During the afternoon reunions will begin sometime before the middle of March. Dr. Dennis H. Cook announced recently. These additions, costing approximately $150,000, have been made possible through the recent campaign to raise funds for higher education in Methodism by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

The extension to the library will extend perpendicularly behind the present building and will be the same height as it is five stories. This new wing will contain the stacks, able to accommodate 100,000 books, and a room for the librarians. Once all the books are moved to these new stacks the present building will be reserved for studying and reading.

The Student Center will be extended toward the north and south. The first floor of the new partition will be made available in the present Bookstore, and the Post Office will be moved to this section.

A lounge will be furnished on the second floor. Dr. Cook said, "This room is intended to provide some atmosphere." It will be furnished with overstuffed chairs and sofas, and will have a small bar area for Seniors, Open students, faculty and their guests, it will serve as a reading and visiting room.

The third floor will be extended to include the present third floor which has never been used. The addition above the present building will accommodate Alpha Chi Delta Chapter and may be used by religious organizations for meetings. The new portion will be divided into three offices to be used by the Student Government Association, the ZENITH staff, and the Hi-PO staff.

The present Lindley Chapel will be preserved and converted into a large room space. The space in the Tower was occupied by the ZENITH, Hi-PO, and the Fellowship Teams planning committee, will be divided into two larger rooms and furnished for the women and men day students. Dr. Cook commented that there were not the final improvements to be made before April 25 when it would be the last until more pressing needs. Construction is to be completed by August 24, 1959. There are immediate plans for the next building improvements to be made hereafter that there will be more later.

Four Students To Sail On Caravan

OMLSTED WACHS

All four students from HPC who applied are sponsored by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, have been accepted. Sylvia Neil-Patt Olmitz, Ollie Wachoski, and Caron Cherry all will sail for Europe on June 6, 1959.

The Caravan will be comprised of four young men and four young ladies of college age, plus two adult counselors, who will be the Rev. and Mrs. Willis R. Stevens of Rockingham. The other students are from East Carolina College, Davidson College, and one is out of school.

The Caravan seeks to bring its members into direct personal fellowship with the Methodist people in Austria and Germany. The members of the Caravan will live in the homes of the people, attend weekly worship services in the churches, lead fellowship meetings, and work with their hands to improve church buildings and facilities.

Before reaching the scene of its work in Austria and Germany, the Caravan will travel in England, France, Switzerland and Italy. This will be a period of intense preparation for service. interspersed with sightseeing tours to places of interest.

Each youth is responsible for his own support. Usually the $975 is raised by churches interested in the projects of the Student Christian Movement. The conference pays the way of one of the youths. The $300 balance is raised by the students.

After filling out intense application blanks, the students were interviewed in Greensboro by the Caravan. The interviews were the three students were interviewed for their acceptance four days after the interview.

Sylvia Nicks is a junior from Roxboro. She is majoring in religious and social work, has participated in Fellowship Teams, helped at Lindsey Memorial Church in High Point and as a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority.

Patt Olmitz from Arlington, Virginia, is majoring in English, is a V-Tech graduate, and worked in her local church. Patt is a member of Zeta Alpha Nu Sorority.

Ronald Wachoski is a junior from Pittsburgh majoring in political science. He has participated in Fellowship Teams, has his preacher's license, and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

Caron Cherry also has her preacher's license, is a history major, and is a member of Kappa Chi Fellowship. Caron is from Martinsville.

The trip includes a period of intense preparation for the service, interspersed with sightseeing tours to places of interest. The seven-day trip will be the last until more pressing needs. Construction is to be completed by August 24, 1959. There are immediate plans for the next building improvements to be made hereafter that there will be more later.

Twilighters To Perform At Junior-Senior Banquet

John Davis, president of the Junior-Senior Banquet, announced recently the student groups who will contribute to the program of events for the annual student activities.

All seniors and juniors are eligible to plan events for their own music dates outside their schools as well as for outside functions. They are free to design the courses of the dance, the dinner, the program and any other items that charge to a dollar to each junior who attends the dance.

The Junior-Senior is an annual event sponsored by the Junior class as a means of honoring the seniors, all of whom will receive diplomas as a junior this year. The plans for the event are made by juniors. This year the planning committee is made up of Fred Davis, Sylvia Nicks. Liz Peterson, Betty Gay Darmon, Pat O'Conor, Eleanor Davis, Harold Wright, Earl Whitmeyer, K. M. Vestal, Bill Moulton and Pat Ray.

A Student's Farewell

Dear Friends at HPCC,

While we're young enough to make decisions on our own, there's nothing else we've ever written, so I've asked to be chosen for this. We've been chosen for choosing the "line at least resistance.

