are Ken Sullivan from Lees McRae Junior College, Mike Sabino of Fork Union Military Academy, Louis Farlow of Randleman, Jack Goodwin of Greensboro, and Daryl Smith of High Point.

The meet will be held on October ninth, at Blair Park Golf Course in High Point. All you Panthers get out there and help your team to victory.

Westminster Holds First Meeting

The Westminster Fellowship for Presbyterian Students will open the year with a party, October 10, at Mr. Sanders Dallas' home on Kivett Drive. An evening of fun and fellowship will begin with supper and conclude with a worship service explaining the ideals of the Fellowship. All Presbyterian Students are cordially invited to come.

The first formal meeting of the fellowship will be October 14. The program will be held by Miss Sylvia Nicks, President of the SCC, and Miss Liz Peterson.

Plans are being made for Sunday Night Vesper Services, October 11 and 18, for which Westminster fellowship is responsible.

All Presbyterian Students are invited to join Westminster by attending this party and first meeting.

Ivy Men Set Fashion Pace

It will be interesting to note the change in the mode of dress in our freshman class. The transition from high school blue jeans to the more comfortable and well-groomed "natural" cut and continental vogue is observed throughout the academic year.

Fashion Stabilizes

It is observed at American Universities that the collegiate fashion is at a fairly stable equilibrium when it comes to the wardrobe basics. The predominance of "Ivy" has been noted for years. The collegians have adopted and changed the "natural" cut motif at times daringly, but the air of conservatism remains in the trend always.

The reasons for good taste among collegians come from the academic cycle: lower classmen strive to equal the upper classmen and the senior class impresses the impressionable freshmen with their styles.

Accessories Change

Each collegian expresses his flair of originality in accessories, i.e. ties, socks, belts, and vests. It is only in accessories that styles show a marked shift from year to year, with the basic wardrobe style evolving much more slowly.

Sporting events afford a show in variety of clothes and styles. The English give us the idea of wearing a coat to athletic functions.

One may find blazers in almost any color or color combination. Even though the Indian madras and bold stripe styles are popular, the conservative dark blue remains the campus choice. Often, clubs and fraternities have their emblem sown on the breast pocket.

Blazers will wear both summer and winter. They remain in style while other fashions are cyclical, that is, they come and go from year to year. Their durability is outstanding and their price is at a collegiate financial standpoint.

Have Other Uses

While their original designation was for sporting events, blazers are just the thing to slip on to ward off the cold night of fall and winter. Dating also offers an unlimited supply of uses for the blazer.

The collegiates today set the style. The youthful appearance and clean lines of the "natural and continental vogue" are envied by the clothes-buying public.

Poll Reveals Human Nature

Jamestown, N. D.—(I.P.)—Forty-four students at Jamestown College have participated in an opinion-poll-type quiz on cheating in the senior philosophy course, Christian Philosophy of Life, taught by Dr. C. M. DeBoe. Here are the questions and answers of the seniors:

1. Have you ever cheated in an examination?

There were 40 yes answers on this question and four students who said they had never cheated.

2. Is cheating basically dishonest?

Forty-two agreed that it is while one gave no answer and another believed that it was not dishonest.

3. Would you elect a person to the position of treasurer who you knew cheated?

Sixteen seniors said yes, and 20 said no. Five were uncertain and two did not answer.

4. Is cheating in the classroom related to dishonesty in other areas (would a person who cheated steal five dollars)?

Six students said yes, another six were undecided, and one did not answer but the majority, 31, believed that dishonesty in this area had no connection with the rest of the cheater's character.

5. Does cheating affect your grade?

Thirty-eight students believed it did while five said no and one just wasn't sure.

6. What should the punishment be if the professor catches a student cheating?

Twenty students felt that a talk with the professor was needed after a first offense while 16 people would be in favor of receiving an "F" and two felt the student should be expelled. One lenient soul felt that nothing at all should be done while another voted for exposure before the entire class.

7. Is cheating a sin?

Yes—37, no—six and one undecided.

8. Would the honor system stop cheating?

Only seven students believed it would while two didn't know and 33 said no.

The last question required the student to offer some suggestion as to the type of system he felt would work out best. The answers ranged from "none" to various methods such as individual tests, no tests until the end of the term, and then one which would be impossible to cheat upon and having students watch one another and report.

Demerit System Introduced

The Dormitories for Women are operating under a new system, concerning punishments, this year. Work on this system was begun last spring, when the present dormitory council assumed office.

The aim was to standardize the type of punishment a girl would receive and to allow each girl a few careless errors without punishment. As a result, the "demerit" system is now in effect.

Each girl is allowed 25 demerits per semester. Once she has accumulated her 25 demerits, and breaks still another rule, concerning the dormitories, she is called before the dormitory board to receive her punishment.

Each girl that receives demerits is given a written statement telling the number of demerits, the reason for the demerits, and the date on which she received them. This gives her a record, as well as one for the council.

The council meets every Monday night. Every girl is invited to bring any questions concerning dormitory rulings before the council at that time.

Poetry Anthology Being Compiled

The American College Poetry Society has announced that its second annual anthology of outstanding college poetry is now being compiled for publication this winter.

Contributions must be the original work of the student (who shall retain literary rights to the material), submitted in care of the Society, with the entrant's name, address, and school on each page. Poems, which may deal with any subject, may not exceed 48 lines, nor may any individual submit more than five poems.

Entries which are not accepted for publication will be returned if accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, but they cannot be otherwise acknowledged, nor can the Society compensate students for poetry which is published. All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, December 1, 1959, to be considered, and the decisions of the Society judges are final.

KAPPA DELTA

After an enjoyable summer, the KD's are looking forward to a new year at HPC.

Several of the 1959 graduates are now teaching school in the High Point area. These include: Sylvia Hill, Joyce Davis, Sara Jackson, Carol Purvis and Lucia Porcelli.

During the summer, wedding bells rang for Linda Lomax, Barbara Wilson, Pat Beam, Jackie Smith, Carol Purvis, Nellie Jones and Betty Jean Brooks. Glenda Sprinkle was pinned to Henry Andrews on June 2 and Jenny Musgrove received a diamond from Stewart Arnold during the summer.

The biggest highlight of the summer for the Kappa Deltas was the National Convention held at Hotel Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah. Representing Gamma Gamma chapter were Edna Rose Duncan serving as official delegate, with Betty Gray Dorman and Eva Dell Smith accompanied by Mrs. Frances Yow, a national officer of the sorority. Before and following the convention the group took an extensive tour of the southern and western states, traveling by car.

PHI MU

Two Phi Mu sisters have recently been married. Janice Tutterow became Mrs. Corbin Cherry on September 6, and Peggy Allred was married to Stuart Hart on October 3. Also during the summer Karen Combs was pinned to Bobby Lloyd.

Many of the Phi Mu alumni attended the parties during rush. Among them were Martha Turnipseed who is serving as the Director of Religious Education at Burkhead Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, and Shirley Yokeley who is doing graduate work at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Libby Graham has been elected as a representative to the House from the Junior Class, and Sylvia Newton has been elected as her alternate.

Libby Graham and Wini Stuart will have starring roles in the play, "Guys and Dolls."

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

The Alpha Gam's have had an exciting summer. Sylvia Nicks has returned from Europe where she was traveling with three other High Point College students in the Methodist Caravan. Sylvia was elected president of the SCA.

Eunice Young was elected representative for the Junior class to the House. Doris Ann Joyce is her alternate.

Alpha Gamma Delta has learned that they now have the highest scholastic average of the sororities on campus.

"Andi" Anderson is pinned to Marion Suitt. Three sisters were married during the summer months. They are: Betty Baughn to Benny Phillips, Ramona Leonard to Robert Phelps, and Mary-Lou Chapman to Ralph James.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

A group of Zetas occupied Tarrymore Inn at Myrtle Beach for a week at the beginning of the summer. Following the beach trip, Grace Jensen and Nancy Campbell began summer classes at HPC. Other Zetas attending summer school were: Glenda Radcliffe, Wilmington College; Lorna Dixon, Appalachian; Henry Ellen Atkinson, Flora MacDonald; and Helen Clay, University of Houston.

Zetas Patt Olmsted and Pat Wykoff returned to HPC from summer tours of Europe. Edna Chapman and Betsy Bryant graduated from HPC during the summer session.

On October 10, Zetas will wear turquoise and gray ribbons in honor of the installation of a Zeta Chapter at Northern Ohio College.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Henry Ayers and Gilbert Beeson represented Delta Kappa chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon at the 1959 Grand Conclave (national convention) held September 1-5 in Detroit, Michigan. The convention marked TKE's 60th year as a national fraternity, and a charter was granted to the 160th active local chapter.

A joint meeting of undergraduate members and local alumni of TKE was held Monday, September 28. Also, an informal party for members of the graduate and undergraduate chapters was held Friday, October 2, at the home of Tommy Myers.

Congratulations to frater Gilbert Batten and pledge Don Workman on the recent additions to their families.

THETA CHI

The brothers of Theta Chi wish to extend their best wishes to the class of '63. While the transition from pupil to the necessity of being a student is a difficult process at times, Theta Chi hopes the metamorphosis is brought about in a smooth and successful manner by the Freshman Class.

Congratulations are in order to Brother Bobby Owens who was married over the summer to a charming Southern lass, and to Brother Tony Adams, who became engaged. Perhaps congratulations should be extended to the gal that finally put a ball and chain on Tony.

Parties, parties, parties, and more parties — the theme for the coming months. The committees are functioning, Brother Jim Corley, our treasurer is going wild, and the anticipation of a great year for the "OX'S" is driving everyone to the brass rail.

Now that we have all arrived, and they have taken all our money, the talk has died down concerning the various blasts from Maine to Florida, every now and then someone opens a book, in effect another year is upon us.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

The Delta Zeta Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi began its social year with an informal date swimming and dancing party at the High Point

YMCA on Saturday, September 26. Brother Raiford Porter of the college art department and Miss Jane DeSpain of the speech department served as chaperones. Table tennis and shuffle board were also enjoyed.

As a welcome to the girls in the dorms the brothers and pledges presented them with a serenade of traditional Delta Sig sweetheart songs on Thursday, September 24.

On Saturday, October 10, the Delta Sigs will welcome four new brothers into the Bond of Sphinx. Ron Neal, Max Cox, Ronnie Money and Tom Ferguson will then receive their formal initiation on Monday, October 12.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

After having a roaring week at Myrtle Beach last June all the Pikas are back in school ready for another great year.

This year started off with two serenades; brother Harold McDaniels and Jean Thomas, and brother Bob Lloyd and Karen Combs. We would also like to congratulate brother Bob Hilliard and wife upon the arrival of their 8 lb. 7 oz. boy.

The Pikas are starting their social season with a kick-off party on October 10, to be followed by the annual mountain trip and picnic on October 18.

Wake Forest chapter has invited the chapter over for their annual rush party on October 13.

As far as sports go, we are expecting a good football team this year. See you on the gridiron.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

The Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity started off with its annual steak fry given by their advisor, Mr. Fred Cox, and his wife Helen Ray. The brothers and their dates enjoyed charcoal steaks and an evening of informal dancing. Brother "Shrimp" Flynt was on hand to provide some entertainment for the brothers and their dates. The party was held at a quaint old farm house on the outskirts of Thomasville.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

The brothers and pledges of the N. C. Eta Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon returned to High Point College after being scattered from Berlin to Boger City. After exchanging "war stories" things settled down to normal with a party at the Grange Hut and plans for a trip to the mountains.

Congratulations are in store to newly initiated brothers: Vance Davis, Jimmy Edwards, Bill Sledge and Larry Wheeliss. Also congratulations to Marion Suitt who has lost his pen to a very cute and charming girl, Miss Andie Anderson. Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sledge on their marriage June 6.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(PUT THESE QUESTIONS ON YOUR BRAIN-PAN AND SEE IF THEY SIZZLE*)

Do you believe that "what's good enough for your father is good enough for you" is (A) a remark indicating that Father had things pretty fancy? (B) a parental trick to avoid spending money? (C) a statement unconsciously revealing an ultra-conservative attitude? (D) an admission that you deserve as big an income as Pop?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐ D ☐

If you saw a man on his hands and knees in the street, searching for something, would you (A) try to find it before he does? (B) tell him it isn't worth getting run over for? (C) ask him what he's doing down there? (D) offer to buy it from him when he finds it?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐ D ☐

Do you think that the old saw "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" is (A) simply a trick to get you to eat apples? (B) rough on the doctor? (C) a health precept that can apply to other fruit, too? (D) applesauce?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐ D ☐

Would you choose a filter cigarette because (A) of what is said about the tobacco? (B) you could hardly tell the filter is there? (C) it has the most advanced filter design? (D) it claims to filter well because it tastes weak?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐ D ☐

Why do men and women who think for themselves usually smoke Viceroy? Because they've found out the Viceroy filter is the best of its kind ever developed, for finest tobacco taste. A thinking man's filter.