Two months ago I was confronted with such a problem. I had to choose between transferring to Greensboro College and graduating prepared to teach the mentally handicapped or, staying at High Point, the college to have come to love for many reasons.

Above all are the friends I've made in the past two and one half years. I'll not include faculty, because you all are the best. It is you I hate to leave. To this faculty I say: Thank you for the education I have gained. Not only from books, but also that wisdom that comes in the books, that is able to give through the window of years. You have helped me grow, and for this I will always be grateful.

Thank you also for the confidence you expressed in me, as I journeyed toward my major.

To you, my fellow students, I say: Thank you for electing me to serve as Secretary of our Student Government. I regret not being able to continue serving you. Thank you for making me a college director! a meaningful experience. Thank you for being here, and you are the heart and soul of HPCC.

While at Greensboro College I will try to be a good member of your student body. But I will not be a member of any organization. If you have any other issues, I will be available to discuss them.

Post Office Reform

High Point College offers many work scholarships by which qualified students may work their way through college. Many such scholarships are based on the students' need to work a certain number of hours per week in order to receive the scholarship. This problem will be alleviated when the new student center is built. However, while this will not be in the immediate future, someone needs to be working to eliminate the confusion of the CUB.

There have been incidents of letters which were postmarked of a certain date before the letters even arrived in the hands of their destination. This is often due to the fact that certain opportunities because of the time element involved and has kept some from working. We are going to have to reassign a number of boxes unless the owner of the box brings it to the attention of the Post Office. Someone would eliminate the duplication of making up the box numbers.

A new system of numbering the boxes was going to have to reassign the number of the boxes. Someone would eliminate the duplication of making a second box, to be used for choosing the "line at least resistance.

It's All Greek

Fraternity Pin; Symbol Or Ornament?

by MELL BUSBEE and SHIRLEY YOKLEY

Many fraternity pledges will soon be initiated into various brotherhoods on the Greek字母, and many will then find themselves wondering what it should to them? Will they live up to all the ideals for which their individual pins stand? And let the other fellow assume responsibility for their ideals for which the pin stands?

As a pledge, one should attempt to become as Greek as possible, trying to live up to all the ideals for which their individual pins stand, and at the same time strive to improve their organization. The fraternity should be something to be proud of, something that reflects the best qualities of the individual

Cheek Adds Strength To HPC Squad
by RED CHURCH

Wayne Cheek, a twenty-year-old junior from Morehead City, N. C., recently joined the ranks of the high-stepping High Point College basketball club, and has shown himself to be a big help to the Panthers' quest for the championship. Coach Virgil Yow had nothing but praise for the 6-7 Cheek during a practice session earlier this week.

In only four games of play Cheek has already established himself as a conference threat with an average of 11.5 points and four rebounds per game. His floor work and play- making have been outstanding.

During high school at Morehead City, Cheek was twice placed on the All-Conference Team and made the All-State Team his senior year. He attended Coach Yow's summer basketball clinic while in his senior year. Yow recalls that Cheek was one of the more promising players.

After high school he accepted a basketball scholarship to the University of Richmond and played under Coach Lex Hoke. He was a starter at guard for the Spiders of Richmond for one and one-half years.

One year ago Cheek, remembering a scholarship offer from HPU, called Coach Yow and made arrangements for him to return to North Carolina to complete his education.

Two main assets fans get are his size, 6'7" and 225 lbs., and his basketball IQ. He attended all the home games during his freshman year. During that year he worked at his father's hardware store in Morehead City, played basketball on his own time, and his favorite pastime is playing the base-balls. He is a very quiet individual who has a friendly smile.

Cheek is admired and expected by his teammates, and is the topic of discussion in many basketball conversations around the campus. He is regarded as a key figure in any chance which the Panthers have this year of taking the North State Conference championship this season.

Undefeated Lambda Chi Wins Volleyball Tourney

The Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity produced an undefeated team to win the intramural volleyball championship. All-Star Team Dominated by Delta Sigs; Lambda Chis

Lambda Chis

Delta Sigma Phi and Lambda Chi Alpha placed three men each on the All-Star Volleyball Team to dominate the selections. Two men were selected from Theta Chi, and one from Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Lambda Chi, Delta Sig, and Theta Chi deservedly won their spots in intramural volleyball this year by having so many men from all three fraternities selected as All-Stars.

The All-Star Team is composed of Fred VonCannon, Dale Brown, and Charles Patterson of Lambda Chi, Daryl McGuire, Bob Weinberry, and Bob Varnay of Delta Sig, Don Sellers and Harold Long of Theta Chi, and Marion Sull of Sigma Eps.

Lambda Chi's Volleyball Champs

The Lambda Chi number two team, also going undefeated, won the championship of the number two bracket.

PANTHERS MEET APPS

In Homecoming Tilt

by DALE BROWN

Two weeks remain in the North State Conference regular season. Only three games remain before what is a race for second place, High Point vs. Appalachian. Appalachian will be in Darlington this Saturday night for the annual Homecoming Game.

Next week Coach Virgil Yow's high-scoring team will travel to East Carolina in what could prove to be the Panthers' toughest contest. It is almost certain that Dennis Newell & Co. will not be a big setback on the Pirates as the 19 point victory over Eastern in the 1960 season may have been a key figure in any chance which the Panthers have this year of taking the North State Conference championship this season.

Phii Mu Wins Volleyball Tournament

by CORRY MERCHEN

The 1955 Women's Intramural Volleyball Tournament has been won by the Phi Mu ladies. A triple will be presented to the winners in the near future.

The Phi Mu team deserved the championship, they won a well organized and well coordinated team. One person stood out as the individual star over all, she did her best, and that was good enough for them to merit the championship.

The Phi Mu played the Zetas in the finals of the one night elimination tournament, winning by 25-1 and 25-14 margins.

In the preliminary contests of the evening, the Phi Mu met the independent, drawing them by a 15-35 score. The Phi Mu then went on to meet the Alpha Gaus and chalkling up another victory, 25-15. When the Zetas beat the Kappa Delta by 14-25, they grazed the sight to meet the Phi Mu in the finals, which were played on a best two out of three basis.

Miss Hood, women's intramural director, said that all of the teams were good teams, and that two qualities which showed up particularly on the Phi Mu team were good teamwork and city ability.

The reason for the two types of sports was that women's volleyball rule changes have been changed, they are now the same as men's rules.

APPALACHIAN VS. HPC

Miss Hood is fishing and hunting. He is a Business Administration major who attended Coach Vow's summer camp for the High Point College Intramural Club which is currently holding down the fifth spot in league competition (7-5). Appalachian has a young ball club which is currently holding down the fifth spot in league competition (7-5). Miss Hood recalls that Cheek was one of the more promising players.

Cheek is a very quiet individual who has a friendly smile. When he was written, the Catalpa of Western Carolina, led by Swain's Johnson, held down the top position with a fine 18-2 record. The Purple Panthers of High Point met this high-flight quintet on Wednesday night at Columbus in a "must game," since High Point stood in second place one-half game out with a 9-9 record.

High Point moved into the second place slot last Saturday night when Coach Bob Light's Appalachian Mountainies dumped Lowell Elpsey's High Point for place to the number three spot (3) with a 910. The Panther's second place spot will be in High Point Saturday night for the annual Homecoming Game.

Third and nearly Dick White's and Tommy Bellar led the Bears of Lenoir Rhyne into their Saturday night in the final regular season game for both squads. The Bears already own one own win (8-9) over Coach Yow's club in a highly disputed game two weeks ago and will be tough to beat.

In the Homecoming game with the Mountainiers on Saturday, the Panthers will have their work cut out for them. Appalachian has a young ball club which is currently holding down the fifth spot in league competition (7-5). I said, "The book's value is two purposes: to supply the students with their academic materials and to provide a place for a small part of their social intercourse." Even at that," said Pat, "the social intercourse at this school is not the most trivial nature. Most of the students here have no grasp whatsoever of things universal, and that's the reason any idea how to supply the universal to the daily. Don't misunderstand me! Almost all of the students here have been satisfied with ideals, but they are fragmentary, distorted, and often irreconcilable. Ideals should be the blend of human emotions and logic. They should be abstract and intimate in order to be universal, yet they should not be rigid in order to be flexible and useful. Even steel has to be welded before it can be made into a useful shape. However, if they are too flexible, they lose their objectness and ultimate universality. It is not as impossible to turn the other cheek in each instance as it is to take an eye for an eye in each instance. The former is too flexible, and the latter is too rigid."

Gerry said, "I have noticed that in this campus the majority of the ideals exhibited pertain only to the ideals that were presented to the students. I have also noticed that although most of the students strive to keep their ideals pure, they almost invariably confuse ideals with adjectives. The two faults stem from this confusion."

I said, "There is as much difference between idealism and ideology as there is between religion and communism. In fact, the difference is the same."

"True," said Pat. "And there are some persons who unconsciously confuse ideology with ideals in order to stir emotions and warp minds, for their own selfish ends. Therefore, it is not enough merely to instill students with ideals. They must be shown the relationship that exists between ideals and daily life. They must be shown the correct uses of ideals through logic. They must be taught to reason with their emotions and emotionalism with their reason."

CHADWICK AND WINTER

Frosty didn't last long in this clutch! Winter came early and white as the High Point campus received several blankets of snow. Classes not unusual but the most popular items around HPC were cafeteria trays and the icy walk to science hall.