And they know Viceroy delivers a rich, satisfying taste that's never been equaled. A smoking man's taste.

A thinking man's filter... a smoking man's taste. How about you trying Viceroy's?

19 Are Named To 'Who's Who'

The names of 19 seniors selected for publication in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges were released this week by Dean Nelson. The Dean said that he wished to congratulate these students for receiving this, the highest honor a senior can receive. Selection was based on the following qualities: excellence and sincerity in scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular and academic activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness to business and society.

The purpose of this publication is to provide some medium through which the names of deserving students throughout the country can be brought before the business and social world. The High Point College seniors to appear in the 1960 edition are Helena Clay, Peggy Davis, Sylvia Deaton, Betty Gray Dorman, Patricia Olmsted, Sylvia Parker, Liz Peterson.

Marilyn Pickett, Wini Stuart, Alice Swetland, Doris Talley, Gilbert Traywick, Gilbert Beeson, Otis Boroughs, John Davis, Charles Johnson, Ray Sheppard, Ronald Wachs, and Harold Wright.

Helena Clay, from Sao Paulo, Brazil, is presently serving her second year as president of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity. She has been active in MSF, International Relations Club, SCC (secretary), was a Junior Marshal, and is a member of the Order of the Lighted Lamp.

Peggy Davis, Gastonia, is president of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority, has been treasurer and corresponding secretary of same, is in the Order of the Lighted Lamp, Scholastic Honor Society, Legislature, has served on the Dormitory Council, Judiciary Council, and Fellowship Teams, and was elected as one of the Ten Top Seniors.

Sylvia Deaton, Mooresville, is a member of the Order of the Lighted Lamp, is sorority editor of the Zenith, in SNEA, was a Junior Marshal, and has participated in Tower Players, Band, MSF, Alpha Delta Theta, and Legislature. Sylvia is a member of Phi Mu Fraternity, where she has served as Rush Chairman, Vice-President, and Fraternity Education chairman.

Betty Gray Dorman, from Pembroke, has been active in MSF (vice-president), Future Teachers Association (program chairman), Fellowship Teams, (chairman of planning committee), Alpha Delta Theta, and Legislature. Betty Gray is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority (historian and treasurer, social chairman, and vice-president); has been a cheerleader for four years, has been class and feature editor of the Zenith, is SGA secretary, and is one of the Ten Top Seniors.

Pat Olmsted, Arlington, Va., is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity (president, scholarship chairman, ritual chairman). She was a Junior Marshal, was recording secretary of the Judiciary Council, and treasurer of the Panhellenic Council. Patt is now editor-in-chief of The Hi-Po, a member of the Dormitory Council, is in the Order of the Lighted Lamp, and is one of the Ten Top Seniors.

Sylvia Parker, from Mooresville, transferred from Brevard College where she was in Phi Theta Kappa, a scholastic fraternity; Sigma Pi Alpha, a language fraternity; the Christian Fellowship; Big Sister Organization; a Marshal; in the commercial club, and on the Dean's List. (Continued on Page 4)

15 Compete For Miss HPC Title

From a total of 31 contestants competing for the Miss HPC title, the student body picked 15 semi-finalists in assembly October 28.

These girls are: Donna Blue, for Chapel Choir, Jane Crowson for MSF, Jane Honeycutt for Kappa Chi, Carol Howard for Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alice Jones for Freshman Class, Jane Lloyd for Lambda Chi Alpha, Jerri Martin for Theta Chi, Sylvia Newton for Day Students, Sandra Parnell for Concert Choir, Alyce Ratliff for Phi Mu, Wini Stuart for Senior Class, Dee Stone for Junior Class, Jean Thomas for Pi Kappa Alpha, Yvonne Vaughn for Delta Sigma Phi, and Eunice Young for Alpha Gamma Delta.

The Miss HPC Committee headed by Bill Davidson and Charles Carroll announced that the contest will take place near the first of December. Plans are being made for Miss North Carolina to be present and also to have Jimmy Capps again this year as master of ceremonies.

The judges are soon to be selected. They will meet with the girls before the contest and then judge them on poise, personality, talent, and appearance. From the fifteen, five finalists will be chosen and Miss HPC from these five.

New Marshals Are Installed

Wednesday, October 27, the Junior Marshals for 1959-1960 were installed by Dean Conrad and the marshals of 1958-1959. The new marshals and some of their activities are given below:

Don Drapeau, Chief Marshal, is from Ansonia, Connecticut. He is not only a member of the concert choir and the Tower Players but also had leading roles in the musical productions of both his Freshman and Sophomore years. Currently, he is cast in Guys and Dolls. Don is a member of Delta Sigma Phi, and Vice-President of SGA.

David Baxter, from Thomasville, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega and Kappa Chi.

Dale Brown, from Manchester, Connecticut, is Treasurer of SGA, and is Sports Columnist of the Hi-Po. He was President of his Freshman Class and a representative to the Senate from his Sophomore Class. Dale is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha.

Vance Davis, from Hot Springs, is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Kappa Chi.

David Deskins is from Greensboro, and is a member of the Day Students Organization.

Libby Graham, from Kannapolis, is a Phi Mu. She is a member of the concert choir and the Tower Players. She is currently in Guys and Dolls.

Ellen Julian is from Randleman. She is Secretary of the PE Majors Club, and a member of Alpha Delta Theta. She received a National Methodist Scholarship last year.

Gary Kennedy is from Thomasville and is a member of the Day Students Organization.

Jerry Koontz is from High Point and is a member of Delta Sigma Phi.

Daryl McGuire is from High Point and is a member of Delta Sigma Phi. He was Vice-President of his Freshman Class and was a member of the Inter-Fraternity Council last year.

Eileen McLivaine, from High Point, is a member of Phi Mu. She is also a member of the concert choir, the concert band, and the Zenith staff.

Mary Catherine McNatt is from High Point. She is a member of Epsilon Sigma Omicron and Westminster Fellowship.

Sylvia Newton, from High Point, is a Phi Mu. She is a member of the concert choir and is accompanist for the musical productions by the Tower Players. She represented her Freshman and Sophomore classes in the May Court and was a contestant in the Miss HPC contest last year.

Emma Lou Noell, from Charlotte, is Vice-President of the Women Dormitory Council. She is a member of the Tower Players, SCA, Fellowship Teams and Alpha Delta Theta.

Charles Price, from Shelby, is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He is a member of the concert choir also.

HPC Presents Guys and Dolls

Guys and Dolls, the long-run Broadway musical hit will be presented to the High Point College Campus on the nights of November 19 and 20.

The show has songs by one of America's most popular song writers, Frank Loesser, accompanying a plot borrowed by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows from some of Damon Runyon's stories and Broadway characters. Its record of success includes a New York Drama Critic's Circle Citation and a New York run of three years and three days, followed by a 1955 revival that won it greater critical praise than even its first production.

Last year, he was a representative to the House and to the Student Congress.

Linda Richards, from Floral City, Florida, is in the concert choir, the Canterbury Club, and the Tower Players. Last year she was a member of Student Legislature.

Donald Reber, from Tampa, Florida, is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Phi Omega.

Jack Short, from Williams, Indiana, is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. He is also a member of the varsity basketball and track teams.

Peggy Talley is from Charlotte. She is a Phi Mu, and is chairman of a Fellowship Team. She is also in MSF.

Jean Thomas, from Jackson Springs, is a Kappa Delta. She is a member of MSF, SCC, Tower Players, and Student Congress. She is a Fellowship Team Chairman and a representative to the Judiciary Council and Women Dormitory Council. She was a finalist in the Miss HPC contest and is a contestant this year.

Bobby Yates is from Thomasville. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. He was President of his Sophomore Class and was on the Business Staff of the Hi-Po last year.

Top Seniors Are Elected

The Ten Top Seniors have been announced by John Davis, senior class president. Selection was based on interest in the class, participation in activities on campus, leadership ability and scholarship. The selection was made by the members of the Senior Class.

Those selected as the Ten Top Seniors are John Davis, Charlotte; Peggy Davis, Lincoln; Betty Gray Dorman, Pembroke; Charles Johnson, High Point; Sylvia Nicks, Roxboro; Patricia Olmsted, Arlington, Va.; Liz Peterson, Morganton; Doris Talley, Concord; Ronald Wachs, Pittsboro; Harold Wright, Lawndale.

Ed Stafford, Wini Stuart, Don Drapeau, and Libby Graham will be seen in the four major roles of the show, respectively as Sky Masterson, the slick professional betting man; Sarah Brown, the serious-minded Salvation Army lass who falls in love with him; Nathan Detroit, the harried small gambler who makes a precarious living from horses and dice; and Miss Adelaide, the night-club singer who has developed a psychosomatic cold from waiting 14 years for Nathan to marry her.

As even those who only occasionally listen to the radio cannot help knowing, Guys and Dolls has a full 16 song-hits, an abundance that is all the more remarkable since this show is one of the modern kind of musicals in which the songs grow out of the action, and are not merely set-pieces thrown in on cue.

These hits range from the comic "Fugue for Tinhorns" in which at the beginning the petty gamblers set the stage for the whole show's interest in these little betting-men of the Times Square street-corners, to satiric numbers like "Take Back Your Minks," "I Love You a Bushel and a Peck," and the clever "Adelaide's Lament," soliloquizing her dismay at her 14-year-long engagement, to lulling romantic songs such as "I'll Know When My Love Comes Along" and "If I Were a Bell I'd Be Ringing."

The production of Guys and Dolls has been directed by Jane Despain, the scenery has been designed by Raiford Porter, and J. Fryhover is the musical director.

Across The Desk

OF THIS AND THAT...

It seems that the system for keeping the Student Center open isn't working out too well. Unfortunately, when one is in charge of the Center so seldom, apparently one doesn't feel the responsibility enough to enforce the rules. Let's hope that next year this job will be put on a work-scholarship basis and a few specific students will be in charge. Until then, each organization should fully accept the responsibility given to it. The way in which we handle ourselves in this new building will, surely, have bearing on the future building plans of the College.

Congratulations to Dr. Locke and his committee on the excellent assembly programs thus far this year. The variety and subject matter has been very interesting.

Speaking of assemblies, when Miss Idol spoke on the origins of High Point College, it was distressingly evident that few of us know, or care, about the past of our college. HPC seems to be lacking in student tradition. This lack stems from our lack of knowledge as to the meaning of our motto and seal. How many of us know the words to our fight song or Alma Mater? Is this school spirit?

Perhaps this deficiency could be eliminated by the introduction of an Orientation Class. Not the type where you learn proper manners, though there is need of this also; but one in which all freshmen and transfers would study the history of HPC, its motto, seal, and songs. Surely after four years of such a program there would be an appreciable increase in amount and intensity of loyalty and spirit.

Since so many capable students tried out for the two available positions on the cheerleading squad, it seems that an excellent Junior Varsity Cheerleading squad could be formed. The JV team needs our support also, and such a move would create more interest in these preliminary games. It would also give the students who form the squad excellent practice toward becoming Varsity Cheerleaders.

It would seem that being a Junior Marshal is no longer the honor it used to be. Apparently now the idea is to decide on the number needed for efficient performance of the duties involved, and then picking students from the Junior Class to do them. This method causes a lack of prestige, for what happens when a Junior Class does not have the required number of qualified students? If there are 19 outstanding juniors, they should be so honored; but if there are not, then 19 should not be chosen. If this is to be an honor, then keep it that way. If it's to be a job, then hire someone to do it!

THE LUCKLESS LEGION

More than 2,800,000 Americans were drafted into the Luckless Legion of automobile casualties in 1958.

In its annual highway safety booklet entitled "The Luckless Legion", The Travelers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is an army of suffering humanity which grows more rapidly each year. It is made up of the injured and the dead, the heedless and the innocent, the young and the old. Since the automobile first appeared on the American scene, these ranks of the crippled and the dead have included more than 60,000,000 of us."

The Luckless Legion is a silent haunted army. We erect no monuments to it. No grim reminders mar the sleek beauty of the roads and highways which are its field of battle. A newspaper headline, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Silent suffering. A lifetime of pain. Or the silent memories of those who mourn when the dead are laid to rest.