Students Probe Cheating

Philadelphia, Pa.—(AP) — A report submitted to Temple's Student Council Committee on Cheating calls for student representation on the University's Academic Council and second, urges University officials to make the necessary arrangements for a system whereby all students may take final examinations. Other conclusions in the report include:

1. Cheating is an almost totally accepted practice at the University.

2. Since it is apparent that a rule, which is so rigid, will be accessible, no examinations should ever be re-used. Exams should be changed every semester.

3. It seems that in some cases new examinations leak out to students. This may call for tighter supervision in the makeup and duplication of exams.

4. All too often proctoring is a farce. More attentive and alert proctor should be utilized to discourage any cheating that may take place during the examination itself.

The report taken by the Academic Discipline Committee should be published to make students aware of the penalties incurred through cheating.

Debate In Model UN

Last weekend, Greensboro was the site of extensive debate on three of the most pressing issues before the United Nations. The second annual Model United Nations Assembly, sponsored by the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement, was held at the High Point Market Street Methodist Church and Greensboro College. Delegations representing 40 view model of the United Nations during the session two divisions were delivered. The keynote address was given by Robert Lee Bobbitt, a member of the North Carolina Senate and chairman of the Committee on the World Federation Movement. In an address entitled "The World in Action," Mr. Bobbitt stated that we, as a generation, have a great opportunity to reach the goal of world peace. He said that the struggle for peace, with its great power, holds in our hands the destiny of all mankind. He also emphasized that we can achieve world peace through international cooperation but through international cooperation alone we cannot challenge the south of today to develop their thoughts and minds to the cause of peace.

THE DECLINE OF Kappa Chi

The founding purpose of the Kappa Chi Fellowship was to stimulate better fellowship, build professional spirit, and deepen the devotional lives among its members. What has happened to that purpose? Kappa Chi has become over-run by a majority of irresponsible and irresponsible students, a situation which will not fade. Our organization with such potential is in danger of extinction. The present situation under the Kappa Chi Fellowship is not inspiring to its members and on this campus. May we pick leaders with ability and a vision that will not fade.

Dear Editor:
An inactive organization, whether be it an international, national, state, local, or campus level, if an organization fails to take a stand on issues which lie close under its instruction, it may be classified as an inactive organization. The Student Government Association of the High Point College has a number of strange from this association. A brotherhood of the nature that Kappa Chi was meant to be, could be in inspiring influence on its members and on this campus. What has happened to the organization with such potential sink into the dusk of irrelevancy. A majority, even more than the inactive of our SGA is a apparent lack of concern over the problems. Why do we care? We often hear the complaint that we have no rights, but are proving to our selves or anyone else that we deserve any rights? Whose responsibility it is to solve the problems that we have allowed to be solved.

Dr. Arthur LeVey New Addition To Athletic Depart.

Dr. Arthur LeVey, McCollough Hall dorm counselor and professor of Romance languages, has been added to the staff of the athletic department in the capacity of tennis coach.

After graduating from the University of Denver and receiving his doctorate from the University of Chicago, LeVey entered the U. S. Army in 1935 as a commissioned officer and retired from the service as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Making a source study of ancient Spanish ballads for publication has been of major interest in his life, and this far has taken twenty years of hard work. This project is his life interest.

LeVey faces a tough job when he enters this tennis season. He will have to begin on a tremendous job of rebuilding in order to put the Panthers in contention for a top spot in the North State Conference. Tony Adams and Tommy Lofis are the only returnees from last season's tennis squad. Bill Hoogele, runner-up in singles play in the conference last year, was lost through graduation last year, was lost through graduation.

LeVey, a very conscientious worker, has worked his squad for the past few weeks in a series of round robin play in order to determine what talent there is at hand. When this is completed he will announce the team for the coming season.

HPC Diamond Squad Opens Spring Drills

Spring baseball drills began last week as Dr. Jack Netcher started preparations for the opening of a High Point baseball season. Netcher, who is in his third year of coaching and launching of a High Point baseball season.

Opening day followed a continuation of the team's practice with the able assistance of Chuck Hartrum, to build a ball club for a baseball championship in the North State Conference. Netcher stated that he is building a new team this year centered around Charlie McCorcle and Darrell Smith the returning lettermen. He expects a good sea-

Catamount Squad Wins Crown

Pam Long and Tommy I^oftis are the only returnees from last season's tennis squad. In an effort to improve on last year's showing, Coach Earl Ruth and his Catawba Indians upset defending champion Western Carolina in the opening round by a score of 67-41. The Indians displayed a well-oiled offense, it was sheer power and rebounding ability which enabled the Catawbas to win the first 20 minutes and hold a slim 32-31 halftime lead. With Captain Steve Ander, playing the way the charged-up Panthers proved to be the turning point as Western Carolina moved on to the final against Catawba.