There were 36,700 men, women and children numbered among the dead of the Luckless Legion during the past year. For every fatality there were 77 people who suffered painful injuries. Hour by hour and day by day, this total climbed until it reached the staggering total of 2,825,000.

Statistics pledges and slogans do not seem to change us. Something more is needed. During Thanksgiving holidays, the Luckless Legion will be meeting in our community... on a stretch of highway in a hospital room, in the morgue.

You alone will know when the meeting time is near. In the temptation to bear down a little harder on the gas, to beat the darkness home, to test your reflexes when they are dulled by sleep or alcohol, to jay-walk on crowded streets, to forget caution when weather and road conditions are bad. During Thanksgiving, every time you are behind the wheel of a car, remember that the Luckless Legion is looking for recruits. Don't be one.

Profile Of Manhattan

The island of Manhattan is a blistering and over-populated turmoil of many patterns, toils, and effects always moving at a maximum pace. The tourist who braves an atmosphere of unparalleled frenzy is awed by the magnificence of Broadway and the cosmopolitan sublimity of Park Avenue. Further uptown, the shops and buildings slowly lose their air of dignity and the vast tenement jungles of the West Side begin.

The tenement is a pavilion for the intercourse of many cultures, and it is in itself a living drama. It is a place that knows only cold in winter and heat in summer. There is no medium here. Yet, winter has the knack of freezing the emotions and dulling the reckless desires.

And then, when the final June bell rings, the streets become alive with a furious tempo. At seven the last train to suburbia has left and the approaching twilight holds little hope for escape from the scorching heat. All windows are opened; still there is no relief.

There is only one solution — the street. The tenements are now the walls of an arena and within, a massive circus unfolds. The old sit on porch stoops and fan themselves with this morning's "News" or indulge in pessimistic conversation concerning rent or poor subway conditions. The young wait restlessly for the fall of dark and the mysteries in store for them. The young, who cannot break the doldrums of their atmosphere, choose to accept and take advantage of them. A sensation is worth eight lifeless hours; a thrill is of countless value.

Being rough and tough is the passport here. Take advantage of every break you get and be sure to notice your enemy's mistakes. There is a tree of forbidden fruit before you; grab all that you can grasp. Always beware of a fly on your back, be it a cop, an enemy, or just someone trying to nudge you out. Deal with him by any means necessary.

The respect and fear from those around you is your credit card. Lose it and you are a falling pigeon. Most of the guys at the bottom of the river were big once. Somewhere along the way they made that big mistake, and it was costly. Always be on guard to stay up there so you can pick from that tree.

Manhattan, however, cannot be generally classified in terms of being a magnanimous soap-box opera. Day by day the sweat of millions help it retain its position of being perhaps the most fantastically contemporary place in the world.

Yet, so many honest men never make headlines or come anywhere near the focus of the public eye. The achievements and morals of these people are stashed away in the volumes of their own individual lives, which naturally are never published. Never have so many borne so much criticism for so few.

Another Hour At Library?

Do the High Point College students need another hour at the library? Should it be opened until 10:00 p.m. instead of 9:00 p.m. during the week? This is a controversial question and the pros and cons seem almost balanced. Here is the way the cards stack up.

At the present time, the students can use the library from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Some of them feel that all their work that needs to be done at the library can not be done during these hours.

Because of work or classes, they need more time at night.

There are other reasons for desiring the extra hour. First, the students feel that the night meetings they attend usually last until 8:30 or 9:00 which gives little or no time for library attendance. In expressing their views, the coeds seem to think that the dorm is entirely too noisy from 9:15 to 10:00 (bookstore time) and that no studying could be done there. The opinion of some of the boys is that their dorm is always too noisy. They can work only in the library and then in the empty classrooms after it closes. Therefore, they could profit from another hour.

A recent poll was taken of some of the students on the question. Ninety percent said that they would like to have the library opened another hour. When asked if they would use it during this time, those who use it now

Life Behind The Counter

by NINA LAWSON

Every day approximately 500 students go through the "chow line" for each meal, but how many of them know what goes on behind the counter? If only each student could work one meal behind that counter! What experiences a cafeteria worker goes through!

It all begins about six o'clock in the morning when the cafeteria worker groggily awakens to the sound of three alarm clocks. With eyes half closed and thoughts still in a dream, she dresses and staggers to the cafeteria to eat breakfast and then begin serving.

Many funny and strange faces come through the line in the morning. Students have bags under their eyes and they look as though they haven't slept in a month. The first girl behind the counter will ask if they would like ham, bacon or sausage and the favorite reply is always accompanied with a very blank expression of the face, "Uh-huh." After asking about three times again, it is finally understood what the person would like and the plate is passed down to the next girl who asks what kind of eggs would they like.

Since there are three kinds of eggs, a great decision must be made as to which kind should be eaten today.

Someone will probably say, "Give me that one looking at me." That's when the task begins of finding just which egg is looking at him.

Then the plate is passed to the girl serving donuts. She says "bun or gave "yes" as their answer. Most of the others would use it at special times.

Dean Nelson feels that the library should be kept open until 10:00 only if it will be used. He expressed a desire to help work on the matter if the need is great enough.

Miss Carter, head librarian, seems to feel that the students have shown no need for any more time. "In the first place," she said, "the library is open from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. which is ample time." During the day there are times when the library is almost vacant. She said that another hour would require that a new staff member be hired plus three more students. In summary, her view is that the expense is greater than the need.

The library of High Point College rates high in comparison with other schools of its size in the state. The library is open to students 75 hours a week which is more than the other colleges with the exception of Davidson (83 hours) and Guilford (79 hours). The former has four staff members to compare with our three.

The situation then seems to look like this: Until the majority of the students earnestly use the library the hours that it is now open, extra time seems unnecessary compared to the expense. Whatever happens in the case depends on the students.—E.Y.

donut" so many times that after a while it comes out, "Dun or Bonut." When asked what they want, the reply usually comes, "Give me a brown one," or "Give me a fuzzy one," or "Give me a round one," or "Give me one with a hole."

After serving such delightful people for breakfast, the noon day meal comes around. This is the biggest meal of all. Students start at the tray stand. Each tray has to be tested to see if it is a lazy-susan. Then comes the ordeal of picking nice, clean silver. It takes the average student exactly three minutes to pick up and discard at least five knives, forks, and spoons before he can decide which one he should take.

For dessert the biggest and juiciest pie has to be found, even if it holds up the line for another three minutes. After one is finally found, the student must always stick his nose down in it to see if it smells just right. If not, he puts it back on the rack and proceeds to find another piece.

The girl behind the counter serving meat asks, "Veal or steak?" Then comes the reply that has only been heard 299 times before, "That again?" While the student holds up the line for about five minutes trying to arrange a date with a particular girl, the next server puts either potatoes or rice on the plate and passes it on down the line.

After the next girl asks, "Which vegetable," the student looks at his plate and suddenly discovers that he doesn't want potatoes—he wants both vegetables instead. The plate has to be back up, the potatoes have to be raked off, and then both vegetables have to be put on the plate. This backing-up process usually results in a big mix-up of about five plates to follow.

Every worker knows what demand always accompanies a serving of vegetables — "Drain all the juice, please." The workers' motto is, "Never refrain to drain and strain." The next girl slops gravy. When hot dogs or hamburgers are on the menu, the girl may say, "Chili?" The refrain comes, "No, I'm rather warm today."

For supper the usual routine occurs as does at lunch. Students always want to know if this food was left over from the noon meal. At supper when the basketball players arrive, everyone has to brace themselves. The players never get enough meat or potatoes and the vegetables are never the ones which they like.

At the close of the day, the cafeteria worker wearily discards her hair net and apron and begins to leave the cafeteria when suddenly what should appear but another herd of people.

Finally the lines close and the girls go to their rooms. As a worker walks into her room, her roommate says, "What's that funny smell?" It doesn't take long for them both to figure out that it's the smell of fish brought from the cafeteria.

It has been a tiresome day for the cafeteria worker. When she finally gets to sleep that night, her dreams are just filled with that sound of the broken record question, "Beans or beets?"

Bishop's Company To Appear

A unique stage production will be presented Nov. 11 at assembly by the Bishop's Company, the only touring repertory company of its kind presenting drama-in-the-church productions with professional actors.

No elaborate stage settings are used. Both the audience and the actors will visualize the various locales in which the scenes of the play are set.

Asking the audience to share in the creation of the play is part of the technique of the Bishop's Company in promoting the return of great drama to the church. The lines and action are presented by the cast, but the audience moves along with ease from landscape to village or city as the story unfolds.

This year the Bishop's Company will present Christopher Fry's Boy With A Cart. This is a story of simple faith. The SCC had discussion groups prior to this presentation in order that the students might study the play before assembly and thereby better understand it.

SMU Looking for Song Writers

Southern Methodist University has announced the Caruth Competition for the composition of a university alma mater-type song, open to any professional or amateur composer in this country and to citizens of other countries studying at accredited colleges or universities in the United States, with prizes to be awarded over a three-year period totaling $7,200 and a possible bonus of $2,500.

Original songs with words and music appropriate for use by students, faculty and alumni of Southern Methodist University will be submitted to the Caruth Competition committee at SMU each year by January 10. The entries may be individual's compositions or composed by more than one person in collaboration. In the spring of each contest year the submitted songs will be judged by SMU alumni, students and faculty and by a technical committee to be appointed each year.

Summer Work In Europe Offered

This past summer all over Europe families have opened their homes and employers have opened their shops to the American student abroad. Willingness to work, along with the services rendered by the American Student Information Service, had made it possible for the student on a limited budget to attain his ambition to see Europe — not only see it, but live it.

Founded in 1957 as an experiment in student exchange, the service first limited its membership to a small number of students, placing them in summer positions and aiding them with their travel accommodations. The idea took hold, and the organization was besieged with requests from students all over the U. S.

Ramsey V. Harris and James G. Lauf, the able young men responsible for the realization of this novel idea, state: "The purpose of the organization is to promote better understanding among the peoples of different nations and specifically to aid students primarily through practical application of education, and secondarily through educational and recreational activities."

With their main office now operating in Frankfurt/Main, A.S.I.S. has successfully completed the placement of over 300 students in the countries of Western Europe and Scandinavia, with most satisfying results. Among the jobs were included farm work, construction work, resort and hospital work, and camp counseling.

Upon the completion of his summer placement in a German hospital, Joseph Anglin of Vanderbilt wrote: "The work is varied and very interesting. The pay is quite small, but I feel in knowledge and experience I have been more than rewarded for my efforts."

Students wishing to become members must have a letter of recommendation from one of their school officials or instructors, have the written permission of their parents if they are under 21, and submit a properly completed application to:

Training Over, Teams Named

On Thursday night, October 29, the Fellowship Teams brought to a close the training for 1959-1960 with a Consecration and Communion Service. Dr. W. R. Locke and Dr. W. W. Mountcastle administered the Communion.

Just prior to this service the Teams were announced as follows: Ann Strickland, chairman; Stuart Dowless, Joan Sykes, Bebe Nance, Ann Bowman, Nancy Campbell, Rosemary Mason, chairman; Sam Weigle, Brooks Garnett, Judie Rollins, Peggy McNamee.

Benny Martin, chairman; Billy Reeves, Libby Graham, Nancy Guirkin, Margarette Damewood, Alice Hobson, Ronald Wachs, chairman; John Ward, Pat Yokley, Pattie Collier, Caroline Prestwood.

Mary Jewell Touchton, chairman; Natalie Tunstall, Julia Hobson, Pat Clarke, Don Drapeau, Allan Windly, chairman; Jeannie Van Nortwick, David Baxter, Carolyn Williams, Marilyn Tulloch, Ann Huggins.

Billy Webb, chairman; W. B. Harrel, Jane Crowson, Georgianna Hardin, Faye Griffith, Louise Whiteley, Larry Maxwell, Shirley McDaniel.

The alternates are as follows: Dell Rita Phillips, Sandra Vestal, Nina Lawson, Annie Carol Boyd, Mary Lee Willis, Barbara Allgood, Hugh Cameron, Joan Thomas, Ann Runyan, and Dell Conrad.

The purpose of Fellowship Teams is to go out and help the youth of the church to become better organized. All throughout the training session programs were given which will help the teams when they go out to the different churches. The training period consisted of workshops on Recreation, Worship, Singing, and Program Planning.

Eng. Politics Affect USA

The elections in England are now over, and as you know, the Conservatives have won; but how many of you know just what parties ran for office and what were their aims?

Some of you may be asking yourselves "what difference does it make who has won the election in England? I am an American and I'm only interested in what is happening here in the good old USA."

About a month ago, we had a very distinguished speaker from Great Britain here to talk to us in chapel. He was Dr. S. E. Gerard Priestley. After the chapel period he held a question and answer period with about 50 of the students that were interested.

The campaigning in England is much like ours here in the U. S., but much shorter, to say the least. The Conservatives used the slogan "Prosperity and Peace," and indeed there has been prosperity in England for the past four years.

Another reason for the Conservatives' popularity is Prime Minister Macmillan's recent visit to Russia to see Khrushchev. The British people feel that Macmillan, more than Nixon, was responsible for Mr. K's visit to the U. S.

The Labor party also has great backing in England, and the main reason for this seems to be the Labor party's role in getting England back on her feet after the Second World War. Their slogan in the election was "Britain Belongs To You."

Another party that figured in this national election was the Liberal party. This party split up in the 20's, but since 1955 there has been a revival of it. Dr. Priestley contributes this to the fact that the English people are getting tired of the party machines, millionaires, and the trade union influences in the government.

The slogan for the Liberals this year was "People Count," and according to Dr. Priestley many young talented people are going Liberal. Dr. Priestley himself claims to be a Laborite, but when asked if he would vote Labor he answered that he was going to vote Liberal all the way.

Now we must return to the question in the first paragraph, "What does the British elections have to do with us?" With the Conservatives in power we can expect to see a continuance of co-operation between our two countries. If the Laborites had won we might have seen a "get tough" attitude towards us. These things are important to us and they most certainly do have a great deal of influence on our daily life.

MSF Plans for Nov. Meets

The Methodist Student Fellowship ended this busy month with a Halloween square dance on October 28 at the old Masonic Hall. The room was decorated with corn stocks, fall leaves and other appropriate additions. Mack Kernodle and his wife, Nina, from Greensboro, furnished a large selection of square dances.

On the week-end of October 31-November 1, the Fellowship had their fall retreat at Camp Betty Hastings. The topic of discussion, which was lead by Mr. J. H. Allred, was "Christian Conscious on Campus."

Programs to be watching for during the coming month are the play by the Bishop's Company on Nov. 11, which will take the place of our regularly scheduled meeting, and on Nov. 18, there will be a program on migrant work presented by Gilbert Beeson, Karen Carpenter, and Earl Whitaker.

SNEA Seeks New Members

The Student National Education Association has been working on a membership drive since the first meeting. One hundred members are hoped for this year over the 68 from the previous year. The first program was given by Dr. Dann Cooke who will be working with Miss Worthington as the new sponsors for this year.

Speakers will be here for the next two meetings: a principal of a local school who will talk on student teaching, and a play ground supervisor. The latter program will be followed by a social. Several of the members of the organization will be attending the state convention to be held November 14, in Raleigh.

On November 7, High Point College will be the scene for 1,000 high school future teachers, as the FTA holds its convention on this campus. Mr. Cameron West will be the speaker for the program. HPC Student National Education Association members will be on hand to accompany the visitors and to give them a tour of the campus. Many of these delegates at the convention are future HPC students.

Everyone who is planning to teach or thinking about it is urged to join the SNEA at the November meeting.

Dr. Smith Succumbs

Dr. Jerome Colbert Smith, 42, head of the Mathematics Department of High Point College, died unexpectedly at his home Oct. 27 at 10:30 p.m. after suffering a heart attack.

Dr. Smith was a native of Waynesboro, Ky. He was a graduate of the University of Buffalo, N. Y., and did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania and Cornell University.

Before coming to High Point three years ago he was a member of the faculty at Lafayette College, Easton, Penna., for 10 years. He served in the U. S. Navy during World War II and was a member of the High Point Executive Club and of First Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Winifred Wall Smith, and two daughters, Eveline and Jeanett Smith.

Alpha Delta Theta Meets

Alpha Delta Theta welcomes all new students to the High Point College campus. The purposes of Alpha Delta Theta are to offer opportunities in experience and training in avenues of practical Christian service, and to correlate Christian living with vocational plans. The organization is open for women students who are interested in serving their churches and communities through other Christian vocations.

This semester the returning sisters will initiate more than 30 new sisters in the service of God. The program for this year will include many informative meetings and retreats on Christian vocations and various phases of Christian service in the church and community. In several weeks the group will go for a weekend retreat to Millbrook. The Presbyterian Home also gives ideas for a project.

Casuals Set Recording Date

The Casuals, a dance combo organized by four High Point College students, have set a date to record two original compositions on the Mart label. Current plans are to record "Casual" written by Ray Sheppard, and "Moxie" written by Terry Martin. Both songs are instrumentals and there will be no vocal on the record.

The Casuals have just organized this year, and made their first public appearance in the Fall Follies at the College on Oct. 22. They are available for any musical event and are already booked for several fraternity and sorority dances.

Television station WDBJ, in Roanoke, Virginia, will feature the Casuals on their teen-age dance program on Nov. 21. This will be on channel 7 in the afternoon.

All of the Casuals are students of High Point College: Terry Martin, composer-pianist, is a freshman from Collinsville, Va.; Paul Jones, a senior from Asheville, N. C., plays the drums; Ray Sheppard, who adds an electric guitar, as well as original compositions, is from Crites, Va.; Bruce Miller, a senior from the District of Columbia, plays the bass. Rick Platt, a freshman from High Point, N. C., will be featured on the piano in some engagements.

If all goes well, the record should be released about the end of November, as a 45, and will receive national distribution and be featured by disc jockeys all over the nation.

Dr. Dixon Joins HPC Faculty

The state of Mississippi will be well represented this year by one of its native sons, Dr. James Cullen Dixon. Dr. Dixon was born in Senatobia, Mississippi and lived there for 12 years at which time his family moved to West Virginia. In the "Panhandle State" Dr. Dixon attended St. Albans High School, graduating in 1950.

From 1950 to 1953 he was a student at Marshall College in Huntington, West Virginia. The next two years he had the pleasure of serving in the United States Army stationed in Germany. After this "pleasure cruise" he re-entered Marshall to do postgraduate work. It seems that Dr. Dixon has an attachment for the the armed services for in the summer of '56 he started working for the Air Material Command Headquarters at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio.

All work and no play seems to be the reason why in 1957 Dr. Dixon returned to the books again. This time it was at Emory University and the degree he was working for was a Ph.D. in Political Science. HPC is fortunate to have such a devoted new professor among its ranks.

This is Dr. Dixon's first full year of teaching though he has taught part time at Georgia Tech. At HPC he hopes to renew interest among students in the field of political science. At present he is teaching Comparative Government, State and Local Government, National Government, and two Freshman History courses.

Dr. Dixon is married and lives at 2410 East Lexington here in High Point. We are hoping to see more of him in the future.

Fall Follies Winners

Ann Emery Barbara Perry Betty Foshee

Perry Wins In Fall Follies

Barbara Perry, a freshman from High Point, won first place in the Fall Follies of '59 on Oct. 22. Betty Foshee singing "St. Louis Blues," won second place and Ann Emery won third place doing a monologue, "The Receiving Line."

Barbara Perry sang "Love Is Where You Find It," to win the favor of the judges. Judges were Pat Mellonas, Nancy Anne Staley, Bill Everheart, and William King, Jr. They judged the contestants on talent, poise, originality and audience appeal.

At the intermission, Denise Brown and Zane Daniel entertained by doing the numbers which won them second and first place honors last year. During the remaining wait, the Casuals entertained with some of their original arrangements.

Also appearing in the Fall Follies were Janie Dull playing "Malaguena," John Ward singing "Plant a Watermelon on My Grave and Let the Juice Soak Through," Jerri Martin doing a Baton Dance Routine to "High Blood Pressure."

Greg Morton playing an original guitar selection, Carol Taylor singing "There is Nothing Like a Dame," Nan Beane doing a Charleston Tap, and Ned Chatelaine reading Beatnik poetry.

Country Music Jamboree Tonight

The Hank Williams Memorial Show is being presented in Memorial Auditorium on Friday, Nov. 6, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and $.90 for children at the door.

This will be a jamboree of country music in honor of the late Hank Williams. There will be two hours of music, featuring some of the greats of country singing. This is sponsored by the Wisemen Club of High Point.

House, Senate Elect Officers

The 1959-60 session of the Student Legislature convened Oct. 8 in a joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives. SGA president, Ray Sheppard, welcomed the group. He expressed his desire and trust that this year will be a most prosperous one for the Student Legislature. Don Drapeau, president of the Senate, presided over the meeting. During the business session, the band was accepted back into the House of Representatives and the newly formed Chapel Choir was granted permission to come into the House.

Don Drapeau was appointed by Dean Nelson as head of the committee on the operation of the Student Center. Buzz Routh, Speaker of the House, opened the floor for discussion of the committee. It was decided that five volunteers would make up this committee. Julie Young, Arlene Lanzieri, Sandra Vestal, Thelma Mitchell, and Jackie Creech volunteered for the job.

At the first meeting of the House, Oct. 15, the election of officers was held with Speaker Routh presiding. Those elected were: Speaker Pro Tem, Vance Davis; Parliamentarian, Ronnie Wachs; Reading Clerk, Mark Raby; Recording Clerk, Glenda Radcliffe; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Bill Parrish.

The Senate's first session as an individual body was held Oct. 22 in the Student Center. Officers elected from this house were: Vice President, Robert Little; Parliamentarian, Daryl McGuire; Recording Clerk, Eleanor Davis; Sergeant-at-Arms, Fred Simon; and Chaplain, Kay Thompson. A bill dealing with the wearing of burmuda shorts and treads on campus was introduced. It was passed in the Senate and will go to the House for further debate.

HI-PO Rated First Class

The second semester editions of the '58-'59 school year of the HI-PO have received a First Class rating by the Associated Collegiate Press. This is next to the highest possible rating, and only one paper in the country of the same classification was rated in the higher class.

Each semester the copies of the HI-PO are sent in to the ACP for this rating service. The new rating is an advancement over the previous Second Class received in 1957.

ACP has certain basic standards for coverage, writing and physical properties which must be met to earn honors. Every effort is made to judge publications on the effectiveness with which they serve their individual colleges. Each paper is compared with other college papers—not with some mythical "perfect" paper, nor with metropolitan publications.

Each publication is rated in its own classification. The HI-PO is classified as a monthly. It is judged in comparison with those produced by other colleges of approximately similar enrollment, by similar method of publication, and with the same frequency of issue per semester.

The HI-PO received excellent ratings on news sources and stories, style, leads, editorials, sports writing, and headlines.

one of the Ten Top Seniors. John is now serving his second year as class president.

Charles Johnson, High Point, is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity (editor, correspondent, social chairman, vice-president), Judiciary Council (Chief Justice), has served on the HI-PO and Zenith staffs, was vice-president of the SGA, and has been prominent in the planning of Student Congresses. Charles is in the Order of the Lighted Lamp, and is one of the Ten Top Seniors.

Ray Sheppard, Critz, Va., is a transfer student from Ferrum Junior College, where he was president of SGA. At HPC, Ray is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon (pledge trainer), Legislature, vice-president of the Student Congress Interim Council, and President of the SGA.

Ron Wachs, Pittsboro, has served on the Judiciary Council, as HI-PO Business Manager, and is Parliamentarian of the House. Ron is in Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, one of the Ten Top Seniors, and in the Order of the Lighted Lamp.

Harold Wright, Lawndale, who is currently president of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, has taken an active part in MSF (vice-president, president), Kappa Chi, IFC (treasurer), Fellowship Teams, HI-PO staff, and served as Zenith sports editor. Harold was treasurer of SGA and served on the Judiciary Council two years.

WC Presents English Comedy

The Theatre of Woman's College will present an English musical comedy, The Boy Friend, on November 5, 6, and 7 in Aycock Auditorium, Greensboro, N. C.

The Boy Friend by Sandy Wilson is a satire of the musical comedies of the 1920's. After a six-year run in London, it ran for two years on Broadway and is now entering its third year off Broadway. The acting, music, and scenery follow the trend of the 1920's. The plot is full of giddy girls and their briefly frustrated romances, their silly partings and reunions, and is chiefly concerned with a wistfully lonely heiress in a boarding school on the Riviera who heaves her bosom sadly because she has fallen in love with a mere bellhop.

Susan Meyer and Hunter Tillman are the heroine and hero of The Boy Friend which is directed by Herman Middleton and designed by Ray Smith.

Certain time is 8:00 p.m. on November 5, 6, and 7. There will be a special matinee at 2:30 on Saturday, November 7. The special college rate is one dollar or eighty cents each for a group of 20 or more students.