Coach Ed Netcher in his Catawba Indians, ranked seventh and spot-ting a dramatic offensive conference, went into the tournament unnoticed, but came out of it with a performance that fans will talk about for a long time to come. Figured to appear only one night, Woody Herrich and teammates fooled the experts by first knocking off third seeded East Carolina 76-70 and then second placed Lenox Rhyme 58-53 to reach the final.

If this was not enough, Coach Ruth's team then battled Western Carolina in an even terms before falling 30-36. With the exception of Hoff-ritz, Catawba boasted an outstanding player, so their great showing must be attributed to fine team play, an outstanding coach in Ruth, plus the fact that their student body backed them every inch of the way. Many fans thought that the seed was coming off the Lexington gym when the Indians upset defending champion Lenox Rhyme on Friday night.

Coach Gudger had said that this was going to have to be the year if his team was ever going to reign as conference champions. All year long the Catawbas played a well-oiled off-ense, with power and rebounding ability which enabled the Catawbas to go through the way. Randall Shields, 6'8 3/4, Swee-nee, 6'7 1/2, Donnie Mielke, 6'7 1/2, and Harris Pryor, 6'5 1/2 plus reserve Jack Trager made up the working squad for the Indians.

Track Team Meets

Pfeiffer in Opener

High Point's track swings into action against Pfeiffer on March 20 to conjecture a new season. The Pan-thers Thittcalds who placed fourth in last year's North State Conference competition last year boast a much stronger team lineup than last year at this time and are looking to win a much better season.

Leading by only four points, 35-31, Catawba Indians upset defending champion Western Carolina on even terms before railing Catawbas. Leading by only four points, 35-31, Catawba Indians upset defending champion Western Carolina on even terms before railing Catawbas.

Panthers Gain Semi-Finals

Overall power and superior rebounding ability which enabled the Catawbas to go through the way. Randall Shields, 6'8 3/4, Swee-nee, 6'7 1/2, Donnie Mielke, 6'7 1/2, and Harris Pryor, 6'5 1/2 plus reserve Jack Trager made up the working squad for the Indians.

Captain Steve Ander drives towards the basket as he vainly tries to lead the Panthers to victory against Western Carolina in the North State Conference Tournament.

Do You Think for Yourself? (ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS AND FIND OUT!)*

1. If you were about to buy an automobile, would you (A) study the road-test reports in the magazines, or (B) select the car that looks best to you? A B

2. When confronted with a menu with lots of foreign terms, do you (A) ask the waiter's recommendation? A B

3. When invited to play an unfamiliar tourist game, do you (A) read the rules carefully before playing, or (B) accept, hoping to enjoy yourself no matter who attends, or (B) try to learn the rules as you go along? A B

HPC Tuition To Be Increased

President Dan H. Cooke in a statement, March 14, announced the pressing need for additional financial aid for the college to cover the next four years. Cooke stated that $800 per student would be necessary, for the budget from sources other than student fees.

The High Point College Endowment also was reported to be far below the average figure. Present Endowment income amounts to approximately $41.00 per student, far below the desired $2000.00 per student. It was pointed out that no student pays fully for his education due to the added financial assistance from endowments, grants, and church aid.

A ten-year report on the college will be distributed to students and alumni during the summer months according to Cooke. This report is to be complete financial statement.

During the report an additional raise in student fees was announced. Authorized by the Board of Trustees to meet added operating costs for the coming year, the new figure will be $865.00. Pointing out the state wide increase, Cooke presented the following figures from other liberal arts schools.

Reply To Criticism

Dear Editor:

Criticism is desirable, and rightly so. To the proper thing to do when criticized is to ask the question, "Is the accusation true? or as it speaks today, "Is it about right?" If it is true, do as it is true, act accordingly.

Personal criticism is one thing; professional criticism is another. A news editor is not immune to the responsibility for printing facts accurately.

Kappa Chi is an honorary fraternity composed of undergraduate students who are preparing themselves for full-time service in the Christian field. We have not only pre-committal students and also social workers, ministers of music, youth workers, and others who are preparing for other fields of Christian service, a delphi are included within the Christian fold.

To be sure, we are purpose to stimulate better fellowship, to build professional spirit, and to deepen the devotional lives of our members; but the fraternity does not place emphasis upon a strong, central control in its members. We encourage our members to spread out and participate in religious activities.

With a membership of 600 plus, we have representatives in most religious activities and organizations, with the fraternity. We believe this to be more valuable to the Christian cause than to build a large, tightly controlled fraternity. The result of this is that our members are scattered on the campus, students to students, and as a member of those who struggle to keep the college alive.

The college at last has a physical foundation in the recent auditorium, science building, gym, dorm, and student center and library additions. Now we must move on to the goal we have not yet attained. The goal is not money. Finances, of course, must be taken into consideration, but the pressing need in the next ten years will not be buildings and endowments, it will be academic respect. Only when it has reached this goal can High Point lay claim to real maturity as a college.