ESO Makes Plans For This Year

Epsilon Sigma Omicron is the professional home economics sorority on campus for students who have taken or are taking courses in home economics. The club is affiliated with the North Carolina division of the national association.

Its purposes are to promote a spirit of cooperation among the home economic members and their associates on the campus, to promote wider and better understanding of the value of home economics to other individuals, to stimulate interest of its members in professional growth, and to develop the personality, character, leadership, and social poise of its members.

The first meeting of the year was held October 8, with Ernestine Jones presiding. The objective was to welcome both old and new members and to acquaint them with the new constitution, which was revised last spring.

Alpha Phi Omega Pledges Fifteen

On October 14 at Green Street Baptist Church a pledge ceremony was held for the following men: Jimmy Stevens, Gene Clements, Tom Richey, Larry Benbow, Ben Wyndham, John Wood, Ned Chatelain, David Pancoast, Tommy Freeman, Jim Ogburn, Wolfy Unger, Frank Phillips, Dan Myers, Ronald Williams, and Bill Black.

Preceding this ceremony, bothers Harrison Krites, Leo Buie and James Grimmer were initiated into the fraternity. Dr. Locke, Dr. Dixon, and Mr. Fryhaver were initiated as advisors.

The lost and found is being operated by APO this year in the tower of Roberts Hall. The office (Room 46) is open from 12:15 - 1:15, 1:45 - 2:30 Monday through Friday. An auction of unclaimed articles will be held on November 6th.

One of the principal objectives of Alpha Phi Omega is service to the student body and faculty. If you have any projects of this nature in mind let it be known to Charles Riddle, projects chairman, or any bother.

Foreign Affairs To Be WF Theme

Westminster Fellowship will hold its next meeting November 11, at which time a program will be given on "Christ in Foreign Affairs." The next in this series of programs will be given at the following meeting when President Liz Peterson will give a Christian approach to Communism.

The fellowship is also planning a trip to the Presbyterian Home in the near future and Christmas caroling before the holidays. The organization has been having devotions in Lindley Chapel every other Friday.

PRESENTING YOW'S PANTHERS

HPC sports fans got their first formal glimpse of the 1959-60 Panther varsity basketball squad a week ago Tuesday as Head Coach Virgil Yow and Assistant Chuck Hartman unveiled what could be the finest team this school has had in years. At least the potential is there.

If anyone is interested, the whites beat the purples, but I doubt anyone is. It would be unfair to tear each man down individually since this was only the third time the club had scrimmaged. However, as an observer, several factors were noted. For one thing, Wayne Cheek and Wolfy Unger looked as good as any two men might in one night, both offensively and defensively.

They weren't the only shining stars by any means. Captain Danny Sewell picked up where he left off last season and made an unusual number of uncanny, twisting lay-ups, several times with two or three men between him and the hoop. Newcomer Dave Coombs played like he has been with the club at least two seasons. He had several passes deflected and missed some hard driving lay-ups, but played a hard, aggressive game.

Both Jackie Short and Zane Daniels showed up well, playing good floor games and hitting on a variety of jump shots. Tommy Skidmore played his usual steady game and teamed with Cheek and Unger to clear the boards for the whites.

Another newcomer, Larry Nolan, a 195-pounder from Washington, D. C. showed an ability to drive and good scrape off the boards. Still another new face, Gene Buchanan will see a lot of action this winter. Offensively, he had a bad night but showed good hustle and a strong set of legs under the hoop. "Cubby" Formyduval played his usual aggressive game and displayed the kind of spirit that makes a winning season.

From first indications, this looks like a club that possesses a great amount of talent, ability, and depth. Coach Yow has three more weeks before the lid-opener at East Carolina on Dec. 1. It should be the opening of a schedule that carries High Point to first place in the Northstate Conference. There is no reason why this club can't go a long, long way, if every man loses his individuality and becomes a part of a well-oiled machine. A machine that can bring the N.S.C. championship home to High Point. Sewell, Combs, Cheek, Short, Guzinski, Unger, Daniels, Buchanan, Nolan, Skidmore, and Formyduval can't do it as individuals, or with the help of one or two others on the squad. Only an aggressive, highly-spirited unit playing as one can do the job that Yow's Panthers are capable of doing.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Let's take a wide swing around this country of ours and see who the potential winners are in each of the major college conferences and leagues at the present time.

On the East Coast, both Army and Navy have been disappointing while Syracuse and Penn State have taken the spotlight. In the Ivy League, Yale was expected to repeat last season's dismal record and occupy the cellar position. Instead, they stand undefeated in five tilts, three in conference play, and at the moment are the nation's only major college team unscored on. Watch the University of Pennsylvania club, however; I predict they will defeat Yale and at least tie for the Ivy League crown.

In the Big Ten, second ranked Northwestern is leading the pack with an unblemished 5-0 record while tenth ranked Wisconsin, 11th ranked Purdue, Michigan State, and Illinois battle for the top honor spot. There is a great deal of power spread out over these five teams and any one of them will give the West Coast Big Five Champions a fit come Rose Bowl time.

The Southeastern Conference has by far the most power this season with four schools, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Auburn, and Georgia Tech all within the top ten. Billy Cannon and Co. tangled with powerful Mississippi last weekend in a game which could have decided LSU's bid for a second straight national title.

Closer to home we have the celebrated Atlantic Coast Conference. Here it looks like the Tigers from Clemson have matters about sewed up. Led by junior Norman Snead, Wake Forest has had a successful season up to this point, while down at Chapel Hill, Coach Jim Hickey is just keeping his Carolina club above water. The Blue Devils from Duke may be sporting a losing record but I seriously doubt there is any club in the nation meeting a tougher schedule this fall.

Wyoming is the heads on favorite again this season to capture the Skyline Conference. Their lone loss came at the hands of powerful Air Force 20-7 while rolling up five victories. The dark-horse is New Mexico.

As predicted, the University of Southern California is the big show again this year in the Big Five Conference, sporting a perfect 6-0 record. They should go all the way to the Rose Bowl with little trouble.

Typical action in the intramural touch football season is seen as a pass play is in the making.

Thinclads Break Pembroke Record

The cross-country track team of HPC defeated the cross-country team of Pembroke State College by a score of 19-36. The thinclads of HPC traveled to Pembroke to defeat them and set a new course record of 20:36.

The record time of the Pembroke course had formerly been 21:11, but the team of five runners from HPC came in one, two, three, four, and nine. The first four all came in under the record.

Ken Sullivan, who won the race for HPC, set the new record. The cross-country team at HPC is still undefeated after having met Catawba, Wake Forest, Furman, Davidson and Pembroke. They have three more meets on schedule. These are the NAIA District meet, Washington and Lee, and the North Carolina State meet.

The boys who are handling the running chores for the HPC cross-country team for this year are Mike Sabino, Ken Sullivan, Louis Farlow, Dick Vert, Mickey Dean, and Ray Murphy.

Cheerleaders Elected In Assembly

On Wednesday, October 28, two new regular cheerleaders and three alternates were elected by the student body. Vicki Smith and Tom Dean were chosen for the honors and Alice Jones, Ann Surratt and Frank Phillips were elected to serve as alternate cheerleaders. Seventeen girls and three boys tried out for the positions. These students cheered at the scrimmage basketball game on Tuesday, October 27.

The girls that tried out were: Nancy Moffitt, Vicki Smith, Ann Surratt, Karen Carpenter, Brenda Dellinger, Alice Jones, Nancy Boone, Booky Kearns, Ann Emery, Phyllis Huss, Ann Burns, Nan Bean, Sue Brady, Dee Ford, Betty Beauchamp, Linda Samuels and Do Do Davis.

The boys that tried out were: Tom Dean, Bruce Garabrant, and Frank Phillips.

The two new regulars along with Harold Terry, Betty Gray Dorman, Wini Stuart, Smiley Lloyd, Yvonne Vaughn, and Shelby Williams make up the '59-'60 cheering squad. Shelby Williams was elected as chief cheerleader.

The cheerleaders are helping in the campaign to raise money to purchase a purple fur panther suit which Harold Dickenson will wear as a mascot for the Panthers. All donations will be appreciated and should be turned in to Shelby Williams.

PHI MU

The following Phi Mu's were representatives in the Miss High Point College contest:

Libby Graham, Shelby Williams, Jo Nell Kerley, Doris Talley, Kay Phillips, Wini Stuart, Alyce Ratlyff, Alice Jones, Jane Lloyd, Jane Honeycutt, and Sylvia Newton. The last six were chosen among the fifteen finalists.

Recently elected pledge class officers are: President, Kay Thompson; Vice President, Joan Bartlett; Secretary, Alice Jones; Treasurer, Evelyn Hallman.

Four Phi Mu's have been selected as Junior Marshals. They are: Libby Graham, Eileen McIlvaine, Sylvia Newton, and Peggy Talley.

Doris Talley was elected to the Ten Top Seniors. Doris also represented the Western North Carolina conference of the Methodist Church at a Vocations Conference in Nashville, Tennessee.

Karen Combs, who is pinned to Bobby Lloyd, was recently serenaded by the Pika's. Libby Graham is pinned to Don Drapeau and Jane Lloyd is pinned to Bill Van Auker. Doris Talley recently became engaged to Ronald Lucas.

Alice Jones has been elected as first alternate cheerleader.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Henry Ellen Atkinson is the proud possessor of a sparkling diamond given her by Atlas Warrick. A candlelight service was held for Henry Ellen on October 16.

Singing "Love Is Where You Find It," Zeta pledge Barbara Perry won the first place award in the freshman talent show. Nan Bean was also in the show doing a tap Charleston.

Zetas Lorna Dickson, Pat Wykoff, Smily Lloyd, and Zella Sparks have landed parts in the Tower Players' production of "Guys and Dolls." Jeanne Skinner represented Zeta in the preliminaries of the Miss HPC contest.

Glenda Radcliffe was elected Recording Clerk of the House of Representatives. Other Zetas in student government are: Pat Wykoff, representing the sophomore class and Becky Royer representing Epsilon Sigma Omicron.

Delta Gamma chapter initiated two girls into the sisterhood of Zeta Tau Alpha. These proud new initiates are Nancy Campbell and Lorna Dickson.

KAPPA DELTA

The past month has been a very busy and exciting one for Kappa Delta. We were honored with an official visit from Miss Florence Tryon of Florida. Kappa Delta national counselor, during the week of Oct. 11 through Oct. 18. The chapter entertained Miss Tryon on Friday evening with dinner at the High Point-Greensboro airport.

On October 12, the Kappa Delta's entertained the residents of the Presbyterian Home for the Aged with an "Ed Sullivan" talent show. The residents of the home also entertained with various talented acts. This was the first philanthropic project of the Kappa Delta's but beginning in November, weekly work will again be done in the Guilford County Health Clinic with crippled children.

Congratulations are in order for Vickie Smith who was elected the only new cheerleader for the HPC squad. Also to be congratulated are: Sandra Parnell, Dee Stone, Jerri Martin, and Jean Thomas who were chosen among the fifteen finalists in the coming Miss High Point College contest.

Congratulations are offered to Jean Thomas who was elected Junior Marshal by the faculty, and to Betty Gray Dorman who was selected as one of the Ten Top Seniors.

The newly elected pledge officers are: Vicki Smith, president; Claire Rose, vice-president; Margaret Hester, secretary; and Martha McKenzie, treasurer.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

There have been many activities in October for the Alpha Gams. On October 19th, the sisters entertained the pledges with pizza at the Greensboro-High Point airport. Last Saturday night, in celebration of Halloween, we held a party at the Marietta Clubhouse. It was appropriately called "The Witch's Brew." This Saturday night the Alpha Gams had a "Trick-or-Treat" party at the Panhellenic House.

Dormitory devotions are now being held by the Alpha Gams each Tuesday night. Yvonne Vaughn has been elected to the Senate as Senator for the Sophomore class. Jean Peedin, Ruth Ann Macon, Sandra Brady, and Judy Hall were initiated into the sisterhood on November first.

Three of the sisters were in the Ten Top Seniors. They are: Peggy Davis, Sylvia Nicks, and Liz Peterson. Five Alpha Gams were Miss High Point College contestants. They are: Eunice Young, Debby Callaway, Yvonne Vaughn, Sandra Wheeler, and Ann Surratt. Eunice and Yvonne were among the top fifteen finalists.

The new pledge officers are: Alice Hobson, president; Kappy Barnette, vice-president; Gloria Teague, secretary; Jennie Currie, treasurer; DoDo Davis, chaplain.

"Andi" Anderson, who is pinned to Marion Suitt, was serenaded by the Sig Eps, and Jennie Currie, who is pinned to Bill Covington, was serenaded by the Kappa Sigs from Wake Forest.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

On Saturday the 24th of October, two new members joined the ranks of brotherhood into Lambda Chi Alpha. They are Charles Davis and Mr. Joseph L. Fryhoyer. We of Lambda Chi are very proud of these two new brothers and we extend our deepest congratulations. We also would like to extend congratulations to three of our brothers who were elected to the post of Junior Marshals. They are Dale Brown, Bobby Yates, and Jack Short.

Over the past two weeks Lambda Chi has managed to win but one of four tilts on the intermural gridiron, the lone victory coming at the hands of the Sig Eps by a score of seven to six. Losses were handed down by TKE's, 13-0; Delta Sigs, 13-0; and by the Pikas, 12-7.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

On Sunday, October 11, a group of High Point Sig Eps invaded Western North Carolina and Eastern Tennessee. Despite threatening weather, brothers and their dates enjoyed a day of driving, sightseeing, picnicking, and exploring, and returned exhausted but happy.

N. C. Eta Chapter was honored on the week of October 5th by a visit from Brother Charles Hartman, Province Director, on tour through District Five of Sigma Phi Epsilon, and from Brother Bedford Black, Sig Ep National Officer from Kannapolis, who leads a successful career as a lawyer and member of the North Carolina Legislature.

We are glad to welcome George Shepard back into the local fold as he returns to High Point for another semester.

Miss Andie Anderson, who wears the pin of Brother Marion Suitt, was serenaded on Thursday, October 15, in the traditional Sig Ep style, with sweetheart songs and the familiar candlelight heart. Marion, despite a wounded leg, came through the experience in grand style.

We are proud to congratulate Brothers Vance Davis and Charles Price upon being chosen Junior Marshals.

On Monday, October 26, N. C. Eta Chapter traveled to Dimizio's in Salisbury to dine on excellent Italian food and enjoy an evening of fellowship and planning.

THETA CHI

Brother Bill Davidson, our Rush Chairman, is planning two of the wildest Rush Parties in years; even Brother John Tuttle is helping out—or is it hindering?

The victorious Red OX's are crushing all opposition on the gridiron. Led by Brother Harold Long, the brothers are having their best season in years.

Theta Chi's representative in the Miss High Point College Contest will be the lovely Miss Jerri Martin. Jerri, the reigning "Miss Queen Piedmont," is a member of the freshman class, a Kappa Delta Pledge, and a graduate of High Point Senior High School.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Delta Kappa chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon initiated three new brothers—Zane Daniel, Joe Guzinski, and David Workman—into the fraternity recently. Initiation ceremonies were held Tuesday, October 20, in the home of frater James Stanley, Delta Kappa chapter advisor.

Tau Kappa Epsilon was awarded the 1958-59 Student Government

All-Sports trophy in chapel on October 26, by Ray Sheppard, president of the SGA. The Tekes took the championship last year in football and softball, and a number of minor sports.

Congratulations to frater Don Reber upon his recent installation as a Junior Marshal. Tau Kappa Epsilon also wishes to thank Miss Carol Howard who represented the fraternity in the Miss High Point College contest.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

On Sunday, October 18, about 30 couples went to the Blue Ridge Parkway for a day of fun, frolic, and fellowship. A bigger event came up Saturday night, October 17, at 7:30 p.m. in Clemmons, N. C. Alumni Brother W. C. McGee, Jr., a past president of our chapter, was wed to Delta Omega's 1958 Dream Girl, Miss Diane Elizabeth Bingham, Kappa Delta.

John Joseph "Jack" Mahan, Jr. entered the Brotherhood of Pi Kappa Alpha on Monday night, October 19. Pledge Gregory Mills will be initiated within the next week.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

The Delta Sig football team has enjoyed an outstanding football season in Intramural play. They have beaten Lambda Chi Alpha and Pi Kappa Alpha, tied Tau Kappa Epsilon and received one loss at the hands of Theta Chi. The outstanding players have been Max Cox, Jerry Koontz, Bill Cook and Bob Veasey.

Eight Delta Sigs have been cast for parts in the Tower Players coming production of Guys and Dolls. Don Drapeau has the comedy lead while Charlie Huff and Bill Damon have principal parts. Other Delta Sigs in the cast are Max Cox, Bruce Garbrant, Ronnie Money, Bob Veasey and Preston Reece.

Congratulations to Don Drapeau who was recently chosen as Chief Marshal, and to Darly McGuire and Jerry Koontz who were also chosen as Junior Marshals. Congratulations are again in order to Don Drapeau for his recent pinning to Libby Graham.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(THROW THESE QUESTIONS INTO THE POT AND SEE WHAT COOKS*)

If your studies led you to believe you could strike oil by drilling a hole right in the middle of the campus, would you (A) keep still about it so people wouldn't think you were nuts? (B) sell stock in the proposition to all your friends? (C) get an oil man interested in the idea, even if you had to give him most of the profits?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐

"A watched pot never boils" means (A) the man who made such a statement never watched a pot; (B) if you don't want the stew to boil over—watch it! (C) you can't hurry things by worrying about them.

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐

If you saw a girl perched up in a tree reading a book, would you say, (A) "Timber!" (B) "Is the light better up there?" (C) "Will that branch hold two?"

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐

Assuming cigarettes could talk, would you listen to (A) a filter cigarette that talks only about its taste? (B) a weak-tasting cigarette that talks about its filter? (C) a filter cigarette that lets its advanced filter design and full taste speak for themselves?

A ☐ B ☐ C ☐

the cigarette with the most advanced filter design of them all . . . the one cigarette with a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

*If you checked (B) in three out of four of these questions, you're a pretty smart cooky—but if you checked (C), you think for yourself!

Familiar pack or crush-proof box.

Next time you light up, take a moment to think about what you really want in your filter cigarette. Most men and women who think for themselves choose VICEROY.

Holiday Ball Open To All

On January 8, 1960, the Sophomore Class is sponsoring a Holiday Ball for the entire student body. The dance will be held at the American Legion Club in High Point.

The Holiday Ball will be from 7:30-12:00 P.M. and dress will be semi-formal. The admission to the dance will be $1.50 per couple. The highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the Holiday Ball King and Queen. The King and Queen were selected by the student body in assembly.

The nominees were elected by their class. Representing the Freshman class were Bookie Kearnes, Sandra Hooks, Ted Brazzele, and Ron Macheaux. The Sophomore class representatives were Jane Honeycutt, Yvonne Vaughn, Dick Holt, and Bill Kester. Daryle McGuire, Daryle Smith, Sandra Parnell, Dee Stone are representing the Junior class. Ann Blanchard, Mary Lou Craver, Fred Sigmon, and Fred Handy are the Senior class representatives.

Music Dept. Gives Concert

The College Concert Choir will present their annual Christmas Concert in Memorial Auditorium on Wednesday, December 16, at 8 p.m. A new Concert Brass Choir will be introduced and will accompany the choir in "Gloria In Excelsis" by Florence Julley.

The other selections include a Bach Motet, "Noel" by Ruth Tombacher, "Mary Mary, Where is Your Baby" by Jester Hairston, "Benedicamus Domino" by Lew Lewis, "The Three Kings" by Helay Willam and "At the Paling of the Stars" by Kenneth Walton.

The choir will be assisted in three selections by the new Chapel Choir and the Concert Band will play two selections, "Go Tell It On the Mountain," arranged by Lew Lewis and "Farandole from L'Arlesienne, Suite II" by Bizet.

This program will also be given by the Concert Choir on their tour which is from Dec. 17 to 23. They will sing in Virginia, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, and Washington, D. C.

Winter Exam Schedule To Begin January 20

N. P. Yarborough, High Point College Registrar, last week announced the schedule of examinations for the end of the present semester. According to Yarborough, the exams are to begin on January 20 and will end on January 27. It was stressed that students keep in mind that courses specifically listed on the schedule will be given at the assigned times rather than the period in which they would occur in the general class schedule.

Man on the Street Students Laud Yow's Panthers

by JIM DUGGAN

Now that the basketball season has been officially opened, the sports department thought it would be a good idea to find out just what the student body thought of our team. The following remarks are straight from mouth to print, with a few necessary exceptions!

Bruce Garrabrant—It looks good to me. I think there is more depth this year. Dave Coombs, in my opinion, more than fills the vacated shoes of Steve Affendis.

"Q" Smith—HuH? Well I tell you what, the popcorn was real good. OH! the game, well the Panthers got off to a slow start, but after they got rolling they couldn't be stopped. Also I thought the subs played a good game. Man! we got depth! By the way I plan to go to Kansas City!

Bill Cook—Well . . . I'm glad we were playing Guilford that first half. I think they are more aggressive than last year. I also think the student body showed tremendous spirit. I think the championship will be taken "hands down".

Neil Stallings—I feel this way about it, I think if we continue to play like we did last night we can beat Lenoir Rhyne, and we've got to beat Lenoir Rhyne!

Flo McElmurry—Well, I thought it was fast, I think college basketball is very different from high school ball. I had never seen a college game before Thursday night, also I have never seen a game up to 100 points.

Ron Neal—I thought it was a darn good game. I feel that the teamwork was very good on everyone's part, especially on the part of the team. If they continue to hustle, they will go all the way!

Gala Lambeth—I thought it was great, I don't know really what to say. It really was exciting, I hope the rest of the season is the same way. Last night showed that the school spirit was just what the team needs, I hope the student body continues to support the team in just such a manner.

Dick Vert—They looked exceptionally good at times. I've never seen Zane Daniels hit so consistently from so far out. I liked the way they hustled, even after they led by such a large margin.

Comment to Be Offered

Beginning in January the HI-PO will make available to the students and faculty of HPC a new magazine called Comment. This magazine will be distributed each month, free of charge, compliments of the Hi-Po and of Coash Publishing Co.

The goals of Comment are to make the college community aware of important events and developments on other campuses. It will provide up-to-date articles on national and world-wide events which affect them. Comment will also offer essays and fiction written by professors, undergraduates and recent graduates.

It will feature articles on draft laws and military programs, and on job opportunities and hiring practices. Last but not least, Comment will also feature collegiate sports news and humor.

Comment will be put out with the HI-PO. If it arrives too late to meet this deadline, it will be placed in the foyer of Roberts Hall.

There will be enough for each student and faculty member to take and read a copy. The staff of the HI-PO hopes that this magazine will be widely read and "commented" on.

Windley Pres. Of Model U.N.

The third annual model United Nations was held at West Market Street Methodist Church on December 4, 5, 6, 1959. On the first night of the meeting Dr. William B. Aycock of the University of North Carolina spoke on the problems before the United Nations and how they of the U.N. had to solve them. He placed the delegates in the same position and wished them good luck in their efforts.

The following people were elected to office: Allen Windley, High Point College student, President of the third annual model U.N.; Von Burton, Livingston College student, Vice-President; Jerry Owens, Charlotte College student, Parliamentarian; Carolee Wood, Greensboro College student, Secretary General.

The Assembly was made up of 60 student delegates from 13 North Carolina Colleges and Universities. Attending from High Point College were: Bobby Little, Ike Syrjala—Yugoslavia; Sherwood Nance, Louise Stokes, Julia Hobson—Nationalist China; Brooks Garnett, Pat Peterson, Carol Howard—Red China; Ken Crutchfield, Peggy Ward, Inger Westerholm—Finland.

The HPC delegations appreciated the help and support they received from Dr. Dixon, advisor; Dr. Hudgins, Dee Ford, Peggy McNamee, Carol Scarboro, Al Thompson, Tom Dean, Betty Lou Williams, and many more.

On Saturday five bills were brought to the General Assembly to be discussed and voted on. They were as follows: The UN Insure the Fundamental Rights of the Tibetan People; A Factfinding Committee be Sent to Laos to Serve as a Deterrent to Further Invasion; Scientific Discoveries and the Data shall be Made Available through the Ad Hoc Committee; Removal of All Foreign Troops from, and reunite, Germany.

On Sunday morning coffee and doughnuts were served and evaluation took place. The meeting was closed with a meditation period in Greensboro College Chapel.

Jerri Martin Is 'Miss HPC of 1960'

Miss Jerri Martin, a freshman from High Point, was crowned the new "Miss High Point College" for the year of 1960 in the annual Miss High Point College Pageant held on Dec. 9. She was sponsored by Theta Chi Fraternity.