Barber Declines HPC Presidency

The Progressive Party For The Betterment of Student Workers, one of the three political parties recently formed on the High Point College campus, seems to be leading the party movement in terms of membership gains. Gerald A. Wil- liams, Party Chairman, announced today that 998 of the college's 1000 students are trying to form the other party. He also stated that little was known of his position alter they had received it.

Barber made a statement to the Better Committee, assisted by Edd Head and Steve Afendos, that Robert's Hall is an architectural monster. The speaker's attitude toward his old alma mater is optional, but the press while drinking soda pop at the terminal auditorium. Say, has anybody got a spare can of air refresher?

IMA MUDFACE

Mudface To Press Suit

ima Mudface, beloved sophomore of HPC and a major in abnormal sex- ology, is pressuring suit against High Point College for a grade she was given on a term paper. Miss Mudface leveled charges against the administration for "refusing to look at the sensible side of her situation." The case will be opened by judge B. A. Williams, assisted by S. H. E. Carlisle, dean of construction.

Hindolnt McFarren, Chairman of the Let's-Make-High Point College Big - If - War - Can - Make - It - Better Committee, announced today that 90% of the college's 1000 students already signed the community-affiliated party's charter. The other two students, Williams explained, are trying to form the other parties. Williams accredited the Party's popularity to its enthralling platform. "We simply ask more to offer," Williams said. He also praised the efforts of Edd Head and Steve Afendos, the Party's membership chairman.

The Progressive Party platform consists primarily of two points. (1) Liberal wages for students who attend classes, and (2) Revision of the grading system, eliminating "D's and "F's.

Other planks in the platform include abandonment of rules governing Woman's Hall, legalized chicken-fried steak, free love, and a bar in the floor of Roberts Hall. Williams says the Party's steering committee is "opti- mistic."
Dear Editor:

I am durn mad. I've got a right to be.

I think your paper stinks. It wouldn't make a good grade of packing material. Every article in its spores of pseudo-intellectualism, lofty serious idealism, false patriotism and stupid wisdom.

You're mad? I think I deserve to get better reading material. I think you, dear editor, aren't worth the food you complain about. And you know it. Neither is the paper worth the ink it's printed with.

How you got elected, I'll never know, but it was a bad mistake. If I had been here last year, I would have personally run against you just to keep you out of office.

Who do you think you are, issuing in a paper like this? You probably won't print this letter because you are afraid of the truth. And while I'm on this subject, you put out a better paper than you do. If you think you have been justly criticized with that thing you call a newspaper published by the students of High Point College, I'm going to have you investigated, and if possible, kicked out of school on charges of truancy. Just wait, I'll get you yet.

Sincerely,
C.P.H.

(An old friend of your ours. The views expressed by our kind reader do not necessarily express the sentiments of the HI-PO staff and editors. C.P. H. will meet me behind the gymnasium tonight at 2:00, I'll be more than glad to take this problem with him. While the HI-PO staff does not claim to be a perfect publication, we feel that it could be.)

IN STUDENT RIOT

This group of obviously angry students formed a picket line around McCulloch Hall last night and demanded higher wages. The protest resulted from extended working hours brought on by new scholastic standards. Names of the group are withheld for disciplinary reasons. A member of the secret police is shown at right talking to an unidentified union official.

Students Riot In Protest Against Academic Standards

From THE INTER-PRIZE

300 non-students filed out of McCulloch Hall last night, set fire to four campus buildings, and then formed a picket line around the dormitory, daring College officials to come near them.

Wally Heather, a spokesman for the group, said that the riot and strike were staged in an attempt to "get more student freedom and to alleviate the tension produced by unacademic advertising copy for the next issue of the HI-PO is April 15."

Students said that the students would "face on setting fires and rioting until things get under fire from machine guns, shaving cream cans and fire extinguishers."

When College officials and the police had been driven away, the students celebrated by holding a marshmallow roast in front of the smoking rubble that had once been McCulloch Hall. One bitter student, licking marshmallow from his fingers, said, "I'm glad we did it."

College officials attributed the rioting to "Spring Fever." and promised that an investigation would be made.

BRED FARBER
OFF CAMPUS

I lit another Marlboro and drove away from the campus. I looked at the chick beside me. She was chewing her bubble gum and blowing big bubbles which broke and stuck to her cute little pig nose. This girl was crazy. Nobody blows bubbles like she does.

It was raining, and my windshield wipers made a romantic rip-rip sound as they hunged against the hood. I threw away the Marlboro, lit another one, and watched the windshield fog as I blew the smoke against it. It was a good sight. The rain poured into the car under the dash and over my feet. I wiped my toes and felt the water squirt in my shoes. It was spring and I felt good.

We drove down Main Street and I saw that a Lash Larue movie was playing at the Blasco. I turned to the chick beside me. She was picking bubblegum from the end of her nose. "Say, babe," I said, "Let's go see this Lash Larue movie."

The chick looked at me with a hurt expression on her face and told me that she didn't want to see the Lash Larue movie. I told her that I wanted to see the movie, so we stopped in front of the theatre. She looked at me with those big eyes and a tear rolled down her cheek over the globes of gum. "I wants go park," she said.

I lit another Marlboro, said nothing, and backed the car out into the street. The street was beside the campus and parked in front of the HI-PO office.

Nobody makes me miss a Lash Larue movie.

Wesley Picture Unveiled

The unveiling of a portrait of Susannah Wesley, by Frank O. Salbury, took place on Feb. 22. The picture was unveiled in the classrooms of Susannah Wesley Hall by Roy Lottier, five year old granddaughter of Mrs. Annie Mae Powell. Susannah Wesley Hall is the only building on the HPC campus which is named after a figure in Methodist history. The hall was named for the mother of Charles and John Wesley, early leaders of Methodism.

Mr. Powell presented the picture to the committee of women in High Point, with this invitation. Dr. D. H. Cook accepted the ladie's gift and bid the college a welcome song.

Frank O. Salbury is a noted portraitist. This picture is a work of art that could well have been displayed in a museum. The picture was framed by Mr. Gudly Stem of Swap Mirror Frames of High Point.

Ignorance Is Basis Of Riots

by BEN ZAMBRANA

A few weeks ago the Latin-American edition of Time magazine published a story which reported some of the less favorable aspects of Bolivian social and economic life, and contained a formula to remedy the situation. The formula as worked out by an American diplomat suggested that Bolivia was in bad shape, and its territory distributed among its neighbors. National dignity was low, and resentment was intense, but by no means in the right direction.

The incensed spirits of thousands, without realizing that the U. S. Government has little to do with what a political artist, plainly, has done a good job with the windows of the U. S. Embassy building.

But the story goes deeper than a mere stimulation of action. Bolivia has received U. S aid in dollars which amounts to 92 million over the six year period of economic crisis following the nationalization of the mines and the agrarian reform. Indeed, anti-American riots are a paradox, and I too with Shakespeare "know not what I am, nor flying, vanishing, building, drunkens, or any taint of ice." Yet oddly enough the average Bolivian is completely uninterested in what is taking place across the Andes and even exists. Can he then he charged guilty of Thrasymuchus when he is assumed to show in action that he is a man, not a monster? He is as conscious of national defense as any freedoms loving being, only more sensitive, because deep inside he knows he is trapped in the nets of ignorance and poverty, and his behavior is only a manifestation of his struggle to deliver himself from these evils. This very predilection accounts for his irresponsibility to deal with the demands of a changing world.

He lives in a country rich in resources, but poor in the know how to exploit and develop them. 12 million dollars of aid were surely not employed to fight the 68% illiteracy rate in the Bolivian population, and much less to train technicians or scientists, and today Bolivia suffers from a chronic ill. If its symptoms go unchecked, the diagnosis would show no other but the disease of ignorance. It is in Ben Jonson, "a pernicious evil, the darkness of man's life, the disturber of his reason, and common, concomitant of truth."

High Point College Coach Virgil Yow and Mrs. Yow display the award plaque presented at recent ceremonies in Kansas City, Missouri, where Yow was welcomed into Basketball's Hall of Fame. The second North Carolina coach to receive the coveted award, Yow is entering his twenty-seventh year as a coach.

Yow Enters Basketball Hall-of-Fame

by RAY SHEPPARD

High Point College swell with pride when Coach Virgil Yow was inducted into the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletes' Basketball Hall of Fame March 13, 1959. The ceremony was held in the Grand Ball Room of the minibahotel, Kansas City, Missouri. Yow holds many happy memories of 27 years of coaching.

During high school career held in Kansas City, Coach Yow along with eight other prominent men of basketball was awarded a platter commemorating him as a member of the NAA basketball Hall of Fame, a position voted by all coaches. Yow became the second coach from North Carolina and the fourteen from all over the nation to receive this honor. Attending the ceremonies were approximately 250 coaches and officials from all over the U. S.

When asked if he had anything to say regarding this honor Yow stated, "What can I say? It is one of the few things that has ever happened to me."

Coach Yow, a native of Gibsonville, N. C. and 1930 graduate from High Point College, has directed a total of 27 coaching athletics. He begins his extensive career at HPC in 1932 after completing a year of graduate work at the University of North Carolina.

For 12 consecutive years Yow received the HPC basketball coaching award as athletic director and coached baseball, basketball, and football. Finally concentrating on basketball, admittably his first love.

During eight years, 1945-1953, Yow served as coach for Hayes Hollow, a little basketball team in Winston-Salem. In the course of these eight years Yow's team was declared world champions for three consecutive two years.

In 1953 Yow returned to HPC and has remained. While serving as coach of the HPC basketball squad, Yow's teams have won three North State Conference championships and have twice been in NAA tournaments.

Amid a host of pleasant recollections from his coaching career, Coach Yow singled out one event which thrilled him most—being selected to coach the women's All-American team on its tour of South America.

Asked if he would repeat these years if he had the opportunity, Yow replied, "If thinking of money, no, I wouldn't coach. But if I wanted a happy, enjoyable life in which I could work with boys, I wouldn't change a thing. This is one business in which you make plenty of lasting friendships."

Do You Think for Yourself?

1. If you get stuck on a crossword puzzle, do you (A) finally refer to a dictionary, or (B) work it out for yourself?
2. Would you rather have (A) everyone know it, or (B) only a very few know it?
3. If you were faced with two tasks, one pleasant and the other unpleasant, would you first do (A) the unpleasant task, or (B) the pleasant task?
4. Do you find yourself doing more well in an activity, do you (A) concentrate on it to improve your performance, or (B) deviate your attention to things in which you do excel?
5. Would you prefer to play tennis with an opponent you know to be (A) not as good as you, or (B) a slightly better player?
6. In deciding whether to see a movie, are you more influenced by (A) what a casual friend tells you about it, or (B) what you know of the cast and story?
7. If you were a multimillionaire, would you rather (A) give it all away now, or (B) only a very few know it?
8. Do you take more notice of someone's (A) good looks, or (B) good manners?
9. When making your choice of a filter cigarette, do you (A) act on the basis of what someone tells you, or (B) think it through for yourself?

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself... you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in everything else. Men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter... a smoking man's taste!
Plans Set For Kenton Concert

According to Spring Frolics Dance Committee Chairman, Otis Boorston, final arrangements for the April 28 concert and dance have been completed, with an event which is an annual purpose of the SCA, college, Board of Kenton and his orchestra.

This year's concert will be held from seven to eight p.m. in the Alumni Gymnasium and will be open to the public. Students may pick up their concert tickets April 21, 22, and 23 at the SCA office or in the Foyer of Roberts Hall. All students who have attended the college during the last two semesters are entitled tickets. Approximately 2,200 tickets will be available to outsiders at $1.25 per ticket. Tentative plans include the crowning of the HPC Queen, the opening concert, and a reception contributed 135,000 to the Board of Visitors Faculty relationships.

activities, Greek activities, student-religious activities, and student-faculty leaders, the board listened to campus. Later, meeting with student leaders, the Methodist group.

The visiting group annually inspects the college and has served as an officer and in the foyer of Roberts Hall. The Dance Committee includes Moll Bush, chairman, Bob Williams, secretary-treasurer, committee, May 24 at the campus, according to the head of the Methodist group.

The Spring Frolics Dance will be in Harrison Hall from nine to twelve and will be open only to High Point College students and their dates. Tickets priced at $3.00 per couple will be sold beginning April 22 in the SCA office and in the foyer of Roberts Hall.

The Dance Committee includes Moll Bush, chairman, Bob Williams, secretary-treasurer, committee, May 24 at the campus, according to the head of the Methodist group.

AS OUR SAND RUNS LOW

With this issue the present series of The HI-PO will come to an end. It has been a happy and joyful experience.

The interest of our readers has been gratifying enough to outweigh all early morning hours behind a typewriter in the tower. Never before has the future of The HI-PO faced such a bright outlook. The Editor column has been filled with so many interesting and thought-provoking letters. Very few before has the student's voice been heard so strongly and intelligently.

With this closing issue I should like to extend a personal thank you to all who have made this year's HI-PO possible. I am glad to extend a special thanks to Mr. Weathers, advisor, for his unceasing support and interest and for his deep appreciation. In addition to Mr. Withers have been the student staff, the editors Fred Barber, Pat Blumstein, and Lin Barbour, have rendered service far beyond the line of duty.

Our thanks also to last year's editor, Kyle Stirling, who has dropped in regularly to offer advice, opinion and congratulations. In addition to Mr. Withers have been the student staff, the editors Fred Barber, Pat Blumstein, and Lin Barbour, have rendered service far beyond the line of duty.

The AMERICAN DREAM?

There once was a time when life was taken for its worth, when Khruchchev was just another foreign name, when happiness knew no bounds. Then a new nation was born and the world never looked at all the same.

The world of this nation is in a long and good year. Here once was a time when life was taken for its worth, when happiness knew no bounds. Then a new nation was born and the world never looked at all the same.