First Runner-up in the event was Sandra Parnell, a junior, also from High Point. Sandra was sponsored by the Concert Choir. The remaining finalists were, in order, Wini Stuart, sponsored by the Senior Class; Dee Stone, sponsored by the Junior class; and Eunice Young, sponsored by Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority.

The remaining contestants and their sponsors were: Donna Blue, chosen "Miss Congeniality," sponsored by the Chapel Choir; Jane Crowson, MSF; Jane Honeycutt, Kappa Chi; Carol Howard, Tau Kappa Epsilon; Jane Lloyd, Lambda Chi Alpha; Alyce Ratliff, Phi Mu; Jean Thomas, Pi Kappa Alpha; and Yvonne Vaughn, Delta Sigma Phi.

The theme for this year's pageant was "Winter Wonderland" which was introduced with a song by Miss Julie Young, Miss HPC of 1959.

Mr. Jimmy Capps, from Raleigh, served as the Master of Ceremonies for the event. Miss N. C., Miss Judy Lynn Klipfel was presented and participated in the Pageant.

AN EARLY VISIT

While visiting at North Hall the other day, photographer Dick Vert spied one of Santa's helpers practicing up for the big night. Fortunately Dick was able to get a picture just as she was going down the chimney. When she appeared later, after her trial run, he learned that it was freshman Jerri Martin, of High Point. Jerri said that she has it straight from the reindeer's mouth that Santa has some real surprises in store for HPC's students, faculty and administration!

Across The Desk

It has been a source of amazement to us as to how a college can call itself a Christian college when it has no facilities for the promotion of a Christian program on the campus. High Point College's only claim to being Christian is the fact that it is supported by and affiliated with the Methodist Church, and that the requirements for the professors are set according to Christian example.

As far as the student body and the available facilities are concerned, High Point College is no more Christian than any non-denominational college. In fact, in regards to facilities our campus is far behind most other colleges.

In the original plans for HPC, there was to be a chapel where the library now stands. What ever became of that chapel we do not know. We only know that instead of that building we now have one small chapel located where privacy is almost impossible, and where large meetings are impossible.

The Student Christian Council is taking action to rectify this situation. HPC needs a religious center and the SCC is doing all in its power to meet this need. Each student at HPC is a member of the Student Christian Association and thereby has a voice in the council's plans. Each student should take an interest in this project and do his part in making High Point College a Christian college with a building in which the religious activities can be promoted and facilitated.

Letters

(All letters to the editor must be signed; names will be withheld on request. Letters do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the editors.)

Dear Editor:

I feel that Miss DeSpain, Mr. Fryhover, Dr. Lewis, and the Tower Players are to be commended for their excellent production of "Guys and Dolls." It seems a shame that so much work and preparation should end with only two performances.

Few of us realize the long hours and hard work that goes into such a production. All the members of the crews and the cast put a great deal of effort into making the play the success that it was. We have every reason to be extremely proud of our fellow students!

From the comments heard among the student body, everyone thoroughly enjoyed the performance. In view of this, I find it hard to understand why, at the climax of months of exhausting work, the participants received only four curtain calls as tribute to their excellent performance. I cannot understand why the house wasn't brought down with applause. Several of us tried to initiate a standing ovation but the rest of the audience apparently was too tired to make the effort. Surely the play deserved that much of a recognition.

For some reason the students of HPC have always been inclined to take such performances for granted. There seems to be a complex on our part about expressing our thanks and appreciation for a job well done. Without any thought of the work that goes into a production, we enjoy it for the moment and then go our merry way, never thinking to express to those who did all the work our appreciation for the enjoyment they gave us.

The members of the Tower Players must really like their work, for it's a cinch that they don't go to all of that trouble for the recognition they will receive! In the future, let's hope we will be more responsive to such endeavors and much more grateful.

Dear Editor:

We, the college students of today, are living in an age where education is made available to all who really want it. Many individuals come to college to gain wisdom and knowledge, but how many of us come only for the diploma we will receive. Many students are defeating the purpose of High Point College and their purpose of coming to college by dishonest methods of passing a course.

With a diploma in our hand we will go into life with a certificate saying we have a little knowledge in a certain field. How are you going to feel when you are asked a question about a basic fact in your field of concentration. Will you blame a professor while still knowing that "I Cheated". Let us look things face to face and stop to realize what cheating does to us.

Many times a fellow student will be near you in a class; are you being fair to him or her by cheating when that student is trying honestly to obtain a grade. Are you able to look into the face of a student whom you have caused to fail because you made the highest grade by cheating?

Our God has set up some basic rules for us to follow known as the Ten Commandments. One commandment states "Thou shalt not steal", but how many times have you taken knowledge from someone's paper, from a cheat-sheet or from a book and said it was your knowledge.

While we are the ones doing the cheating it will take more than just our effort to stop it. We can help by trying to cut down on the temptation for someone to copy our paper, and talking to those whom we know that do cheat. Our professors can help us by being on the watch for dishonest methods of passing a course and making sure no student can obtain a test paper before the test is given.

To you my fellow students I challenge you, Stop Cheating, try to gain some knowledge and be proud to stand among those who do not cheat. To those of you who are honestly making your grades I commend you and say if being honest makes us stand alone stand firm and do not be influenced.

And this Man Nixon

After World War II, there emerged from the West Coast "scene" an ambitious and bright young man named Richard Nixon, destined not only to become Vice President of the United States, but also to be one of the most adroit politicians the twentieth century has produced.

From the beginning, this man has possessed the uncanny knack of turning public rebuke and hostility into sheer drive for victory and the confiscation of seemingly stronger opponents. His flight to the Senate was earmarked by discord within the Democratic Party of California and a mist of "pink-spray" which he so cleverly and menacingly leveled in opportune corners.

While in Congress he had single-handedly nabbed Alger Hiss, a notorious former Communist and fellow traveler, who was heretofore considered a golden haired boy in the Truman administration. Nixon had found a direct heartline to the American voters and his early success was based on his "red-weeding." Always a champion in hash-pot politics, Nixon rose to a position where he could easily buck his seniors in the California Republican Party, namely Senator William Knowland and Governor Earl Warren, both presidential aspirants.

When convention time rolled around in fifty-two, Nixon was everyone's cloaked choice for the second spot on the ticket. He had successfully sabotaged Warren's "little" party in favor of more lucrative interests and furthermore was Thomas E. Dewey's boy of the month. A consolation prize for Taft isolationists, a hope for disgruntled veterans, and a mirage-like resemblance to a house-cleaner, sewed it up for Nixon.

The future vice-president was over-due for a professional "bubu", and it came during the most hectic days of the campaign. It concerned "The Nixon Fund" promoted by California businessmen who poured money amounting to $16,000 into a pot to help ease Nixon's expenses. Nationally, the story fell like a bomb. High Republican officials started the "Dump Dick" movement in private, and at a time even Ike thought it to be the best move. In a national telecast (an hour before he had been asked to resign), Senator Nixon, a master at diversionary tactics, gave a glowing address to the American people. They were as much on his side now as they ever were. But really, what about the "Nixon Fund?" Can a political ace really eradicate an unsolved and shady mystery? The following chapters never revealed the answer.

Ironically enough, Nixon has always played his aces when they counted and then managed to discard them when they lose their value. Once considered almost a sympathizer with Joe McCarthy in the ideal of "red-weeding", Nixon cleverly managed to dump McCarthy when the latter became too "hot". This in itself is understandable, but not when one considers that Nixon's early rise to power was built on McCarthy's own formula.

In the turbulent days of Ike's first administration, Nixon unfairly bore the brunt of attack. It seems that he has always been a natural born target and none were more eager to capitalize on this weakness than his rival Democrats who labeled him everything from the "California Lemon" to "The Frozen Fruit Juice Peddler Extraordinaire". And yet, another wave was Dick able to ride. Ike saved him at the bell and in '56 the sail was smooth.

But now there looms "60" when there will be no Ike and no massive voting blocks to fall back on. Mr. Nixon, in his undoubted quest for the presidency, will have to muster his own forces and fight his own battles. Public discontentment would never really scare Nixon. His magic ability to turn the tide with his brilliant campaigning tactics and his keen ability to create a machine from a mess will put him as much in the lime-light as he ever was. He could well be the choice of diehard isolationists, conscientious and fearful Protestants, phoney-liberals, and intermediate labor fractions.

In short, the slack, and Nixon's famed ability to harness the slack, can provide the needed margin. It may take another barnstorming tour of Russia or another jaunt to South America, but Nixon will at least get the G.O.P. nod. Make no bones about that.

Let's Keep Christmas

A Sermon by Peter Marshall

Changes are everywhere. Many institutions and customs that we once thought sacrosanct have gone by the board. Yet there are a few that abide, defying time and revolution. The old message: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord" is still the heart of Christmas. It can be nothing else. And this message can neither be changed — nor quite forgotten although there are many things that tend to make us forget.

The idea of Santa Claus coming in a helicopter does not ring true. No interior decorator with a fondness for yellow or blue could ever persuade me to forsake the Christmas colors of red and green. I must confess that modernistic Christmas cards leave me cold. I cannot appreciate the dogs and cats, the galloping horses, the ships in full sail . . . or any of the cute designs that leave out the traditional symbols of the star . . . the manger . . . the wise men on their camels.

We all feel the pressure of approaching Christmas. The traffic is terrible. You can't find a parking space . . . the stores are crowded . . . mob scenes make shopping a nightmare. You are thinking about presents—wondering what in the world you can get for so-and-so. You think of friends and loved ones who are so hard to shop for. You can't think of anything they need (which is rather strange when you take time to think of it). Maybe there is nothing in a store that they need. But what about some token of love—what about love itself . . . and friendship . . . and understanding . . . and consideration . . . and a helping hand . . . and a smile . . . and a prayer? You can't buy these things in any store, and these are the very things people need. We all need them . . . blessed will they be who receive them this Christmas or at any time.

Let's not succumb to the sophistication that complains: "Christmas belongs only to the children." That shows that you have never understood Christmas at all, for the older you get, the more it means, if you know what it means. Christmas, though forever young, grows old along with us.

Have you been saying, "I just can't seem to feel the Christmas spirit this year"? That's too bad. As a confession of lack of faith, it is rather significant. You are saying that you feel no joy that Jesus came into the world . . . you are confessing that His presence in the world is not a reality to you. . . . Maybe you need all the more to read the Christmas story over again, need to sit down with the Gospel of Luke and think about it. I thank God for Christmas. Would that it lasted all year. For on Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day, all the world is a better place, and men and women are more lovable. Love itself seeps into every heart, and miracles happen. When Christmas doesn't make your heart swell up until it nearly bursts . . . and fill your eyes with tears . . . and make you all soft and warm inside . . . then you'll know that something inside of you is dead.

Isn't it wonderful to think that nothing can really harm the joy of Christmas . . . although your Christmas tree decorations will include many new gadgets, such as lights with bubbles in them . . . it's the old tree decorations that mean the most . . . the ones you save carefully from year to year . . . the crooked star that goes on the top of the tree . . . the ornaments that you've been so careful with. And you'll bring out the tiny manger, and the shed, and the little figures of the Holy Family . . . and lovingly arrange them on the mantel or in the middle of the dining room table. And getting the tree will be a family event, with great excitement for the children.

There will be the fragrance of cookies baking, spices and fruit cake . . . and the warmth of the house shall be melodious with the lilting strains of "Silent Night, Holy Night." And you'll listen to the wonderful Christmas music on the radio; some of the songs will be modern—good enough music perhaps—but it will be the old carols, the lovely old Christmas hymns that will mean the most. And forests of fir trees will march right into our living rooms . . . there will be bells on our doors and holly wreaths in our windows . . . and we shall sweep the Noel skies for their brightest colors and festoon our homes with stars. And finally Christmas morning will come. Don't worry—you'll be ready for it—you'll catch the spirit all right, or it will catch you, which is even better.

And then you will remember what Christmas means—the beginning of Christianity . . . the Second Chance for the world . . . the hope for peace . . . and the only way. The promise that the angels sang is the most wonderful music the world has ever heard. "Peace on earth and good will toward men."

It was not a pronouncement upon the state of the world then nor is it a reading of the international barometer of the present time . . . but it is a promise—God's promise—of what one day will come to pass. The years that are gone are graveyards in which all the persuasions of men have crumbled into dust. If history has any voice, it is to say that all these ways of men lead nowhere. There remains one way—The Way—untried, untested, unexplored fully . . . the way of Him Who was born a Babe in Bethlehem. In a world that seems not only to be changing, but even to be dissolving, there are some tens of millions of us who want Christmas to be the same . . . with the same old greeting "Merry Christmas" and no other.

We long for the abiding love among men of good will which the season brings . . . believing in this ancient miracle of Christmas with its softening, sweetening influence to tug at our heart strings once again. We want to hold on to the old customs and traditions because they strengthen our family ties, bind us to our friends, make us one with all mankind for whom the Child was born, and bring us back again to the God Who gave His only begotten Son, that "whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

So we will not "spend" Christmas . . . nor "observe" Christmas. We will "keep" Christmas—keep it as it is . . . in all the loveliness of its ancient traditions. May we keep it in our hearts, that we may be kept in its hope.

QUAKERS, PIRATES FALL IN NORTH STATE PLAY

I could not help but feel a little bit sorry for Coach Darr Shealy and his Guilford College squad last Thursday night as Danny Sewell and Company clobbered their closest neighbor in North State play by a humiliating 106-54 tally to the delight of the home crowd. The new mentor from Thomasville only called a total of three time-outs during the entire contest, realizing early that his Quakers were completely outclassed for the night. Unlike East Carolina, High Point's other conference victim, Guilford is headed for another dismal season with Don Lineberry, the only consistent performer.

East Carolina, on the other hand, while inexperienced at the moment, is going to give everyone a rough go of it by the first or second week in January. A freshman ace named Lawrence (Cotton) Clayton is going to spell a lot of success for the Pirates over the next four seasons.

WHERE WAS THE BAND?

One of the most enthusiastic crowds to ever fill Alumni Gymnasium was on hand to greet the highly-touted Panthers home from a 69-60 victory in Greenville. It was good to see so many people from town out side by side with our student body cheering the "Big Purple" on. Just as long as we keep winning they will keep coming.

A. B. Williams is all smiles these days as he anticipates the gate receipts from home tilts.

About the only one thing missing last Thursday night was HPC's colorful band which has added a great deal of spirit in past seasons. However, the only appropriate number for Guilford's club would have been the playing of "Waterloo."

SCHOOL SPIRIT AT HIGHEST PEAK?

School spirit right now is at the highest peak since I enrolled here in 1957, due of course to the offensive threat that our varsity offers to all comers this season. I am going out on a limb but I predict that we are at a high water mark in spirit right now that compares favorably with any such peak reached during the history of our school since its founding in 1924!

The true test will come when the Panthers have an off night, and do not worry, the best of clubs do. That's when we must support the boys and Coach Virgil Yow to the utmost. Anyone can follow a winner but a true fan remains loyal through the rain as well as the sunshine. Let's continue to show the boys who are carrying the banner of High Point College that we are behind them 100%. The Guilford game as well as the ECC game are true examples of what school spirit really means.

ROAD GAMES ON THE AIR

Since this copy goes to press a week after it is written, our plans for airing High Point's road games are still in the petition stage. However, the prospects are bright and I feel that definite action will be taken before we adjourn for the Christmas holidays. I have consulted with Dr. Gil Hertz on the matter and found that he has already looked into the chances of a local High Point station carrying our road games. I would rather wait until we have some definite plans to disclose before writing further, but I promise that the Student Government Association will do everything possible to make our dream a reality.

Panthers Win In Opening Conference Cage Games

LIKE . . . HELP!

High Point guard Dave Coombs jumps for a loose ball closely guarded by Guilford's Buddy Key (41) and Jim Lancaster (23) while Jack Short (HP 12), Brooks Haworth (G 33) and Jon Burwell look on.

Pre-Season Is Successful

High Point College's Purple Panthers have championship potential! This was very evident in the warm-up clashes with High Point YMCA team and Pembroke College.

The Panthers took a commanding 55-38 half-time lead against the local YMCA team. It looked like a run-away for coach Virgil's Yow's quint, but it took all that the Panthers had to stave off the second half rally staged by the WMCA. The final score was High Point College 96, High Point YMCA 91.

The very good YMCA team was led by former North Carolina State greats, Vic Moledet, George Stephanovich, Bob McGillivray and Cliff Dwyer, Lefty Davis, formerly of Wake Forest and Jack Powell and Chalmers Sechrest formerly of High Point College rounded out the team. The Panthers' standouts were: newcomer Dave Coombs and as usual, Danny Sewell, Wayne Cheek, and Jack Short, Wolfy Unger and 6'4" freshman Larry Nolan were very impressive along with Tommy Skidmore.

The second game with the YMCA team on December 8th, should be a closer contest, all in all, since by then the team from Main street should be able to play more as a unit.

The following warm-up game was with a weak Pembroke five. This game found High Point minus the services of stellar guard Dave Coombs and the versatile Joe Guzinski. Joe was injured early in the game against the High Point YMCA team and Dave was out with flu.

It was a rather slow game at the start, but, led by Short, Sewell, and Cheek, High Point gained momentum in the second half of play. Again, as in the previous tilt, Nolan, Unger, and Skidmore played outstanding basketball.

With All-American Danny Sewell, two potential All-Americans, Wayne Chee and Dave Coombs, total team spirit and play, and a coach such as Virgil Yow, High Point could be assured of a birth in the National finals!

Defense Sparkles

Panthers Open With 69-60 Win

The High Point College Purple Panthers officially opened the '59-'60 cage season with a quite impressive victory over the East Carolina Pirates at Greenville on December 1 by the score of 69-60. In a low scoring, sharp defensive game, the Panthers gave even further indication of a great season ahead.

East Carolina drew first blood in the game and held the lead until 9:30 in the first period. At this point a field goal put HPC ahead 14-12, a lead which was held for the remainder of the ball game. During the first minutes of the game neither team seemed to be able to buy a basket, but as the game progressed, both teams gained in accuracy and it was largely due to the sharp defenses of both teams that the scoring was held so low.

ECC coach, Chubby Smith held with a tight 1-3-1 zone defense until well into the final period when he switched into a full court press with his team down by 20 points. It was during this time that the accurate ball handling of Jack Short and newcomer Dave Coombs was made most evident, keeping the ball away from the Pirate five.

Coach Yow's aggressive man-to-man proved quite effective in slowing the offense of East Carolina down as they were held to a meek 30.9% from the floor, while High Point maintained a slightly better average of 41.5%. High Point outplayed ECC under the boards by pulling down 57 rebounds to ECC's 47. High Point's All-American Danny Sewell led in this field with 17, while Wayne Cheek contributed 10. ECC's high rebounder was freshman star, Lawrence Clayton, with 14.

Although the scoring total was quite low there were four High Point men who ran their individual scoring up into double figures. Guard Dave Coombs led the Panthers with 19, followed by Danny Sewell with 18, Jack Short with 13, and Wayne Cheek with 12. ECC's only senior, Ike Riddick, led the Pirates with 17, while Don Smith and Lawrence Clayton had 12 each.

After gaining the lead nearly halfway through the first period, High Point maintained a good margin for the rest of the way, leading at half-time by 34-26. When the action resumed the Panthers increased their lead to a margin of 20 points with 8 minutes remaining in the game. At this point Yow substituted heavily and with the switch of ECC's defense the lead was narrowed down to 5 points with only a few minutes left. The revitalized starting five then ran up the score until the final blast from the timekeeper.

NSC Record Falls

Panthers Crush Quakers 106-54

by BILL DAMON

The High Point College Panthers successfully opened its home cage schedule against Guilford College on Dec. 3 by the lopsided score of 106-54, and extended their winnings to two straight, both in conference play. Also in the process a North State Conference record was broken.

Two things were made quite evident during this game: (1) High Point is living up to the predictions that it will be the team to beat for the North State championship, (2) Guilford is playing in a class way beyond its reach.

Coach Virgil Yow had a nearly flawless team on the floor during almost the entire game, even using the second string for about one-third the time. Pressed all night by a fast and tall team, Guilford made many costly mistakes, on the floor of which the sharp defenses of High Point took advantage. Guilford's shooting eyes were somewhat lax as they ended up with a low 36% average from the floor and a 55.5% average from the free throw line. High Point was able to improve greatly over its percentage of the previous game by shooting a healthy 53.3% from the floor and 58.8% in foul shots.

When the game was over High Point had set a new Conference record of field goals in one game of 48. This bettered the old mark of 44 set by Elon College in 1956. Leading this scoring barrage was Danny Sewell with 27 points, followed by Dave Coombs with 18, Wolfy Unger 14, Jack Short 12, and Joe Guzinski 10. The only Guilford player who scored more than six points was Don Lineberry with 27.

Again the defenses of the Panthers sparkled as was made evident by the score and the fact that High Point out-rebounded their opponents 55-24. Leading in this field also was Danny Sewell with 13. The rest were fairly well distributed around for the rest of the team. For Guilford the only man to pull down more than 4 was Don Lineberry with 10.

Coach Yow seemed fairly well pleased with the fine effort put out by his team as they further eased his pre-season anxieties about the defensive possibilities. Coach Darr Shealy of Guilford also commented on the superb performance of the club.

SIDELINE HIGHLIGHTS

Someone in the stands had a horn that sounded just like the one on the scoreboard. Coach Yow soon got that little problem straightened out.

Harold Dickinson is still waiting for his Purple Panther costume to arrive so he can get a closer view of the game.

During the fracas on the floor, Coach Yow sat easily in his chair on the sidelines. It is the first time he has been seen smiling during the game for a long while. It becomes him.

SIDELINE HIGHLIGHTS

High Point's high spirited fans (150 strong) outcheered a gym full of ECC rooters, and many fans lost their voices during the noisy session.

Cheerleaders Frank Phillips and Harold Terry did a splendid job, although they were were aptly aided by "Bones" Mann and Gil Batton.

This reporter hears that there were many anxious moments spent near radios back on campus, waiting for some word of the outcome.

For those students who made the trip to Greenville, it was well worth the husky throats and loss of sleep. Let's hope they're rested up for the Guilford game.

GREEK PLEDGES LEARN OF COUNCIL

Jr. Panhellenic Formed

The College Panhellenic Council introduces on campus the Junior Panhellenic Council consisting of members of the four sorority pledge classes.

The Junior Panhellenic Council was organized in order to acquaint the sorority pledge classes with the purpose, object, and function of the Senior Panhellenic Council. The members of the Junior Panhellenic Council are guided by Edna Rose Duncan who was chosen by the College Panhellenic Council to be their advisor.

The Junior Panhellenic Council has two delegates from each of the four pledge classes; one representative and the pledge class president. The sorority that holds the presidency of Junior Panhellenic has one more delegate so that the president will have no voice.

The Junior Panhellenic Council officers are: President, Florence McElmurry, Kappa Delta; Vice President, Dee Hutchins, Alpha Gam; Secretary, Nancy Moffett, Zeta; Treasurer, Louise Stokes, Phi Mu.

The members are: Vicki Smith and Margaret Hester, Kappa Delta; Alice Hobsin, Alpha Gam; Ellen Johnston, Zeta; Kay Thompson, Phi Mu.

The Junior Panhellenic Council meets on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Panhellenic House. The Council has begun this year by taking as its project the decorating of the Panhellenic House for Christmas. The decorations consist of a Christmas tree and other various arrangements throughout the house.

See Europe On A Budget

A complete digest of Student Tours to Europe, strictly on-a-budget for Summer 1960, has been recently issued by Wakefield, Fortune Inc., World Travel. The program lists 24 departures from New York in June and July of both escorted and independent tours of the Continent including economical trans-Atlantic travel round trip by sea or, in some cases, combination of air-sea arrangements. The completely escorted all-expense tours use Volkswagen bus transportation for most of the travel in Europe. Prices start at $975 for a 61-day tour, for instance, with round trip travel by sea from New York.

The semi-independent tours offer students either round trip travel by sea or one way by sea and one way by air and include a 5-day all-expense introductory tour on arrival and then the completely unlimited use of a self-drive Volkswagen car to go wherever they wish in Europe until the westbound departure date. Prices of these tours which include trans-Atlantic transportation, the introductory tour in Europe, and the car hire on the Continent for 8-9 weeks start as low as $530 per person. In these cases, however, the students are responsible for their own hotel accommodations after the 5-day escorted tour.

These later semi-independent tours can also be arranged on request with durations of 44 days or 62 days, starting from New York on any day desired, with trans-Atlantic travel by air both ways.

Frat Rush Ends

Brotherhood, neophyte, traditions, fraternity parties, fraternity pins; these terms no longer carry the vague connotation that they once did to the men that accepted bids to join the various fraternities on campus.

The new pledges have embarked on perhaps the most broadening of all collegiate experiences, and while they are still in the neophyte stage the first step has been taken on the round to a more complete and rewarding college career. The names of the new pledges are as follows:
